President Blasts 'Nervous Nellies' On Viet Nam War

Chicago Democratic Group Hears Johnson Decry Senate Debaters

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Johnson, warning that failure to halt Red aggression in Viet Nam couid bring on a general Asian war, has lashed out at critics of his policy as "Nervous Nellies" who would cut and run under fire.

"Put away all the childish divisive things, if you want the maturity and the unity that is the mortar of a nation's greatness," the Chief Executive exhorted about 7,000 persons at a Democratic fund-raising rally in Chicago last night.

"I do not think that those men who are out there fighting for us tonight think we should enjoy the luxury of fighting each other back home," he said, appealing to all Americans to "come together as a people and as a nation" and support his Viet Nam policy.

The fighting tenor of John- the pattern of his political appearances thus far this year. In two previous affairs at Washington and Houston, Tex., he also urged Democrats to stand up for U.S. policy in Viet Nam before the voters, despite criticism from within their own party and from the Republicans.

The President told the Chicago rally that as of Tuesday morning 1,705 Americans had died in Viet Nam this year. "But I tell you that, if we fail in frustrating this aggression, the war that would surely come in Asia would produce casualties in the hundreds of thousands—perhaps in the millions.

"Your government is determined to resist this aggression at the minimum cost to our own people, to our allies and to the world," the President said.

"There will be some Nervous Nellies and some who will become frustrated and bothered and break ranks under the strain and turn on their own leaders, their own country and their own fighting men," he said.

Farm Boy, 15, Slays Crazed Mountain Man

Girl Not Harmed; Killer Wounds Another Lawman

SHADE GAP, Pa. (UPI) —Peggy Ann Bradnick, 17, kidnaped a week ago by a long-sought deranged sniper who turned killer, was rescued unharmed today. The kidnaper was shot to death at point-blank range by a 15-year-old farm boy.

The boy, Larry Rubeck, fired a 12-gauge shotgun through a window of his home at nearby Fort Littleton at the kidnaper, William D. Hollenbaugh, 44, who was standing on a porch.

GIRL CRIES

Peggy Ann cried over and over to rescuers:

"Thank God . . . Thank God . . . I'm safe . . . I'm safe."

A short time before his death, the kidnaper—who shot FBI agent Terry Anderson to death yesterday — shot and wounded a deputy sheriff and commandeered his automoble. He put Peggy Ann on the floor in the rear of the car and wounded deputy, Francis Sharpe, in the front seat and drove to the Rubeck farm home at Fort Littleton, two miles from Shade Gap, eluding hundreds of armed police closing in on the sniper's hideaway.

BOY ALERT

The Rubeck boy saw the auto from a barn where he was doing chores. He ran inside the house, grabbed a .12-gauge shotgun and yelled to his mother:

"Hit the floor, mom. That crazy mountain man is on the porch."

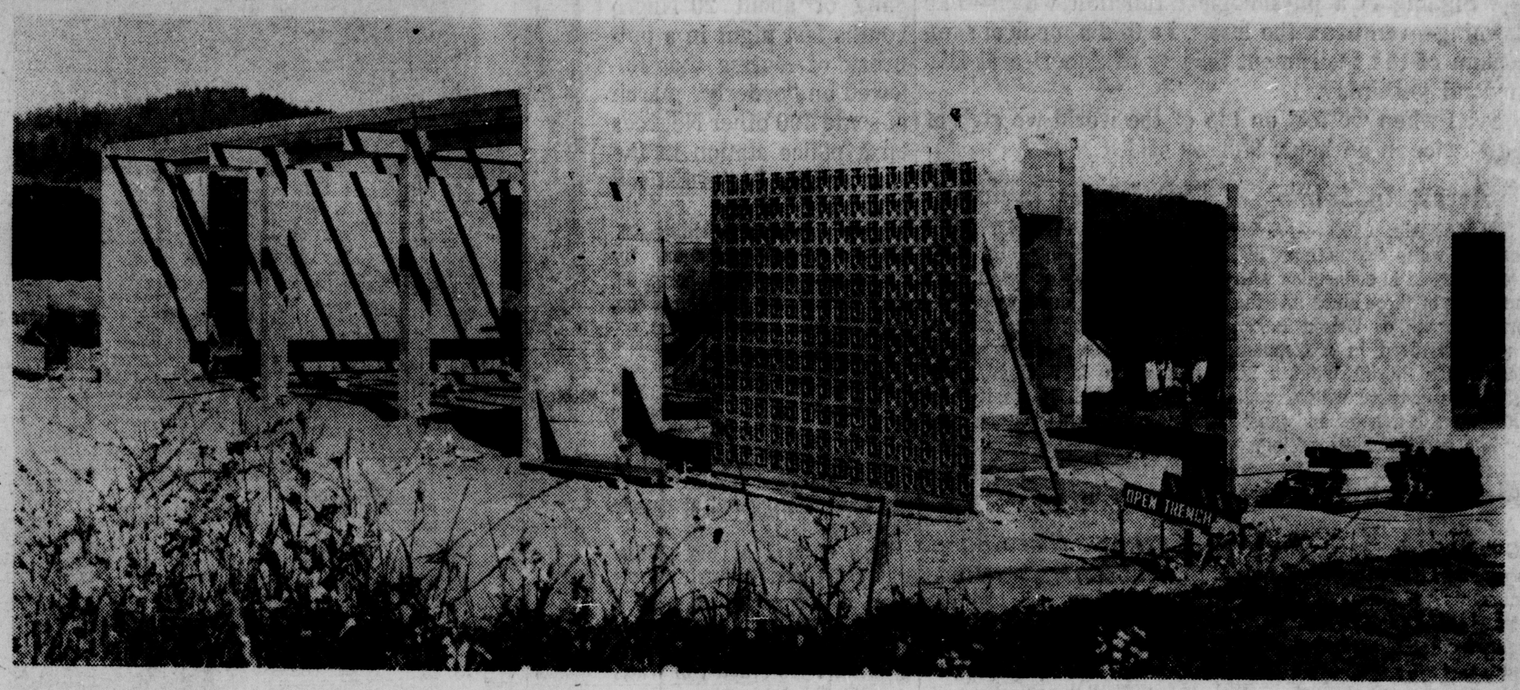
Peggy Ann, the wounded deputy sheriff and the d ying Hollenbaugh were rushed to the hospital in McConnellsburg.

At the hospital Dr. Russell McLucas, Fulton County Coroner, said:

"Sharpe is in fair condition. He was wounded once in the abdomen. He is undergoing surgery, and will survive.

"Peggy Ann is fine, excellent. I cannot confirm that there was any physical abuse."

Peggy Ann was kidnaped by Hollenbaugh at gunpoint last Wednesday afternoon while she and five younger brothers and sisters were walking from a school bus up a dirt road to their mountain home near Shade Gap.



CAUSE OF FUROR—This vehicle maintenance building being erected beside Shoreline Highway near Point Reyes Station by the State Division of Highways has angered West Marin residents. They say it wasn't given planning permission, constitutes a traffic hazard, and is oppressive in appearance.

Building Goes Up; County Can't Stop It

By PAT PERRY

A concrete block vehicle maintenance building erected by the State Division of Highways near Point Reyes National Seashore without planning permission has brought a flood of complaints from residents, who term it ugly, oppressive and a traffic hazard.

The garage is beside Shoreline Highway, seven-tenths of a mile south of Point Reyes Station on state-owned property. A one-story building, it is about half complete.

NOT REQUIRED

Marin County is powerless to do anything about it, according to county planning department officers. Under California law, the Division of Highways is not required to get county planning permission, or even a building permit.

Zoning administrator Thomas E. Cordill has been listening to complaints about the structure for weeks, he said, but "in law there isn't anything we can force them to do."

He has written to the Division of Highways' District 4 in San Francisco, requesting a discussion of the building and the problems it is creating. He's also written to angry residents, advising them to write to the division too.

USE PERMIT

A Division of Highways spokesman, Gene Raleigh, said in San Francisco yesterday that he did not know whether a use permit had been obtained for the building. He said the building is to replace a leased building in Point Reyes Station.

State law requires that state, counties and cities do not have to comply with zoning and building regulations of the area in which they operate, explained Cordill. A prime example is school construction.

"I many instances a governmental jurisdiction will cooperate with the local agency in locating and developing property, but in this case it didn't," he said.

LOCAL AGENCY

West Marin residents say the concrete block building is too close to the road, oppressive in appearance, and there seems to be no room for landscaping.

The two and one-third acre site, state-owned land, is next to a trout farm.

"The visibility down the highway when you're coming out on to the highway is pretty substantially restricted," said Cordill, "and we have a concern as to the traffic hazard."

The facility was designed by the State Division of Architecture, said the Division of Highways spokesman.

Sausalito's City Manager Resigns

Charles A. Brown, city manager of Sausalito since February, 1960, submitted his resignation to the city council last night, effective next month.

Brown said after the council meeting that he is taking a job with the State Department's Agency for International Development and is slated to be assigned to South America. He said he didn't know exactly what his task would be.

Brown told the council he would be leaving after the council's June 21 meeting.

His announcement was met with a round of praise from council members for his contributions to the city and for doing "an admirable job."

Mayor Mel Wax said the council regretted the need for Brown to leave Sausalito, but "the offer was one he could hardly turn down."

Councilman Eleanor O'Hara Chapin said people don't realize how hard a city manager works.

Brown, a native of Oxnard, Ventura County, was administrative assistant to the city manager of Lodi, San Joaquin County, before becoming city manager in Sausalito.

He will be the second Sausalito official to join the Agency for International Development in just over two years. Former Sausalito Mayor Paul Micou joined the organization in April, 1964.

Ex-Marinite Third Painter Case Death

Sture Youngren, 55, a Painters Union welfare fund official, who was in business in Marin County with his father in the 1930s, killed himself with a pistol in Carmichael, Sacramento County.

His body was found by a Sacramento County district attorney's investigator who wen to the office after Youngren failed to appear for questioning at the district attorney's office regarding embezzlement from the welfare fund.

He and his father, Olaf Youngren, ran a livery stable in San Rafael and supplied horses for students of San Rafael Military Academy, Dominican College and other private schools. He later went into the insurance business.

THIRD DEATH

His reported suicide in Sacramento was the third violent death in a Painters Union scandal that included shotgun slayings of two San Francisco Bay Area men.

Youngren was administrator of fringe benefits of the union's welfare fund and, according to Sacramento police, had admitted taking about $60,000 from the fund.

Hours after he was interviewed yesterday by sheriff's officers, Youngren was found dead in his insurance office in Carmichael, with a .45-caliber automatic pistol nearby.

IMPLICATED CALL

Police said today that before his death Youngren implicated Sacramento painting contractor Norman Call, 46, one of the five men arraigned in San Francisco yesterday on charges of conspiracy to murder Dow Wilson, 47, an official of the union.

One of the five suspects, Richard Rock, 33, of Mill Valley, broke down and sobbed in the municipal courtroom of Judge Donald Constine.

"What are they doing to me? What are they trying to do to me?" he cried hysterically. His

McNAMARA CALLS FOR CHINA TIES

Diplomatic Relations, Even Exchanging Military Observers Asked To Avoid War

MONTREAL (AP) — U. S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara called today for steps to "build bridges" toward Red China as a means of avoiding war.

"We can do so with properly balanced trade relations, diplomatic contacts, and in some cases even by exchanges of military observers," McNamara said.

In a speech to the American Soviety of Newspaper Editors, McNamara spoke in philosophical terms of U.S. relationships with potential enemies as well as with underdeveloped countries and with allied nations.

He made only bare mention of Viet Nam and then only indirectly.

The defense secretary said "breaching the isolation of great nations like Red China reduces the danger of potentially catastrophic misunderstandings, and increases the incentive on both sides to resolve disputes by reason rather than by force."

As a step toward development of a worldwide "community of effort," McNamara suggested that every young person in the United States should be asked to give two years of service, whether in the military, the Peace Corps, or "some other volunteer development work at home and abroad."

"We could encourage other countries to do the same and we could work out exchange programs much as the Peace Corps is already planning to do," McNamra said.

He noted that suggestions along this line have been criticized as inappropriate while the United States is in a shooting war.

"But I believe precisely the opposite is the case," McNamara said. "It is more appropriate now than ever.

"For it would underscore what our whole purpose is in Viet Nam — and indeed anywhere in the world where coercion, or injustice, or lack of decent opportunity still holds sway."

Such an approach, McNamara said, "would make meaningful the central concept of security: a world of decency and development."

U.S. Troops Hit By Bombs By Mistake

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON — U. S. Air Force fighter bombers accidentally bombed troops of the First Infantry Division in War Zone C, killing two Americans and wounding 58, it was announced today.

U.S. spokesmen said the accident last Thursday was the fault of the ground troops, who placed smoke markers incorrectly after calling for an air strike against the Communists. Air Force jets showered the area with deadly anti-personnel bombs.

Rebels shot down a U. S. spotter plane over Da Nang late today. U. S. Marines quietly took over a Da Nang River bridge disputed between rebel and government troops in that hotbed of northern dissidence.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's opponents poured 500 more anti-government infantrymen into the city. And 200 men from a detachment of rangers already based there switched to the rebel side. That boosted the rebel ranks to more than 1,000 men, against the 2,500 Vietnamese

New Artificial Heart Patient Awake And Well

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A retired Navy man was "awake and doing well" today after becoming the second patient within three weeks to have a partial artificial heart implanted in his chest.

Walter L. McCans, 61, Woodinville, Wash., received the device to assist his heart's pumping in an operation performed yesterday by a cardiovascular team at Methodist Hospital.

A hospital statement said McCans was taken to surgery to have an aortic ball valve inserted in his heart. He was described as in "rather severe left ventricle heart failure" when he entered the operating room.

Afterward the hospital would say only that "The surgical operation was successful."

Bolinas Fires Secretary —She Didn't Deposit Money

The secretary to the Bolinas Beach Public Utility District board was fired last night at a special board meeting after it was learned she had not deposited any money into the county treasury since last Sept. 24.

Mrs. Jacque Gianola, $175 per month secretary to the board for the past two years, was replaced by Mrs. Dorothy Paul.

"Mrs. Gianola got behind in her work and it was found necessary to change secretaries," board president John S. Lancaster explained today.

The special unannounced meeting was called yesterday afternoon after officials from the county auditor's office went to the district office in Bolinas Mesa Clubhouse and took $3,397 in cash and checks from a desk file and some of the board's records.

"We had been trying for some time to get hold of the records," Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell said today. He said this is in connection with audits being made of books of all special districts in the county. "We had a number of excuses—illness, being unable to reach the persons involved.

"Finally," he said, "we noticed that there has not been a deposit made to the district since last September."

Mitchell said he sent his auditor to get the books yesterday and all were obtained except for the accounts receivable ledger. Additional records were to be taken to the Civic Center today, he added.

A cash box containing $3,397, all in checks except for $29 in cash was found and the money deposited, Mitchell said. The checks were dated from Dec. 30, 1965 through May 9, 1966.

"We are still missing our deposits between Sept. 24, and Dec. 29," Mitchell said.

Doctor Debunks Poetic Sighs

Neither. We sigh because we have to, says Dr. W. J. Murray, a University of North Carolina anesthesiologist.

Sighing is a physiological function which—like yawning—ventilates the lungs, he told a medical symposium of the Instrument Society of America at Disneyland yesterday.

Even when we feel on top of the world we sigh at least twice in an hour, Murray said.

Gang Beats Two Newsmen After Watts Area Looting

Protest March On Police Ends With Violence

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Two news magazine reporters were beaten by a gang of about 20 Negro youths last night in a outbreak of looting that followed an "orderly" march of some 500 other Negroes on a police station in the trouble-torn Watts district.

Seriously injured in the assault was Karl Fleming, 38, glos Angeles manager for Newsweek. David Moberg, 23, staff writer for the magazine, escaped with minor injuries.

BOTTLES THROWN

A fleet of police cars was dispatched to the area after bottles were thrown through store windows, shops looted of alcohol and food and a rash of fire alarms triggered at corner call boxes.

Desk officers at the station was quiet and normal patrols were in the area that was a scene of violence last August and again in March. Minor incidents have erupted in Watts over a period of years.

Fleming suffereda fractured jaw and possible concussion when he was struck on the head with a two-by-four. He was treated at Oak Park Hospital and transferred to Daniel Freeman Hospital in Inglewood, where doctors said they removed two splinters, four to six inches in length, from beneath his scalp. His condition was listed as "satisfactory."

Moberg was struck on the left side of the face and suffered a black eye and bruises, but was released after treatment at Oak Park hospi-l.

ATTACK FROM BEHIND

The two newsmen and a third Newsweek reporter had parked their car near the Gem Liquor Store on South San Pedro St. and were walking toward the store, where police already were investigating, when they were attacced from behind.

Moberg said he was walking in front of Fleming when he heerd a groan. He turned and saw Fleming, his face bloodied, fall to the pavement.

Moberg said he then was hit in the face before a Negro, who subsequently identified himself as a plainclothes police officer, came to Fleming's aid and caused the young assailants to flee.

Police said the looting apparently was not connected with a march by some 500 Negroes earlier in the evening.

Angered Doctors Ask Abortion Law Change

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. Edmund W. Overstreet, a leading San Francisco physician, said yesterday angry doctors will press for reforms in California's "archaic" abortion laws.

As many as 40 reputable San Francisco Bay Area obstetricians may soon be charged with unprofessional conduct for performing therapeutic abortions in violation of state law, the attorney general's office says.

In each case, it is alleged, the abortions were performed with permission of reputable hospitals because the mothers had been exposed to German measles and might have given birth to deformed children.

However, present state laws permit abortions only when the life of the mother is threatened by continued pregnancy.

Overstreet, vice chairman of the University of California's obstetrics department, said the operations should also be allowed in cases of rape or incest and when gross birth defects in the child are probable.

"The State Board of Medical Examiners plans to sit in judgment on physicians for unprofessional conduct," Overstreet said.

"We do not believe that violation of an archaic statute is unprofessional. Nor is it unprofessional for a physician to conduct himself in accord with the ethics of the community, the wishes of patients and the best medical judgment of doctors."

He said that doctors, angered by the threatened hearings before the Board of Medical Examiners, will lobby for legislation to liberalize California's abortion laws.

Assemblyman Anthony C. Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, has in the past sponsored a bill in the state legislature to reform abortion laws. Twice the bill has died in committee.

Last March the California Medical Association voted to support the measure, and Overstreet says the CMA will back it if it is resubmitted in the next legislative session.

Navy Reveals Bomb Loans To Air Force

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has had to borrow more than 400,000 bombs from the Navy to help carry out its air strikes in Viet Nam, it was learned today.

The Defense Department provided this figure in response to questions after the bomb diversion came to light in congressional testimony released yesterday.

PENTAGON REPORT

A Pentagon spokesman said that between Jan. 1, 1964 and April 30, 1966 "The Navy made available to the Air Force from Navy inventories slightly more than 400,000 bombs of various types and sizes."

The great bulk of this supply was turned over to the Air Force before this year, the spokesman said.

Officials reported today U.S. forces are striking heavily at what may be the Viet Cong's greatest weakness — his stomach.

RICE, SALT

Since the year began, the officials said, American troops have captured more than 7,500 tons of rice and well over 400 tons of salt.

Both are basic foods which the Communists cannot ship from North Viet Nam, as they do their arms and other supplies, but must collect in South Viet Nam.

Authorities, assuming a Communist soldier eats about two pounds of rice a day, estimate that the 7,500 tons taken represented food for 125,000 men for two months.

This does not take account of other supplies destroyed by bombing and artillery fire.

Senate Supports A-Treaty Search

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Senate gave its unanimous endorsement yesterday for President Johnson to press for a new international agreement to halt the spread of nuclear weaponry.

The 84-0 vote urged the President to take "additional" steps toward conclusion of such a treaty, which, according to Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., could be signed this year.

Clark said if the United West Germany would not own or control nuclear weapons, the Russians could be persuaded to sign such a treaty.

Harry Gold, Atom Spy, Gets Parole

LEWISBURG, Pa. (UPI) — Harry Gold, 55, convicted courier for the spy ring which gave Russia the secret of the atom bomb, was to be paroled today from the federal penitentiary here after serving 16 years of a 30 year sentence.

A central figure in the atom bomb spy trial of the 1950's, Gold gave testimony that led to the conviction and execution of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, leaders of the far-flung ring. The Rosenbergs were executed June 19, 1953.

Gold was the first member of the spy ring arrested.

He was implicated by British scientist Dr. Emil Julius Klaus Fuchs, who worked on the atom bomb project in the United States, as the man to whom he passed atom secrets.

He was sentenced on Dec. 9, 1950 on a conviction of conspiring to transmit national defense information to a foreign government from December, 1943 to November, 1947.

Atlas Fizzle May Stall Several Space Tests

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — While an investigation board probed the multimillion-dollar failure of Gemini 9's Atlas-Agena target rocket, launch crews pushed ahead today in hopes of launching astronauts Thomas P. Stafford and Eugene A. Cernan in two or three weeks.

When Stafford and Cernan can make another stab at their rendezvous and space walk mission will depend on the precise cause of yesterday's failure.

The results could affect not only the Gemini 9 date, but also several other Atlas-boosted space launchings scheduled here and at Vandenberg Air Force Base in California in the next two months.

The Air Force, which is responsible for the Gemini launch vehicles, reported five hours after yesterday's failure that one of the three engines in the Atlas booster had swiveled wildly to one side.

The other two Atlas engines continued to burn, but the vehicle was diving back toward earth instead of into space. It plunged into the Atlantic Ocean about 180 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy.

The failure was only the third in the last 52 launchings in which the Atlas has served as a booster.

Air Force Maj. Gen. Ben I. Funk, chairman of the Gemini Flight Safety Review Board, called for an immediate technical review of the failure. He said that when the exact cause is pinpointed all Atlases slated for flight will be examined to make certain the same problem would not occur.

Wolden Reveals Attorney Made Unexpected Payment

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Assessor Russell Wolden has testified he received $10,753 unexpectedly as a "referral fee" when he suggested prominent lawyers to fight San Francisco's fair housing ordinance.

The assessor, charged with 10 counts of accepting bribes, was cross examined yesterday by chief Asst. Dist. Atty. Francis W. Mayer.

"Mr. (Carl) Gellert wanted to defeat a local fair housing ordinance. You referred him to Mr. Skelly and Mr. Ehrlich," Mayer said.

Wolden acknowledged he had told J. W. Ehrlich and Albert F. Skelly, San Francisco lawyers, that Gellert wanted legal aid in fighting a proposed city housing ordinance in 1963.

"I recommended at least three attorneys and I think a fourth," Wolden said. "I didn't expect a fee."

"Did you send it back?" Mayer said referring to the $10,753 fee from Ehrlich.

"I enjoyed receiving it," Wolden answered. "I did not send it back. It was a proper referral fee."

Steamer Survivors

MANILA (AP) — Rescue authorities said today they have confirmation that 136 of the 262 persons aboard the missing Philippine steamer Pioneer Cebu have reached safety on the small Island of Bantayan. Officials at the Manila Rescue Center said the coastal vessel Diana picked up the 136 survivors and two bodies.

Bermuda was first colonized by the British in 1612 when the government sent out a governor and 60 settlers, according to the Bermuda News Bureau.

Marin Marine Dies In Florida Accident

Marine Corps Cadet Michael N. Kavanagh, former Marin County high school and junior college basketball star, was killed yesterday in a training accident near Pensacola, Fla.

Kavanagh, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Norman Kavanagh of 55 Corte Solano, Greenbrae, had been training to become a pilot. His airplane crashed into the Gulf of Mexico about one and one-half miles from the carrier, Lexington, from which it had taken off. The carrier was about 35 miles from Pensacola.

Witnesses said the plane suddenly nose-dived, indicating the crash may have been because of mechanical failure. Neither the airplane or Kavanagh's body was found.

MICHAEL N. KAVANAGH
Training crash fatal

He had made four perfect solo flights prior to the fatal crash. His father said yesterday was to be his last test flight before moving on to Texas to receive his "wings."

Michael was born in Chehalis, Wash., and moved to Marin County with his family when he was 16. He attended Redwood High School in Larkspur where he was a star center for the 1961 Marin Athletic League champion team. He attended College of Marin and played center for the 1962 and 1963 basketball teams, both of which won Golden Valley Conference championships.

After graduation from College of Marin in the fall of 1963, he was quite active in San Rafael Recreation Department adult basketball leagues. He had joined the Marine Corps about 13 months ago.

In addition to his parents, Kavanagh is survived by a half brother, William Whitney of Centralia, Wash., and a grandfather, E. N. Kavanagh of La Jolla, San Diego County. Memorial services are planned Friday in Pensacola.

marines and paratroopers Ky sent in Sunday.

Government forces, supported by two tanks, started to close in on one of Da Nang's three rebel-held pagodas. But they withdrew after Buddhist monks set fire to a wooden pyre they had erected there and threatened to burn themselves to death if the advance continued.

In Saigon 30 young Buddhist monks and "several" nuns have vowed that they will burn themselves to death if government troops attack their pagodas, it was reported today.

Buddhist sources said the "suicide squad" was organized in Saigon's Vien Hoa Dao pagoda, spiritual home of Viet Nam's Buddhists. It had been repored earlier that three elderly monks in occupied Da Nang had threatened self-immolation if troops seize the pagodas there.

The government moved two battalions of battle-clad Vietnamese marines into Saigon last night to reinforce riot police standing guard against possible Buddhist-inspired violence.

Boys, 5, Elude Hub Dragnet

Police patrols cruised hills of the Hub City for more than an hour and one-half yesterday afternoon, searching for two 5-year-old boys reported missing after they left kindergarten at Wade Thomas School at 11 a.m.

David Moore of 147 Allyn Avenue and Douglas Bell of 191 Redwood Avenue were reported missing by their mothers at 4 p.m. The women said the boys were fond of roaming the hills after school.

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani reported the boys evaded his department's five-car dragnet, but showed up at the Bell home at 5:40 p.m.

College Students Vie In Mechanic Contest

Two College of Marin auto technology students will compete in a Chrysler Corp. sponsored auto trouble shooting contest at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Argonne High School in San Mateo, according to Jesse C. Salmon, auto technology instructor at the college.

Donald Forsyth of Stinson Beach and Donald Holton of Marinwood will compete as a team with students from other Bay Area junior colleges.

wife, Kathy, 24, and sister, Mrs. Phyllis Black, also burst into tears among the spectators.

Rock is owner of the Square Chair, a bar in San Francisco's Tenderloin district, which police said was the meeting place of the five who plotted murder.

The five suspects are Call and Rock; Max Ward, 47, Sacramento employer representative of the union welfare fund; Clyde Simmonds, 75, an employee of Call, and Carl M. Black, 47, Oakland accountant and Rock's brother-in-law.

San Francisco police said today they were still looking for the trigger man in the Wilson shooting.

Wilson was killed April 5. Another union official, Lloyd Green, 45, of Hayward, was shot to death May 7. Deputy Chief Al Nelder of San Francisco police said yesterday the department had evidence to link the two killings.

Nelder said that in searching Call's apartment, police found a sketch which appeared to be a diagram of Green's home.

Angelo Turrini, owner of a Marin telephone answering service, recalled today that Olaf Youngren brought his wife and Sture, their only child, to this country from Sweden. Sture Youngren attended San Rafael High School. He entered the Army in World War II and served in the Pacific.

His father closed the livery stable with the outbreak of war, but both parents continued to reside in San Rafael until they died.

School Room Job Awarded

San Anselmo School District trustees last night awarded a $240,823 contract to G. J. Elkington and Sons of Sausalito for additions to Hidden Valley School.

Supt. Stephen Parodi said approval of the state, necessary because it is contributing $47,000 to the project, should come within a week.

The construction, to be completed in early December, includes five classrooms, a teacher room, library, materials center and principal's office. An additional $12,600 contract for paving of the new area was also awarded Elkington.

Trustees also awarded a $19,100 contract to W. K. McLellan of San Anselmo for paving at the new Red Hill School. The contract was held over from last week for a ruling by county counsel on a minor discrepancy in McLellan's bid. Parodi said the bid was ruled legal.

San Anselmo School District Trustees also:

1. Accepted resignations of Carolynne M. Terkelson, third grade teacher, and Jean Brooks, second grade, both at Isabel Cook School.
2. Hired five new teachers: Karen Harvey, to teach second grade at Wade Thomas School at $8,724 annually; Mrs. Beverly MacDonald, fourth grade at Brookside, $7,788; Mrs. Gloria Miller, language arts at Hidden Valley, $6,460; Ann Morrison, fifth grade at Wade Thomas, $6,756, and Mrs. Jean Yates, teach language arts at Red Hill School, $6,348.
3. Rehired the returning teaching staff and, in the process, awarded tenure to eight teachers. Also rehired the classified staff.
4. Agreed that the San Rafael firm of Dalton, Graupner and Barber should make the district's annual audit for not more than $625.

Highway 101 Surface

The State Public Works Department has awarded a $139,266 contract for resurfacing five miles of Highway 101 between Novato and Petaluma to Fisk, Firenze and McLean, Inc., of San Carlos.

Reed Fights Unruh Battle All Alone

The Reed Union School District board last night found out it would have to fight constitutionality of the Unruh Education Act alone.

Mrs. Erwin Farkas told the board that districts wishing to fight the act must do so alone because of possible budgetary problems with the state.

If the board decided to sue, the cost would come from district funds, which must be approved by a balky State Department of Finance, she said.

On April 28 the board instructed Mrs. Farkas and David D. Ring, chairman, to see if other districts would join Reed District in a suit.

The board decided last night to continue exploring a possible suit to test the constitutionality of a section of the act which takes away some state funds from districts voting against unification.

H. Joe Edgington, new superintendent, attended his first meeting. Trustees James B. Atkin and Mrs. Allan E. Steinau were absent.

The Reed School District Board also:

1. Appointed five new teachers: at Reed School—Mrs. Susan Alpert, fourth grade at $7,125, Carl J. Duda, fifth grade at $8,100; at Bel Aire—Mrs. Barbara Patten, sixth grade at $6,125, and Mrs. Dolores Rudow, second at $6,375; at Granada, Mrs. Joan Stuart, Beta team at $8,100.
2. Named Mrs. Steinau as the district's advisory member to the Belvedere Parks and Recreation Commission.
3. Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Ruth Reilly, a teacher at Reed School.
4. Approved continuing a contract with the county superintendent of schools for audio-visual and library services at $10,062.
5. Deferred an application for a $1,000 study grant by Joyce Wilson, humanities team leader at Del Mar School.

Kennel Club Gives Money To Loan Fund

Sir Francis Drake Kennel Club members donated $1,000 to start a student loan fund for the veterinary school at University of California at Davis, in dinner meeting ceremonies at Rancho Rafael last night.

Dr. Robert M. Cello, chief of the department of clinical services in the veterinary school, accepted the check in behalf of the alumni association, which will administer the fund.

Kennel club members raised the money through their annual shows and fun matches, such as the one to be held June 5 in the St. Peter Chanel Seminary grounds in San Rafael.

Plans were completed at last night's meeting for the match, which will feature conformation and obedience competition for puppies from three months old, and adult purebred dogs.

Belvedere Refuses Sausalito Petition

The Belvedere planning commission Monday night refused to support a resolution sent by the Sausalito planning commission opposing a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge.

George V. Banning, chairman said the commission denied its support because the Sausalito resolution suggested that bridge district directors find other ways to handle the traffic. "Those other ways might mean a second bridge to the Tiburon Peninsula," said Banning.

Women Grand Jury Members Tour Prison

Women members of Marin County's Grand Jury will be escorted through parts of San Quentin not normally open to women when the Grand Jury makes its annual tour of the prison tomorrow.

There will be eight women among the group of 16 inspecting the prison tomorrow, said Associate Warden J.W.L. Park, "and these ladies get to see things very few other women get to see."

Questionnaires Due

Mill Valley parents of pupils now attending Sausalito's Richardson Bay School are being sent forms this week asking them to express their interest in sending their children to the school next school year.

Span Board To Meet

expected the trial will finish this week.

The first witness, A/2c Joseph E. Stump, described a drinking party in the barracks that preceded the fatal stabbing.

He said a quarrel between Young and Jennings was over racial discrimination. Jennings, a Negro, told Young, "I'd like to marry your sister."

Young left the party, according to Stump's testimony, later returning with a pistol in his left hand, a knife in his right hand, and placed both against Jennings' chest.

Jennings rose up backwards, away from the knife, pushed his chair back, and ran out of the barracks' south door, related Stump.

Twice during testimony Young's civilian attorneys, Sol Abrams and George Hammer, objected to the prosecution's method of questioning, which required only yes or no answers. The trial judge overruled the objections.

Young is also defended by Lt. Col. Clarence D. Walters Jr., of Mather AFB, and Capt. Oscar L. Mahan of Hamilton AFB.

Prosecution attorneys are Lt. Col. Wesley C. Marsh Jr., of Malstrom AFB, Mont., and Capt. Donald J. Dalton of Hamilton AFB.

Hub Schools 15-Cent Tax Jump Asked

San Anselmo School District trustees were handed a budget proposal last night which would increase the district's total tax rate by 15 cents, from $2.95 to $3.10 per $100 assessed valuation.

Supt. Stephen Parodi proposed a fiscal 1967 budget of $1,414,077, a $126,352.45 increase over this year's $1,287,830.55.

A five-cent tax increase is insured, Parodi said, for when trustees approved salary increases for district teachers, they also agreed to pay $15,000 to provide health insurance. This will be paid for with an override tax.

Parodi proposed that 10 cents be added also in a special override tax for seventh and eighth grade education. He said this would raise about $25,000.

The district is already levying the maximum "general purpose" rate, authorized by a vote, of $2.25 per $100 assessed valuation, plus overrides and bond retirement levies.

Parodi said trustees indicated no opposition to the proposed tax increase. They will discuss the budget again at an adjourned meeting June 7 at Isabel Cook School.

Jury Panelists Winnowed Out In Killing Trial

The remaining portion of the second 60-person panel of prospective jurors was being questioned today in the Marin Superior Court murder trial of Marc Charles Osuna, 30, and Jack F. Gorman, 36.

A total of 30 persons had been quizzed for qualification as jurors. The prosecution had exercised two of their 30 peremptory challenges of panelists, and the defense had used one challenge.

Two more panels of 60 are expected to be called.

The suspects are accused of the shooting death of San Rafael bartender Mario Ferrari at Mission Inn on Labor Day. Judge Thomas F. Keating is presiding.

Candidates To Appear At Silveira School

The three candidates for county supervisor from the first district are scheduled to appear at a candidates night at 8 p.m. today in Mary Silveira School, sponsored by the Marinwood Assn.

Speakers will be Dr. William F. Upton, Melvin Warenback and John F. McInnis. The group also will give five minutes to each of the four candidates for the board of the Marinwood Community Services District: John V. Tyler, Donald A. Duerr, Joseph T. Monteleone, and Rudolph Lang Jr.

Suitcase Taken Outside Church

A Rio Vista man reported that his car was broken into and a suitcase containing $50 worth of clothes was taken while he was at St. Stephen's Church in Belvedere Sunday night.

Harold F. Cram told Belvedere police he had parked his car in the church parking lot about 8:30 p.m. when he came out an hour later, he found the left windwing smashed and the suitcase missing.

OBITUARIES

Dr. James G. Whitney Rites Held

Private funeral has been held for Dr. James Goodrich Whitney, 49, of Berkeley and Inverness, who died Tuesday night, apparently of a heart attack, at his Berkeley home.

A prominent psychiatrist and descendant of a Marin County pioneer family, he was active in politics, the civil rights movement and East Bay civic affairs.

As much time as he could spare was spent on Tomales Bay north of Inverness, where he and his brother, Peter D. Whitney, maintained homes on property that has been in the family since 1858.

A native of San Francisco, Dr. Whitney received his bachelor of arts degree at Yale University and his medical degree in 1944 from University of California Medical School.

Dr. Whitney served in both World War II and the Korean War as a Navy medical officer.

In 1956, he was the Democratic candidate for the State Assembly in his Berkeley district. He has served as chairman of the Seventh Congressional District Democratic Council and was a director of the California Democratic Council.

In 1961, he was appointed by the Berkeley City Council to the Citizens Committee Against Discrimination in Housing, and was an author of the Berkeley fair housing ordinance that served as a model for the Rumford Act.

Last summer, Dr. Whitney served as a medical aide to civil rights workers in Minden, La.

He was a past president of the American Society of Analytical Psychology.

Dr. Whitney was a great-grandson of Oscar Shafter, who owned most of Point Reyes Peninsula in the 1850s and was one of the first justices of the State Supreme Court. Mount Whitney was named for the doctor's great-uncle, a geologist.

Dr. Whitney is survived by his wife, the former Deborah Drew Tolman; a daughter, Kathleen; two sons, Peter and Nicholas Whitney; his mother, Dr. Elizabeth G. Whitney of Berkeley; a brother, Peter D. Whitney of Inverness, and a sister, Mrs. Jeremy R. Anderson of Mill Valley.

Youth Booked On Auto Rifle

A 20-year-old transient, Freddie Louis Hunter, was booked in county jail last night for investigation of burglary after allegedly being seen rifling the unlocked automobile of a Bayside Acres resident.

Sheriff's officers said David B. Witt, 704 Point San Pedro Road, told them he glanced out of his home about 11 p.m. and noticed the dome light was turned on in his car.

Witt saw a youth inside. They stared at each other, and the youth ran. Witt called deputies, who found Hunter riding a bicycle nearby, took him to the Witt resident, where Witt identified him as the burglar.

Stabbed Inmate Now In Fair Condition

John Carl Salvestro, San Quentin inmate stabbed at the prison Monday, was reported in fair condition at the prison hospital today. The convicted sex pervert was stabbed six times, and underwent surgery to repair a hole pierced in his heart.

Prison officials were continuing their investigation into the stabbing, but still had no definite suspect.

'Filibuster' Cry On Drunk Test Bill

ROBERT W. CROWN
Continues hearings

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly Ways and Means Committee today continued its exhaustive hearing on the "implied consent" drunken driving bill as backers of the legislation cried: "Filibuster."

Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad, R-Sherman Oaks, demanded yesterday that the bill be put to a vote at once.

He told chairman Robert W. Crown, D-Alameda, that the hearing — which began last Thursday—was now "frankly a filibuster."

OPPOSES BILL

Crown, an outspoken opponent of the bill to require drunken driving suspects to submit to a chemical blood alcohol test, denied trying to talk the measure to death. But he did not indicate when he would call for a vote.

The bill, by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, has the strong support of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. It has already been passed by the Senate.

Another administration backed bill—intended to reform the scandal-plagued property tax assessment system—is in the same kind of trouble in the Senate.

The Assembly-passed bill was shunted off to a subcommittee yesterday by the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee which had been holding hearings on the measure even longer than the Assembly Ways and Means Committee has been discussing the drunken driving proposal.

ASSESSOR BILL

The assessor bill was not killed by assignment to the three - member subcommittee. But the move certainly delayed action and reduced the measure's chances of final passage.

Any substantial delay at this stage of the legislative session lawmakers are anxious to adjourn because the June 7 primary election is less than three weeks away.

The "implied consent" bill would require a person suspected of driving while drunk to submit to a chemical test of his blood, breath or urine. Reults of the test, which would indicate the amount of alcohol in his system, would be used as evidence in court.

LICENSE SUSPENSION

Refusal to take the test would subject a motorist to a six-month driver's license suspension, even if he was later acquitted of drunken driving.

The Ways and Means Committee yesterday amended the bill to spare chronic bleeders and certain heart patients from having to surrender a sample of blood. They could be required to take only a breath or urine test.

Burns Retorts To Attacks By Reagan, Demo

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. Hugh Burns said "No" yesterday to Republican gubernatorial candidate Ronald Reagan and the United Democratic Headquarters of Fresno.

Reagan had demanded that Burns, as chairman of the State Senate Subcommittee on Un-American Activities, hold public hearings into charges made recently by the Burns committee that communism and sexual deviation are problems at the University of California.

REGENTS' JOB

Burns said the U. C. Board of Regents would be the logical group for such a probe.

The senator also withdrew his financial support from the Fresno Democratic group. He called it an "organization which has seen fit to heap scorn and invective upon my head for the activities of a legislative committee of which I am the chairman."

He referred to the un-American committee. The Fresno group had voted last week that the committee should be discarded.

BROWN RAPPED

Elsewhere, with the June 7 primary just three weeks away, candidates for governor talked about who best would serve the people. George Christopher, Reagan's main foe for the GOP nomination, said in Fullerton that Democratic Gov. Brown's record:

"Shows consistent abuse of political power through constant political maneuvering ... He has authorized his campaign managers to send letters pressuring his political appointees to contribute to his campaign on the basis of their salary."

'NEW AGE'

Brown, in remarks prepared for delivery today to a Catholic women's college in Los Angeles, included himself in the "new age" of Pope John XXIII and John F. Kennedy.

Brown said that Californians in June and November must choose "between government in the spirit of a new age — one which cares and acts—or government in the spirit of the past—one which could not care less."

Report Is Accepted

Sausalito School District trustees Monday accepted the committee of 100'S building study report and agreed to consider some of the recommendations at the next board meeting at 8 p.m. Monday, in the district office. Forty people attended the special meeting.

Park Bonds Favored

The Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs Monday night voted unanimously to work for passage of the county park bond issue to be voted on in the June 7 election, Herbert E. Davis, president, said today.

FAIR HOUSING REPEAL IS DEAD THIS YEAR

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Repeal of the Rumford Act barring discrimination in the sale or rental of housing won't go before the legislature this year, Gov. Brown says.

He had been asked to put the matter on the current special session agenda after the State Supreme Court overturned voter approval of a 1964 constitutional amendment that invalidated the Rumford Act and other laws forbidding housing discrimination.

But, he said yesterday in a letter to Sen. John G. Schmitz, R-Tustin, the matter still could go to the U.S. Supreme Court and until it is settled finally he regards it as unwise to put the subject before lawmakers.

Brown Campaign Aides Checking Pasts Of Governor Candidates

By DeVAN L. SHUMWAY

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Democratic investigators are probing the personal and political life of Republican George Christopher—and other prospective opponents to Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

And they suspect Brown is being put under a microscope too, by Republicans.

Brown's campaign aides disclosed yesterday that they have been looking into the records of Christopher, Republican Ronald Reagan and fellow Democrat Samuel W. Yorty.

Christopher and Reagan are the two front runners for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. The winner will face either Brown or Yorty in the November general election.

Don Bradley, Brown's campaign manager in the Democratic governor's bid for a third term, issued a cryptic statement calling Christopher a "crybaby" for complaining that the Brown camp was cooperating with columnist Drew Pearson in what Christopher called a "smear" against him.

Pearson Monday filed a $2,625,000 libel suit against Christopher, charging that an attorney for the GOP gubernatorial hopeful had urged newspapers not to run two Pearson columns about Christopher.

The columns charged Christopher had received a two-year suspended sentence in 1942 for taking kickbacks in connection with his milk business, Christopher Dairy Farms. The columns also said Christopher received a draft deferment as an agricultural worker during World War II.

Christopher denounced the columns as a smear and two of his backers — Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael and Alan Pattee, R-Salinas—said they were planted by Brown in an attempt to "destroy" Christopher.

"Mr. Christopher is a crybaby," Bradley said. "He has been attacking the governor daily but the first time his record is under fire he yells foul.

"Mr. Christopher's arrest record for accepting illegal rebates for his milk business and his scores of warnings from the city of San Francisco for selling watered milk are matters of public record that Mr. Christopher has yet to explain adequately."

Another campaign aide acknowledged that Pearson spoke to members of "our campaign organization." And he said Democrats were not only investigating Christopher but Reagan and Yorty as well.

The aide identified the investigators as Harry Lerner and Richard V. Heyer, both former San Francisco newsmen. He said some of the investigative work was conducted by David Davis, whom he identified as a campaign aide in Sacramento.

"I did it and I'm glad" was the remark we overheard one of our customers make. She too had found it difficult to live within her budget. She stopped in one day "just to look around" and was really impressed with our wonderful assortment of top-grade foods, and at such low prices. She was stunned to see such fresh vegetables and was absolutely flabbergasted when she saw our fresh meat. She made the change and was glad she did. Sausalito Seawall Landscaping Agreed In Council Discussion

Sausalito city councilmen are aiming for both beauty and utility in the widening of Bridgeway and construction of a new seawall between Princess and Richardson streets.

The council indicated last night that it will hire Lawrence Halperin and Associates, landscape architects, to work on the design of the project.

City Engineer B. J. Whitlow displayed preliminary drawings which included triangular sections of the seawall jutting out at Princess Park, the Sea Lion and Tiffany Beach.

Mayor Mel Wax said he felt it would be a good idea to have landscape architects "called in at the start of the project, rather than later."

Whitlow said he would be reluctant to proceed with overall design until he knows plans meet with community approval.

"We should inject a few ideas of our own, right now," said Councilman Earl F. Dunphy. "I suggest there be sand at Tiffany Beach. A beach in that area is important."

There also were requests that the project provide space for children to fish, and access to the water.

The council advised Felix M. Warburg, a member of Halperin's firm, to get suggestions from the city planning and recreation commission and the community appearances advisory board.

The council also granted the Sausalito Art Festival Committee permission to hold its annual festival at the city parking lot, after assurance that the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce would underwrite the festival's $3,700 budget.

The festival last year was held at the Central School playground.

The council postponed action on plans for 175 apartment units in three buildings to be constructed over the bay, just north of Army Corps of Engineers property, until the planning commission acts on a pair of variance requests.

The Community Appearances Advisory Board denied the proposed design submitted by Sausalito Boat Dock Apartments, because of density.

"If this type of design is accepted it will set a precedent which might very well spell disaster for the Sausalito waterfront. Box-like structures would stretch across the length of the shore," the board reported.

Thomas E. Flowers, representing Sausalito Boat Dock Apartments, said the design is the only possible one that is economically feasible.

When it became apparent that the council could not complete all the items on the agenda last night, Mayor Wax cancelled action on seven items until an adjourned meeting next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

By-passed were all matters concerning community antenna television service, including a petition by residents protesting construction of a television tower with 15 antennas at the end of Curry Avenue, requested by Sausalito Community TV System.

Other community antenna television items included an application by Cable Television of Marin for city-wide franchise and the adoption of an ordinance granting a franchise to Sausalito Community TV System.

The Sausalito City Council also:

1. Approved a Rotary Club recommendation that the waterfront park near the Sausalito Yacht Club be named the Carl Gabrielson Memorial Park in memory of the late city councilman.

2. Received the resignation of A. M. Arenz, chairman of the city park and recreation commission and a commission member for seven years, who has moved out of Sausalito.

3. Awarded Rix Co. of San Francisco, lowest of five bidders, a contract to provide an air compressor at a cost of $3,545.

4. Authorized purchase of a used water tank truck at $850, on condition that the truck can perform in Sausalito hills.

5. Received a letter from 28 property owners and residents at the north end of Second Street protesting inadequate lighting, water main leakage, and lack of park maintenance.

6. Received a letter from the Sausalito Woman's Club urging action on selecting a library site and completing plans for financing the library building.

7. Endorsed Assembly Bill 135, which would allow creation of local assessment districts for undergrounding of overhead utility lines.

8. Received a financial status report from City Mgr. Charles A. Brown noting that it appears that the city will have an 11.5 per cent delinquency in tax payments.

9. Adjourned in memory of John Lord King, noted architect, who died April 28.

Two Felony Counts Bring Jail Term

A jail term of 90 days and five years probation were given Richard A. Harris, 47, yesterday in Marin Superior Court for two felony counts of forgery.

Harris, of 215 Bayview Street, San Rafael, pleaded guilty April 26 to forging checks with intent to defraud Hoagy's Bar and Crocker-Citizens National Bank, San Rafael.

Five-Cent Tax Hike Involved In City Budget

Sausalito City Council last night received a proposed $837,785 budget for fiscal 1967 which would boost the tax rate five cents.

Under the proposed budget, the tax rate would increase from $1.23 per $100 assessed valuation to $1.28.

City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said the prospective budget represents a $69,000 increase over the current one, a nine per cent hike.

The budget submitted by Brown calls for a 2.5 per cent pay increase for the majority of the city staff. It also provides that the city pay for hospital and medical insurance for all employees and their families.

Brown recommended that the fire chief, police lieutenant, gardener, public works superintendent, and parking enforcement officer be granted five per cent raises, and police clerks a 7.5 per cent raise.

He also recommended establishing a department of finance and hiring a finance director. He also urged that the city contract with the Marin County Planning Department for planning assistance, rather than processing all matters through the city's planning consultant.

The budgeti ncludes four other new positions: an additional police sergeant, an additional fire captain, an engineering draftsman, and an additional maintenance man.

The council slated its first budget review session for 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at City Hall.

Home Burglary Told

Ellis D. Murphy of 290 Redwood Road, San Anselmo, told police that someone entered his home Monday and stole a trombone, television set, microphone, and three radios, worth $899.85 altogether. Police found no sign of forced entry.

Mill Valley Dance

There will be a high school dance at the Mill Valley Community and Youth Center, sponsored by the Park and Recreation Department, from 8 to 11:30 p.m., Friday, to music of the Axons.

Councilmen Oppose Second Deck On Golden Gate Span

The Sausalito City Council last night opposed construction of a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge.

Acting on a recommendation by the planning commission, the council agreed to notify the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District of its opposition.

The council said traffic bottlenecks in Greenbrae, Corte Madera and San Rafael would not be solved by increasing the capacity of the Golden Gate Bridge.

"Resources of the district might more reasonably be used to establish other means of crossing the bay," the council said.

The council also opposed any move by the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District to ban backyard burning in residential areas.

"The next thing you know, you'll have to plug up your fireplace," quipped Councilman Earl F. Dunphy.

Judo Class Planned

A summer program in judo for school age boys and girls will start on June 20, sponsored by the Novato Parks and Recreation department and Clark Henry, director of the Northern California School of Judo in Novato. Louis Robinette, a Novato police officer, will be the instructor.

Novato Citizens Listen As Host Of Candidates Argue

By WAT TAKESHITA

Seven candidates for three county positions battled for votes last night at a candidates' night sponsored in Novato by the League of Women Voters.

A crowd of about 80 heard the speakers at the Community House. Mrs. H. James Compton of Kentfield was chairman, and Hugh Turner the moderator.

A. Leonard Bjorklund Jr., 39, of Sausalito, who is challenging incumbent Bruce B. Bales in the race for district attorney, called for more vigorous action against crime and narcotics and an immediate program for the education of every police officer in the complex laws of arrest.

"I want to know why sellers of narcotics are still on the streets and not in jail," Bjorklund thundered.

He said the district attorney should have been at the scene during the Marin City disturbances.

Bjorklund said his varied experience in both criminal and civil work, including the job of deputy district attorney in Alameda County, qualifies him for the post.

Bales declared that experience must come first and foremost. He was deputy district attorney in Marin for seven years, assistant for four years, and district attorney since 1964.

"I've worked from the bottom up," said Bales. "Apparently my opponent wants to start from the top."

Bales declared that Bjorklund's experiences as deputy district attorney in Alameda consisted of traffic misdemeanor cases and "not one felony." In the criminal field, said Bales, "He's had six jury trials in seven years, and lost all but one."

Bales said his opponent was in Marin City during one of the disturbances, "grabbing policemen by the arm and saying 'Where's Bales? He should be making arrests'."

"We don't want a fanatic in the office of district attorney," said Bales.

Bales said the prosecution rate in Marin is one of the highest in the state, and the crime rate one of the lowest. He said the county is free of organized vice, crime and corruption, and "we intend to keep it that way."

Three of four candidates for coroner appeared last night: Dr. Donovan O. Cooke, 48, Belvedere physician and surgeon; Gilbert F. Freitas, 40, San Rafael policeman, and Richard F. Wood, 66, San Rafael management and public relations consultant.

William C. Bradley, 51, assistant coroner, did not appear but sent a written reply to the questions asked by the League of Women Voters.

Dr. Cooke contended that the job of coroner is to determine cause of death. "This can best be served by a physician or a man trained in medicine."

He said the Marin Medical Society has recommended that the job be filled by a physician. Dr. Cooke said his experience as assistant coroner in Oregon and his medical background make him the best qualified.

Freitas countered that the coroner's job is more investigative than medical. "A qualified pathologist determines cause of death, regardless of whether the coroner is a doctor or a layman."

Freitas said he would devote full time to the coroner's job, whereas a doctor would have to devote some time to his practice.

Freitas said his training in criminology, law and police work qualifies him for the job.

He said he would attempt to activate a morgue in Marin General Hospital and centralize all removals of decedents to one location. "Removal by mortuaries involves too much political overtones," he declared.

He described Bradley as a "fine gentleman," who is "trying to gain office through the reputation and respect of Coroner Frank Keaton."

Wood also pointed out that a coroner need not be a medical man because he does not conduct autopsies. He said he does not attach too much weight to experience as "deputy coroner" because there are areas where "all ambulance drivers are made deputy coroners."

Wood said Bradley and Keaton "are spending 24 hours a day on county salary, campaigning for Bradley so that he can succeed Keaton who has been in office 20 years on top of his father's 25 years."

Bradley's statement was read by moderator Hugh Turner. Bradley promised "full time service" and listed his experience as sheriff's investigator for 16 years and as assistant coroner for five years.

The race for North Marin supervisor pits incumbent William A. Gnoss, 66, against Lynes E. Downing, 25, a title company manager.

The two clashed head-on on the proposed $4.3 million county bond issue. Gnoss supports the bond issue. He said that if it passes, top priority goes to development of Stafford Lake for recreation purposes.

Gnoss listed his service on the board of supervisors, Novato Volunteer Fire Department, North Marin Water District, Farm Bureau, Bay Area Pollution Board, Marin-Sonoma Fair, Marin Transit District and many others.

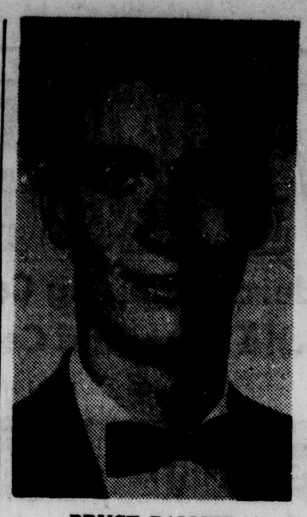
He said he can devote full time to the job of supervisor.

Downing, manager of California Land Title Co., replied that long service does not necessarily mean a man is qualified. "I manage many people who have far more years in the title insurance field than I."

Rather than voting more bond issues for parks, an effort should be made "to curb what I consider lavish spending," said Downing.

"How can we spend millions of dollars on parks and tourist attractions, civic buildings, while our citizens plead for action on his rising taxes?" he demanded.

Downing said a supervisor must have the ability to communicate and convince others. He should be able to get results, "not promises soon forgotten."



BRUCE PALMER

KAREN MORROW
Close runner-up

Novato Top Scholars Picked For Grad Rites

Bruce Palmer has been named valedictorian and Karen Morrow salutatorian for the class of 1966 at Novato High School, it was announced today by Principal Robert W. Wisgerhof.

Bruce had a grade point average of 3.89, and Karen, 3.83, Wisgerhof said.

Bruce is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark M. Palmer Jr. of 80 Crescent Court, Novato. His father is Novato city attorney.

He is a life member of California Scholarship Federation, and received a Bank of America certificate of merit in foreign languages. He attended a mathematics seminar sponsored by the National Science Foundation at the University of California two years ago.

He played football since his freshman year and was on the first string defensive team of the champion Novato Hornets. He has also lettered in track and basketball and won first place in the high jump at the Marin County track finals this spring.

He plays trombone in the Novato High School concert band and is a member of the orchestra for the school's coming musical, "The Boyfriend."

He is a member of the Hornet Society, the Letterman's Club and the Interact Club.

He plans to attend Stanford University next fall.

Karen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Morrow of 1420 Dawes Street, Novato.

She is a life member of the California Scholarship Federation, and won a Bank of America certificate for laboratory science.

She has been a member of the Language Club, the Ambassadors Club and the Future Teachers of America. She has twirled the baton for seven years, teaching for the past four years for the Novato Parks and Recreation Department. She was second runner-up in the Novato Junior Miss Pageant this year.

She plans to attend Sonoma State College next fall.

Reading Aide Funds Sought For Lagunitas

Three members of the Lagunitas School District Board agreed last night to apply for a grant under the state's Miller-Unruh Basic Reading Act so the district can hire a reading specialist next fall.

Supt. Marshall J. McCunniff told the board it appears that the district will be eligible to get "just about all of a teacher's salary" under the act.

The board also authorized McCunniff to lease two more portable classrooms, which will bring the total at the school to seven.

McCunniff reported that 42 youngsters were signed up last week for next fall's kindergarten classes, but said he expects many more to show up in September, when a third kindergarten session may have to be added.

Board members spent about 20 minutes studying their tentative budget for fiscal 1967, but devoted most of the two and one-half hour meeting to reports by three teachers on the curriculum in sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Mrs. Judy Lundquist spoke on social studies, Mary Ann Kolanoski spoke on reading and literature, and Mrs. Muriel Brice on Spanish.

The board will hold a series of closed meetings from Saturday through Tuesday to interview applicants for superintendent. McCunniff has resigned as of June 30.

The new man probably will be hired at the June 7, board meeting, said McCunniff. He also announced that the school's eighth grade graduation ceremony will be held at 8 p.m. June 16 in the multi-purpose room.

Trustees William G. McBride and Michael Scott were absent.

Major Pay Increase Requested

The Marin County Employees Assn. has asked pay increases for county employees, ranging from 5 to 20 per cent, effective July 1.

In addition, the association has requested full review of salaries by July 1, next year, either through additional county staff or by outside consultant.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said he will recommend increases averaging over 10 per cent increase. He said the association's recommendations in some cases are more than his will be.

Bruce's recommendations, still being prepared by County Personnel Director Robert D. Elliott, have not been made public.

Neither the association or the administrator want across the board increases, but are seeking various changes in salary classifications by job description.

The association's recommendations call for biggest increases in sheriff's department pay, with most of the 20 per cent boosts concentrated there.

Starting pay for a sergeant, for instance, would go from $590 to $717 a month. Deputies' pay would be increased by 15 per cent.

Similar changes are urged in the fire department.

Phone Company Lease Set For TV Antennas

County supervisors yesterday took no action on the request for a television cable encroachment permit covering several areas of Marin after learning that Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. was willing to lease its own lines.

John D. LaNoue, district manager of the company, told the board that, though no rates have been established, the company would let cable distributors lease lines through contract.

Fact Sheet Slated On Fairfax Taxes

Voters in Fairfax School District will receive a fact sheet soon, telling them why the school board considers a 65c increase in the "general purpose operating" tax rate limit necessary.

The board wants the present $2.05 per $100 assessed valuation limit on that tax category increased to $2.70. Fairfax School Districts total tax rate this year was $2.64.

Leonard Weiss, chairman of the Committee for the Schools, a group formed in support of the tax increase election, discussed the fact sheet with board members last night. The pamphlet has already been prepared, but members decided to add a second sheet, detailing the cost of education in the district, and comparing Fairfax teachers' salaries with others in Marin county.

The fact sheet will tell voters that the district plans to increase teachers' and classified help's salaries next year by four per cent, at a cost of $14,000; hire a full time librarian at $8,000, buy additional books for $1,500; add $1,000 to the field trip fund; spend an additional $1500 on maintenance, and build the adequate reserve fund to $6,000.

The Fairfax School District Board also:

1. Hired Robert Petersen as physical education teacher for the summer school at $550.
2. Hired Mrs. Margaret Moreau as half-time district psychologist at $5,600 per year.
3. Approved contracting with the county for the services of a school nurse, librarian and audio visual equipment.
4. Approved continuation of participation in the special milk program.
5. Agreed to accept an equivalent amount of land at the north end of the new White Hill School property to compensate for a slope encroachment by construction of Glen Drive on the eastern side. Farr Associates will deed the land to the school.
6. Authorized superintendent Homer Sisk to investigate a contract with the College of Marin for their off-campus project, with college students working at Fairfax schools as aides and assistants. The district would pay a percentage of the cost.

Board Sets Fund For Indigents' Grave Markers

Marin County supervisors yesterday agreed to authorize a fund to accept donations from religious and fraternal organizations toward markers for the graves of indigents.

The decision was made when Supervisors Peter H. Behr and Thomas T. Storer were absent, both attending luncheon dates. Late in the day Behr brought the matter up again and said he would be willing to have the county put up half the cost. Storer said he would, too, but the earlier decision remained unchanged.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said that markers would cost about $50 each and the yearly rate of indigent burials would mean an annual outlay of $2,000.

Pot Case Man Fails To Appear

Warrant for arrest of Dean Howard Engle, 20, scheduled for sentencing yesterday in Marin Superior Court for possession of marijuana, was issued by Judge Harold J. Haley following his failure to appear.

The magistrate forfeited $550 bail, and set new bail at $2,500.

Engle, of Monterey, pleaded no contest April 11 to having the weed on Beach Road near Tiburon on Sept. 20.

Car Taken, Recovered

Patricia Ann Hicox, Gate Five, Waldo Point, reported to Sausalito police yesterday, the theft of her 1957 Chevrolet station wagon—but police said the car already had been recovered Monday by sheriff's deputies in Marin City.

Second Seminary Aide Resigns; Job Abolished

John R. Little, provost of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, has submitted his resignation effective in August, the seminary announced today.

James R. MacKay, chairman of the seminary's board of trustees, said Little resigned following the recommendation of a committee on reorganization that the office of provost be eliminated.

Little took the post when it was created in 1959, but the seminary president will take the responsibilities of the post after Little's resignation becomes effective.

Dr. Theodore A. Gill resigned as seminary president May 10, and Arnold B. Come is serving as president on an interim appointment. Dr. Gill resigned to take charge of a study commission of the World Council of Churches in Geneva, Switzerland. He had been on a leave of absence since Dec. 1, for reasons of health.

Little will remain on the seminary staff as a funding consultant to the end of the year, MacKay said.

JOHN R. LITTLE
Another Seminarian quits

"We are extremely grateful for all that Dr. Little has done for the seminary," MacKay said. "Under his direction income has increased substantially, and the seminary plant has seen may fine improvements."

Dr. Little was a founder and is a board member of San Francisco's Presbyterian Medical Center.

Commuters Do Well; Casinos Fear Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Commuters are getting to work despite a Greyhound Bus Lines strike, but a chamber of commerce manager in Nevada fears for the gambling business.

As the line and the AFL-CIO Amalgamated Transit Union negotiated today in Washington, the California Highway Patrol had praise for commuters.

The California Highway Patrol in San Francisco said car pools and changed working schedules are working for commuters.

"By planning to meet the crisis, they have stretched out the peak traffic load from 30 to 45 minutes, making it possible to keep cars moving almost as fast as the pre-strike pace," he said.

Jud Allen, Reno Chamber of Commerce manager, said casinos in the Lake Tahoe-Reno area are bound to suffer. He declared the area is western Greyhound's biggest customer and said, "It stands to reason we're going to be hardest hit by the strike."

Many persons from the San Francisco Bay and California's valleys use buses to reach the casinos.

Novatan Cited In Cycle Theft

A 14-year-old Novato boy was cited to juvenile authorities yesterday by Novato police, charged with theft of a motorcycle.

Temple Raymond Bennett, 47, of 5 Twelve Oakhill Drive, San Rafael, found the motorcycle in his empty house at 717 Del Mar, Novato, when he visited there yesterday. The boy attempted to take the cycle and Bennett turned him over to police.

The motorcycle was registered to John F. Welch of San Jose. Police said the boy admitted taking it from the Elm Street apartments on May 4.

Liquor, Tools Taken

Liquor and tools valued at $182 were reported stolen yesterday from the basement of the home of Joyce D. Bell, 53 Glenaire Drive, San Rafael. Police were told the theft took place sometime during the past two months.

Nine Marinites Named To Board

Nine persons from Marin have been named to the board of directors of Catholic Social Service for the Archdiocese of San Francisco.

Rev. John J. O'Connor of St. Isabella's in Terra Linda will serve as director of Marin Catholic Social Service.

Other Marin board members are Genevieve Bayreuther of Corte Madera; William A. Fleming of Mill Valley; Christian J. Matthew of Greenbrae; Joseph T. Mouille of Novato; Martin H. O'Brien Jr. of San Rafael; Peter Allen Smith of Kentfield; Mrs. George J. Stempel Jr. of Greenbrae, and Harold J. Truett of San Rafael.

House Burglarized

A $200 water heater was stolen from his rental house on Vistazo East, Tiburon, Alexander Williams of 10 Locust Avenue, Mill Valley, reported to the Tiburon sheriff's substation Monday.

San Rafael Council Wins Fight Over Undergrounding

A pitched battle between the San Rafael City Council and the Marin County Board of Supervisors came to an end yesterday with the council the winner.

Supervisors said residents along San Pedro Road will be the losers. Supervisors' efforts to have utilities underground as the road is widened from the San Rafael High School campus to Marina Boulevard were rebuffed by the council.

The council said utilities should be single-lined on steel poles. The work is a joint city-county project.

Supervisors adopted a resolution agreeing to the steel poles and stating that undergrounding is impossible due to the council's "failure to acquiese, notwithstanding the substantial derogation of the esthetics of the project."

Behr Vindicated On Transit Fund Remark

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr was vindicated yesterday by a letter from De Leuw, Cather and Co., consulting engineers, which said the firm had reported federal money would be available for financing a transit study.

Behr had used this information in a statement in favor of formation of the Marin Transit District prior to the vote that created it. Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen suggested at a transit board meeting on April 13 that the voters might have been misled.

Costly Ring Stolen

Gerald C. Roerden of 27 Convent Court, San Rafael, told police Monday a $1,100 diamond ring was stolen from a jewelry box in his bedroom. Roerden said he last saw the ring May 10.

Sleepy Hollow Fire Pact Set By Hub Council

The San Anselmo City Council last night approved a new 10-year contract with the Sleepy Hollow Fire District for the city to provide fire protection to the district.

The present 10-year contract expires June 30. The district will pay for the service an amount based on the district's assessed valuation compared to the assessed valuation of the entire area covered by the fire department.

OVERHEAD COST

District representatives agreed at last night's adjourned council meeting to consider adding a percentage of fire department overhead cost to the district's contract cost. The overhead cost comes from the services of other city departments available to the fire department.

The district has paid $290,000 to the city for fire protection for the past 10 years, but this amount has not included overhead costs of the fire department.

FIRE BUDGET

The council also received City Administrator Douglas J. Flautt's recommendations for the fire department budget for the 1966-67 fiscal year. The fire department requested $289,113, and Flautt recommended $248,007. The appropriation for the fire department last year was $234,868, but anticipated expenditures for the 1965-66 fiscal year are $250,602.

Marshall Area Water Study

The North Marin County Water District Board last night authorized study of initial development of a water and sewage system for the area south of Marshall, annexed last week by the district.

The study is to be made by Consolidated Financial Corp. of Los Angeles, which owns 500 acres of the area. No cost ifgure was given.

Osborn and Myrtle Hall asked that their 360 acres be taken out of the annexation. This request was denied.

The water district board received a request from Samuel Sjoen to annex 28 acres in Sonoma County, on Highway 101 north of the Marin County line, to the North Marin District. This was referred to Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager, to be sent to the Sonoma County Local Agency Formation Commission.

Billiard Parlor Wins Supervisors' Approval

Marin County supervisors voted 4-1, with William A. Gnoss dissenting, yesterday to approve a use permit for a billiard parlor in Kentfield.

Gnoss opposed the billiard parlor because it appeared to him a majority of residents were against it. Residents had appealed the use permit granted by the zoning administrator and upheld by the planning commission.

The billiard parlor will be operated by Alec Liu at 941-B Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. Most of the opposition came from residents of Stetson Avenue across the boulevard. The permit was also opposed by the Kentfield Civic League.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors Also:

1. Upheld planning commission denial of architectural supervision for a nine-unit apartment planned by Hageman, Thomas and Eklund at 931 Blithdale Avenue in Alto.

2. Awarded contract to Maggiora and Ghilotti Inc. of Corte Madera for repair of a slide on Ocean Parkway at Bolinas. The company was lowest of four bidders at $14,535.

3. Approved a $2,805 transfer from reserves to buy furniture for the recently established employment counselling office.

4. Asked a letter of appreciation be written E. R. Lang, who asked that he not be reappointed to the county personnel commission.

5. Received hats and ties from the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, promoting Novato Western Weekend.

6. Assured Perry Howell of Marin City that riot control courses for sheriff's deputies were part of routine training and not a special training for Marin City.

7. Learned from County Administrator Alan Bruce that application was filed Monday with the office of economic opportunity for approval of a Neighborhood Jobs Corps program for Marin aimed at providing summer work for 50 youths.

8. Learned that a federal "freeze" on funds for the community mental health center at Marin General Hospital had been lifted.

9. Appointed Neil Kirk of 23 Venetia Meadow to the Santa Venetia flood control zone advisory board, replacing Ray Krebsbach, who resigned.

10. Put off until next week discussion of Bruce's proposed health and welfare administrative agency that would take control of at least six county departments.

11. Set bid opening for 10 a.m. June 20 and public hearing for 3 p.m., June 21, on the proposed Harvard Avenue-Princeton Avenue road improvement project in Homestead Valley.

12. Overruled Bruce's objection to establishing three new positions in the planning department prior to June budget hearings. The positions were requested by Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, who said he could not hire June graduates without action by the board now.

13. Hired Beverly Tisdale at $510 a month as a computer operator in data processing; Maryann D. Wilson at $590 as deputy probation officer; Jerrold K. Hann at $536 as junior planner; William A. Kaufer at $619 as employment counselor in the welfare department; Robert C. Larsen at $380 as a janitor.

14. Appointed Patrick Martin and Alan Shattuck to the Terra Linda Community Services District Board. They were the only candidates filing for two offices in the June 7 election.

15. Agreed to give many county employees an hour off with pay to attend the cornerstone laying ceremony for the Hall of Justice addition at the Civic Center at 9:30 a.m. next Wednesday.

16. Set hearing at 4 p.m., June 21 on formation of a county services area for Marincello.

17. Set hearing for 4 p.m., May 31 on sale of a strip of the old Coleman School property (former county library) to the state division of highways for $9,000. The strip was retained from an earlier sale of the balance of the site.

18. Agreed to a year's extension of the contract with California ambulance service for transportation of mentally ill.

19. Adopted a resolution prohibiting parking on the narrow sections of Seaview Avenue east of San Rafael.

20. Adjourned at 6 p.m.

The association expanded its board of directors to include two directors at large. Elected to these positions were James Reed and Thomas Peacock.

Thunderstorms Hit

CHICAGO (AP)—Severe thunderstorms broke across a broad belt in the Midwest and South during the night and early today, with storm warnings in effect for nine states. Tornadoes struck small communities and rural areas in parts of Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri and Illinois.

State's Spending Outpaces Income

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state's general fund totaled more than $13 million after the first 10 months of fiscal 1965-66 with expenditures about $250,000 more than revenues, State Controller Alan Cranston reported today.

Expenses of about $2 million were up 10.9 per cent from the same period in 1964-65, Cranston said, and revenues of $1.8 million were up 10.6 per cent.

Most of the revenue came from the state sales tax and most of the expenditures were for public schools and the University of California, said Cranston.

Parks Over-Stressed, Says County Rec Commissioner

Unless the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission changes its ways, one commissioner wants to resign.

In a letter to the commission, Peter Gottheiner of Greenbrae said he accepted appointment a year ago on the understanding that the work would involve development of recreation programs. Gottheiner is a physical therapist.

"It was not long until I noticed that to be a commissioner on the park and recreation commission meant to deal almost exclusively in discussion of purchases of sites and open spaces for the purpose of developing parks in the county," he wrote.

He further wrote that he did not consider himself qualified in real estate and land appraisals.

He said the bonds for parks campaign is "most typical of the emphasis of parks over recreation."

Gottheiner, who has missed eight out of 14 commission meetings, said he would be pleased to continue serving "if you are willing to accept some of my ideas and dedicate considerably more efforts on recreation. However, should you continue to concern yourself with parks exclusively, as you have in the past, I respectfully wish to tender my resignation."

County Supervisor Candidates To Speak

The three candidates for county supervisor from the first district have been invited to attend a candidates' night at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the San Rafael High School cafeteria.

Jointly sponsored by the Loch Lomond and Glenwood homeowners associations, the meeting is expected to bring together candidates John F. McInnis, Melvin Warenback and Dr. William F. Upton.

Wirtz Reverses Orders On Race

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Williard Wirtz is ordering the nation's 2,000 federal-state employment offices to classify millions of job applicants by race, it was learned today.

The order reverses an action several years ago wiping out racial identification on employment cards.

The purpose of Wirtz' action today is to keep a closer check on efforts to eliminate job discrimination, although the secretary conceded last October that it could result in some abuses if not closely supervised.

Aharon Shamir Is Getting Ideas About Social Work

By BRUCE COLEMAN

One of Aharon Shamir's favorite expressions is "lama lo?" It means, "why not?"

The Hebrew question is catching on in the Sausalito household of City Councilman Alexander R. Imlay and his family, along with "shalom," meaning "hello" and "goodbye" as well as "peace."

Shamir, 37, gentle and mustachioed, is staying for three weeks with the Imlays during a four-month visit to the United States for youth leaders and social workers sponsored by the State Department.

He is from Tel Aviv-Jaffa.

Shamir is an experienced youth leader and social worker, his current job being director of a youth house in Jaffa with 750 youngsters and adults.

On return in August he will head the Josef Cherner Youth House in Tel Aviv-Jaffa, the largest youth house in Israel.

Just being completed, it was built with money donated by the wife of the late Cherner of Washington, D.C. It is in the poorest section of the city and will have "many new instruments," according to Shamir, including a gymnasium and auditorium.

Shamir plans to incorporate new ideas in recreation he expects to learn in America.

Shamir hears lectures daily at San Francisco State College extension in the mornings with 19 other participants in the group who are staying in the Bay Area. During the afternoons, they visit different centers or places related to their field.

The leader will spend his second three weeks in the Bay Area with another host family, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wood of San Carlos. Then he will spend 10 weeks working with the job corps at Pleasanton, Alameda County. With him will be Glenelg M. Pitters of Jamaica, now staying with Mr. and Mrs. Terry Purcell of Greenbrae.

He will work with 20 youths at Pleasanton as a youth leader. "They don't like us to be just inspectors or observers," he said.

Shamir studied for his certificate to be a youth leader and social worker at University of Tel Aviv. He once lived one month a year on a kibbutzim in Israel, working in the youth movement, and from 1957 to 1959, lived in Argentina, working as a youth leader with Jewish youths under a Jewish agency.

He is married. He and his wife, Sara, have two sons, 9 and 3 years old. Shamir's wife is a kindergarten teacher.

Most participants in the youth center from which Shamir is now director are from North Africa, he said.

Shamir speaks Hebrew, Yiddish, English and Spanish. He is a regimental sergeant major in the army reserve, plays harmonica, and collects stamps and coins. He earns 850 Israeli pounds per month, or about $283.

Thirteen leaders will stay over a two-session period in Marin. In the first session, which ends Sunday, are: Shamir, staying with the Imlays; Pitters, staying with the Purcells; Miss Yoroko Amemya of Japan, staying at Katharine Branson School, Ross; Avtar Devgan of India, with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Marlowe, San Rafael; Mrs. Jane Holeva-Tassioy, Greece, with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graver, Mill Valley; Mrs. Rose Marie Ocampo, Philippines, with Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Cope of Mill Valley, and Manohar Ratwaney of India, Mr. and Mrs. John Wellington of Sausalito.

In the second session, May 22 to June 12, are: Miss Vivi Anne Skyman of Sweden, with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carter of San Anselmo; Miss Shanta Sharma of India, with Mr. and Mrs. John Finn III, Mill Valley; Kalevi Miettinen of Finland, with Joseph Nadel of Mill Valley; Miss Zuhal Karahan of Turkey, with Mr. and Mrs. Wagner D'Alessio, Ross; Bjorgvin Magnusson of Iceland, with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baum of Larkspur, and Le Chi Mau, a Buddhist monk from Viet Nam, with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Adams of Sausalito.

Two program participants will work in Marin County. Mahinsa Abeynayake of Ceylon is to work at Marin County Juvenile Hall starting June 12, and Miss Karahan is to work with the Bay Area Girl Scouts' summer camp, Bothin Manor, Fairfax.

Young Cyclist Breaks Shoulder In Collision

Robin L. Spalding of Ross received a broken right shoulder when he rode his bicycle in front of a slow moving truck on Hillside Avenue near Kent Avenue, Kentfield, at 4:40 p.m. Monday.

The California Highway Patrol reported that Spalding was riding downhill when he rode in front of an uphill-bound truck driven by Louis Riboli of 22 Sycamore Avenue, San Anselmo. Spalding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Spalding of 85 Chestnut Avenue, was treated at Marin General Hospital.

$20 Guitar Stolen

Charles J. Dietz, 99 Clark Street, San Rafael, reported to police Sunday the theft of a $20 guitar from his apartment home. There were no signs of forced entry, he said.

Motorcyclist Hurt In Crash With Car

A 21-year-old Kentfield student was seriously injured when his motorcycle collided headon car at the entrance to a College of Marin parking lot on Kent Avenue at 12:15 p.m. Monday.

Stephen Teng of 10 Acorn Way was reported in fair condition today in Marin General Hospital with fractured ribs and internal injuries.

The California Highway Patrol reported Nancy Doreen Brown, 19, of 500 South Eliseo Drive, Greenbrae, was driving west from the lot when her car ran into Teng.

The German city of Krefeld, an industrial center, was about 70 per cent destroyed by the Allies in World War II.

She's Hoping Her Frog Will Jump Farthest

A 7-year-old Terra Linda girl will be at Angels Camp in Calaveras County Sunday to root for her entry in the annual "celebrated jumping frog" contest.

Terry Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jones of 1019 Las Gallinas Avenue, qualified for the competition Saturday when her frog's 13-foot leap won a trial contest at Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael.

The contest was a highlight of the Louise Boyd Family Day attended by more than 200 children and their parents.

Other events include the entry of a wide range of pets in several competitive categories. First place winners were:

Large dogs, Jan Strohmayer's Afghan hound; small dogs, Kandy Christensen's mixed Pomeranian-Chihuahua; mutts, Nancy Strachan's entry; cats, Elaine Gaulden's entry.

Also: large warm-blooded animals, Eric Eisenberg's goat; small warm-blooded, Karen Steele's guinea pig; small cold-blooded, Stacey Hildreth's iguana.

A costumed parakeet, entered by Terry Hughes, won the costume parade. Eric Eisenberg's goat was judged best in show.

Judges were Humane Society deputy Charles Light, Dr. Robert Brannon, San Rafael veterinarian, and Jules Gall, San Rafael pet shop owner.

'Broken Circle' Play Planned

"Broken Circle," a play, will be presented by the Plays for Living Bay Area Group, sponsored by the Greater Bay Area Council of Family Services, at 8 p.m., Saturday at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Novato.

Henri Brown of Sausalito and Marietta and Jack Schmidt of Redwood City make up the cast. Director is Michael Kitay. An open end discussion of the play and the problems it presents will follow the presentation.

San Anselmo Searches For Zone Amendments

San Anselmo planning commission Monday night set the first of a long series of discussions which could lead to a lengthy amendment of the city zoning ordinance.

At its next meeting, the commission will discuss the city's two apartment residential zones with an eye to restricting the number of units allowed in the high density apartment zone.

Commissioner John West recommended several parts of the ordinance for review, and according to City Engineer Charles R. Leitzell, these could lead to a zoning ordinance amendment of "fair size."

The commission received a one-sentence letter of resignation from vice chairman James Murphy. An unsuccessful candidate for election to the city council in April, Murphy gave no explanation for his resignation, effective last Friday. He was appointed to the commission in April, 1963.

San Anselmo planning commission also:

1. Approved landscape plans for a Shell service station at 805 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

2. Agreed that Dan G. Lebakos can split a 10,000-square foot lot at 425 the Alameda into two 5,000-square foot lots.

Novato Police Seek Suspect In Exposure

He was described as about 25 years old, five feet seven to nine inches tall, weighing about 170 pounds, with dark, curly hair neatly cut.

Navy Bean Scallop For Supper, Buffet

We've all enjoyed scalloped potatoes and other popular layer-bake combinations in a cream sauce. Now from a mid-west farmland kitchen comes a dish we'd never tried before but found so unusual and delicious we would like to share it with you. It promises to be equally welcome at a family supper or on a party buffet. If you like, a raw vegetable garnish may be added for color just before serving, such as tomato slices or a few green pepper rings.

NAVY BEAN SCALLOP

1 pound dry navy beans
1 quart water
½ pound bacon, diced
1 medium onion, finely chopped
¼ cup flour
½ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 cup evaporated milk
¾ cup liquid from beans
1 cup sharp cheese, grated
1 cup mushrooms, sliced
¼ cup bread crumbs

Soak beans in the water overnight. Simmer till beans are tender, about 2 hrs. Drain beans, saving ¾ cup liquid. Fry bacon in skillet till crisp. Remove bacon and drain off excess fat leaving 5 tablespoons. Fry onion in the fat till tender but not brown. Blend in flour, salt and pepper and stir constantly while slowly stirring in the milk and bean liquid. When mixture starts to thicken, add the cheese and mushrooms and cook only till cheese is melted. In a greased casserole place alternate layers of beans, cheese sauce and bacon pieces. Top with remaining bacon and bread crumbs. Bake at 325 degrees for 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

QUICK METHOD. Forgotten to soak the beans overnight and want to prepare this dish for dinner anyway? No problem. Just put the beans in a large pot of water to cover. Bring to a rolling boil and cook 2 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let beans stand 1 hour. Then proceed with the regular cooking directions.

ELEGANT BUT SIMPLE is this festive champagne brunch menu consisting of turkey flavored with wine and herbs, fresh asparagus dressed with a mushroom sauce and glasses of champagne, each garnished with a fresh strawberry.

AT WEDDING TIME
Elegant Entertaining

A champagne brunch is an elegantly simple way to entertain, to toast a bride, to celebrate a birthday, or to welcome a special guest. The sparkling beverage sets the mood and whets the appetite for compatible foods to follow.

For buffet service, plan on a roast turkey basted with herbs and wine, and served with freshly cooked asparagus sauced with creamed mushrooms. Glasses of champagne garnished with fresh strawberries are beverage and dessert in one.

The amount of champagne to buy for such a party is a matter of easy arithmetic. California wineries bottle most of their sparkling wines in the standard size bottle that holds about 26 ounces. Most champagne glasses hold three or four ounces, so six to eight servings can be poured from each bottle. If the wine is to be served both before and with the food, the minimum number of servings for each person will be two. Three glasses each may be more realistic.

Given enough time, the refrigerator does a good job of chilling champagne. Allow at least two hours or more if several bottles are put in at once. It is traditional to surround the bottle with crushed ice to keep it at the same pleasantly cool temperature while it is being served. A silver wine cooler is beautiful, but no more effective than a large decorative bowl or even a glazed flower pot.

HERB-WINE BUFFET TURKEY
(Serves 10)

10 to 12 pound turkey
½ cup Chablis, Sauterne or other white dinner wine
3 stalks celery, halved
1 onion, peeled and quartered
1 sprig parsley
Melted butter

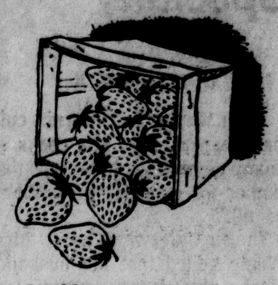
Pour ½ cup wine into cavity of turkey; swish around to moisten inside. Insert celery, onion and parsley. Tie legs together; skewer wings flat or tuck under bird; skewer neck skin under bird. Place turkey breast side up in roasting pan. Brush surface of bird with melted butter. Roast in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees) 2 hours. Continue cooking for another hour or until turkey is tender, basting frequently with Herb-Wine Baste.

HERB-WINE BASTE

Heat together ½ cup Chablis, ½ cup butter, 1 teaspoon flour, 1 teaspoon sugar, 2 teaspoons seasoned salt, 2 tablespoons wine vinegar and 2 teaspoons dill, or crumbled dried rosemary or mixed herb blend.

CREAMED MUSHROOMS

¾ pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
2 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion



2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon seasoned salt
⅛ teaspoon white pepper
1 cup milk
½ cup light cream
1 tablespoon sherry

Saute onion in butter over moderately low heat just until soft but not browned. Stir in mushrooms. Cover and cook about 10 minutes, stirring once or twice. Sprinkle on flour, salt and pepper. Slowly stir in milk and cream. Cook and stir until sauce thickens. Add sherry and keep hot. Serve over cooked asparagus spears garnished with buttered toast points.

Leftover Beef Combination Makes Savory Skillet Dish

Leftover beef makes a flavorsome skillet dish.

Beef Fiesta — Buckwheat Groats
Broccoli — Salad Bowl
Brownies — Beverage

BEEF FIESTA

1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 cup thin onion strips
1 can (6 ounces) sliced broiled mushrooms, drained
¼ teaspoon celery salt
1½ teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
2 cups pencil-thick short strips rare roast beef
½ cup sour cream. Salt and pepper to taste

Stir a few tablespoons of the stewed-tomato juice into the flour, keeping smooth; reserve tomatoes and the flour mixture. In a 10-inch skillet over low heat, melt the butter; add onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until wilted. Add the stewed tomatoes, flour mixture, mushrooms, celery salt and Worcestershire sauce; over moderately low heat, cook and stir constantly—breaking up tomatoes—until thickened and bubbly. Add the beef, sour cream and salt and pepper; mix well and reheat. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Add Lemon Juice, Parsley To Barbecuing Lamb Chops

Barbecue season is returning again, and millions of Americans will take to the outdoors to stage culinary spectaculars on the charcoal grill.

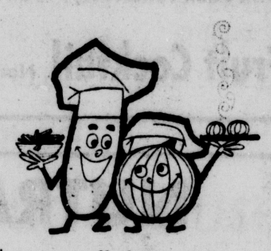
After many seasons of steaks, hamburgers and an occasional roast done on the rotisserie, why not become a bit adventuresome? Strike out and grill some different meat cuts, use various basting sauces and marinades, design unusual kabob combinations, and cook a whole meal over the coals.

One meat cut that's delicious when barbecued, yet rarely prepared that way, is lamb sirloin chops. And here's a tasty way to cook them . . . with a tangy marinade which is also brushed over the meat as it grills.

It's quickly made by mixing lemon juice, salad oil, chopped parsley, plus a few seasonings like marjoram, garlic and instant onion.

This basic marinade is one to remember, for it can be used on other barbecue specialties as well. Try it on beef or lamb kabobs, on lamb rib or shoulder chops, on chicken, or even on beef steak. Use it for cooking indoors, too.

As you know, the cooking times given in this recipe can only be approximate. Much will depend upon intensity of heat from your coals, wind conditions and the other variables of outdoor cooking. Lamb steaks may be grilled to either rare, medium or well done.



TANGY BARBECUED LAMB STEAKS

4 to 6 lamb sirloin chops, cut ¾ to 1 inch thick (or shoulder chops)
½ cup lemon juice
½ cup salad oil
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
¼ cup chopped parsley
1 clove garlic, split
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon marjoram

Place lamb chops in shallow pan. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over meat. Allow meat to marinate in the refrigerator for at least 4 hours or overnight. Start fire far enough in advance so that coals are covered with light gray ash when cooking begins. Place chops on grill about 3 inches from the coals. Use remaining marinade for basting meat during cooking. Lamb chops cut ¾ to 1 inch thick will require about 12 minutes for medium doneness; chops cut 1½ inches thick require about 18 minutes for medium. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Hot Diamond Braid A Morning Treat

Hot home-baked breads are back "in" with homemakers of all ages, according to home economists for the Dairy Council of California who had this Diamond Braid Bread neighborhood tested. The recipe makes enough dough for one Diamond Braid, delicious when gently broken into pieces and served while still hot, and one regular loaf. The loaf is especially tasty when toasted and served up with butter or a honey and butter combination.

This buttery-rich bread can be made with or without the additional flavor compliment of walnuts.

DIAMOND BRAID BREAD

1 cup milk
½ pound (2 sticks) butter
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cake compressed, or 1 envelope active dry yeast
6 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup sliced or chopped walnuts, if desired
5½ to 6 cups sifted flour
¼ pound (1 stick) butter, melted

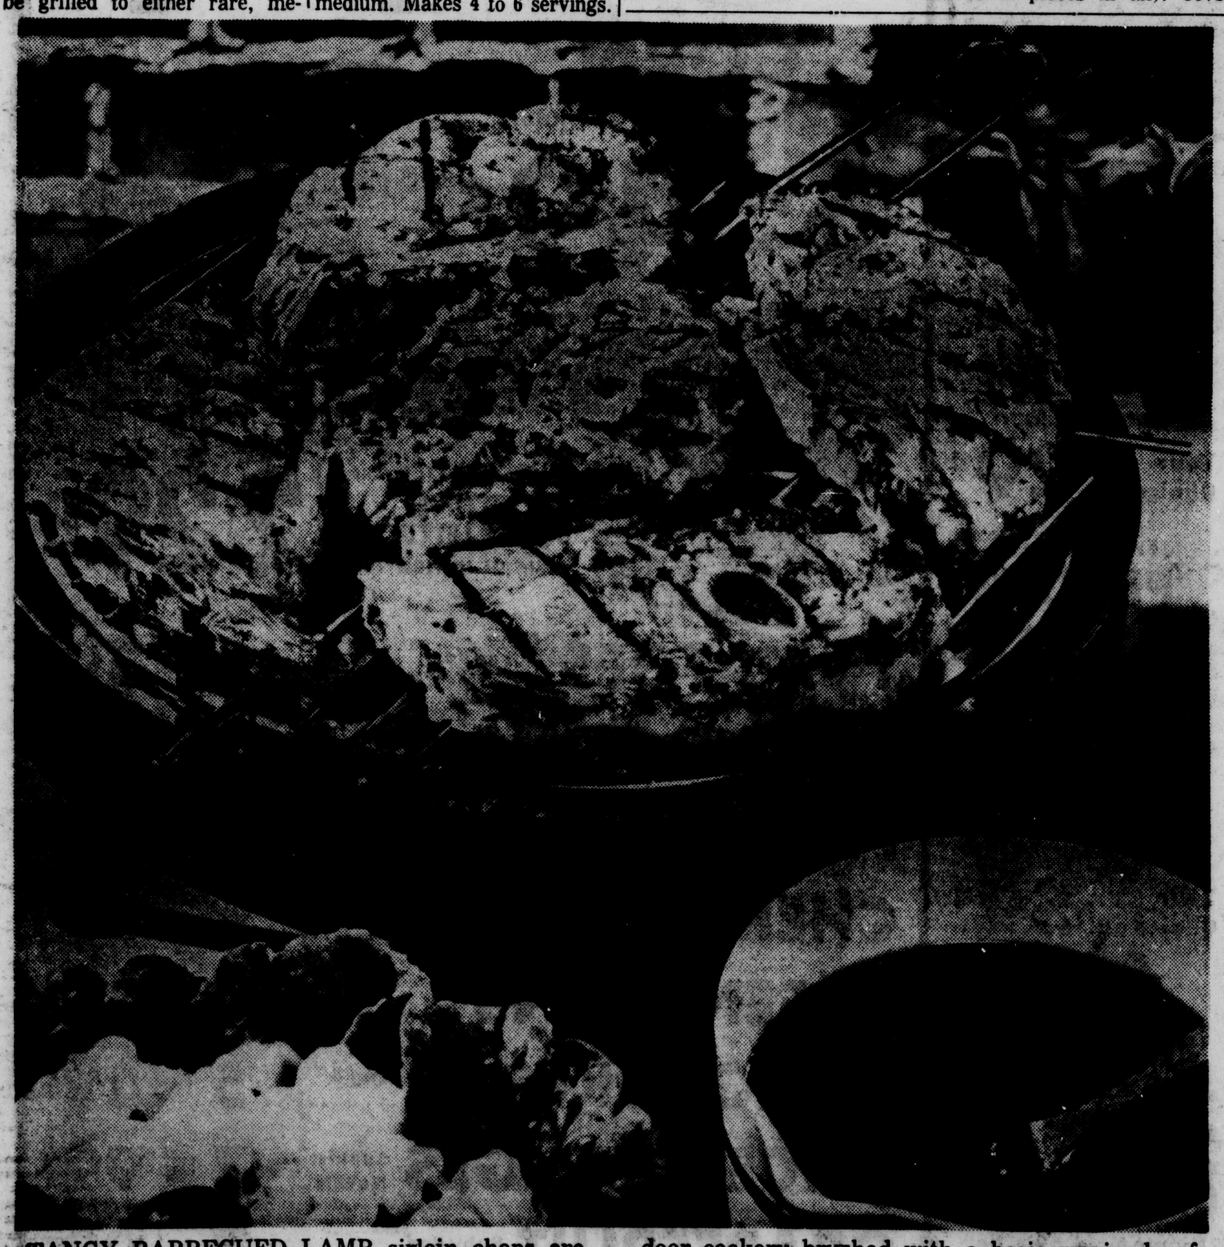
Combine milk with butter, sugar and salt in small saucepan. Warm over low heat until butter is melted. Cool to lukewarm; stir in yeast until dissolved. In large mixing bowl, combine milk-yeast mixture thoroughly with eggs, nuts and 5 cups of the sifted flour. Cover with towel and let rise in warm place until spongy and double in bulk. Work in enough more flour to make dough easy to handle. Knead lightly on floured board or towel. Roll out small amounts of dough about ¼-inch thick. Cut into diamond shapes. Dip each diamond into melted butter and arrange in overlapping design in 10-inch tube pan. Make three rows of diamonds (about 35 to 40 pieces in all). Cover with towel and let rise until within 1-inch of top of pan.

Shape remaining dough into loaf and place in 9x5x3-inch baking pan. Brush with melted butter and cover with towel. Let rise until double in bulk. Bake both loaves in moderate, 350 degree, oven 40 to 45 minutes.

Apple-Ades

Festive non-alcoholic drinks can be made with canned or chilled apple juice. For good combinations, try half and half apple juice and ginger ale; plain apple juice on ice cubes; a mixture of two parts apple juice to one part cranberry juice; or apple juice with a squeeze of lemon juice and a dash of grenadine.

HOT, BUTTERY DIAMOND Braid Bread is gently broken into pieces and served. The loaf is especially tasty when toasted and served with butter or a honey and butter combination. One recipe makes enough dough for both braid and loaf.



TANGY BARBECUED LAMB sirloin chops are delicious when grilled "to a turn" over glowing coals. It's an appetizingly different idea for outdoor cookery brushed with a basic marinade of lemon juice, salad oil, chopped parsley, plus marjoram, garlic and instant onion.

Saucy Lamb Shanks Tasty

This lamb dish is prepared on the top of the range.

Saucy Lamb Shanks — Rice
Broccoli — Salad
Honey Cake — Beverage

SAUCY LAMB SHANKS

4 lamb shanks, each ¾ pound
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 small onion, chopped
¼ cup chopped green pepper
½ cup water
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup, undiluted
½ cup dry white wine
Salt and pepper

Coat lamb shanks with flour. In Dutch oven, brown well in heated oil; remove. Add onion and green pepper to drippings in Dutch oven and brown lightly; remove with slotted spoon. Discard any excess oil. Return shanks, onion and green pepper to Dutch oven. Add water. Thoroughly mix together the mushroom soup and wine; pour over shanks. Bring to boil; reduce heat. Simmer, covered, for 1 hour, stirring occasionally. Simmer uncovered 15 minutes or until shanks are tender. Add salt and pepper to taste. Makes 4 servings.

Cooking With Wine Is Her Specialty

By JEANNE LESEM
UPI Food Editor

Jean Wente, a California culinary expert, says she cooks so many dinners for 30 persons that dinner for eight is "no problem at all."

In an interview here, Mrs. Wente added that her husband, Karl, also brings home last minute guests for lunch so often that "now I look at any recipe and think about the short cuts I can take."

She said she prefers dishes that can be prepared quickly or in advance, that will stand up well for buffet service, and that use convenience foods.

Much of her cooking obviously is based on her mother-in-law's suggestion: "If a recipe calls for water, why don't you try a little wine?"

COOKING WITH WINE is especially appropriate, for many of the meals Mrs. Wente prepares are entertainment for groups of wine buyers or other wine industry people.

She added that they entertain at their home in the middle of the vineyards in Livermore Valley because their business is in a rural community with no restaurant of any size nearby. Mrs. Wente said she does her own shopping and cooking because the rural location also makes full-time help hard to find.

HER SPECIALTIES include carrots sauteed with grapes and a little wine; meat glazed with sweet semillon or sweet sauternes, both slightly sweet dessert wines; green pears soaked in gray riesling, then topped with dairy sour cream and heated in a broiler until the cream browns and takes on cheesy texture.

She added that she often makes wine sauces for vegetables, except cabbage, and adds her own mushroom-wine sauce to a quick lunch main course that she makes with frozen chicken breasts in mushroom sauce served on frozen spinach souffle.

FIRST COURSE for a dinner party is apt to be jellied consomme served with a glass of gray riesling or chablis. She said she also prepares canned potato soup with a little dry semillon, cream, seasoning salt and onion juice, and a garnish of chives or dillweed.

Wild duck and pheasant are favorites with her husband and their three children, ages 10, 13 and 14, she said. The eldest, both boys, hunt with their father in a club game preserve.

Mrs. Wente said that she stuffs wild duck with one sliced onion and one sliced orange, for each duck, then bastes with frozen orange juice concentrate and wine, such as sauvignon blanc, using a large can of concentrate and half a bottle or more of wine for five ducks. She serves pheasant hash in a casserole with wine-cooked artichoke hearts and a cream sauce containing pulp scraped from artichoke leaves.

WHY MAKE HASH of pheasant? Said Mrs. Wente: "Because we had a puppy once who didn't do too well retrieving. He crunched the birds so they couldn't be cooked whole."

Jean Wente's wine sauce for hot broccoli or asparagus contains just four ingredients. Stir ¼ teaspoon of curry powder into 1 cup of mayonaise. Stir in 1 teaspoon of lemon juice and ¼ cup of dry white wine. Heat, stirring constantly, but do not boil. Makes enough for 2½ pounds of fresh vegetables or 2 10-ounce packages of frozen.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Prosecution Needed For Parents Who Stage Teen Drinking Parties

DEAR HELEN:

What do you think of parents who put on drinking parties for their teen-agers and getting them so drunk that they can't even drive home by themselves?

These were 15 and 16 year old kids. When my folks complained (they had to come after me because my boy friend had too much) these people said, "It's better to let them have beer at home than sneak it out in the woods somewhere."

I don't drink, but it's getting harder and harder to go places where others don't drink, too. Especially when the parents cave in.—MINORITY OF ONE

DEAR ONE:

What do I think of parents who put on drinking sessions for 15 and 16-year-olds? They are breaking the law and should be prosecuted.

Granted teens will experiment with liquor, but the majority don't "go out in the woods and get drunk." Adults who use that excuse for "Soused Sixteen" parties are trying to buy popularity for their children. The price is much too high, for the popularity is the snickering kind that says, "If you want booze, get in with —: Her old man's a pushover."

Your best bet, "M. of O.," is to stop thinking of yourself as the lone hold-out. Make it plain you won't date a boy who drinks on a date, and you'll be surprised how many respect you for your stand. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

A girl who lives a couple of houses from me has started this lie about my future husband and me. She has whispered it around that I had one abortion, and now I am expecting another baby. We have only been engaged four months, and haven't even set the date for our wedding.

You see, she got in trouble, and I guess she wants to whitewash herself by making others seem like her. I have never been unkind to her. Why do people try to hurt other people this way?—M.D.

DEAR M:

When an animal is hurt, he bites whatever is nearest him. Humans sometimes react the same way. Your friends won't believe the girl's story; your enemies would believe it anyway; and most people couldn't care less, especially since this kind of unfounded rumor is quite prevalent today.

Pity her, and let others (including her) know you "understand." Sympathy neutralizes gossip: it either quiets a wagging tongue or turns people deaf to it.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

Since February I have been getting letters from a boy. Maybe I know him, and maybe he's a complete stranger. He doesn't tell me his name, but he tells me what he likes, what he thinks, how he feels, and asks me to take his letters seriously. They're interesting. I know he's for real.

He told me that on graduation night (from the 8th grade) he will come up and ask me to dance with him, and then I'll know who he is. What shall I do?—UNDECIDED

DEAR UN:

Now there's a boy with romance in his soul. Enjoy your letters and hope for an early graduation . . . And even if he's the short, quiet kid with the stutter, remember that eighth grade males grow out of the awkward age fast with a little help from an understanding girl. —H.

P.S. Let us know how it turns out, won't you? I'm hooked on happy endings.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Bureau Names Mrs. Gasaway May Volunteer Of The Month

The Volunteer Bureau of Marin has named Mrs. Glenn Gasaway of Fairfax as May's Volunteer of the Month. In presenting Mrs. Gasaway with the award, Mrs. Marion Kelley, executive director of the bureau, said, "May is mental health month, and Reggie Gasaway is serving the cause of mental health with an abundance of enthusiasm, perseverance, and good will." Mrs. Gasaway has been a vounteer at Napa State Hospital since September, when the Marin Assn. for Mental Health began a volunteer program there.

MRS. GLENN GASAWAY

Mrs. Gasaway and one or two co-volunteers leave home at 8:30 every other Monday and don't get back until 4. And in their five hours at the hospital they are really put to work. "Napa State Hospital, like so many others, is overcrowded and understaffed," she says. "There are so many little things that a volunteer can do—things that require no special training at all, after the initial orientation course. Any activity in the arts and crafts field is welcome, or playing games, even combing the patients' hair for them. Little things—but things the staff just doesn't have time to do."

A long-time volunteer, Mrs. Gasaway was a Cub Scout den mother for both her sons, a Bluebird assistant leader for her daughter, and chairman of the Camp Fire Girls' mint sale in Marin, and health and welfare chairman for her P-TA. Last year she was area chairman for the Mental Health Assn.'s fund raising campaign. Upon reading the campaign literature she became so interested in the problems of mental health that she offered her services as a volunteer. Thus her job at Napa. She has recently expanded her job to include participation in orientation and training given in Marin. The training is for volunteers in the new out-patient service program in Marin as well as for Napa volunteers.

Reggie Gasaway's husband, Glenn, is a foreman at a photo-engraving plant in San Francisco. Their son Gregg attends the College of Marin, Mark is about to enter Drake High School, and daughter Kelly will be at Central Junior High School next year. The Gasaways have lived at 407 Oak Manor Drive in Fairfax for 10 years.

Persons interested in the volunteer program at Napa Hospital may contact the Volunteer Bureau, at 725 A Street in San Rafael. The bureau is sponsored by the Junior League of San Francisco, Inc.

Marin Women

Dance Guild To Sponsor 'Opposites'

Students of the modern dance classes sponsored by the Pacific Dance Guild of Mill Valley and taught by Dick Ford will give a free demonstration for parents and friends at Park School auditorium tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

The over-all theme for the evening will be based on "opposites." Technique I will demonstrate use of levels as they do "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary" from the "Mother Magoo Suite."

Technique II, with choreography by Kathy Jenkins, will develop the idea of rag dolls and soldiers. Technique III will work on the theme "Weeds and Trees", choreographed by Wendy Jacobs and the group.

The junior workshop will dance a number choreographed by Deneen Ford.

The senior workshop will use music by Don Shirley, and dance a number recently performed at the Betty Jones concert in San Mateo and choreographed by Deneen Ford and Kathy Jenkins.

The jazz class will do a surprise number choreographed by instructor Anna Jordan, and the all-boys group will demonstrate from their rhythm class the use of props in relation to gymnastics, some dramatic ideas through rhythm and some tumbling skills.

Shopping in the Village
with Carol King and Pat Reynolds

Sunny springtime Sundays are turning into family shopping fun. Most of The Village shops are open Sunday afternoon for browsin' and buyin'. Window shoppers welcome!

at STRAWBERRY

We would like to recommend one of our favorite delicacies. The Cheeseball at HICKORY FARMS OF OHIO has got to be one of the best tasting treats we've come across. If you are at all fond of cheese, be sure to taste this blend of Canadian cheddar and blue cheese. (Like most everything else at HICKORY FARMS, you can taste before you buy.) After blending, the cheeseball is rolled in ground walnuts and ready for family snacks or gifting your cheese-loving friends. This one pound Cheeseball sells for one dollar and ninety-eight cents . . . it will keep for at least a month in the refrigerator and three to four months in the freezer. Quite possibly, the HICKORY FARMS Cheeseball will keep longer, but it's always eaten-up so fast that no one has ever found out.

Manicure magic is happening each Wednesday at MILFORD'S OF THE PALACE salon. Right before your very eyes, lovely fingernails are literally built upon your own nails, then sculptured, shaped and polished. The finished artificial nails would do Mother Nature proud but the credit goes to Miss Lori, an attractive and most competent professional manicurist. These doubtful reporters were frankly skeptical about this first-in-Marin "fingernail fantasy," but can now report first hand knowledge that 'tis true. These artificial nails, called Patti Nails, look better than most natural nails . . . are a blessing as corrective cosmetics (for both men and women) . . . they do not come off in water . . . they hold a manicure like nobody's business . . . in short, they are great. Each Wednesday at MILFORD'S OF THE PALACE, Miss Lori is turning hide-away hands into shameless showoffs. Seeing is believing . . . be sure to make an appointment.

Some wonderful swimwear fashions now at EXPECTATION MATERNITY SHOP. Bright, sunny prints and more subtle solid colors with blouson, empire and over-blouse styles to choose from. We have noticed the staff at EXPECTATION MATERNITY SHOP specializes in personalized service, helpfully mixing and matching and coordinating these pretty fashions to assure mothers-to-be that they are most fashionably pretty.

A very special price right now on some very special fabric at K. MYERS FABRICS. This Zepel finished cotton and rayon material is 54 inches wide and selling for one dollar and ninety eight cents a yard . . . regular price is three dollars a yard. These interesting prints are available in marvelous colors and, since they are water and spot resistant, are as at home for rainwear as for summer frocks.

We were interested to hear about a new convenience for those people who need eye exercise. DR. THOMAS J. MACKEY, OPTOMETRIST, tells us he now loans the necessary instruments to his patients for their use at home. Naturally he supervises these home exercises which used to require daily office visits. DR. MACKEY tells us there is nothing complicated about the equipment he loans and his patients, who keep busy business hours, find these home exercises an easy way to maintain regular treatments.

We have always found miniatures intriguing . . . so were naturally pleased with the many miniature "makings" at ALBERTA OF MARIN. Besides exquisite artificial flowers Alberta has all the supplies for miniature flower arrangements . . . containers, tiny figurines and pin frogs. Snoopers are always invited.

Wedding Bells, sculptured in wax, decorate magnificent tall white candles at FIESTA CANDLE SHOP. These very special candles make lovely wedding gifts and would look marvelous on the Bride's Table at the reception. In two sizes, both planned to burn on and on at each anniversary. FIESTA CANDLE SHOP offers a wide selection of decorator candles and accessories that make perfect shower and wedding gifts. Price range here will please any budget.

If warm weather means itchy animals around your house, MUTTS OF MARIN has many sure soothers for summer scratchers.

Shower shoppers will enjoy the fine selection of books for brides at CAPRICORN BOOKS. The ever-popular Emily Post's "Etiquette," updated last year, is just as welcomed by today's brides as it has been by generations of new homemakers. Many other appropriate books here on cooking, home decorating, gardening, etc. — and the price range is as varied as the subject matter.

Very enlightening experience last week at WONDERFUL WORLD OF WIGS. Your curious reporters had a ball trying on wigs and learning how wigs are made . . . why the price difference between hand-tied and machine-sewn . . . are they hot and itchy? (no!) . . . and how one cares for a wig (simple!). Brand new at WONDERFUL WORLD OF WIGS, a hand-tied, human hair wig, available in all colors . . . and for the fantastic price of one hundred and thirty-five dollars. Seeing is believing . . . we saw and were sold. Very special right now . . . wiglets for fifteen dollars. These small marvels are limited to the darker shades but the supply is plentiful. By the way, don't let your budget bully you into staying away from this shop . . . there is financing available on all purchases.

If you are planning a party, you'd do well to "plan with Dan" at VILLAGE LIQUORS. This knowledgeable fellow can give you expert advice on just what, and how much, to buy. Extra bonus here for Dan's customers, their party purchase is accompanied by ice and glassware loaned free (you can keep the ice).

As very snoopy shopping reporters, we have been particularly impressed by the variety of choice merchandise at VILLAGE JEWELERS. All high quality items here (which does not necessarily mean expensive) and many of them particularly appropriate for traditional wedding gifts. Lovely serving pieces in silver or stainless holloware, beautiful clocks that are absolute jewels in their own right . . . to name only a few suggestions. Many, many bridesmaid's gifts here, too. VILLAGE JEWELERS carry a fine line of watches, so appreciated by June graduates . . . more about this next week.

Chris Gartman, manager and charmin' host at THE HICK'RY PIT, greeted us last week with news of three charge plans he has instigated for the convenience of his customers . . . they are Town & Country Village Charge Plan, BankAmericard and Diner's Club. We also learned that HICK'RY PIT pastries are as popular as ever and this season the runaway favorite is Fresh Strawberry Pie—great for a shopper's snack and a sure winner when taken home for the family.

There is a brand new showplace right smack in the middle of Town & Country Village. This choice spot is the new location of IMPORTS INTERNATIONAL and a "must" for Marin shoppers. We were tipped-off to the wonders that await inside by the magnificently decorated windows of this new building. Vibrant colors tell the tale and all but mesmerize the shopper to look further. Take time to browse the spacious interior and plan on impulse buying . . . we predict it will be difficult to leave IMPORTS INTERNATIONAL without a "treasure" or two.

In future weeks, we'll report in more detail on the unique merchandise found here . . . but these brief notes will give you an idea. Rugs, jugs and mugs . . . a riot of color in the huge artificial flower department . . . fabulous collection of decorator pillows . . . unusual jewelry from around the world . . . huge yardage and linen departments . . . brass . . . crockery . . . crystal. More madras and straw and wicker things than you'd believe existed. In fact, IMPORTS INTERNATIONAL is difficult to believe even when you see it. But, it's for real and for true and for you . . . and for some of the most delightful shopping you've ever experienced.

Collegians Enduring Boot Camp To Lend Realism To 'Stalag 17'

By STEPHEN COOK

For the last three weeks, 18 College of Marin men have suffered indignities they would have never thought possible at an academic institution.

For the sake of art, they have been regimented into military-like platoons and squads. At each meeting, their instructor subjected them to roll call and personal inspection.

They were told where to stand or sit and warned not to move. They asked the instructor's permission when they had to go to the bathroom. Cigarettes were taboo until he told them to smoke.

All this was college drama director James Dunn's way of preparing a cast of 18 fat-cat men for roles they could never have experienced—those of the prisoners of war of "Stalag 17," a drama about captured American airmen in a Nazi prisoner of war camp.

The play, first produced on Broadway in 1951, will open a run of eight performances Friday at 8:30 p.m. in the college's little theater in Harlan Hall.

When rehearsals began three weeks ago, director Dunn's problem was to inject a sense of reality into the production, no easy task with such a young cast.

"Most of these students have no idea of what it could be like in a prisoner of war camp," said Dunn. "They live in comfortable homes, have plenty to eat and most have not yet been in military service."

He has tried to overcome this handicap by setting up a "boot camp" atmosphere during rehearsals "in hopes they may at least get some feeling of life in a POW camp."

Last Saturday for example, the cast spent seven non-stop hours in the 110-seat little theater, painting walls, building sets, and receiving a continual browbeating from drill instructor Dunn.

"This confinement forces the actors to resort to devious ways of getting around me," he said.

The audience too, Dunn hopes, will get a distinct feeling of what it was like in the POW camps. From front to back, the little theater has been painted ugly shades of gray and green to resemble a barracks.

German uniforms worn by actors will be authentic, he said.

The authenticity will be aimed specifically at persons who have been subjected to "all the television comedies which make war out to be light-hearted fun," Dunn said.

The play will also be performed Friday, Saturday and Sunday this week and Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday next week. The curtain rises at 8:30 p.m. for each performance.

Tickets may be obtained by reservation only, Dunn said, through the college art department. There is an admission fee.

Cast in the production are: Lawrie Driscoll of Novato as Stosh, Bart Braverman of Corte Madera as Harry, David Dukes of San Rafael as Price, Larry Smith of San Rafael as Herb, Kent Kay of Mill Valley as Hoffman, Frank Silvey of Corte Madera as Sefton, Gene Babo of Novato as Duke, Tom White of Corte Madera as McCarthy, Jim Land of Mill Valley as Horney, Roger Lane of San Rafael as Marko, Steve Hewitt of Sausalito as Dunbar, Jerry Kay of Mill Valley as Reed, Ron Teague of Sausalito as the first secret service guard, Craig Cummins of Novato as the second secret service guard, David McCauley of Sausalito as corporal Schultze, Milt Cooper of Fairfax as the Geneva man, and Chris Shubach of Sausalito as the Secret Service captain.

Technical crew includes Terry Brennan of San Rafael as stage manager, David Dukes of San Rafael as stage carpenter, Kent Kay and Jim Land of Mill Valley and Lawrie Driscoll of Novato as stage crew, Dennis Labella of San Rafael as light technician, Douglas Hobbs of Fairfax and Philip Pratt of Fairfax as light crew, Katrinka McKay of Corte Madera as property mistress, Helen McDonald of Sausalito and Karson Young of Kentfield as prop crew.

'Sound Of Murder' Ends Saturday

Final performances of "Sound of Murder," being presented by the Tiburon Cove Players, will be Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m., at the 41 Main Street Theater in Tiburon.

The sophisticated mystery stars Abe Kalish, Joan McKinney and Sara Davis.

Festival Of Arts Planned

San Domenico Upper School students (grades 9-12) in Sleepy Hollow will present a festival of the performing arts this weekend.

On Saturday at 3 p.m. in the pavilion, students in the music department under direction of Faith France will present works by Mozart, Ravel, Brahms, J. S. Bach, Mendelssohn, Beethoven and others. Also a chamber ensemble and three-part women's chorus will do "A Song of Praise" by Pierne directed by James Schultz.

On Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the lower school assembly hall, the ballet department under direction of Greta Tozier will stage "Cinderella" by Prokofiev.

School Hoping For Scholarship Concert Series

The San Rafael High School band next week will hold the first of what director Terry Summa hopes will be an annual series of scholarship concerts similar to those of the band at Terra Linda High School.

It is scheduled for 8 p.m. May 26 at the school gymnasium.

Fourteen selections will be played, including four jazz numbers by the school dance band. One of these will be the currently popular song "Michelle," written by John Lennon and Paul McCartney of the Beatles quartet.

Other works on the program will range from works by Mozart and Vivaldi to John Philip Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Proceeds will go toward a fund with which Summa plans to try setting up scholarships for summer music camps and other projects.

'Magic Storybook' Performances Set

The two performances of "The Magic Storybook" scheduled for Saturday at the Novato Community House have been canceled, announces Castle Court Players, producers.

Lack of attendance at the first performance was blamed for the cancellation.

Soloists Announced For Youth Orchestra

Names of five young people who will perform as soloists in next season's two concerts of the Marin Youth Orchestra were announced today by Mrs. Alexis Tellis, youth orchestra chairman for the sponsoring Symphony Guild of Marin.

Sololists in the first concert will be oboist Mark Salkind and violinist Debbie Roberts.

Mark, 13, in seventh grade at Marin Country Day School and a pupil of Leland Lincoln, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Salkind of Mill Valley. Debbie, 14, a San Rafael High School freshman and a pupil of Charles Meacham, is a daughter of Mrs. Adelaide Roberts of San Rafael.

In the second concert, soloists will be clarinetist Mike Wellen and duo-pianists Mary Rosenquist and Mike Mello.

Mary, 16, a junior at Terra Linda High School, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Rosenquist of San Rafael. Mike Wellen, 17, a junior at San Rafael High School and a pupil of Don Carol, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Wellen of San Rafael. Mike Mello, 13, in eighth grade at Blessed Sacrament School, Santa Venetia, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Mello of San Rafael. He and Mary are pupils of Faith France.

The young musicians were selected in auditions held Monday afternoon at San Rafael High School. Judges were Hugo Rinaldi, director of music for San Rafael schools and director of the Marin Youth Orchestra, and Independent-Journal music critic Maybelle Speckmann.

Leland Jordan Named To Crusade Position

San Rafael attorney Leland H. Jordan will head the Marin County professional division for the 1966 United Bay Area Crusade campaign.

Jordan, who has served in previous UBAC campaigns, will be in charge of solicitation among attorneys, physicians, dentists, accountants, architects, engineers and social workers. These groups contributed $18,400 in Marin last year.

$900,000 Asked In Two Wrecks

Damage suits totaling $900,000 were filed in Marin Superior Court yesterday as result of two traffic accidents 30 minutes apart last Jan. 4 on the Black Point Cutoff near Petaluma River Bridge.

Two women were killed in one of the crashes: Mrs. Arlene F. Smith, 22, of Vallejo and Mrs. Alma F. Bench, 61, of Novato. Mrs. Smith's husband, Roy E. Smith, on behalf of himself and their 3-year-old son, James, filed suit against the State of California, John H. Brandon Tire Supply Co. of San Rafael, B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co., and Rotunda Seat Belt Co. for $500,000 for Mrs. Smith's death and $250,000 for head and nervous system injuries to the boy.

Thirty minutes before the Smith car skidded across the highway to collide with that driven by Alton B. Bench, whose wife was killed, a car driven by Thomas B. Sweeney of San Francisco skidded at almost the exact same spot, went over a guard rail and down an embankment.

Sweeney and his wife, Barbara, filed suit against the State of California for $100,000 damages for head, neck and back injuries suffered by Mrs. Sweeney and $50,000 for similar injuries suffered by Sweeney.

The Smith suit alleges that faulty construction and maintenance of the highway resulted in a pool of water in which the car skidded. It charges that the car's recapped tires, supplied by Goodrich and sold by Brandon, were defective, and that the seat belt did not prevent Mrs. Smith from being hurled against the roof of the car.

The Sweeney suit alleges faulty construction and maintenance of the highway.

Attorney for the plaintiffs in both suits is Ronald H. Rodda of San Francisco.

THE HIGH AND THE FLIGHTY

With the arrival of the first C-14 Globemaster planes to replace the old "flying boxcars" at Hamilton Air Force Base, the Golden Gate Troop Carrier Wing will start ferrying troops and equipment to the Far East. The new planes can carry far more cargo and personnel than the former transports. Here Col. Billy C. Means of Novato, director of wing operations at the base, receives the first plane from Lt. Col. L. J. Bauer of Hickham Air Force Base, Hawaii.

Supervisors Argue Arks' Plight

By RICHARD LYTTLE

A plea by ark dwellers who are being evicted from state land along Corte Madera Creek sparked heated discussion at the Marin County Board of Supervisors session yesterday.

One citizen charged the board was a "disgrace" as he was gaveled to silence. Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, complaining that he was made to appear as the villain, charged that board Chairman Byron W. Leydecker had "not done his homework." And ark residents charged they were being denied their rights.

At the bottom of it all was, once again, the Corte Madera Creek flood control project.

About 30 arks either fully or partially on land leased from the state must be removed. The state lands commission is expected to give 60-day notice to ark owners this week. There is no provision for compensating owners for their investment in improvements and buildings.

Complicating the issue is the necessity to remove a sewer line on the east side of Bon Air Bridge for the first phase of flood control work to start this summer. The line serves 15 arks which could remain for one more year if they had other sewer connections.

Despite the heat in yesterday's debate, supervisors agreed:

1. To seek estimates on an alternate sewer line.

2. To write Gov. Edmund G. Brown, explaining the situation, and asking that he request a special call of the legislature for remedial action so the ark owners can be compensated.

3. To inform state legislators, including State Sen. Jack F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley of San Rafael.

4. To ask Public Works Director Donald R. Frost to explore possibility of moving the arks and finding sites on other state lands for them.

Mrs. Harry H. Water, an ark dweller for 42 years, said it was impossible to get any of the arks west of the bridge out because the Hilview Gardens tract has closed in on the east and the bridge prevents moving them down stream. "You can't get a bathtub out of there," she said.

"This is a hell of a deal," Chairman Leydecker said. He wondered why the board of supervisors was hearing about it at such a late hour.

"We've all known about this all along," Supervisor Kettenhofen said. "You just have not done your homework."

Kettenhofen said he had put the discussion on the agenda yesterday to see if the board would adopt a resolution asking a special legislature call.

"Now all the rest of you are great big heroes. It's ridiculous," he said.

He said Leydecker wanted to write the governor because "he's a friend of the governor."

"You don't have to get nasty," Leydecker countered.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he would be the villain if it would please Kettenhofen.

This banter touched a nerve in Mrs. Winifred Frederick of Lagunitas, attending the session because she was concerned about the threat to the ark owners. She jumped to her feet declaring:

"The behavior of this board is a disgrace."

"You're out of order," Chairman Leydecker said, banging the gavel.

"You're out of order," Mrs. Frederick retorted.

University Campus Proposal Labelled Political Football

Marin County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen yesterday charged that an effort to get a University of California campus in Marin was being made into a "political football."

He asked that discussion of the possibility be put off until June 10, the first meeting after the primary.

In effect, that was what supervisors did with Melvin Warenback's request that the board provide leadership in the effort.

Warenback is one of three candidates for supervisor in the First District, seeking to replace Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker who declined to run.

"As long as I'm chairman of the board, any citizen who wants can address us," Leydecker said yesterday in overruling Kettenhofen's protest.

Warenback said that the effort to get the campus in Marin will require leadership and organization. He suggested that board members confer with Gordon Sinclair of the Santa Cruz Sentinel, who was one of the leaders in getting a U.C. campus at Santa Cruz.

"All we need is 14 different groups going in 12 different directions or more, and we've blown it," Leydecker said, adding that supervisors were the logical ones to provide leadership.

Kettenhofen, who said he had explored the possibility extensively before, was skeptical of Marin's chances and wondered whether a campus would really be a good thing.

Carroll A. Snyker of the Marin Development Assn. said an association committee headed by Jack Craemer of the Independent-Journal is looking into the possibility of a U.C. campus in Marin.

Safety Commission To Consider Hiring

The Marin County Safety Commission will review a proposal for a part-time county safety officer at its regular meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Civic Center.

The commission will also review details of 10 accidents.

Moose Plan Dinner

A steak dinner for members and guests will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the Novato Moose Lodge Hall, 855 Vallejo Avenue. Dancing with a western dance band will start at 9 p.m.

Airport Panel Concerned By Heliport Loss

The Marin County Aviation Commission failed to get a quorum last night, but the three members attending agreed that the commission would give "very serious" study to relocating the county's heliport on Richardson Bay.

Commodore Properties, owner of the land, has put the county's lease on a month-to-month basis, explaining that the ticket office may soon be torn down for building of a hotel, bar and restaurant.

Asst. County Public Works Director Arthur T. Knutson reported the commissioners also agreed to a special meeting at 8 p.m., May 31, at the Civic Center to view a revised plan for the county airport at Novato. The revision, Knutson explained, would add an area for expansion.

Present last night were commissioners Joseph W. Wright, David B. Vale and Richard Nave. Absent were chairman Benjamin R. Ostlind, Tris M. Coffin, Douglas M. Christensen, and Melville Dickson.

Marine Center Sets Open House Tomorrow

The Marine Corps Reserve Training Center at 153 Madison Avenue, Santa Venetia, will hold open house from noon to 9 p.m. tomorrow.

The Marines will demonstrate firing on their indoor range, display weapons and show combat films. There will be a photographic display of civic action efforts by Marines in Viet Nam.

New York Woman Seeks Daughter

A New York mother, worried about the health of her daughter who disappeared from home April 5, has driven to Sausalito in search of her, after receiving a post card from Sausalito dated April 30.

Mrs. Gloria K. Delaney of Wells College, Aurora, N.Y., sought police help yesterday. She said her daughter, Gloria Jean Delaney, 21, left Youngstown, Ohio, "in the dead of night," giving no reason. She said her daughter has suffered severe headaches and depression.

Miss Delaney is five foot, four inches tall, weighs 115 pounds, has short, light brown hair and wears dark, horned-rimmed glasses.

The moon is between its last quarter and new phase; the morning stars are Venus and Saturn; the evening star is Jupiter.

Bertrand Russell, English philosopher and author, was born on this day in 1872.

On this day in history:

In 1652, Massachusetts became the first state in the Union to pass a statute making school attendance compulsory for children between the ages of 8 and 14.

In 1860, Abraham Lincoln was nominated for President by Republicans meeting in Chicago.

In 1892, the opera singer and star of "South Pacific" Ezio Pinza, was born in Rome.

In 1926, nationally-known evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson disappeared from Venice, Calif. She turned up June 23 claiming to have been kidnaped.

A thought for the day — Spanish author Cervantes said: "The exploits of rash men are to be attributed rather to good fortune than to courage."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Some Finesses Tougher Than Many College Tourney Players Thought

You don't have to be a deep student of the game to take a finesse when an opponent holds the king of trumps.

In the recent Intercollegiate Championships several thousand college students discovered that other finesses may be deeper.

Opening lead — ◇ K

West took his top diamonds and led a third diamond for East to ruff.

East returned a club to dummy's ace, and now several thousand collegians had the problem of making four spades with the South hand.

SPADE FINESSE

Nobody had any trouble with the first play—a spade finesse.

But West's discard made it clear that South had to get to dummy twice more for trump finesses and one other time to discard a club on the 10 of diamonds.

How could South get to dummy three times? Only by way of hearts. Hence South had to finesse with the ten of hearts in the hope that West held the jack.

IMMEDIATE FINESSE

South's best play is to lead a low heart and try an immediate finesse with dummy's ten. When this works declarer leads another trump from dummy for a second trump finesse.

Back to dummy with the queen of hearts, and a third trump finesse. Then South leads the ace of trumps to capture the king.

FINALLY THE KING

Finally South leads the king of hearts to dummy's ace and cashes the ten of diamonds to get rid of the losing club.

South might go down if he began the hearts by leading low to dummy's queen. The next time South led a low heart West might brilliantly put up the jack.

Dummy would have to win with the ace, and then dummy would get only two heart entries instead of the three that South needs to make his contract.

DAILY QUESTION

Dealer bids a spade, partner doubles, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ K 5 4 3 2
♡ 7 3 2
♣ 6 3 2

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two clubs.

Your spades are not good enough for a penalty pass. In a situation of this kind, bid your lowest-ranking three-card suit.

Justice Argues For World Role

SAN JOSE (AP) — Justice William O. Douglas urged this nation yesterday to turn the revolutionary spirit in emerging nations "towards democracy and away from communism."

The Supreme Court justice, speaking at a news conference, also declared the main U.S. problem in Viet Nam is "how to get out gracefully and constructively."

By taking a negative attitude toward revolutions, this country "will lose our chance to provide leadership in the world," he said.

The justice spoke at San Jose State College where he is spending two days as a visiting scholar.

Buchignani Receives Police Certificate

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani of San Anselmo has been awarded an advanced certificate by the California Commission of Peace Officer standards and training.

To receive the certificate, the chief said, he had to complete 600 training hours and have 15 years experience with five of them in a supervisorial capacity.

Faculty To Face Student Grading

BERKELEY (AP)—The University of California's Academic Senate has decided to let students evaluate all undergraduate courses and teachers next year and participate in its advisory student affairs committee.

The faculty group acted yesterday on the reforms recommended in an extensive report by a select committee headed by Prof. Charles Muscatine.

The group's student affairs committee will be composed of three students and four faculty members. This year five professors were on the committee.

Pair End Suits, Start Voyage

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Fuller E. (Clay) Callaway III got rid of all the litigation separating them yesterday and left for a second honeymoon in Hawaii.

Callaway, an electronics firm executive who is heir to a Georgia textile fortune, had been charged with assault, beating his wife.

On her tearful plea in San Mateo County Municipal Court, Judge Lyle R. Edson dismissed that charge and one of disturbing the peace.

Anchor Ground Limits Change

The Army Corps of Engineers reported yesterday that the boundaries of anchorage grounds in San Francisco Bay have been amended.

The amended grounds are bounded by the east shore of the bay from Point Isabel to Brooks Island, west to the training wall to 1,035 yards from the north end light at Treasure Island, to 290 yards north of the center of Pier K of the San Francisco Oakland Bay Bridge, to a line bearing 71 degrees to the shore.

Cable areas and a designated fairway are excluded from the anchorage area.

Every month in the year floods occur somewhere in the United States, according to the weather bureau.

Dodgers Win In 13; Sadecki Hurls For S.F. Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Second baseman Jim Lefebvre of Los Angeles got a dog for a present before the game and entered the doghouse a little later, but all turned out happily as the Dodgers defeated San Francisco, 2-1, in 13 innings.

As the bitter National League rivals prepared to resume the series tonight, with Ray Sadecki of the Giants pitching against Claude Osteen of Los Angeles, the Giants' loss last night cut their lead over idle Houston to three games. Third-place Los Angeles is four behind.

Many of the 54,818 fans in Dodger Stadium—53,561 paid — came to see if there was any reaction from last August's bat fracas involving San Francisco's ace right-hander, Juan Marichal, and the guy he hit, catcher John Roseboro of Los Angeles. This was Juan's first appearance here since the incident in San Francisco.

The fans booed everytime Marichal came to bat.

However, there was no incident, except Marichal got two hits off Don Drysdale, Don one off Juan, and neither was around at the finish.

The Dodgers' winning run came on a single by Wes Parker and another by Maury Wills that sent Parker to third and then quickly home when Ollie Brown's throw from right field went through Jim Hart's legs and into the Dodger dugout.

The Giants scored their run in the seventh on Tito Fuentes' single, an error by Lefebvre and Willie McCovey's fourth straight single off Drysdale.

Jesus Alou's hard-hit grounder to Lefebvre, the league's Rookie of the Year in 1965, took a bad hop, but he was charged with an error. The play advanced Fuentes to third.

The Dodgers tied it in the ninth on Wills' bunt single, Jim Gilliam's single and Willie Davis' sacrifice fly.

Phil Regan stifled the Giants for the final two frames to get the win and is now 2-1. Frank Linzy, who took over for Marichal in the 11th, was the loser and is 1-2.

Marichal allowed seven hits and Drysdale 11. Marichal struck out five batters, all in succession, in the seventh and eighth.

The crowd did let out a roar when one Dodger accidentally threw his bat swinging at a pitch. The pitch was by Marichal and the batter? John Roseboro, who else?

But it didn't go anywhere near Marichal.

Baseballer Goes To Boys State; 500-Miler TV In Tam Theater

BASEBALL STAR John Komo will represent Marin Catholic High School at the 1966 Boys State session in Sacramento next month . . . Golf Digest has rated Billy (Peacock Gap) Casper as the 4-1 favorite in next month's Nat'l. Open in San Francisco, with Gary Player and Doug Sanders 6-1 each, Gene Littler and Arnold Palmer 7-1 and Jack Nicklaus and Gay Brewer 8-1 . . . All loge seats at the Tamalpais Theater are sold out for the May 30 closed-circuit TV showing of the Indianapolis 500-mile Auto Race, but still plenty of $6 gen. adm. tickets available at all Marin County theater box offices . . . Busiest softball team in Marin and probably all of Northern California is Sohner's Tree Service club of San Anselmo with 13 games crammed into the next 14 days...

WITH INTEREST centered on the famed 500 race at the Indianapolis Speedway at the end of the month, it may come as a surprise that a Marin man has already won "The Little 500" in Indiana. The "Little 500" is a 50-mile, 200-lap bicycle race held on the quarter-mile track at Indiana University Stadium. The annual event was held last Saturday with 60 groups from the campus fielding four-man bike teams in the race which attracts thousands of spectators from all parts of the midwest and benefits the Indiana University Foundation.

Ken Frost of Belvedere, 21-year-old senior at Indiana, where he is an All-American swimmer, was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi bicycle team which came in first in the "Little 500." Actress Connie Stevens presented the trophy to the winning team. Ken got his start in swimming as a member of the Marin Pirates, and was a star swimmer for Redwood High School. But bike-riding? That he learned at Indiana.

STANFORD GRID hopeful Jim Troppmann of Corte Madera underwent surgery for a damaged knee cartilage last Saturday, but is expected to be able to do some quarterbacking for the Indians next fall. Jim hurt the knee in spring practice.

LITCHFIELD'S semi-pro baseball team of San Rafael has tentatively booked a June 19 game at S.R.'s Albert Field with the barnstorming Earthquakers of Anchorage, Alaska. This game could be quite a drawing card because manager of the Earthquakers is none other than Satchel Paige, who pitches at least three innings of every game, although he is 60-odd years young.

The Litchfields also will enter the California State Semi-Pro Tournament which starts June 25 in the East Bay.

I AM INDEBTED to the Courtland Fishing Line Co. for the following observation: "We are fishermen at birth . . . Just consider how your new-born son is gifted with all the attributes we commonly ascribe to a good fisherman: Fishermen are prone to lie a lot, they like the bottle, they don't mind eating at odd hours, they are often awake before dawn and are not dismayed by dampness."

Hornets Rally, Nip Redwood

Novato High School's baseball team mounted a three-run rally in the eighth inning to edge Redwood's Giants, 4-3, in Marin Athletic play on the Hornets' diamond yesterday.

The Hornets thus remained tied for the league-lead with San Rafael, 4-3 victors over Terra Linda in another of three MAL games played yesterday. The co-leaders have 7-3 records. Tamalpais High, victim of a 4-2 defeat at the hands of Marin Catholic, slipped to a 6-4 league record while the Wildcats moved up to a 7-4 mark. See stories on page 36.

With Redwood leading 1-0, Giant Len Pieri led off the third inning with a single, then stole second base and came around to score after Russ Smith singled. Smith came home on an attempted steal minutes later when a Hornet threw wildly over second base, pushing the Giants in front, 3-0, as sophomore Mike Terry blanked the Novato nine over the first four innings.

CORDER HITS

Novato came up with a run in the top of the fifth and, after a quiet sixth inning, winning pitcher Wayne Jones, like Terry a righthander, stymied the Giants in the seventh and gave himself and the Hornets a shot at it, the inning starting with catcher John Sjoblom walking on four straight pitches and being capped with Tom Corder whacking one up the middle past second.

Both Terry and Jones pitched well, but Jones had the edge on paper, allowing just five hits while fanning five and walking three, plus getting the win.

John Dolinsek, Novato first baseman, hit a long fly to center which some say sailed over the fence, including some of Redwood's baseballers. The judging umpire, however, ruled that the ball bounced over the barrier on one hop, and Dolinsek was credited with a ground-rule double. Straightaway center is 375-feet from home plate.

Officially, then, someone has yet to hit a ball over any barrier on the Novato field, left, center, or right.

Hey, Look Out For Those Cincy Reds

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Maloney is back in the groove and so are the Cincinnati Reds.

Maloney pitched a brilliant two-hitter as the Reds beat the Mets 4-0 last night. It was his second straight victory after missing two weeks with an inflamed elbow and it gave surging Cincinnati nine triumphs in the last 11 games.

"We're a relaxed club now," smiled Manager Don Heffner. "That's why we're winning."

Having Maloney back in the rotation hasn't hurt the effort.

The ace right-hander had been troubled throughout the early stages of the season by his pitching arm.

"It was getting progressively worse," Maloney said. "Finally, I threw a curve in a game against Houston and it really hurt. My next pitch was a fast ball and it had nothing on it. That's when I had to leave the game." That was April 25.

Maloney's condition was diagnosed as tendonitis and he took cortisone shots while sitting out two weeks.

He came back against Atlanta a week ago, allowed two runs in the first inning and beat the Braves on a three-hitter. He pitched seven innings in that game, the last six scoreless. His shutout against the Mets last night gave him a string of 15 runless frames.

Maloney was in complete control. He surrendered a leadoff single to Ron Hunt in the first, a single to Ron Swoboda in the second and nothing else. He retired the last 22 batters in a row, struck out eight and walked one.

Don Pavletich and Pete Rose provided the offense. Pavletich drove in half of Cincinnati's runs with a homer and a double and Rose stroked two hits giving him 15 in the last seven games.

In other National League games, Los Angeles nipped San Francisco 2-1 in 13 innings, Pittsburgh defeated Atlanta 5-2 and Philadelphia trimmed St. Louis 5-3. Rain washed out Houston at Chicago.

Donn Clendenon's two-run single climaxed a three-run rally in the sixth inning that carried Pittsburgh past Atlanta. Manny Mota completed the Pirate comeback, doubling across a run in the seventh and stealing home. Hank Aaron homered for the Braves.

The Phillies got two bases-loaded walks in the seventh inning for their victory over St. Louis. Nelson Briles walked Dick Groat, forcing in the tie-breaking run, then gave way to Joe Hoerner, who walked John Callison.

EX CHAMPION IS FOUND DEAD

Randy Turpin's Tragic Story

LONDON (AP) — The sad riches-to-rags story of Randolph Turpin, former world middleweight champion, ended with a gunshot blast in a dingy backstreet cafe yesterday.

Although police maintained a traditional silence on who did the shooting, friends said the 38-year-old Turpin had been depressed lately.

In the same incident Turpin's 17-month-old daughter, Carmen, was seriously injured with two gunshot wounds and rushed to a hospital.

Turpin was found dead with a gun near the body in his wife's transport cafe in Leamington Spa, about 150 miles north of London.

The spot was not far away from the town's main street, where the whole community turned out to give Turpin a hero's reception in July 1951.

Turpin had just beaten the great Sugar Ray Robinson for the world middleweight title and was on top of the world.

Just 64 days later Turpin went to New York and lost the title to Robinson on a knockout.

Turpin kept on boxing but never reached the top again.

During his fight career he is believed to have made $560,000. But by 1961 Turpin was bankrupt.

The saddest sight of all in recent years was to see an overweight Turpin performing as a wrestler at $56 a match.

Turpin told friends recently he was worried about a $560 income tax demand which he couldn't pay.

There were also fears that the local Government Council, as part of a development scheme, were going to demolish his wife's cafe—Turpin's main source of livelihood.

"Randy told me he was going through a fairly rough period. He was down in the dumps of late," said boxing promoter Alex Griffiths.

"I think Saturday's world heavyweight fight between Cassius Clay and Henry Cooper must have set him thinking about the days when he was on top," Griffiths said.

"This could have been the last straw."

Turpin earned a fortune with his fists by the time he was 24 and lost most of it before he was 30.

His greatest moment came on July 10, 1951, when he clearly outpointed Robinson.

The following September, a crowd of 61,370 paid $767,326 (a record for a non-heavyweight fight) to see the return match at New York's Polo Grounds.

In the 10th round Turpin seemed in sight of victory, with the referee concerned about a bad cut over Robinson's eye.

Moments later the young Briton was on the canvas. He got up but the bout was stopped and his short reign as world champion was over.

He was never the same fighter again.

After the first of Robinson's several "retirements" Turpin met Carl (Bobo) Olson for the vacant world title in New York. He was soundly beaten.

Redwood Smacked With Probation

Redwood High School is on athletic probation for the rest of this year and all of next school year, it was made public yesterday.

The Marin Athletic League Board of Managers last May 4 voted to put Redwood on probation because of too many games played in one week by the school's baseball team, coached by Al Endriss.

In effect, the probation means that Redwood will have to be careful to adhere to all Marin Athletic League rules in all sports the remainder of this year and all of the 1966-67 school year. If there is another violation during the probationary period, the team that violates the rule will be forced to forfeit all its games.

San Rafael and Terra Linda high schools were put on probation last year for too many swim events in one week, but the probationary period ended last April 29, with no harm done to the athletic program at either school.

Marin Athletic League commissioner George Corson made public yesterday the announcement of the probationary ruling. The Larkspur school had violated a rule when the baseball team played three games in winning the Pacific Tournament at San Leandro April 4, 5 and 6, and then played two games the following day, April 7, against McClatchy and Burbank, two Sacramento schools.

"I have no quarrel with the ruling," said Redwood Principal Don Kreps. "It was just carelessness on our part. We overstepped the boundary and have to pay the price for it."

More Trout Stocked In Marin Waters

Lagunitas Reservoir, Bon Tempe Reservoir and Rodeo Lagoon are Marin County waters scheduled to be restocked with catchable-size rainbow trout this week, it was announced today by the Department of Fish and Game.

NFL Hears Bids Of Seven Cities

By JACK HAND

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Football League listened to the tale of the seven cities today as it continued its search for a 16th franchise to operate in 1967.

Civil leaders were on hand to make their pleas for New Orleans, La.; Seattle, Wash.; Houston; Cincinnati; Boston; Phoenix, Ariz.; and Portland, Ore. Governors, senators, congressmen, mayors and chamber of commerce personnel were loaded with the latest propaganda about their area's charms.

After the presentations, Commissioner Pete Rozelle and the NFL owners were expected to tell all concerned, "Don't call us, we'll call you."

A decision on the expansion city will not be made until later in the year. Rozelle refused to be pinned down on any date. But it was obvious that a new club should be ready to operate at least by the college draft next December.

"We are not talking ownership at this stage," Rozelle told newsmen last night. "We have enough information to know there would be a choice in ownership in each city.

"I know the names in general. I am sure we will have no trouble finding responsible ownership in any of the seven."

Each group was told to be specific about its plans for a football team, particularly a stadium.

"It is possible we would insist on a conditional agreement on a stadium or temporary stadium or a lease before we will name the city."

In answer to a specific question, Rozelle said a stadium seating only 35,000 might be acceptable for one year on a temporary basis.

"We might narrow it down to two or three cities before we make final selection," said Rozelle.

A confidential survey of the seven cities by the Standard Research Institute was completed in February. Club owners have been studying the reports for three months.

Rozelle said the league wanted a 16th city by 1967 because "we don't want to leave Atlanta hanging as a swing team."

In 1966 Atlanta will play every other team in the league once. The Falcons' standings will count in the Eastern Conference. Because of the 15 teams, an unwieldy 15-week schedule will be played with each team having one open date.

"I would not rule out expansion beyond 16 teams in the future," said Rozelle. "But I would say 16 present an extremely attractive scheduling set-up. When you hear of cities that plan to build stadiums without baseball to help amortize them, you know that further expansion always is possible."

Clearing the decks for the presentations, the owners decided yesterday against a central scouting system operating out of the league office.

Home Run Wins It For San Rafael '9'

Terra Linda Beaten By Shone Blast

Catcher Rocky Shone's eighth inning solo home run provided San Rafael's baseballers the margin for victory as the Bulldogs trimmed Terra Linda yesterday, 4-3, in Marin Athletic League action at Albert Field, San Rafael.

Jay Widmer, centerfielder, staked starter Joe Cunningham and the Bulldogs to a 1-0 lead with an inside the park homer in the third inning, and with the Trojans yet to get on the scoreboard, the San Rafael nine scored twice in the fifth with back-to-back singles and a sacrifice fly for a 3-0 edge.

The Trojans narrowed that lead with a run in the sixth frame and tallied two runs in the last regulation inning, the seventh, sending the game into the extra inning in which Shone powered his towering homer over the centerfield fence.

JOOST WINS

Bill Joost came on for Cunningham in San Rafael's half of the seventh and was credited with the win. He walked two and struck out one during his short stint. Cunningham notched four strikeouts and walked four.

Four hurlers shared mound duties for Terra Linda with starter Mike Ainslie fanning eight and walking two before his departure in the seventh inning.

Shone and Widmer each had two hits in four at-bats, leading the San Rafael seven-hit assault. Shone also headed the RBI department with two.

Wills Cited For Going Too Slow

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Base-stealing shortstop Maury Wills of the Los Angeles Dodgers, one of the fastest men in baseball, was cited by police early today for going too slow.

Officers said Wills was driving too slow on the Harbor Freeway, causing other cars to brake quickly and pass on either side.

At first Wills declined to sign the ticket and went to police headquarters to have the citation date clarified. He then signed.

Tam Bows To Marin Catholic

A case of too much Ben Burch and three double plays gave Marin Catholic's baseball team a 4-2 decision over Tamalpais in the Marin Athletic League's topsy-turvy baseball race yesterday on the Tam field, Mill Valley.

Burch struck out seven Indians, all in key situations, cutting down one in each inning. The hard-throwing hurler walked none.

First baseman Bob Bianchini smashed a two-run homer in the second inning as the 'Cats scored first, and although no one knew it would be so at the time, catcher Jerry Handlos drove home the winning run with a sacrifice fly in Marin's half of the third frame. The Tam nine was stopped cold after scoring once in the second and again in the third as Burch scattered five hits over the seven inning game.

It's not often that a team's "weak hitters" account for all of the earned runs, but Handlos and Bianchini are the Wildcats' eighth and ninth batters respectively.

Tam's Gary Draper scored one run and collected a single in two trips but couldn't pull himself off the hook and was tagged for the loss. Draper fanned seven while walking five.

A New Scout For Oakland Raiders

OAKLAND (AP) — Douglas E. Hafner, 35-year-old assistant athletic director at Biscayne College in Miami, Fla., has been appointed chief talent scout for the Oakland Raiders.

Hafner, whose hometown is Mineola, N. Y., said yesterday he considers the new post "a great opportunity." He will begin immediately, the American Football League club said.

Hafner replaces Ron Wolf, who joined Al Davis' staff when the former general manager and coach of the Raiders became AFL commissioner.

Gogolak Signing May Signal 'War'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The signing of place-kicker Pete Gogolak by the New York Giants after he played out his option with the Buffalo Bills may signal an all-out bitter war between the National Football League and the American Football League.

Although several players have played out their options in both pro leagues, none has signed with the other league since 1961 when Willard Dewveall, Chicago Bears' end, became a free agent and hopped to the Houston Oilers.

Al Davis, AFL commissioner, has a "no comment" reaction to the news, announced yesterday by Wellington Mara, president of the Giants, at the NHL meetings.

However, an AFL spokesman observed, "The league office stand is that this was not a surprise. We had reason to anticipate the provocative action of the New York Giants against the Buffalo Bills. We are interested in seeing if the commissioner's office of the other league will approve the contract."

"If the contract is in order, from the standpoint of eligibility in the National Football League," said NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, "it will not be disapproved." The contract was mailed to Rozelle's New York office.

Under pro football rules, unlike baseball, a player can refuse to sign a contract with a team, take a cut in pay and play out his option for one year. The following May 1 he becomes a free agent. Gogolak never did sign with Buffalo in 1965.

Obviously, if a number of players refuse to sign their 1966 contracts and play out their options, this opens the door to wild bidding next May 1.

The AFL has two other star players, defensive linemen Earl Faison and Ernie Ladd of San Diego, who became free agents May 1. They reportedly are talking of playing football in Canada.

Gogolak had not been drafted originally in the NFL when he graduated from Cornell. But Ladd was drafted by the Chicago Bears and Faison by the Detroit Lions. They still retain NFL negotiating rights.

"We have made no effort to contact Ladd and he has made no effort to contact us," said George Halas Jr., president of the Bears. "If we have any statement to make we will make it in two or three days in Chicago."

"We have not been approached by Faison," said Eddie Anderson, general manager of the Lions. "We would have to evaluate the situation if we were approached."

Asked why the club had not sought out Faison, Anderson said, "We have not felt it was good policy. We did not know if we wanted to be a party to something that might trigger something else."

Anderson would not elaborate.

Pete Gogolak, 24, set a record at Buffalo, with 28 field goals.

BRAVES GET TO STAY IN ATLANTA—FOR NOW

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Baseball's Braves have won court permission to keep on playing in Atlanta while the Wiscison Supreme Court studies an appeal of the National League's antitrust conviction.

A court order for the Braves to return to Milwaukee today was suspended yesterday by Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller after the state's Supreme Court agreed to hear the appeal June 9.

Baseball attorneys indicated their appeal would attack again the issue of whether a state court had jurisdiction over a sport extending from coast to coast.

"Baseball is an interstate business and at this time all of baseball is outside the jurisdiction of this court," Braves' attorney Earl Jinkinson told Roller in an unsuccessful move for a new trial.

Roller found the Braves, the National League and its other nine members guilty last month of violating Wisconsin's antitrust law by moving the club to Atlanta and leaving Milwaukee without a major league team.

The U.S. District Court at Milwaukee refused last fall to intervene in the state case and Roller ruled before the start of the six-week trial that his court did have jurisdiction.

Jinkinson criticized sharply that "kooky, nutty idea...that baseball when played in Milwaukee does not violate the antitrust laws but when played outside Wisconsin it does."

The motion for a new trial was a necessary prelude to carrying the case to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. After the session yesterday Braves' Attorney Ray T. McCann filed formal notice of appeal with Roller's court clerk.

The actual appeal will be lodged with the Supreme Court in the state capital of Madison as soon as possible, probably within a few days, McCann said.

Roller, in his decision convicting the league, had ordered the Braves returned here today unless plans to give Milwaukee an expansion team in 1967 were submitted to his court by noon Monday. The league ignored his deadline.

Roller refused last week to delay enforcement of his order after noting the Wisconsin Supreme Court normally would be unable to hear an appeal until near the end of the season. The court's chief justice agreed Monday, however, to give the appeal priority, and Roller reconsidered.

The June 9 hearing date may make a State Supreme Court decision possible by the All-Star break in the major league scheduled July 12. However, no matter what the eventual ruling is, the case is considered almost certain to be carried to the U.S. Supreme Court and a final settlement may be months away.

The conviction April 13 represented the first court chink in baseball's traditional immunity to antitrust regulation dating back to a U.S. Supreme Court decision 44 years ago that the sport was not then an interestate business.

Roller ordered the National League and its members yesterday to post a $100,000 appeal bond. The motion for the new trial—first step of the appeal—cite 36 areas in which baseball attorneys feel the judge erred. The 36 embrace all rulings that were adverse to baseball during the trial.

Novato Judoist Earns Promotion

Steve Wilson, 17, of 757 Diablo Avenue, Novato, was promoted to the rank of NIKYU (second degree brown belt) at a judo promotional Shiai (tournament) last Sunday in the Berkeley High School gym.

Wilson lost his first contest but came back to throw his second and tthird opponents each in less than five seconds.

Clark Henry, director of Novato's Northern California School of Judo, said many more high school boys are needed in the judo program, and said it is a good way for prep athletes to stay in shape during the summer months.

How Giants Lanier, Fuentes Accidentally Switched Jobs

LOS ANGELES—Accidents occasionally have their beneficial aspects. An accident made a second baseman out of Tito Fuentes and a shortstop out of Hal Lanier.

HANLEY

On April 21 in Chicago Fuentes banged his right heel with a bat. After several days on the sidelines, Fuentes still found it painful to pivot off his right foot. His range was restricted by the heel bruise.

Finally, Herman Franks decided to try Fuentes at second base. A second baseman doesn't have as much territory to cover as a shortstop. The manager of the Giants had no doubt about Lanier's ability to handle the shortstop job.

After all, Lanier began his baseball career as a shortstop but was such a superb second baseman that any manager would hesitate in moving him. Furthermore, Fuentes began his career as a second baseman but somewhere along the line some minor league manager, in need of a shortstop, made one out of him.

NOW, AS ALL Giant fans know, the new Lanier-Fuentes combination is working very smoothly on double plays — so smoothly that fans probably wonder why it wasn't tried in spring training.

Actually, it almost was tried in the first intrasquad game of the spring, not by design but accident.

On the day of the first squad game at Casa Grande, Franks was confined to his room by a 24-hour bout with the flu. So one of the baseball writers went to Willie Mays and asked the team captain to write out lineups.

WILLIE RATTLED off the names of his players and told the reporter: "You know the positions, fill them in." The reporter did and posted the lineups in the dugout.

Horace Stoneham, whose knowledge of baseball is much keener than that of most club owners, took a look at the lineups and said to the reporter: "Good lineups except for one thing. You got Tito at second and all during the winter we had him playing short."

THE REPORTER now could claim that he originally had suggested the switch of Lanier and Fuentes but it would be a false claim. He wasn't that smart. The reporter had just made a mistake in assigning Fuentes to second base and Lanier to shortstop for the squad game.

REGARDLESS OF whether it was a slip of a pencil or a slip of a bat, Fuentes now is playing in his natural position—and so is Lanier.

Second base is so natural to Fuentes that he always has signed his name "Tito 2b Fuentes."

Marin Driver In Win At Vallejo

George Nunez of Mill Valley will be trying to add some more wins to his record next Saturday night at the hartop races at the Vallejo Speedway.

Nunez won the semi-main and final heat last Saturday night, and placed third in the second heat. Steve Mentch of Alameda, driving the D and S Garage Special from San Rafael, won the fourth heat, finished second in the trophy dash and third in the main event.

Time trials for next Saturday's Bay Cities Racing Assn. (BCRA) card starts at 7:30 p.m., followed by the first race at 8:15.

TITLE TUNEUP

Clay Like Old Self—Yak Yak

LONDON (AP) — Cassius Clay says he expects to defeat Britain's Henry Cooper Saturday and be defending his world heavyweight title "within seven weeks against anyone."

Talking at times like the old Clay, the champion dismissed comparison with former great fighters.

"Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano would have been no match for me," he told newsmen.

"They were flat-footed fighters. Jack Johnson was probably the best of the old days, and I'd have whipped him.

"The next greatest fighter to me was Sugar Ray Robinson."

Told that old foe Sonny Liston was expected to be at the ringside Saturday on a European comeback trip, Clay said:

"I heard the old man was thinking of fighting again. Won't he ever learn?"

Liston meets German heavyweight Gerhardt Zech in Copenhagen June 9.

Clay decided not to spar at his London gym yesterday. Instead he shadow boxed and hit the heavy bag.

"The way the boy works, it scares me," said Manager Angelo Dundee.

"Already he is so sharp he could cut people."

Then Dundee quickly added:

"Not that we figure to cut Cooper. The champion will go in to knock him out."

Down at his gym, Cooper put in such spirited sparring with American Jimmy Fletcher that there were alarmed cries of "take it easy" from the Cooper camp.

Cooper, 32, is giving away eight years to the 24-year-old champion.

Clay, undefeated in 23 pro fights, is the 11-2 favorite.

All Ex-Champions Ousted In ABC Masters Tourney

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A new champion will be wearing the American Bowling Congress Masters Tournament crown tonight.

All former titlists were eliminated during the gruelling series of matches which began Sunday night.

Among yesterday's eminent casualties were defending champion Billy Welu, former titlist Don Carter and All-Star champion Dick Weber, all of St. Louis.

Al Thompson of Cleveland and Bob Strampe of Detroit, the only undefeated finalists, have never come close to the Masters title.

Marvin Lowry of Birmingham, Ala., who has one loss in the current tournament, finished fourth 10 years ago, but has since not been a serious Masters contender.

The other survivors, as the Masters moves into its final day, share the dual distinction of having one loss in the current tournament and dismal records in previous masters.

Tom Harnisch of Buffalo, N.Y., Gene Raffel of Milwaukee and Wayne Zahn of Atlanta complete the circle of one-time losers who will engage in a series of matches today to decide one berth in the championship match.

Thompson and Strampe will duel for the other spot in the title bout. The defeated man drops into the loser's bracket.

Strampe kept his string of victories going yesterday by defeating Raffel, 801-775, and Lowry, 899-857, in four-game matches.

Thompson's victims included George Howard of Kalamazoo, Mich., 928-844, and Harnisch, 837-805.

Stock Market Jumps To Big Gain Of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed today with one of its biggest gains of 1966. Trading was heavy.

Stocks advanced from the start, reached a temporary peak in an hour, weathered some profit taking in slower trading, then went on late in the day to push up to new highs.

Here was 2nd graf 1st lead 191.

Volume for the day was estimated at 9 million shares compared with 9.87 million Tuesday.

The market was below its best level reached at the end of the first hour but held stubbornly to a big advance.

The Dow Jones industrial average at 2 p.m. was up 9.13 at 873.27.

Some of the high-flying glamor issues were even better late in the day than they were when the key stocks in the averages made their highs.

Xerox rebounded nearly 12 points, Polaroid 8, Texas Instruments, Zenith, Admiral and Eastern Air Lines 6 each.

Blue chips bolstering the averages, Du Pont (ex dividend) was up 4 and Eastman Kodak more than 6.

IBM's new split stock was up 4. Magnavox and Motorola rose nearly 4.

Big institutional investors as well as the "little fellow" were back in the market, brokers said. They called it a technical recovery but reported that booming sales of appliances and other consumer durable goods helped.

A monster block of 100,000 shares of American Telephone sold at 55, off ¼. The $5.5-million block was taken without breaking AT&T's price. It recovered to sell unchanged at 55¼.

Fairchild Camera zoomed a dozen points. KLM Airlines climbed nearly 7, Braniff and Northwest Airlines about 4 each.

General Motors and Jersey Standard were about unchanged. Chrysler rose 1½, Ford a fraction.

Rails were strong, with New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroad (ex dividend) up about 2.

May Stores' Earnings Up

ST. LOUIS — First quarter net earnings and sales of the May Department Stores Co., one of the nation's leading department store businesses, reached new highs for the three months ended April 30, Morton D. May, president, announced today.

Net earnings available for common stock amounted to $6,922,000, equal to 40 cents per share, compared with the previous record net earnings available for common stock of $5,753,000, or 39 cents per share in the first quarter of 1965.

Net sales in the first quarter this year were $186,667,000 — an increase of $12,059,000, or 7 per cent, over the company's previous record sales of $174,608,000 in the first quarter of 1965.

FREE PHONE CALLS — Linda Thomas demonstrates a prize in next week's Telefair at the Northgate shopping center, when visitors may compete for free long distance phone calls to any state.

Computer Set To Play Game With Visitors

Visitors can play tic-tac-toe with a computerized telephone relay device at the Telefair communications carnival in the Northgate Shopping center, San Rafael, today through Saturday.

But don't expect to win the game. The device has never lost to a human opponent.

The tent show opens at 9:30 a.m. each day, closing at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow and Saturday, and at 9:30 p.m. today and Friday. Admission is free.

Troy Lewis, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s northern Marin manager, said visitors will see demonstrations on all aspects of telephone development. Marin families will be able to operate telephones, see themselves on television, and listen to their own voices played back.

Lucky Stores Report Profits

Lucky Stores' earnings for the first fiscal quarter, ended May 1, were 38 per cent above earnings for the first fiscal quarter of 1965, on a 12 per cent increase in sales, it was announced today by Gerald A. Awes, president.

Consolidated earnings amounted to $1,670,000, as compared to $1,210,000 in 1965. This is equivalent to 70 cents per shart on 2,338,415 shares of common stock outstanding at the end of the quarter, as compared to 52 cents per share for the first quarter of 1965 (after adjustment for a 3 per cent stock dividend).

Consolidated sales for the quarter were $105,896,000, as compared to $94,760,000 last year—an increase of 12 per cent.

Fairfax Park Group Backs Bond Issue

Four members of the Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission last night "wholeheartedly endorsed" the proposed $4.3 million county park bond issue which will go to voters June 7.

Commissioners said the bonds would permit purchase or development of six recreation or park areas around Fairfax as called for under the city-county general plan now being drawn up.

They also pointed out that federal matching funds could double the money to be received through the county bonds. They urged citizens to attend a meeting scheduled by the committee for passage of the bonds at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Fairfax Women's Club.

The commission approved a recommendation by Councilman George Pagni that the city sponsor a bicycle race sometime in September.

Mrs. Dolores Dollahite attended her first meeting as a commissioner. Absent were commissioners Albert Re, Leonard Wilgenbush and Frank Salvisberg.

YOUNG AMERICAN — Vickie Souravlis, 5, takes a lesson in sewing with her mother, Mrs. Chris Souravlis of 132 Crescent Road, Corte Madera. Vickie became a naturalized United States citizen last month. She came to this country from Greece when she was 15 months old, and is the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Souravlis.

Five-Year-Old Girl Joins Parents As U.S. Citizen

Five-year-old Vikie Souravlis, who was brought to this country as the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Souravlis of 132 Crescent Road, Corte Madera, when she was 15 months old, has just become a naturalized United States citizen.

Vikie started kindergarten at Larkspur-Corte Madera last fall.

Her father, a native of Greece, became a naturalized citizen of the United States in 1962. Mrs. Souravlis was born in Utah, but her parents are from Greece. The two married in 1955, and came to Corte Madera from Utah two years ago. Souravlis is a gardener for Tamalpais High School.

They own a farm in Utah, and plan to return to it eventually.

Vickie has an 8-month-old brother, Jimmy, adopted in San Francisco.

A Mill Valley couple became naturalized citizens together last month. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Albert Nusser of 671 Sequoia Valley Drive came to Marin County from Germany, via Canada, six years ago.

The Nusser's, both 36, decided to come to the United States in 1957, but had no relatives here and so had no sponsor.

"You can't come into the United States to live from Germany without a sponsor, so we went to Canada to live for three years, and then came to the United States," said Mrs. Nusser.

Nusser works as a tool and die maker, the same job he was doing in Germany. "But life is so much easier here," Mrs. Nusser said. "We feel we belong here."

Also naturalized during the past month were:

Adolph Stephen Biggio of 83 Locust Avenue, Michael Kraszulayak of 134 La Goma and Renato Sottile of 251 Miller Avenue, all of Mill Valley;

Ortwin Sessbruegger of 310 Willow Avenue, Corte Madera;

Mrs. Lew Shee Wong of 914 Lootens Place, Mrs. Nina Elizabeth Lewis of 532 Third Street, John Duncan Leslie of 115 Park Street and Henry Yew Tom of 1618 Lincoln Avenue, all of San Rafael;

Mrs. Vera Mabel Yerion, Box 38, Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Forest Knolls;

Hector Spence, 78th Combat Support Group, Ward Toques Donaldson, Box 522, and Mrs. Corazon Cadiz Courtois, 139 Walton Avenue, all of Hamilton Air Force Base;

Mrs. Eveline Susanne Franziska Jarland of 1082 Banta Court, Novato; Miss Vera Kopel, 25 Lincoln Drive, Sausalito; Mehdi Shabahang of 3 Hacienda Drive, Tiburon; Mrs. Teresa Clare, 2 Tamalpais Avenue, Belvedere; Mrs. Maria Louise Schulze of 16 Locust Avenue, Kentfield;

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Guy of 500 South Eliseo Drive, Greenbrae;

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Patrick Casey of 611 San Anselmo Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Wiedner of 1644 San Anselmo Avenue, both of San Anselmo.

Elderly Tax Relief Asked By Marin

Proposed state legislation which could bring property tax relief to people over 62 was supported by Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday on condition it would apply only to those who have lived in the county three years or more.

Supervisors were concerned that passage of the legislation would cause an even greater stampede of people to California if the residential qualifications remained at one year.

Under the Assembly bill, the state would pay back to people over 62 a part of their property taxes ranging from 90 per cent of the first $5,000 assessed value for families with a total income of less than $1,100 to five per cent to families with an income of less than $4,500.

County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel said this measure was more suitable for Marin County although an alternative bill, lowering the refund percentages and fixing the maximum family allowance at $3,350, was more likely to succeed.

Supervisor Peter Behr called the bills "nothing but a sop to the elderly citizen" and "an insult to the common sense of the population of this county." He voted for the support but added, "This little comes too late for the too many people who have had to suffer from the too-high property taxes."

Board Miffed By Lack Of Job Corps Warning

A new offensive in the War on Poverty is opening up in Marin County and no one thought to tell the generals up front.

The generals—in this case the board of supervisors — were miffed yesterday that they were not told well in advance of the federal-financed $20,150 program to provide aides to work with Marin City unemployed youth.

"This is the first time we have had this in front of us," said Chairman Byron W. Leydecker.

He was referring to a request from Betty L. Presley, director of social services, asking for the authority to hire extra personnel and to approve the transfer of funds.

The program, already approved by the Office of Economic Opportunity, would provide five community aides at $425 each a month and a coordinator at $650 a month for six months.

While they authorized the transfer of funds, the board suggested the coordinator should not be brought in from outside but should be one of the county staff.

Supervisor Leydecker conceded it was not the fault of the newly appointed acting director of the county's Community Relations Services, Douglas J. Quiett, that the board was not being kept informed of what was going on.

In the future, however, the supervisors should have a breakdown of all the programs at present being undertaken in the county as well as those likely to be ahead.

Sky Road Annex Plan Collapses

After a month of discussion with the Richardson Bay Sanitary District Board, property owners on Sky Road have called off annexation proceedings.

Alfred O. Pratesi, secretary, said the board learned yesterday that not enough of the 14 residents would sign an annexation petition.

The sanitary district board accepted a low bid of $22,014 by Joseph Di Giorgio and Son of San Rafael to build a 1,200-square foot maintenance shop at the Trestle Glen treatment plant.

Pratesi was instructed to report at the June 21 meeting on negotiations with the Tiburon Fire Protection District on a joint health insurance plan.

Sausalito Chamber Opposes Park Bonds

Sausalito Chamber of Commerce directors voted yesterday to go on record against the proposed $4.3 million county park bond issue to be voted on June 7.

The nominating committee met after the meeting to select a slate of officers for fiscal 1967. Recommendations will be given to the board at its next meeting, at noon, June 21, at Zack's By the Bay.

VAN DELLEN

More than a year ago I wrote about a Japanese camera that took colored pictures of the inside of the stomach. Shortly thereafter I attended a medical convention and was attracted to an exhibit on gastrophotography.

I asked the exhibitor if this was the Japanese camera. He replied, "No, it is ours." This was a switch considering the reputation of the Japanese for copying.

At any rate, the gastric camera is capable of taking 16 simultaneous photos within 30 seconds of being swallowed.

ALTHOUGH EACH picture is less than a quarter of an inch in diameter, enlargement is possible for more detailed study. The stomach is distended to smooth out the wrinkles and the instrument photographs approximately 90 per cent of the interior.

The camera is tubular, less than one-half of an inch in diameter and two inches long. It is attached to a flexible stomach tube one-quarter of an inch in diameter.

The business end is divided into an upper and lower camera section with an illuminating bulb between them. Each partition has eight pinholes with shutters and a lens with a universal focus. The 16 pictures are taken simultaneously during a single exposure of one-500th of a second.

The apparatus is swallowed while the individual is seated in a chair. It is withdrawn as soon as the pictures have been taken. The film is removed and developed. It is not quite this simple and most physicians must take a special course on the use of the gastrocamera. Special training also is needed to interpret the film.

THE CAMERA detects polyps, shallow ulcers, erosions, and early cancers not easily recognized via X-ray, but it is not a substitute for X-rays. It has promise of being a valuable screening device.

The Japanese now have an improved version that takes 32 colored photographs each one-fifth of an inch in diameter. The slim apparatus is adapted to the small oral passageways of the Japanese.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

RESTORED SOPRANO

Mrs. M. Z. writes: Will a woman's voice that deepened after taking cortisone go back to normal when the medicine is discontinued?

REPLY

Yes. All the bad effects and many of the good effects of this hormone are temporary. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on these new hormones which discusses, among othr aspects, the side reactions following their use.

ARM PAIN

D.M.J. writes: Does intermittent pain in the left arm necessarily mean heart disease?

REPLY

No. This type of distress also may stem from muscles, nerves, ligaments, blood vessels, bursae or tendons of the shoulder. Arthritis and disturbances of the brachial plexus are other possibilities.

SCALP RINGWORM

Mrs. H.J. writes: Can adults catch ringworm of the scalp from children?

REPLY

Yes, but for some reason ringworm of the scalp is rare in adults. A hormone usually is blamed because the presence or absence of these secretions differentiate childhood from adulthood.

DAMP QUARTERS

Mrs. L.M. writes: Could living in a damp apartment cause rheumatism or arthritis?

REPLY

I doubt if dampness could cause these disorders but it will aggravate tendencies to these ailments.

Pipe Wrench Burglars Invade Another House

Pipe wrench burglars have struck again in Marin County, making off with guns and other items from the home of James W. Collins, 221 Jamaica Street, Paradise Cay.

Sheriff's officers said the intruders used a wrench or similar tool to snap the knob of a door leading into the home.

Taken were five pistols, three rifles, a shotgun, a typewriter, an adding machine, a hair-dryer, two movie projectors, and a small quantity of liquor.

Burglars also netted much loot by breaking a window of the Town and Country Village TV shop in Strawberry. Officers said Mrs. John Harrigan, 380 Oak Crest Road, San Anselmo, first reported seeing the broken window. Six television sets, a tape recorder, and a phonograph were missing. Total loss was estimated at $1,600.

Burglars broke two skylights of classrooms at Strawberry Point School, entering to steal five marking pens.

Ruth Ann Stuckey, of McNears Beach, told deputies someone cut a side window screen to enter her home and stole two portable radios.

Robert A. Middagh, 128 Stanford Avenue, Homestead Valley, told deputies a window of his automobile, parked at home, was broken by burglars who took a briefcase and clothing.

Phillip F. Foster, 210 Lower Via Casitas, Greenbrae, said his car trunk was forced, and a spare tire, tube and wheel were stolen.

Larry B. Stockwell, Daly City, said a $125 camera was taken from his car while it was parked at an Alto restaurant.

John A. Dallara, 113 Mabry Way, Santa Venetia, reported an auto stereophonic set, stereo tapes and two boxes of tools were taken from his car, parked at home.

Summer Class Signup

San Anselmo School District will hold late registration for summer school, slated for Isabel Cook School from June 22 through July 22, from 9:30 a.m. to noon in Room A-2 of Cook School Saturday.

Boats, Autos, Motorcycles In New Show

Close to half a million dollars worth of cars, boats and motorcycles will be spread across the Sir Francis Drake High School athletic field in San Anselmo on Sunday.

It will be part of the first Marin Car and Boat Show, running from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., sponsored by the Drake Scholarship Foundation.

More than 40 cars will compete for prizes in seven classes. There will also be a class for boats, one for Hondas, and another for motorcycles.

There will also be entertainment, said M. R. Convis, counsellor at Drake High and president of the scholarship foundation. At noon will be George Sakellatou, Greek Flamenco performer; at 1 p.m., a musical quartet; at 2 p.m., Buffy Ford, folk singer and actress, and at 3 p.m., a weightlifting demonstration by Frank Holton of San Anselmo, a world record holder.

Also demonstrated will be a sound system from Auto Stereo of San Rafael. Seventeen of the latest automobiles will be on display from Marin dealers.

Among vintage cars on display will be an Austin-built London cab, powered by a diesel engine, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Green of Belvedere. There will also be a drag racer built by John Batto of Sonoma.

John N. Phelps of Sleepy Hollow, has entered four cars—a 1927 Pierce Arrow, a 1931 Packard, a 1929 Chrysler and a '31 Chrysler. All have won numerous prizes in past shows.

Helping Convis organize the show were members of the Quick Changers of Marin.

Tickets for the show will be sold at the gate.

Seven Candidates Lacking Opposition In June Vote

It has been many years since Marin has had such a large field of incumbents running unopposed for county offices.

In addition to judges, who are rarely opposed, there are seven who will be re-elected without contest.

They include Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell, Assessor Bert Broemmel, County Clerk George Gnoss, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, Tax Collector-Treasurer Stanley J. Fontez, Supt. of Schools Virgil S. Hollis, and Recorder Noel T. Giacomini.

The fact that seven of them have no opposition is a great tribute to their exemplary conduct in office during the past four years.

Not all of them have escaped criticism. For example, Assessor Bert Broemmel and County Schools Supt. Virgil Hollis have not always enjoyed unanimous public support. They have been dragged into the spotlight of controversy.

The lack of opposition in their bid for re-election this year is evidence that their controversial actions, though not always popular, were vindicated as correct in the long run.

Ordinarily, we lament the lack of contests in public office because it deprives the voters the chance to hear pros and cons and to influence the conduct of the various offices.

As a steady diet, this lack of contest would not be healthy. It was not healthy in the past when contests for county office were rarities instead of exceptions. It bred a kind of bossism by entrenched candidates who felt so secure that they saw no particular need to be responsive to the public will.

While the seven unopposed county candidates are worthy public servants who deserve retention, we hope that uncontested elections do not become a pattern. We look to contests in the future to give the public the benefit of full discussion and the opportunity to express preferences.

This year we endorse all seven of the incumbents and hope they roll up big votes of confidence as tribute to their dedicated public service.

Roses — Floral Royalty

Among flowers, roses must be regarded as the Queen and King of Blossoms. Everyone, even anarchists, pay homage to this velvety, fragrant, delicately beautiful blossom.

The roses of Marin County are hitting their spring peak now. They will bloom off and on in cycles through next October. But somehow later flowerings don't quite live up to the beauty and splendor of this first outburst of spring.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

From the prophetic pen of Dostoevsky have come many stirring tributes to the healing power of love.

Here is what the 19th century Russian—one of the world's greatest writers—said in his novel, "The Brothers Karamazov":

"Love all God's creation, the whole and every grain of sand in it . . . If you love everything, you will perceive the divine mystery in things."

Or again:

"At some thoughts one stands perplexed . . . and wonders whether one should use force or humble love. Always decide to use humble love . . . Loving humility is marvelously strong, the strongest of all things, and there is nothing else like it."

Dostoevsky's faith, which "came forth from the crucible of doubt," speaks a familiar language to perplexed modern man.

It is a timeless reminder that God accomplishes His divine purpose through each of us when we rely on Him in faith and humble love.

"God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in him."

Recreation Will Gain In State Construction Of Water Project

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO — Development of recreational areas along and in the vicinity of water projects in California marks one of the extra benefits citizens of the state will receive from development and conservation of the state water resources.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed SB 26, by Senator Albert B. Rodda, D-Sacramento, which authorizes the State Department of Parks and Recreation to participate in the development and operation of recreational facilities in conjunction with construction of the Auburn-Folsom South project to be undertaken by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation.

The federal law authorizes federal contribution toward recreation, fish and wildlife enhancement in federal projects, and this is the first project of its kind on which the law is applicable.

THE RODDA BILL authorizes the State Department of Beaches and Parks to develop recreation facilities at the proposed Auburn Reservoir, Folsom Reservoir, Nimbus Dam and Lake Natomas.

Six million dollars is involved in state and local participation in the recreation project, which totals some $30 million allocated from federal funds.

The developments under the Rodda bill fit in with the recreation planning in many other areas of the state, which loom as necessary acts to keep pace with the growing population and the continuing demand to spread present areas and avoid the crowded conditions that exist and are becoming more crowded all the time.

PARTICULARLY in line with future planning is a recent study completed by the state Department of Water Resources, issued as Bulletin 154-66, on recreation areas along the California Aqueduct in the San Joaquin Valley.

This study was requested by the Legislature at the 1965 session, and it reveals the planning schedule for construction of recreation developments through 1974.

The report designates six areas for initial recreation, at Ingram Creek aquatic recreation area, Three Rocks fishing access site, Kettleman City aquatic recreation area, Buena Vista aquatic recreation area, Wheeler Ridge fishing access site, and San Luis Reservoir and forebay.

FACILITIES PLANNED include concession area, fishing, swimming, nature trails, camping and water skiing.

In addition, the department has future recreation developments planned for Corral Hollow, Oro Loma, Huron, Lost Hills, and Buttonwillow fishing access sites, Tupman aquatic recreation area and the aqueduct trails system.

Construction of these areas, which is planned through the next ten years, not only will facilitate the offering of new areas for sporting activities, but also will take the load off some of the present areas which are overcrowded.

In addition, says William E. Warne, director of water resources, the development will add materially to the value of water resources development.

Park Lands For Future

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Robert Scott of San Anselmo shows a great deal of imagination in his proposal to the people of San Anselmo that they roll up their sleeves and do the development of their parks themselves. With leadership, this could become a shining example to all Marin.

But the problem still remains, with growing populations we need to buy land for parks! We have to have the courage and leadership to look beyond today. How do you buy the lands and preserve them for the future without park bonds?

Do city officials in Marin look beyond their term of office, their lifetime, to problems we are putting on others? What responsibility do people living now have for the quality of life of those that will come after us?

Parks aren't primarily a matter of money, we always find money for important things; they are a matter of understanding a basic need of humanity and of caring.

Letter Believed Unnecessary

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I find it very difficult to write a letter to the editor; usually I "consider the source" of letters and forget it. However, I feel very strongly the letter of Professor Vlado Kolitsch (May 11) was certainly uncalled for. It certainly has the earmarks of an insanely jealous man that one of his students was not the soloist and he the director of the Marin Youth Symphony.

I do not feel the Marin Youth Symphony or the curriculum of Marin County schools need any defense. . . .

Both organizations provide scholarships so students can receive this "technical equipment" this master thinks the youth lack. Does he feel he is the only one who can give this "equipment"? Evidently the soloist was not one of his pupils.

Is not Mr. Kolitsch the one who last fall threatened to, and maybe did, withdraw his donation to the San Rafael Music Scholarship Fund if his children were bussed out of the district. Was the real reason that the music department wouldn't require the recipients to attend his school?

In closing, may I say that my only regret is that I have lived in Marin County nine years and have not supported the youth symphony until this year. My highest praise goes to the organization and the schools in their music program.

In Defense Of Park Bonds

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Being absent due to sickness from the Mill Valley City Council meeting when Vice Mayor Wickham registered his disapproval of the county park bond issue, I was not able to dispute with him in our accustomed forum. I therefore would like to dissent publicly to his letter of May 10 justifying his "no" vote.

I think my esteemed colleague is dead wrong for the following reasons.

An investment in parks is the soundest way of attracting the tourist to the county — where dollars spent here is the only rational way of widening Marin's tax base — unless the Marincello myth of clean eager industry beating on our doorstep to enter is to be believed.

But even if the parks don't return one cent, such an investment in land for the future is essential. Vice Mayor Wickham showed a laudable concern for the older, poorer resident. But it seems that to begin to preserve Marin from the deluge of development creeping remorselessly up 101 will benefit this very group who came, lived and invested in Marin in a more leisurely age, and who now have the greatest stake in preserving its threatened values.

The issue seems clear. We are all of us immigrants to Marin who, whether we just arrived or have lived here for decades, voluntarily moved in to live our lives in a unique environment derived from the natural beauty of the county.

Are we willing now to pay a small price to preserve part of this countryside? Or are we to sit on our hands with land values inflating and ocean to bay development proceeding as an unbroken rash while we futilely whimper in disapproval? We have received a beautiful heritage from the past which we expend as the "Marin way of life".

Let us try to leave some of it for those coming after.

Nut Behind Steering Wheel Needs Work

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Those car manufacturers certainly do make unsafe cars.

Have you noticed they've installed magnets in a lot of cars, so that they are irresistibly attracted to each other?

And the windshield glass has been cleverly tinted to make the drivers colorblind so they go through red lights.

Many motors just won't start without a good, stiff whiff of alcoholic fumes from the driver's seat.

And evidently ants nests have been put in some drivers' seats causing them to dash madly back and forth from one lane to another in a frenzy of itching.

These defects must be corrected!

What I want to know is: When every possible fault has been corrected, every conceivable safety device installed, and even highways, road signs and traffic controls completely perfected — who will be to blame for the remaining 90 per cent or 95 per cent of the accidents?

When They Were Alive . . .

Editor, Independent-Journal:

One wonders how many of those who cry so grievously for visible identification of unmarked graves, and their contents, cared enough to give just five minutes, personally, of their own time to those silent occupants, when said occupants were able to appreciate and respond to communication.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A STATION AGENT in Eureka, Calif., heard a crash on the platform. He dashed out to see the tail end of a Southern Pacific train disappearing round the bend, while a disheveled gent lay prone on the concrete, surrounded by the contents of two opened suitcases. An owlish youngster stared at the gent, but made no effort to assist him.

"Was he trying to catch the train?" the station agent asked the youngster. "He did catch it," replied the youngster, "but it got away."

A SUMMER resident had a brand new water pump which suddenly went out of commission, so an S.O.S. was sent out for the local plumber. He viewed the pump warily, then confessed, "I don't know a thing about these new-fangled gadgets." "But we desperately need water," wailed the summer resident. "I beg you to keep trying."

The plumber finally solved the problem, too. A small frog had gotten caught in the mechanism.

The plumber demanded twenty dollars for his services. "Pretty steep for a little job like that, don't you think?" protested the summer resident. "It's this way," explained the plumber finally. "Any job's expensive when you don't know what the heck you're doing."

A press agent recently married the most conceited girl in Beverly Hills. So the guests threw puffed rice.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

China's Churning Ferment Won't Cut Dragon's Militant Attitude

WASHINGTON — It is wishful thinking to believe that the churning ferment inside Red China will soon bring any significant change in Peking's militancy.

Obviously the U.S. ought to do anything it can to encourage such change by showing that it will be welcomed, not rebuffed; but to expect it and to base any policy on the assumption it will happen, that would be foolish and dangerous.

From everything that is appearing in the official press, it is evident that two things are going on in Communist China today. The reason Peking reveals what is going on is that it is the only way to deal with it:

Many independent-minded, pragmatic Chinese are showing themselves fed up with the failures, frustrations, and stifling repression of the regime. The party leaders are afraid it will get out of hand.

THEY ARE determined it won't get out of hand. The Communist party is mounting a relentless purge aimed primarily against scholars — because of the great respect for scholars traditional to the Chinese—but also against students, editors, and some military and political persons deemed untrustworthy.

The danger to the regime from this kind of dissidence and disaffection is frankly admitted by party spokesmen. They may even exaggerate it to rally the faithful.

But the regime retains all the instruments of propaganda, terror, and political and military power which insure its grip on a quarter of the human race. It is using this power ruthlessly to repress all the up-thrusting forces of dissatisfaction.

THIS IS WHY it is well not to count on any successful move in the near future from rigid Maoist thinking to freer and more flexible policies on the part of Peking.

There is no evidence that in any large numbers the Chinese people are acutely hostile to the regime because it is Communist.

Their hostility apparently comes from the mounting conviction that the regime is doing a very bad job of running the nation, that its massive repressions and pervasive controls make for terrible waste and inefficiency.

The cult of the infallible Mao Tse-tung has become so farfetched and fantastic that it is ridiculous to thinking Chinese.

They are told that their crops will grow better if they hoe with one hand and carry a copy of the "Thoughts of Mao Tse-Tung" with the other.

They are told that the earthquakes would be much worse were it not for the "Thoughts of Mao Tse-Tung."

THEY ARE TOLD that they should regard the "Thoughts of Mao Tse-Tung" as "food, weapon, compass, and guiding light."

They are told that one sentence from the "Thoughts of Mao Tse-Tung" is worth more than 10,000 sentences from lesser books.

To an increasing number of Chinese neither this kind of thought control nor this kind of Communist Coueism is producing a flourishing China or a China capable of winning respect in the world.

If you want to understand what Maoism is doing to the lives and education of Chinese students, you will want to read "The Thought Revolution," by Tung Chi-ping, who went through it all and defected, and Humphrey Evans.

But the power of the regime is far greater than the forces of dissent. There is contention over who shall succeed Mao, but it is a near certainty that his immediate successors will reflect the "Thoughts of Mao-Tse-Tung," not the thoughts of experiment and change.

Johnson 'Consensus' Policies Criticized

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The much-touted "consensus" course the Johnson administration is pursuing in attempting to cope with the country's increasingly strained economic and fiscal conditions is ambiguous, shortsighted and ineffectual.

That's the bluntly critical judgment of a prominent Democrat who was one of the President's closest lieutenants when he was his party's Senate leader.

Sen. Vance Hartke, Ind., member of the influential Finance Committee, strongly feels the time is overdue for the President and his advisers to fully and freely tell the nation exactly what it faces in the tortuous and costly Viet Nam conflict and immediately embark on sound and responsible planning and measures.

"WITH AMBASSADOR Lodge in Washington for consultations," says Hartke, "the American people deserve some frank answers. If military victoy is possible, can Viet Nam attain a stable and enduring government? If these prospects are remote, then the American people should be told that so we can plan for a long-drawn-out war.

"It is fair and proper to ask why are we not preparing a financial plan for a long war?

"No one in the administration has said that this will not be a long war. Yet no one in the administration has admitted that long-term financing is necessary. All administration suggestions and proposals for financing Viet Nam have taken the form of one-shot, stop-gap restorations of excise taxes and multi-billion dollar supplemental appropriations.

"WHY HAS THE administration ignored the necessity for sound and responsible economic and fiscal planning for the possibility of years of military struggle ahead of us? Why delude ourselves? We have everything to lose and nothing to gain by such a vacillating and shortsighted attitude.

"The times are too critical and the stakes too great for temporizing and makeshifts. We must squarely and firmly face up to realities and deal with them clearly and forcefully.

"We are putting 300,000 American lives on the line in Viet Nam, and we owe them forthright answers."

MAKING HIS POINT — To underscore his militant challenge of the administration's so-called "consensus" policies, Hartke voted against the $12 million rent subsidy advocated by the President.

Previously, Hartke supported the proposal. But this time he opposed it on the ground it "can't help those it was intended to help."

"It has been turned into a mockery by the run-away inflation on home mortgages," he caustically said. "The working man who wants to buy a home can no longer meet a mortgage. Not only is money too expensive, but money is not to be borrowed at the price he can afford.

"Rent subsidies cannot undo the damage that the money squeeze is perpetrating throughout the country."

Newcomer Has Tough Time Aiding Foreign Student Seeking Family

It's usually hard enough to find people to volunteer for things, but when you're a newcomer with fewer contacts, it's tougher.

Consider the situation of Mrs. Marion Connell, who moved to 21 Marinero Circle, Tiburon, from Washington, D. C. last February.

She is seeking six Marin County families who will volunteer to house a college-aged foreign student for one month this August. She is undertaking this for the non-profit Experiment in International Living of Putney, Vt.

The purpose of the program is to acclimate the students to American customs before they start university life here. Hopefully, "they will become a member of the family, and not a celebrity," Mrs. Connell said.

MRS. CONNELL, 26, came in contact with the experiment as a program officer with the Peace Corps in Washington, D.C., where she worked for four years. When she moved here she decided she'd rather help the experiment than sit around playing bridge and kaffee klatsching.

"There is no financial obligation for the host families," she said, "just hospitality." The students will have their own health and accident insurance, pocket money and travel and study funds.

One such student, Marc Le Maguer, 26, of Paris, France, stayed last summer with the Louis J. Velte family of 32 Mountain View Road, Fairfax. A Fullbright scholar now doing graduate engineering studies at the University of California at Berkeley, he has since returned holidays and weekends to visit, reports Mrs. Louise Velte. She is an English teacher at Redwood High School and coincidentally student foreign exchange advisor there.

"Having him with us was a fine experience on both sides," Mrs. Velte said. "It was a good mutual exchange. He revived our interest in French and we were able to see our national politics from another viewpoint."

"He became part of the family," she said. The Veltes have three college-aged children, a girl at the College of Marin and a boy and girl at Cal.

Mrs. Connell has received some help from last year's Marin County Experiment chairman, Mrs. Henry Eddy of Ross, who introduced her to previous host families. "But I'd like to have different families try it this year," she said.

Her husband, Lawrence Connell Jr. is deputy regional administrator with the federal office of the Comptroller of the Currency in San Francisco. They have a two-month old daughter, Elizabeth. They will host one foreign student themselves under the program.

Volunteers were no problem, however, for Mrs. Robert J. Toso of 21 Bayview Terrace, Tiburon. She was faced with organizing a jazz festival for the Strawberry Point P-TA's County Fair Day this Saturday at Strawberry Point School.

MRS. TOSO said she was at a loss to make it an interesting event until three young musical groups of "long haired, tight pants Mods" came forward unsolicited to "blow their ax" (play their instruments). "They have resurrected the archaic plans for the whole thing and turned it into a polished program."

"Marin County may be the only place where this could happen," Mrs. Toso said," and the boys deserve recognition for it."

The three groups are the Trix with Pete Miller on Drums; John Hoffman, bass guitar; Fred Meyers, lead guitar, and Chad Harding on rhythm, who it says here, are noted for their new approach to "Looey, Looey" and "High Heeled Sneakers;" the Soul by Four, with Ron Kelly, rhythm; Jan Michelson, drums; Jeremy Galbreath, bass guitar, and Dennis Hogan, lead guitar; and the Skwires, Dana Rudebeck, lead guitar; Ron Erskin, rhythm; John Lennon, bass, and Bill Everts, drums, who will open the festival at 12:30 p.m. with "It's My Life."

What Will Ethel Say When Lady Bird Enters Race For President?

WASHINGTON — When Gov. George Wallace couldn't change the Alabama constitution so that he could succeed himself, he did the next worst thing. He ran his wife in his place for the Governorship, and in last week's primaries she had a big win.

THIS SORT of thing has opened up all sorts of possibilities for politicians who can't succeed themselves, and I just hope President Johnson didn't read about it, because if he did . . .

"Wal, Lady Bird, Ah see where Mrs. Wallace got a big vote in the Democratic primaries in Alabama."

"Yes, Lyndon, I read about it."

"Let me ask ya somthing, Lady Bird. You ever wondered what we'd do in 1972?"

"I thought we'd go back to the ranch, Lyndon. The girls will be married by then and you can work on your book and we could finally take life easy."

"Exactly what Ah was thinking, Bird. Let me ask you one question. Have you ever thought of running for some high public office?"

"What on earth are you talking about, Lyndon?"

"I don't know if Ah ever told you this, dear, but you'd make some man a fine President."

"President?"

"WHY SURE, Bird, Ah've only got another term to go, and Ah'm not going to be able to build the Great Society the way Ah want it between now and 1972. Now, if you ran for President, we'd have eight more years in the White House. Do you know how many trees you can plant in eight years?"

"I wouldn't know how to run for President, Lyndon."

"Ah'd help you. Ah'd be by your side during the entire campaign. Ah might even make a few speeches for you. Don't forget, in 1972 Ah'll be the titular head of the party, and people will be interested in who Ah'm going to support."

"BUT WHY me, Lyndon? There must be somebody else more worthy of the job."

"Bird, we used to have a saying that behind every man there's a woman, and now after Alabama they have saying that behind every woman there's a man. Ah want to be that man."

"But what would people say, Lyndon?"

"Ah asked Jack Valenti, and he thought it would be a wonderful idea.

"What did Hubert Humphrey say?"

"He said he'd like to think it over. Ah'm sure he'll come around. Ah told him, if he'd support you for President, Ah'd support Muriel for Vice-President."

"Lyndon, I just don't know what to tell you. I don't even know what to do about Viet Nam."

"Don't let that bother you, Bird. Ah don't either."

"But if I were President, what would you do?"

"Ah'd keep busy, Lady Bird. There's always plenty for the husband of a President to do."

"WELL, WE don't have to make up our minds tonight, do we?"

"Of course not, Bird. You sleep on it. Ah'll call Nick Katzenbach in the morning, just to make sure it's constitutional."

"I was so looking forward to retiring to the ranch, but anything you say, Lyndon."

"That's the spirit, Bird. Ah can't wait to see the look on Ethel Kennedy's face when Ah tell her."

Quiett's Salary Set At $753, Back To May 1

Marin County supervisors yesterday set the salary of Douglas J. Quiett, acting director of community relations, at $753 a month retroactive to May 1.

The board took this action after holding off a decision a week ago so the countywide advisory committee on the War on Poverty and the Community Action Committee for Marin City could be consulted.

Both committees had earlier recommended that the acting director's salary be $870 a month, putting it in the same range as Walter Bremond, the former director.

County Administrator Alan Bruce reported a majority of committee members were in favor of the supervisors' figure. In his former post of community aide, Quiett received $486 a month.

District Attorney In Radio Spotlight

Incumbent Bruce B. Bales and Sausalito attorney A. Leonard Bjorklund Jr., competing candidates for Marin County district attorney in the June 7 primaries, will be interviewed by Kitty Oppenheimer from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow on the Radio KTIM "Sounding Board."

On May 26, candidates for First District supervisor—John F. McInnis, Dr. William F. Upton and Melvin Warenback—will be heard on the "Sounding Board" program.

Rhodesians Bar Entry Of Marin Clergyman

An Episcopalian minister from San Rafael has been barred from entering Rhodesia, where he had planned to spend several months conducting a training program so Rhodesian clergymen could help Africans.

Rev. Canon Trevor A. Hoy, 44, of 77 Manderly Road, sent his wife a cable yesterday saying he had been refused entry as soon as he stepped off a plane at Bulawayo.

Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, was expelled from Rhodesia last December after he went there to visit the Rt. Rev. J. F. Skelton, bishop of the Diocese of Matabeland. Hoy was also scheduled to meet Skelton on his arrival.

Hoy is a former program director for the California diocese. He had been working for Glide Foundation of San Francisco on programs for dealing with racial minorities.

Freeman said Hoy recently volunteered to go to Rhodesia without pay to set up a program so clergymen there could help Africans to help themselves.

Hoy told his wife in the cable that he had returned to Livingston, Zambia, to await instructions from Bishop Pike.

Fairfax To Fete Good Citizens

For the second year in a row, the men and women who serve citizens of Fairfax without pay as councilmen, commissioners or school board members were scheduled to get a free meal this evening as a token of appreciation from the Fairfax Merchants Assn.

The dinner is scheduled to start at 8 p.m. at the Deer Park Villa.

Last year, 24 public officials were honored before an audience of 140 persons.

Trial Scheduled In Theft Case

Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court yesterday scheduled a jury trial Sept. 6 for Thomas Grinner, 19, charged with April 2 burglary of Hilarita Housing Project in Tiburon.

Lafayette Walker, 46, of 3 Boulevard Terrace, Novato, asks $50,000 for injuries, including broken ribs, suffered in the fall during work on a new building at 36 Greenside Way.

A co-worker, John J. Boque Sr., 64, Santa Rosa, earlier filed a $100,000 suit. Both allege negligence in maintenance of the scaffold by Marin Scaffolding Co. and E. D. McGillicuddy Construction Co. of Novato.

Plea Is Changed In Burglary Case

Clifford John Kavis, 21, changed his plea to guilty yesterday in Marin Superior Court to a charge of burglary. He had been scheduled for jury trial.

Kavis, of Bermuda Palms, Motel, San Rafael, burgled a room there occupied by Alexander Keller last Dec. 31. He will be sentenced June 8.

Probation Given In Burglary Case

Kirk Kneedler Taylor, 28-year-old San Anselmo machinist, was placed on two years probation, fined $176, and sentenced to 60 days in county jail yesterday in Marin Superior Court for burglary.

Girl Driver Injured In One-Car Accident

Nicki Lee Heller, 15, of 90 Alta Vista, Mill Valley, suffered a cut mouth at 1:30 a.m. yesterday when the car she was driving left Corte Madera, went over a bank and hit a redwood tree.

Police Officer Harvey Zion, whose patrol car had passed hers a minute earlier, said she told him she crashed because she was so afraid Zion was going to stop her that she took her eyes off the road to watch the patrol car in her rear-view mirror.

President Blasts 'Nervous Nellies' On Viet Nam War

Chicago Democratic Group Hears Johnson Decry Senate Debaters

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Johnson, warning that failure to halt Red aggression in Viet Nam couid bring on a general Asian war, has lashed out at critics of his policy as "Nervous Nellies" who would cut and run under fire.

"Put away all the childish divisive things, if you want the maturity and the unity that is the mortar of a nation's greatness," the Chief Executive exhorted about 7,000 persons at a Democratic fund-raising rally in Chicago last night.

"I do not think that those men who are out there fighting for us tonight think we should enjoy the luxury of fighting each other back home," he said, appealing to all Americans to "come together as a people and as a nation" and support his Viet Nam policy.

The fighting tenor of John- the pattern of his political appearances thus far this year. In two previous affairs at Washington and Houston, Tex., he also urged Democrats to stand up for U.S. policy in Viet Nam before the voters, despite criticism from within their own party and from the Republicans.

The President told the Chicago rally that as of Tuesday morning 1,705 Americans had died in Viet Nam this year. "But I tell you that, if we fail in frustrating this aggression, the war that would surely come in Asia would produce casualties in the hundreds of thousands—perhaps in the millions.

"Your government is determined to resist this aggression at the minimum cost to our own people, to our allies and to the world," the President said.

"There will be some Nervous Nellies and some who will become frustrated and bothered and break ranks under the strain and turn on their own leaders, their own country and their own fighting men," he said.

Farm Boy, 15, Slays Crazed Mountain Man

Girl Not Harmed; Killer Wounds Another Lawman

SHADE GAP, Pa. (UPI) —Peggy Ann Bradnick, 17, kidnaped a week ago by a long-sought deranged sniper who turned killer, was rescued unharmed today. The kidnaper was shot to death at point-blank range by a 15-year-old farm boy.

The boy, Larry Rubeck, fired a 12-gauge shotgun through a window of his home at nearby Fort Littleton at the kidnaper, William D. Hollenbaugh, 44, who was standing on a porch.

GIRL CRIES

Peggy Ann cried over and over to rescuers:

"Thank God . . . Thank God . . I'm safe . . . I'm safe."

A short time before his death, the kidnaper—who shot FBI agent Terry Anderson to death yesterday — shot and wounded a deputy sheriff and commandeered his automoble. He put Peggy Ann on the floor in the rear of the car and wounded deputy, Francis Sharpe, in the front seat and drove to the Rubeck farm home at Fort Littleton, two miles from Shade Gap, eluding hundreds of armed police closing in on the sniper's hideaway.

BOY ALERT

The Rubeck boy saw the auto from a barn where he was doing chores. He ran inside the house, grabbed a .12-gauge shotgun and yelled to his mother:

"Hit the floor, mom. That crazy mountain man is on the porch."

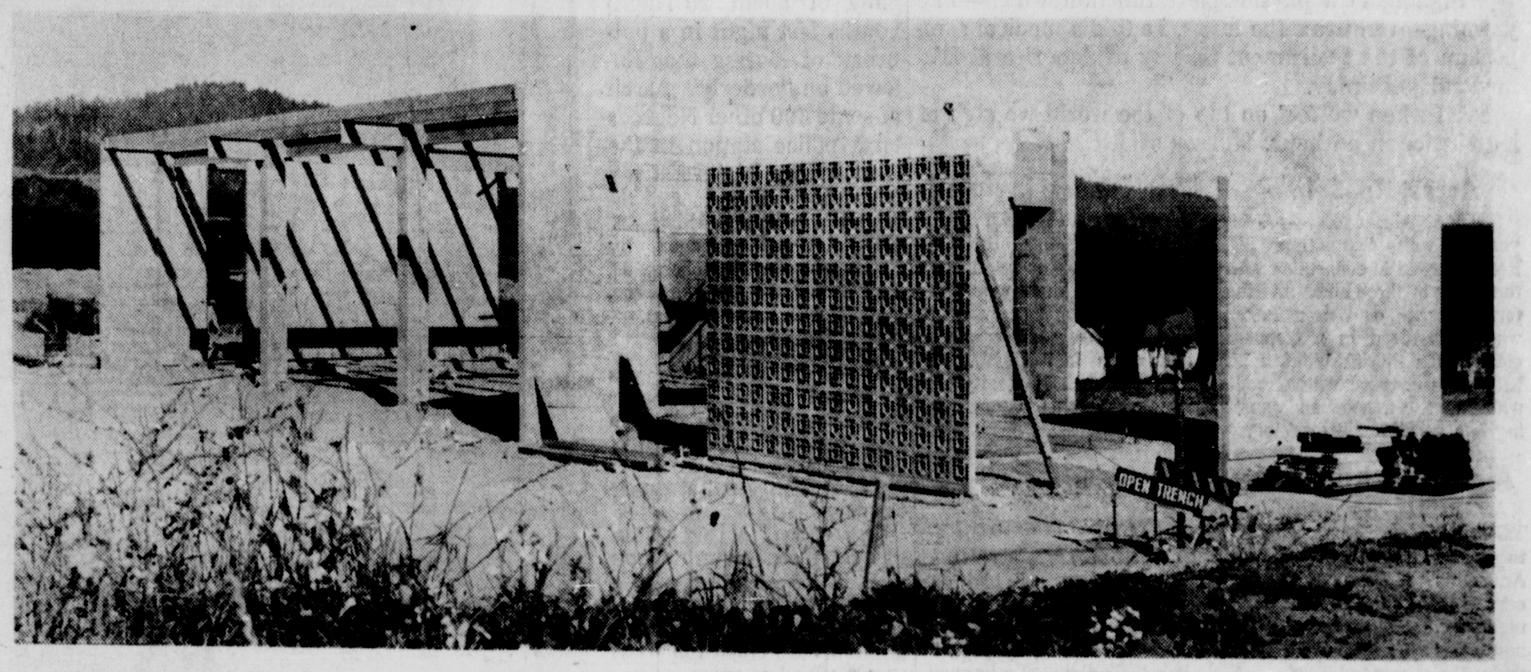
Peggy Ann, the wounded deputy sheriff and the d ying Hollenbaugh were rushed to the hospital in McConnellsburg.

At the hospital Dr. Russell McLucas, Fulton County Coroner, said:

"Sharpe is in fair condition. He was wounded once in the abdomen. He is undergoing surgery, and will survive.

"Peggy Ann is fine, excellent. I cannot confirm that there was any physical abuse."

Peggy Ann was kidnaped by Hollenbaugh at gunpoint last Wednesday afternoon while she and five younger brothers and sisters were walking from a school bus up a dirt road to their mountain home near Shade Gap.



CAUSE OF FUROR—This vehicle maintenance building being erected beside Shoreline Highway near Point Reyes Station by the State Division of Highways has angered West Marin residents. They say it wasn't given planning permission, constitutes a traffic hazard, and is oppressive in appearance.

Building Goes Up; County Can't Stop It

By PAT PERRY

A concrete block vehicle maintenance building erected by the State Division of Highways near Point Reyes National Seashore without planning permission has brought a flood of complaints from residents, who term it ugly, oppressive and a traffic hazard.

The garage is beside Shoreline Highway, seven-tenths of a mile south of Point Reyes Station on state-owned property. A one-story building, it is about half complete.

NOT REQUIRED

Marin County is powerless to do anything about it, according to county planning department officers. Under California law, the Division of Highways is not required to get county planning permission, or even a building permit.

Zoning administrator Thomas E. Cordill has been listening to complaints about the structure for weeks, he said, but "in law there isn't anything we can force them to do."

He has written to the Division of Highways' District 4 in San Francisco, requesting a discussion of the building and the problems it is creating. He's also written to angry residents, advising them to write to the division too.

USE PERMIT

A Division of Highways spokesman, Gene Raleigh, said in San Francisco yesterday that he did not know whether a use permit had been obtained for the building. He said the building is to replace a leased building in Point Reyes Station.

State law requires that state, counties and cities do not have to comply with zoning and building regulations of the area in which they operate, explained Cordill. A prime example is school construction.

"I many instances a governmental jurisdiction will cooperate with the local agency in locating and developing property, but in this case it didn't," he said.

LOCAL AGENCY

West Marin residents say the concrete block building is too close to the road, oppressive in appearance, and there seems to be no room for landscaping.

The two and one-third acre site, state-owned land, is next to a trout farm.

"The visibility down the highway when you're coming out on to the highway is pretty substantially restricted," said Cordill, "and we have a concern as to the traffic hazard."

The facility was designed by the State Division of Architecture, said the Division of Highways spokesman.

Union Aide Kills Self; Fund Scandal Blamed

Sausalito's City Manager Resigns

Charles A. Brown, city manager of Sausalito since February, 1960, submitted his resignation to the city council last night, effective next month.

Brown said after the council meeting that he is taking a job with the State Department's Agency for International Development and is slated to be assigned to South America. He said he didn't know exactly what his task would be.

Brown told the council he would be leaving after the council's June 21 meeting.

His announcement was met with a round of praise from council members for his contributions to the city and for doing "an admirable job."

Mayor Mel Wax said the council regretted the need for Brown to leave Sausalito, but "the offer was one he could hardly turn down."

Councilman Eleanor O'Hara Chapin said people don't realize how hard a city manager works.

Brown, a native of Oxnard, Ventura County, was administrative assistant to the city manager of Lodi, San Joaquin County, before becoming city manager in Sausalito.

He will be the second Sausalito official to join the Agency for International Development in just over two years. Former Sausalito Mayor Paul Micou joined the organization in April, 1964.

Ex-Marinite Third Painter Case Death

Sture Youngren, 55, a Painters Union welfare fund official, who was in business in Marin County with his father in the 1930s, killed himself with a pistol in Carmichael, Sacramento County.

His body was found by a Sacramento County district attorney's investigator who wen to the office after Youngren failed to appear for questioning at the district attorney's office regarding embezzlement from the welfare fund.

He and his father, Olaf Youngren, ran a livery stable in San Rafael and supplied horses for students of San Rafael Military Academy, Dominican College and other private schools. He later went into the insurance business.

THIRD DEATH

His reported suicide in Sacramento was the third violent death in a Painters Union scandal that included shotgun slayings of two San Francisco Bay Area men.

Youngren was administrator of fringe benefits of the union's welfare fund and, according to Sacramento police, had admitted taking about $60,000 from the fund.

Hours after he was interviewed yesterday by sheriff's officers, Youngren was found dead in his insurance office in Carmichael, with a .45-caliber automatic pistol nearby.

IMPLICATED CALL

Police said today that before his death Youngren implicated Sacramento painting contractor Norman Call, 46, one of the five men arraigned in San Francisco yesterday on charges of conspiracy to murder Dow Wilson, 47, an official of the union.

One of the five suspects, Richard Rock, 33, of Mill Valley, broke down and sobbed in the municipal courtroom of Judge Donald Constine.

"What are they doing to me? What are they trying to do to me?" he cried hysterically. His Trial Judge Lt. Col. Arnold C. Castle of Davis-Monthan Air Force Base, Ariz., let the plea of guilty stand before the jury of eight officers the prosecution began calling witnesses. It is

McNAMARA CALLS FOR CHINA TIES

Diplomatic Relations, Even Exchanging Military Observers Asked To Avoid War

MONTREAL (AP) — U. S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara called today for steps to "build bridges" toward Red China as a means of avoiding war.

"We can do so with properly balanced trade relations, diplomatic contacts, and in some cases even by exchanges of military observers," McNamara said.

In a speech to the American Soviety of Newspaper Editors, McNamara spoke in philosophical terms of U.S. relationships with potential enemies as well as with underdeveloped countries and with allied nations.

He made only bare mention of Viet Nam and then only indirectly.

The defense secretary said "breaching the isolation of great nations like Red China reduces the danger of potentially catastrophic misunderstandings, and increases the incentive on both sides to resolve disputes by reason rather than by force."

As a step toward development of a worldwide "community of effort," McNamara suggested that every young person in the United States should be asked to give two years of service, whether in the military, the Peace Corps, or "some other volunteer development work at home and abroad."

"We could encourage other countries to do the same and we could work out exchange programs much as the Peace Corps is already planning to do," McNamra said.

He noted that suggestions along this line have been criticized as inappropriate while the United States is in a shooting war.

"But I believe precisely the opposite is the case," McNamara said. "It is more appropriate now than ever.

"For it would underscore what our whole purpose is in Viet Nam — and indeed anywhere in the world where coercion, or injustice, or lack of decent opportunity still holds sway."

Such an approach, McNamara said, "would make meaningful the central concept of security: a world of decency and development."

U.S. Troops Hit By Bombs By Mistake

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON — U. S. Air Force fighter bombers accidentally bombed troops of the First Infantry Division in War Zone C, killing two Americans and wounding 58, it was announced today.

U.S. spokesmen said the accident last Thursday was the fault of the ground troops, who placed smoke markers incorrectly after calling for an air strike against the Communists. Air Force jets showered the area with deadly anti-personnel bombs.

Rebels shot down a U. S. spotter plane over Da Nang late today. U. S. Marines quietly took over a Da Nang River bridge disputed between rebel and government troops in that hotbed of northern dissidence.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's opponents poured 500 more anti-government infantrymen into the city. And 200 men from a detachment of rangers already based there switched to the rebel side. That boosted the rebel ranks to more than 1,000 men, against the 2,500 Vietnamese

New Artificial Heart Patient Awake And Well

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A retired Navy man was "awake and doing well" today after becoming the second patient within three weeks to have a partial artificial heart implanted in his chest.

Walter L. McCans, 61, Woodinville, Wash., received the device to assist his heart's pumping in an operation performed yesterday by a cardiovascular team at Methodist Hospital.

A hospital statement said McCans was taken to surgery to have an aortic ball valve inserted in his heart. He was described as in "rather severe left ventricle heart failure" when he entered the operating room.

Afterward the hospital would say only that "The surgical operation was successful."

Bolinas Fires Secretary — She Didn't Deposit Money

The secretary to the Bolinas Beach Public Utility District board was fired last night at a special board meeting after it was learned she had not deposited any money into the county treasury since last Sept. 24.

Mrs. Jacque Gianola, $175 per month secretary to the board for the past two years, was replaced by Mrs. Dorothy Paul.

"Mrs. Gianola got behind in her work and it was found necessary to change secretaries," board president John S. Lancaster explained today.

The special unannounced meeting was called yesterday afternoon after officials from the county auditor's office went to the district office in Bolinas Mesa Clubhouse and took $3,397 in cash and checks from a desk file and some of the board's records.

"We had been trying for some time to get hold of the records," Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell said today. He said this is in connection with audits being made of books of all special districts in the county. "We had a number of excuses—illness, being unable to reach the persons involved.

"Finally," he said, "we noticed that there has not been a deposit made to the district since last September."

Mitchell said he sent his auditor to get the books yesterday and all were obtained except for the accounts receivable ledger. Additional records were to be taken to the Civic Center today, he added.

A cash box containing $3,397, all in checks except for $29 in cash was found and the money deposited, Mitchell said. The checks were dated from Dec. 30, 1965 through May 9, 1966.

"We are still missing our deposits between Sept. 24, and Dec. 29," Mitchell said.

Students Riot Anew

LOUVAIN, Belgium (AP) — New clashes between Flemish students and police took place today in this university town, where a language dispute has caused an uproar. Police reported students ejected a professor from his classroom and broke windows of university buildings.

Doctor Debunks Poetic Sighs

ANAHEIM (AP)—Why do we sigh? Are we merely weary or depressed?

Neither. We sigh because we have to, says Dr. W. J. Murray, a University of North Carolina anesthesiologist.

Sighing is a physiological function which—like yawning—ventilates the lungs, he told a medical symposium of the Instrument Society of America at Disneyland yesterday.

Even when we feel on top of the world we sigh at least twice in an hour, Murray said.

Gang Beats Two Newsmen After Watts Area Looting

Protest March On Police Ends With Violence

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Two news magazine reporters were beaten by a gang of about 20 Negro youths last night in a outbreak of looting that followed an "orderly" march of some 500 other Negroes on a police station in the trouble-torn Watts district.

Seriously injured in the assault was Karl Fleming, 38, glos Angeles manager for Newsweek. David Moberg, 23, staff writer for the magazine, escaped with minor injuries.

BOTTLES THROWN

A fleet of police cars was dispatched to the area after bottles were thrown through store windows, shops looted of alcohol and food and a rash of fire alarms triggered at corner call boxes.

Desk officers at the station was quiet and normal patrols were in the area that was a scene of violence last August and again in March. Minor incidents have erupted in Watts over a period of years.

Fleming suffereda fractured jaw and possible concussion when he was struck on the head with a two-by-four. He was treated at Oak Park Hospital and transferred to Daniel Freeman Hospital in Inglewood, where doctors said they removed two splinters, four to six inches in length, from beneath his scalp. His condition was listed as "satisfactory."

Moberg was struck on the left side of the face and suffered a black eye and bruises, but was released after treatment at Oak Park hospi-l.

ATTACK FROM BEHIND

The two newsmen and a third Newsweek reporter had parked their car near the Gem Liquor Store on South San Pedro St. and were walking toward the store, where police already were investigating, when they were attacced from behind.

Moberg said he was walking in front of Fleming when he heerd a groan. He turned and saw Fleming, his face bloodied, fall to the pavement.

Moberg said he then was hit in the face before a Negro, who subsequently identified himself as a plainclothes police officer, came to Fleming's aid and caused the young assailants to flee.

Police said the looting apparently was not connected with a march by some 500 Negroes earlier in the evening.

Angered Doctors Ask Abortion Law Change

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. Edmund W. Overstreet, a leading San Francisco physician, said yesterday angry doctors will press for reforms in California's "archaic" abortion laws.

As many as 40 reputable San Francisco Bay Area obstetricians may soon be charged with unprofessional conduct for performing therapeutic abortions in violation of state law, the attorney general's office says.

In each case, it is alleged, the abortions were performed with permission of reputable hospitals because the mothers had been exposed to German measles and might have given birth to deformed children.

However, present state laws permit abortions only when the life of the mother is threatened by continued pregnancy.

Overstreet, vice chairman of the University of California's obstetrics department, said the operations should also be allowed in cases of rape or incest and when gross birth defects in the child are probable.

"The State Board of Medical Examiners plans to sit in judgment on physicians for unprofessional conduct," Overstreet said.

"We do not believe that violation of an archaic statute is unprofessional. Nor is it unprofessional for a physician to conduct himself in accord with the ethics of the community, the wishes of patients and the best medical judgment of doctors."

He said that doctors, angered by the threatened hearings before the Board of Medical Examiners, will lobby for legislation to liberalize California's abortion laws.

Assemblyman Anthony C. Beilenson, D-Beverly Hills, has in the past sponsored a bill in the state legislature to reform abortion laws. Twice the bill has died in committee.

Last March the California Medical Association voted to support the measure, and Overstreet says the CMA will back it if it is resubmitted in the next legislative session.

Navy Reveals Bomb Loans To Air Force

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has had to borrow more than 400,000 bombs from the Navy to help carry out its air strikes in Viet Nam, it was learned today.

The Defense Department provided this figure in response to questions after the bomb diversion came to light in congressional testimony released yesterday.

PENTAGON REPORT

A Pentagon spokesman said that between Jan. 1, 1964 and April 30, 1966 "The Navy made available to the Air Force from Navy inventories slightly more than 400,000 bombs of various types and sizes."

The great bulk of this supply was turned over to the Air Force before this year, the spokesman said.

Officials reported today U.S. forces are striking heavily at what may be the Viet Cong's greatest weakness — his stomach.

RICE, SALT

Since the year began, the officials said, American troops have captured more than 7,500 tons of rice and well over 400 tons of salt.

Both are basic foods which the Communists cannot ship from North Viet Nam, as they do their arms and other supplies, but must collect in South Viet Nam.

Authorities, assuming a Communist soldier eats about two pounds of rice a day, estimate that the 7,500 tons taken represented food for 125,000 men for two months.

This does not take account of other supplies destroyed by bombing and artillery fire.

Senate Supports A-Treaty Search

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Senate gave its unanimous endorsement yesterday for President Johnson to press for a new international agreement to halt the spread of nuclear weaponry.

The 84-0 vote urged the President to take "additional" steps toward conclusion of such a treaty, which, according to Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., could be signed this year.

Clark said if the United West Germany would not own or control nuclear weapons, the Russians could be persuaded to sign such a treaty.

Harry Gold, Atom Spy, Gets Parole

LEWISBURG, Pa. (UPI) — Harry Gold, 55, convicted courier for the spy ring which gave Russia the secret of the atom bomb, was to be paroled today from the federal penitentiary here after serving 16 years of a 30 year sentence.

A central figure in the atom bomb spy trial of the 1950's, Gold gave testimony that led to the conviction and execution of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, leaders of the far-flung ring. The Rosenbergs were executed June 19, 1953.

Gold was the first member of the spy ring arrested.

He was implicated by British scientist Dr. Emil Julius Klaus Fuchs, who worked on the atom bomb project in the United States, as the man to whom he passed atom secrets.

He was sentenced on Dec. 9, 1950 on a conviction of conspiring to transmit national defense information to a foreign government from December, 1943 to November, 1947.

Atlas Fizzle May Stall Several Space Tests

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — While an investigation board probed the multimillion-dollar failure of Gemini 9's Atlas-Agena target rocket, launch crews pushed ahead today in hopes of launching astronauts Thomas P. Stafford and Eugene A. Cernan in two or three weeks.

When Stafford and Cernan can make another stab at their rendezvous and space walk mission will depend on the precise cause of yesterday's failure.

The results could affect not only the Gemini 9 date, but also several other Atlas-boosted space launchings scheduled here and at Vandenberg Air Force Base in California in the next two months.

The Air Force, which is responsible for the Gemini launch vehicles, reported five hours after yesterday's failure that one of the three engines in the Atlas booster had swiveled wildly to one side.

The other two Atlas engines continued to burn, but the vehicle was diving back toward earth instead of into space. It plunged into the Atlantic Ocean about 180 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy.

The failure was only the third in the last 52 launchings in which the Atlas has served as a booster.

Air Force Maj. Gen. Ben I Funk, chairman of the Gemini Flight Safety Review Board, called for an immediate technical review of the failure. He said that when the exact cause is pinpointed all Atlases slated for flight will be examined to make certain the same problem would not occur.

Wolden Reveals Attorney Made Unexpected Payment

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Assessor Russell Wolden has testified he received $10,753 unexpectedly as a "referral fee" when he suggested prominent lawyers to fight San Francisco's fair housing ordinance.

The assessor, charged with 10 counts of accepting bribes, was cross examined yesterday by chief Asst. Dist. Atty. Francis W. Mayer.

"Mr. (Carl) Gellert wanted to defeat a local fair housing ordinance. You referred him to Mr. Skelly and Mr. Ehrlich," Mayer said.

Wolden acknowledged he had told J. W. Ehrlich and Albert F. Skelly, San Francisco lawyers, that Gellert wanted legal aid in fighting a proposed city housing ordinance in 1963.

"I recommended at least three attorneys and I think a fourth," Wolden said. "I didn't expect a fee."

"Did you send it back?" Mayer said referring to the $10,753 fee from Ehrlich.

"I enjoyed receiving it," Wolden answered. "I did not send it back. It was a proper referral fee."

Steamer Survivors

MANILA (AP) — Rescue authorities said today they have confirmation that 136 of the 262 persons aboard the missing Philippine steamer Pioneer Cebu have reached safety on the small Island of Bantayan. Officials at the Manila Rescue Center said the coastal vessel Diana picked up the 136 survivors and two bodies.

Bermuda was first colonized by the British in 1612 when the government sent out a governor and 60 settlers, according to the Bermuda News Bureau.

Marin Marine Dies In Florida Accident

Marine Corps Cadet Michael N. Kavanagh, former Marin County high school and junior college basketball star, was killed yesterday in a training accident near Pensacola, Fla.

Kavanagh, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Norman Kavanagh of 55 Corte Solano, Greenbrae, had been training to become a pilot. His airplane crashed into the Gulf of Mexico about one and one-half miles from the carrier, Lexington, from which it had taken off. The carrier was about 35 miles from Pensacola.

Witnesses said the plane suddenly nose-dived, indicating the crash may have been because of mechanical failure. Neither the airplane or Kavanagh's body was found.

He had made four perfect solo flights prior to the fatal crash. His father said yesterday was to be his last test flight before moving on to Texas to receive his "wings."

Michael was born in Chehalis, Wash., and moved to Marin County with his family when he was 16. He attended Redwood High School in Larkspur where he was a star center for the 1961 Marin Athletic League champion team. He attended College of Marin and played center for the 1962 and 1963 basketball teams, both of which won Golden Valley Conference championships.

After graduation from College of Marin in the fall of 1963, he was quite active in San Rafael Recreation Department adult basketball leagues. He had joined the Marine Corps about 13 months ago.

In addition to his parents, Kavanagh is survived by a half brother, William Whitney of Centralia, Wash., and a grandfather, E. N. Kavanagh of La Jolla, San Diego County. Memorial services are planned Friday in Pensacola.

Government forces, supported by two tanks, started to close in on one of Da Nang's three rebel-held pagodas. But they withdrew after Buddhist monks set fire to a wooden pyre they had erected there and threatened to burn themselves to death if the advance continued.

In Saigon 30 young Buddhist monks and "several" nuns have vowed that they will burn themselves to death if government troops attack their pagodas, it was reported today.

Buddhist sources said the "suicide squad" was organized in Saigon's Vien Hoa Dao pagoda, spiritual home of Viet Nam's Buddhists. It had been repored earlier that three elderly monks in occupied Da Nang had threatened self-immolation if troops seize the pagodas there.

The government moved two battalions of battle-clad Vietnamese marines into Saigon last night to reinforce riot police standing guard against possible Buddhist-inspired violence.

Boys, 5, Elude Hub Dragnet

Police patrols cruised hills of the Hub City for more than an hour and one-half yesterday afternoon, searching for two 5-year-old boys reported missing after they left kindergarten at Wade Thomas School at 11 a.m.

David Moore of 147 Allyn Avenue and Douglas Bell of 191 Redwood Avenue were reported missing by their mothers at 4 p.m. The women said the boys were fond of roaming the hills after school.

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani reported the boys evaded his department's five-car dragnet, but showed up at the Bell home at 5:40 p.m.

wife, Kathy, 24, and sister, Mrs. Phyllis Black, also burst into tears among the spectators.

Rock is owner of the Square Chair, a bar in San Francisco's Tenderloin district, which police said was the meeting place of the five who plotted murder.

The five suspects are Call and Rock; Max Ward, 47, Sacramento employer representative of the union welfare fund; Clyde Simmonds, 75, an employee of Call, and Carl M. Black, 47, Oakland accountant and Rock's brother-in-law.

San Francisco police said today they were still looking for the trigger man in the Wilson shooting.

Wilson was killed April 5. Another union official, Lloyd Green, 45, of Hayward, was shot to death May 7. Deputy Chief Al Nelder of San Francisco police said yesterday the department had evidence to link the two killings.

Nelder said that in searching Call's apartment, police found a sketch which appeared to be a diagram of Green's home.

Angelo Turrini, owner of a Marin telephone answering service, recalled today that Olaf Youngren brought his wife and Sture, their only child, to this country from Sweden. Sture Youngren attended San Rafael High School. He entered the Army in World War II and served in the Pacific.

His father closed the livery stable with the outbreak of war, but both parents continued to reside in San Rafael until they died.

School Room Job Awarded

San Anselmo School District trustees last night awarded a $240,823 contract to G. J. Elkington and Sons of Sausalito for additions to Hidden Valley School.

Supt. Stephen Parodi said approval of the state, necessary because it is contributing $47,000 to the project, should come within a week.

The construction, to be completed in early December, includes five classrooms, a teacher room, library, materials center and principal's office. An additional $12,600 contract for paving of the new area was also awarded Elkington.

Trustees also awarded a $19,100 contract to W. K. McLellan of San Anselmo for paving at the new Red Hill School. The contract was held over from last week for a ruling by county counsel on a minor discrepancy in McLellan's bid. Parodi said the bid was ruled legal.

San Anselmo School District Trustees also:

1. Accepted resignations of Carolynne M. Terkelson, third grade teacher, and Jean Brooks, second grade, both at Isabel Cook School.
2. Hired five new teachers: Karen Harvey, to teach second grade at Wade Thomas School at $8,724 annually; Mrs. Beverly MacDonald, fourth grade at Brookside, $7,788; Mrs. Gloria Miller, language arts at Hidden Valley, $6,460; Ann Morrison, fifth grade at Wade Thomas, $6,756, and Mrs. Jean Yates, teach language arts at Red Hill School, $6,348.
3. Rehired the returning teaching staff and, in the process, awarded tenure to eight teachers. Also rehired the classified staff.
4. Agreed that the San Rafael firm of Dalton, Graupner and Barber should make the district's annual audit for not more than $625.

Highway 101 Surface

The State Public Works Department has awarded a $139,266 contract for resurfacing five miles of Highway 101 between Novato and Petaluma to Fisk, Firenze and McLean, Inc., of San Carlos.

Reed Fights Unruh Battle All Alone

The Reed Union School District board last night found out it would have to fight constitutionality of the Unruh Education Act alone.

Mrs. Erwin Farkas told the board that districts wishing to fight the act must do so alone because of possible budgetary problems with the state.

If the board decided to sue, the cost would come from district funds, which must be approved by a balky State Department of Finance, she said.

On April 28 the board instructed Mrs. Farkas and David D. Ring, chairman, to see if other districts would join Reed District in a suit.

The board decided last night to continue exploring a possible suit to test the constitutionality of a section of the act which takes away some state funds from districts voting against unification.

H. Joe Edgington, new superintendent, attended his first meeting. Trustees James B. Atkin and Mrs. Allan E. Steinau were absent.

The Reed School District Board also:

1. Appointed five new teachers: at Reed School—Mrs. Susan Alpert, fourth grade at $7,125, Carl J. Duda, fifth grade at $8,100; at Bel Aire—Mrs. Barbara Patten, sixth grade at $6,125, and Mrs. Dolores Rudow, second at $6,375; at Granada, Mrs. Joan Stuart, Beta team at $8,100.
2. Named Mrs. Steinau as the district's advisory member to the Belvedere Parks and Recreation Commission.
3. Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Ruth Reilly, a teacher at Reed School.
4. Approved continuing a contract with the county superintendent of schools for audio-visual and library services at $10,062.
5. Deferred an application for a $1,000 study grant by Joyce Wilson, humanities team leader at Del Mar School.

Kennel Club Gives Money To Loan Fund

Sir Francis Drake Kennel Club members donated $1,000 to start a student loan fund for the veterinary school at University of California at Davis, in dinner meeting ceremonies at Rancho Rafael last night.

Dr. Robert M. Cello, chief of the department of clinical services in the veterinary school, accepted the check in behalf of the alumni association, which will administer the fund.

Kennel club members raised the money through their annual shows and fun matches, such as the one to be held June 5 in the St. Peter Chanel Seminary grounds in San Rafael.

Plans were completed at last night's meeting for the match, which will feature conformation and obedience competition for puppies from three months old, and adult purebred dogs.

Belvedere Refuses Sausalito Petition

The Belvedere planning commission Monday night refused to support a resolution sent by the Sausalito planning commission opposing a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge.

George V. Banning, chairman said the commission denied its support because the Sausalito resolution suggested that bridge district directors find other ways to handle the traffic. "Those other ways might mean a second bridge to the Tiburon Peninsula," said Banning.

Women Grand Jury Members Tour Prison

Women members of Marin County's Grand Jury will be escorted through parts of San Quentin not normally open to women when the Grand Jury makes its annual tour of the prison tomorrow.

There will be eight women among the group of 16 inspecting the prison tomorrow, said Associate Warden J.W.L. Park, "and these ladies get to see things very few other women get to see."

Questionnaires Due

Mill Valley parents of pupils now attending Sausalito's Richardson Bay School are being sent forms this week asking them to express their interest in sending their children to the school next school year.

Span Board To Meet

Next regular meeting of the board of directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District will be May 27 at 10:30 a.m. in the Borgia Room of the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco.

AIRMAN

expected the trial will finish this week.

The first witness, A/2c Joseph E. Stump, described a drinking party in the barracks that preceded the fatal stabbing.

He said a quarrel between Young and Jennings was over racial discrimination. Jennings, a Negro, told Young, "I'd like to marry your sister."

Young left the party, according to Stump's testimony, later returning with a pistol in his left hand, a knife in his right hand, and placed both against Jennings' chest.

Jennings rose up backwards, away from the knife, pushed his chair back, and ran out of the barracks' south door, related Stump.

Twice during testimony Young's civilian attorneys, Sol Abrams and George Hammer, objected to the prosecution's method of questioning, which required only yes or no answers. The trial judge overruled the objections.

Young is also defended by Lt. Col. Clarence D. Walters Jr., of Mather AFB, and Capt. Oscar L. Mahan of Hamilton AFB.

Prosecution attorneys are Lt. Col. Wesley C. Marsh Jr., of Malstrom AFB, Mont., and Capt. Donald J. Dalton of Hamilton AFB.

Hub Schools 15-Cent Tax Jump Asked

San Anselmo School District trustees were handed a budget proposal last night which would increase the district's total tax rate by 15 cents, from $2.95 to $3.10 per $100 assessed valuation.

Supt. Stephen Parodi proposed a fiscal 1967 budget of $1,414,077, a $126,352.45 increase over this year's $1,287,830.55.

A five-cent tax increase is insured, Parodi said, for when trustees approved salary increases for district teachers, they also agreed to pay $15,000 to provide health insurance. This will be paid for with an override tax.

Parodi proposed that 10 cents be added also in a special override tax for seventh and eighth grade education. He said this would raise about $25,000.

The district is already levying the maximum "general purpose" rate, authorized by a vote, of $2.25 per $100 assessed valuation, plus overrides and bond retirement levies.

Parodi said trustees indicated no opposition to the proposed tax increase. They will discuss the budget again at an adjourned meeting June 7 at Isabel Cook School.

Jury Panelists Winnowed Out In Killing Trial

The remaining portion of the second 60-person panel of prospective jurors was being questioned today in the Marin Superior Court murder trial of Marc Charles Osuna, 30, and Jack F. Gorman, 36.

A total of 30 persons had been quizzed for qualification as jurors. The prosecution had exercised two of their 30 peremptory challenges of panelists, and the defense had used one challenge.

Two more panels of 60 are expected to be called.

The suspects are accused of the shooting death of San Rafael bartender Mario Ferrari at Mission Inn on Labor Day. Judge Thomas F. Keating is presiding.

Candidates To Appear At Silveira School

The three candidates for county supervisor from the first district are scheduled to appear at a candidates night at 8 p.m. today in Mary Silveira School, sponsored by the Marinwood Assn.

Suitcase Taken Outside Church

A Rio Vista man reported that his car was broken into and a suitcase containing $50 worth of clothes was taken while he was at St. Stephen's Church in Belvedere Sunday night.

Harold F. Cram told Belvedere police he had parked his car in the church parking lot about 8:30 p.m. when he came out an hour later, he found the left windwing smashed and the suitcase missing

OBITUARIES

Dr. James G. Whitney Rites Held

Private funeral has been held for Dr. James Goodrich Whitney, 49, of Berkeley and Inverness, who died Tuesday night, apparently of a heart attack, at his Berkeley home.

A prominent psychiatrist and descendant of a Marin County pioneer family, he was active in politics, the civil rights movement and East Bay civic affairs.

As much time as he could spare was spent on Tomales Bay north of Inverness, where he and his brother, Peter D. Whitney, maintained homes on property that has been in the family since 1858.

A native of San Francisco, Dr. Whitney received his bachelor of arts degree at Yale University and his medical degree in 1944 from University of California Medical School.

Dr. Whitney served in both World War II and the Korean War as a Navy medical officer.

In 1956, he was the Democratic candidate for the State Assembly in his Berkeley district. He has served as chairman of the Seventh Congressional District Democratic Council and was a director of the California Democratic Council.

In 1961, he was appointed by the Berkeley City Council to the Citizens Committee Against Discrimination in Housing, and was an author of the Berkeley fair housing ordinance that served as a model for the Rumford Act.

Last summer, Dr. Whitney served as a medical aide to civil rights workers in Minden, La.

He was a past president of the American Society of Analytical Psychology.

Dr. Whitney was a great-grandson of Oscar Shafter, who owned most of Point Reyes Peninsula in the 1850s and was one of the first justices of the State Supreme Court. Mount Whitney was named for the doctor's great-uncle, a geologist.

Dr. Whitney is survived by his wife, the former Deborah Drew Tolman; a daughter, Kathleen; two sons, Peter and Nicholas Whitney; his mother, Dr. Elizabeth G. Whitney of Berkeley; a brother, Peter D. Whitney of Inverness, and a sister, Mrs. Jeremy R. Anderson of Mill Valley.

Youth Booked On Auto Rifle

A 20-year-old transient, Freddie Louis Hunter, was booked in county jail last night for investigation of burglary after allegedly being seen rifling the unlocked automobile of a Bayside Acres resident.

Sheriff's officers said David B. Witt, 704 Point San Pedro Road, told them he glanced out of his home about 11 p.m. and noticed the dome light was turned on in his car.

Witt saw a youth inside. They stared at each other, and the youth ran. Witt called deputies, who found Hunter riding a bicycle nearby, took him to the Witt resident, where Witt identified him as the burglar.

Stabbed Inmate Now In Fair Condition

John Carl Salvestro, San Quentin inmate stabbed at the prison Monday, was reported in fair condition at the prison hospital today. The convicted sex pervert was stabbed six times, and underwent surgery to repair a hole pierced in his heart.

Prison officials were continuing their investigation into the stabbing, but still had no definite suspect.

'Filibuster' Cry On Drunk Test Bill

ROBERT W. CROWN
Continues hearings

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly Ways and Means Committee today continued its exhaustive hearing on the "implied consent" drunken driving bill as backers of the legislation cried: "Filibuster."

Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad, R-Sherman Oaks, demanded yesterday that the bill be put to a vote at once.

He told chairman Robert W. Crown, D-Alameda, that the hearing — which began last Thursday—was now "frankly a filibuster."

OPPOSES BILL

Crown, an outspoken opponent of the bill to require drunken driving suspects to submit to a chemical blood alcohol test, denied trying to talk the measure to death. But he did not indicate when he would call for a vote.

The bill, by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, has the strong support of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. It has already been passed by the Senate.

Another administration backed bill—intended to reform the scandal-plagued property tax assessment system—is in the same kind of trouble in the Senate.

The Assembly-passed bill was shunted off to a subcommittee yesterday by the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee which had been holding hearings on the measure even longer than the Assembly Ways and Means Committee has been discussing the drunken driving proposal.

ASSESSOR BILL

The assessor bill was not killed by assignment to the three - member subcommittee. But the move certainly delayed action and reduced the measure's chances of final passage.

Any substantial delay at this stage of the legislative session lawmakers are anxious to adjourn because the June 7 primary election is less than three weeks away.

The "implied consent" bill would require a person suspected of driving while drunk to submit to a chemical test of his blood, breath or urine. Reults of the test, which would indicate the amount of alcohol in his system, would be used as evidence in court.

LICENSE SUSPENSION

Refusal to take the test would subject a motorist to a six-month driver's license suspension, even if he was later acquitted of drunken driving.

The Ways and Means Committee yesterday amended the bill to spare chronic bleeders and certain heart patients from having to surrender a sample of blood. They could be required to take only a breath or urine test.

Burns Retorts To Attacks By Reagan, Demo

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. Hugh Burns said "No" yesterday to Republican gubernatorial candidate Ronald Reagan and the United Democratic Headquarters of Fresno.

Reagan had demanded that Burns, as chairman of the State Senate Subcommittee on Un-American Activities, hold public hearings into charges made recently by the Burns committee that communism and sexual deviation are problems at the University of California.

REGENTS' JOB

Burns said the U. C. Board of Regents would be the logical group for such a probe.

The senator also withdrew his financial support from the Fresno Democratic group. He called it an "organization which has seen fit to heap scorn and invective upon my head for the activities of a legislative committee of which I am the chairman."

He referred to the un-American committee. The Fresno group had voted last week that the committee should be discarded.

BROWN RAPPED

Elsewhere, with the June 7 primary just three weeks away, candidates for governor talked about who best would serve the people. George Christopher, Reagan's main foe for the GOP nomination, said in Fullerton that Democratic Gov. Brown's record:

"Shows consistent abuse of political power through constant political maneuvering ... He has authorized his campaign managers to send letters pressuring his political appointees to contribute to his campaign on the basis of their salary."

'NEW AGE'

Brown, in remarks prepared for delivery today to a Catholic women's college in Los Angeles, included himself in the "new age" of Pope John XXIII and John F. Kennedy.

Brown said that Californians in June and November must choose "between government in the spirit of a new age — one which cares and acts—or government in the spirit of the past—one which could not care less."

Report Is Accepted

Sausalito School District trustees Monday accepted the committee of 100'S building study report and agreed to consider some of the recommendations at the next board meeting at 8 p.m. Monday, in the district office. Forty people attended the special meeting.

FAIR HOUSING REPEAL IS DEAD THIS YEAR

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Repeal of the Rumford Act barring discrimination in the sale or rental of housing won't go before the legislature this year, Gov. Brown says.

He had been asked to put the matter on the current special session agenda after the State Supreme Court overturned voter approval of a 1964 constitutional amendment that invalidated the Rumford Act and other laws forbidding housing discrimination.

But, he said yesterday in a letter to Sen. John G. Schmitz, R-Tustin, the matter still could go to the U.S. Supreme Court and until it is settled finally he regards it as unwise to put the subject before lawmakers.

Brown Campaign Aides Checking Pasts Of Governor Candidates

By DeVAN L. SHUMWAY

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Democratic investigators are probing the personal and political life of Republican George Christopher—and other prospective opponents to Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

And they suspect Brown is being put under a microscope too, by Republicans.

Brown's campaign aides disclosed yesterday that they have been looking into the records of Christopher, Republican Ronald Reagan and fellow Democrat Samuel W. Yorty.

Christopher and Reagan are the two front runners for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. The winner will face either Brown or Yorty in the November general election.

Don Bradley, Brown's campaign manager in the Democratic governor's bid for a third term, issued a cryptic statement calling Christopher a "crybaby" for complaining that the Brown camp was cooperating with columnist Drew Pearson in what Christopher called a "smear" against him.

Pearson Monday filed a $2,625,000 libel suit against Christopher, charging that an attorney for the GOP gubernatorial hopeful had urged newspapers not to run two Pearson columns about Christopher.

The columns charged Christopher had received a two-year suspended sentence in 1942 for taking kickbacks in connection with his milk business, Christopher Dairy Farms. The columns also said Christopher received a draft deferment as an agricultural worker during World War II.

Christopher denounced the columns as a smear and two of his backers — Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael and Alan Pattee, R-Salinas—said they were planted by Brown in an attempt to "destroy" Christopher.

"Mr. Christopher is a crybaby," Bradley said. "He has been attacking the governor daily but the first time his record is under fire he yells foul.

"Mr. Christopher's arrest record for accepting illegal rebates for his milk business and his scores of warnings from the city of San Francisco for selling watered milk are matters of public record that Mr. Christopher has yet to explain adequately."

Another campaign aide acknowledged that Pearson spoke to members of "our campaign organization." And he said Democrats were not only investigating Christopher but Reagan and Yorty as well.

The aide identified the investigators as Harry Lerner and Richard V. Heyer, both former San Francisco newsmen. He said some of the investigative work was conducted by David Davis, whom he identified as a campaign aide in Sacramento.

I DID IT! and I'm GLAD!

I CHANGED TO BETTER FOODS -LOWER PRICES

"I did it and I'm glad" was the remark we overheard one of our customers make. She too had found it difficult to live within her budget. She stopped in one day "just to look around" and was really impressed with our wonderful assortment of top-grade foods, and at such low prices. She was stunned to see such fresh vegetables and was absolutely flabbergasted when she saw our fresh meat. She made the change and was glad she did. Follow her good example—you'll be glad you did too!!

Sausalito Seawall Landscaping Agreed In Council Discussion

Sausalito city councilmen are aiming for both beauty and utility in the widening of Bridgeway and construction of a new seawall between Princess and Richardson streets.

The council indicated last night that it will hire Lawrence Halperin and Associates, landscape architects, to work on the design of the project.

City Engineer B. J. Whitlow displayed preliminary drawings which included triangular sections of the seawall jutting out at Princess Park, the Sea Lion and Tiffany Beach.

Mayor Mel Wax said he felt it would be a good idea to have landscape architects "called in at the start of the project, rather than later."

Whitlow said he would be reluctant to proceed with overall design until he knows plans meet with community approval.

"We should inject a few ideas of our own, right now," said Councilman Earl F. Dunphy. "I suggest there be sand at Tiffany Beach. A beach in that area is important."

There also were requests that the project provide space for children to fish, and access to the water.

The council advised Felix M. Warburg, a member of Halperin's firm, to get suggestions from the city planning and recreation commission and the community appearances advisory board.

The council also granted the Sausalito Art Festival Committee permission to hold its annual festival at the city parking lot, after assurance that the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce would underwrite the festival's $3,700 budget.

The festival last year was held at the Central School playground.

The council postponed action on plans for 175 apartment units in three buildings to be constructed over the bay, just north of Army Corps of Engineers property, until the planning commission acts on a pair of variance requests.

The Community Appearances Advisory Board denied the proposed design submitted by Sausalito Boat Dock Apartments, because of density.

"If this type of design is accepted it will set a precedent which might very well spell disaster for the Sausalito waterfront. Box-like structures would stretch across the length of the shore," the board reported.

Thomas E. Flowers, representing Sausalito Boat Dock Apartments, said the design is the only possible one that is economically feasible.

When it became apparent that the council could not complete all the items on the agenda last night, Mayor Wax cancelled action on seven items until an adjourned meeting next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

By-passed were all matters concerning community antenna television service, including a petition by residents protesting construction of a television tower with 15 antennas at the end of Curry Avenue, requested by Sausalito Community TV System.

Other community antenna television items included an application by Cable Television of Marin for city-wide franchise and the adoption of an ordinance granting a franchise to Sausalito Community TV System.

The Sausalito City Council also:

1. Approved a Rotary Club recommendation that the waterfront park near the Sausalito Yacht Club be named the Carl Gabrielson Memorial Park in memory of the late city councilman.

2. Received the resignation of A. M. Arenz, chairman of the city park and recreation commission and a commission member for seven years, who has moved out of Sausalito.

3. Awarded Rix Co. of San Francisco, lowest of five bidders, a contract to provide an air compressor at a cost of $3,545.

4. Authorized purchase of a used water tank truck at $850, on condition that the truck can perform in Sausalito hills.

5. Received a letter from 28 property owners and residents at the north end of Second Street protesting inadequate lighting, water main leakage, and lack of park maintenance.

6. Received a letter from the Sausalito Woman's Club urging action on selecting a library site and completing plans for financing the library building.

7. Endorsed Assembly Bill 135, which would allow creation of local assessment districts for undergrounding of overhead utility lines.

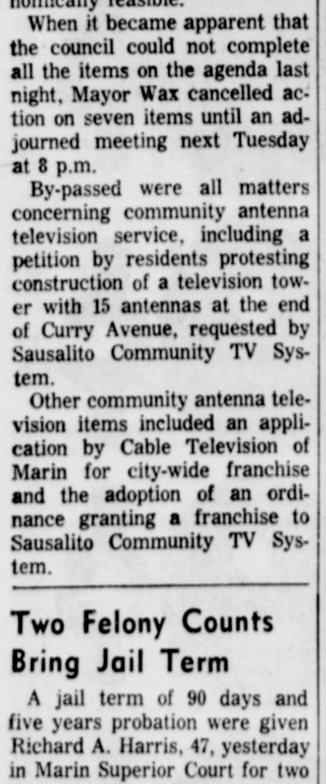
8. Received a financial status report from City Mgr. Charles A. Brown noting that it appears that the city will have an 11.5 per cent delinquency in tax payments.

9. Adjourned in memory of John Lord King, noted architect, who died April 28.

Two Felony Counts Bring Jail Term

A jail term of 90 days and five years probation were given Richard A. Harris, 47, yesterday in Marin Superior Court for two felony counts of forgery.

Harris, of 215 Bayview Street, San Rafael, pleaded guilty April 26 to forging checks with intent to defraud Hoagy's Bar and Crocker-Citizens National Bank, San Rafael.



Five-Cent Tax Hike Involved In City Budget

Sausalito City Council last night received a proposed $837,785 budget for fiscal 1967 which would boost the tax rate five cents.

Under the proposed budget, the tax rate would increase from $1.23 per $100 assessed valuation to $1.28.

City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said the prospective budget represents a $69,000 increase over the current one, a nine per cent hike.

The budget submitted by Brown calls for a 2.5 per cent pay increase for the majority of the city staff. It also provides that the city pay for hospital and medical insurance for all employees and their families.

Brown recommended that the fire chief, police lieutenant, gardener, public works superintendent, and parking enforcement officer be granted five per cent raises, and police clerks a 7.5 per cent raise.

He also recommended establishing a department of finance and hiring a finance director. He also urged that the city contract with the Marin County Planning Department for planning assistance, rather than processing all matters through the city's planning consultant.

The budgeti ncludes four other new positions: an additional police sergeant, an additional fire captain, an engineering draftsman, and an additional maintenance man.

The council slated its first budget review session for 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at City Hall.

Home Burglary Told

Ellis D. Murphy of 290 Redwood Road, San Anselmo, told police that someone entered his home Monday and stole a trombone, television set, microphone, and three radios, worth $899.85 altogether. Police found no sign of forced entry.

Mill Valley Dance

There will be a high school dance at the Mill Valley Community and Youth Center, sponsored by the Park and Recreation Department, from 8 to 11:30 p.m., Friday, to music of the Axons.

Councilmen Oppose Second Deck On Golden Gate Span

The Sausalito City Council last night opposed construction of a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge.

Acting on a recommendation by the planning commission, the council agreed to notify the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District of its opposition.

The council said traffic bottlenecks in Greenbrae, Corte Madera and San Rafael would not be solved by increasing the capacity of the Golden Gate Bridge.

"Resources of the district might more reasonably be used to establish other means of crossing the bay," the council said.

The council also opposed any move by the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District to ban backyard burning in residential areas.

"The next thing you know, you'll have to plug up your fireplace," quipped Councilman Earl F. Dunphy.

Judo Class Planned

A summer program in judo for school age boys and girls will start on June 20, sponsored by the Novato Parks and Recreation department and Clark Henry, director of the Northern California School of Judo in Novato. Louis Robinette, a Novato police officer, will be the instructor.

Novato Citizens Listen As Host Of Candidates Argue

By WAT TAKESHITA

Seven candidates for three county positions battled for votes last night at a candidates' night sponsored in Novato by the League of Women Voters.

A crowd of about 80 heard the speakers at the Community House. Mrs. H. James Compton of Kentfield was chairman, and Hugh Turner the moderator.

A. Leonard Bjorklund Jr., 39, of Sausalito, who is challenging incumbent Bruce B. Bales in the race for district attorney, called for more vigorous action against crime and narcotics and an immediate program for the education of every police officer in the complex laws of arrest.

"I want to know why sellers of narcotics are still on the streets and not in jail," Bjorklund thundered.

He said the district attorney should have been at the scene during the Marin City disturbances.

Bjorklund said his varied experience in both criminal and civil work, including the job of deputy district attorney in Alameda County, qualifies him for the post.

Bales declared that experience must come first and foremost. He was deputy district attorney in Marin for seven years, assistant for four years, and district attorney since 1964.

"I've worked from the bottom up," said Bales. "Apparently my opponent wants to start from the top."

Bales declared that Bjorklund's experiences as deputy district attorney in Alameda consisted of traffic misdemeanor cases and "not one felony." In the criminal field, said Bales, "He's had six jury trials in seven years, and lost all but one."

Bales said his opponent was in Marin City during one of the disturbances, "grabbing policemen by the arm and saying 'Where's Bales? He should be making arrests'."

"We don't want a fanatic in the office of district attorney," said Bales.

Bales said the prosecution rate in Marin is one of the highest in the state, and the crime rate one of the lowest. He said the county is free of organized vice, crime and corruption, and "we intend to keep it that way."

Three of four candidates for coroner appeared last night: Dr. Donovan O. Cooke, 48, Belvedere physician and surgeon; Gilbert F. Freitas, 40, San Rafael policeman, and Richard F. Wood, 66, San Rafael management and public relations consultant.

William C. Bradley, 51, assistant coroner, did not appear but sent a written reply to the questions asked by the League of Women Voters.

Dr. Cooke contended that the job of coroner is to determine cause of death. "This can best be served by a physician or a man trained in medicine."

He said the Marin Medical Society has recommended that the job be filled by a physician. Dr. Cooke said his experience as assistant coroner in Oregon and his medical background make him the best qualified.

Freitas countered that the coroner's job is more investigative than medical. "A qualified pathologist determines cause of death, regardless of whether the coroner is a doctor or a layman."

Freitas said he would devote full time to the coroner's job, whereas a doctor would have to devote some time to his practice.

Freitas said his training in criminology, law and police work qualifies him for the job.

He said he would attempt to activate a morgue in Marin General Hospital and centralize all removals of decedents to one location. "Removal by mortuaries involves too much political overtones," he declared.

He described Bradley as a "fine gentleman," who is "trying to gain office through the reputation and respect of Coroner Frank Keaton."

Wood also pointed out that a coroner need not be a medical man because he does not conduct autopsies. He said he does not attach too much weight to experience as "deputy coroner" because there are areas where "all ambulance drivers are made deputy coroners."

Wood said Bradley and Keaton "are spending 24 hours a day on county salary, campaigning for Bradley so that he can succeed Keaton who has been in office 20 years on top of his father's 25 years."

Bradley's statement was read by moderator Hugh Turner. Bradley promised "full time service" and listed his experience as sheriff's investigator for 16 years and as assistant coroner for five years.

The race for North Marin supervisor pits incumbent William A. Gnoss, 66, against Lynes E. Downing, 25, a title company manager.

The two clashed head-on on the proposed $4.3 million county bond issue. Gnoss supports the bond issue. He said that if it passes, top priority goes to development of Stafford Lake for recreation purposes.

Gnoss listed his service on the board of supervisors, Novato Volunteer Fire Department, North Marin Water District, Farm Bureau, Bay Area Pollution Board, Marin-Sonoma Fair, Marin Transit District and many others.

He said he can devote full time to the job of supervisor.

Downing, manager of California Land Title Co., replied that long service does not necessarily mean a man is qualified. "I manage many people who have far more years in the title insurance field than I."

Rather than voting more bond issues for parks, an effort should be made "to curb what I consider lavish spending," said Downing.

"How can we spend millions of dollars on parks and tourist attractions, civic buildings, while our citizens plead for action on his rising taxes?" he demanded.

Downing said a supervisor must have the ability to communicate and convince others. He should be able to get results, "not promises soon forgotten."

KAREN MORROW
Close runner-up

Novato Top Scholars Picked For Grad Rites

Bruce Palmer has been named valedictorian and Karen Morrow salutatorian for the class of 1966 at Novato High School, it was announced today by Principal Robert W. Wisgerhof.

Bruce had a grade point average of 3.89, and Karen, 3.83, Wisgerhof said.

Bruce is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark M. Palmer Jr. of 80 Crescent Court, Novato. His father is Novato city attorney.

He is a life member of California Scholarship Federation, and received a Bank of America certificate of merit in foreign languages. He attended a mathematics seminar sponsored by the National Science Foundation at the University of California two years ago.

He played football since his freshman year and was on the first string defensive team of the champion Novato Hornets. He has also lettered in track and basketball and won first place in the high jump at the Marin County track finals this spring.

He plays trombone in the Novato High School concert band and is a member of the orchestra for the school's coming musical, "The Boyfriend."

He is a member of the Hornet Society, the Letterman's Club and the Interact Club.

He plans to attend Stanford University next fall.

Karen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Morrow of 1420 Dawes Street, Novato.

She is a life member of the California Scholarship Federation, and won a Bank of America certificate for laboratory science.

She has been a member of the Language Club, the Ambassadors Club and the Future Teachers of America. She has twirled the baton for seven years, teaching for the past four years for the Novato Parks and Recreation Department. She was second runner-up in the Novato Junior Miss Pageant this year.

She plans to attend Sonoma State College next fall.

Reading Aide Funds Sought For Lagunitas

Three members of the Lagunitas School District Board agreed last night to apply for a grant under the state's Miller-Unruh Basic Reading Act so the district can hire a reading specialist next fall.

Supt. Marshall J. McCunniff told the board it appears that the district will be eligible to get "just about all of a teacher's salary" under the act.

The board also authorized McCunniff to lease two more portable classrooms, which will bring the total at the school to seven.

McCunniff reported that 42 youngsters were signed up last week for next fall's kindergarten classes, but said he expects many more to show up in September, when a third kindergarten session may have to be added.

Board members spent about 20 minutes studying their tentative budget for fiscal 1967, but devoted most of the two and one-half hour meeting to reports by three teachers on the curriculum in sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Mrs. Judy Lundquist spoke on social studies, Mary Ann Kolanoski spoke on reading and literature, and Mrs. Muriel Brice on Spanish.

The board will hold a series of closed meetings from Saturday through Tuesday to interview applicants for superintendent. McCunniff has resigned as of June 30.

The new man probably will be hired at the June 7, board meeting, said McCunniff. He also announced that the school's eighth grade graduation ceremony will be held at 8 p.m. June 16 in the multi-purpose room.

Trustees William G. McBride and Michael Scott were absent.

Major Pay Increase Requested

The Marin County Employees Assn. has asked pay increases for county employees, ranging from 5 to 20 per cent, effective July 1.

In addition, the association has requested full review of salaries by July 1, next year, either through additional county staff or by outside consultant.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said he will recommend increases averaging over 10 per cent increase. He said the association's recommendations in some cases are more than his will be.

Bruce's recommendations, still being prepared by County Personnel Director Robert D. Elliott, have not been made public.

Neither the association or the administrator want across the board increases, but are seeking various changes in salary classifications by job description.

The association's recommendations call for biggest increases in sheriff's department pay, with most of the 20 per cent boosts concentrated there.

Starting pay for a sergeant, for instance, would go from $590 to $717 a month. Deputies' pay would be increased by 15 per cent.

Similar changes are urged in the fire department.

Phone Company Lease Set For TV Antennas

County supervisors yesterday took no action on the request for a television cable encroachment permit covering several areas of Marin after learning that Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. was willing to lease its own lines.

John D. LaNoue, district manager of the company, told the board that, though no rates have been established, the company would let cable distributors lease lines through contract.

Fact Sheet Slated On Fairfax Taxes

Voters in Fairfax School District will receive a fact sheet soon, telling them why the school board considers a 65c increase in the "general purpose operating" tax rate limit necessary.

The board wants the present $2.05 per $100 assessed valuation limit on that tax category increased to $2.70. Fairfax School Districts total tax rate this year was $2.64.

Leonard Weiss, chairman of the Committee for the Schools, a group formed in support of the tax increase election, discussed the fact sheet with board members last night. The pamphlet has already been prepared, but members decided to add a second sheet, detailing the cost of education in the district, and comparing Fairfax teachers' salaries with others in Marin county.

The fact sheet will tell voters that the district plans to increase teachers' and classified help's salaries next year by four per cent, at a cost of $14,000; hire a full time librarian at $8,000, buy additional books for $1,500; add $1,000 to the field trip fund; spend an additional $1500 on maintenance, and build the adequate reserve fund to $6,000.

The Fairfax School District Board also:

1. Hired Robert Petersen as physical education teacher for the summer school at $550.
2. Hired Mrs. Margaret Moreau as half-time district psychologist at $5,600 per year.
3. Approved contracting with the county for the services of a school nurse, librarian and audio visual equipment.
4. Approved continuation of participation in the special milk program.
5. Agreed to accept an equivalent amount of land at the north end of the new White Hill School property to compensate for a slope encroachment by construction of Glen Drive on the eastern side. Farr Associates will deed the land to the school.
6. Authorized superintendent Homer Sisk to investigate a contract with the College of Marin for their off-campus project, with college students working at Fairfax schools as aides and assistants. The district would pay a percentage of the cost.

Board Sets Fund For Indigents' Grave Markers

Marin County supervisors yesterday agreed to authorize a fund to accept donations from religious and fraternal organizations toward markers for the graves of indigents.

The decision was made when Supervisors Peter H. Behr and Thomas T. Storer were absent, both attending luncheon dates. Late in the day Behr brought the matter up again and said he would be willing to have the county put up half the cost. Storer said he would, too, but the earlier decision remained unchanged.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said that markers would cost about $50 each and the yearly rate of indigent burials would mean an annual outlay of $2,000.

Pot Case Man Fails To Appear

Warrant for arrest of Dean Howard Engle, 20, scheduled for sentencing yesterday in Marin Superior Court for possession of marijuana, was issued by Judge Harold J. Haley following his failure to appear.

The magistrate forfeited $550 bail, and set new bail at $2,500.

Engle, of Monterey, pleaded no contest April 11 to having the weed on Beach Road near Tiburon on Sept. 20.

Car Taken, Recovered

Patricia Ann Hicox, Gate Five, Waldo Point, reported to Sausalito police yesterday, the theft of her 1957 Chevrolet station wagon—but police said the car already had been recovered Monday by sheriff's deputies in Marin City.

Second Seminary Aide Resigns; Job Abolished

John R. Little, provost of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, has submitted his resignation effective in August, the seminary announced today.

James R. MacKay, chairman of the seminary's board of trustees, said Little resigned following the recommendation of a committee on reorganization that the office of provost be eliminated.

Little took the post when it was created in 1959, but the seminary president will take the responsibilities of the post after Little's resignation becomes effective.

Dr. Theodore A. Gill resigned as seminary president May 10, and Arnold B. Come is serving as president on an interim appointment. Dr. Gill resigned to take charge of a study commission of the World Council of Churches in Geneva, Switzerland. He had been on a leave of absence since Dec. 1, for reasons of health.

Little will remain on the seminary staff as a funding consultant to the end of the year, MacKay said.

JOHN R. LITTLE
Another Seminarian quits

"We are extremely grateful for all that Dr. Little has done for the seminary," MacKay said. "Under his direction income has increased substantially, and the seminary plant has seen may fine improvements."

Dr. Little was a founder and is a board member of San Francisco's Presbyterian Medical Center.

Commuters Do Well; Casinos Fear Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Commuters are getting to work despite a Greyhound Bus Lines strike, but a chamber of commerce manager in Nevada fears for the gambling business.

As the line and the AFL-CIO Amalgamated Transit Union negotiated today in Washington, the California Highway Patrol had praise for commuters.

The California Highway Patrol in San Francisco said car pools and changed working schedules are working for commuters.

"By planning to meet the crisis, they have stretched out the peak traffic load from 30 to 45 minutes, making it possible to keep cars moving almost as fast as the pre-strike pace," he said.

Jud Allen, Reno Chamber of Commerce manager, said casinos in the Lake Tahoe-Reno area are bound to suffer. He declared the area is western Greyhound's biggest customer and said, "It stands to reason we're going to be hardest hit by the strike."

Many persons from the San Francisco Bay and California's valleys use buses to reach the casinos.

Novatan Cited In Cycle Theft

A 14-year-old Novato boy was cited to juvenile authorities yesterday by Novato police, charged with theft of a motorcycle.

Temple Raymond Bennett, 47, of 5 Twelve Oakhill Drive, San Rafael, found the motorcycle in his empty house at 717 Del Mar, Novato, when he visited there yesterday. The boy attempted to take the cycle and Bennett turned him over to police.

The motorcycle was registered to John F. Welch of San Jose. Police said the boy admitted taking it from the Elm Street apartments on May 4.

Liquor, Tools Taken

Liquor and tools valued at $182 were reported stolen yesterday from the basement of the home of Joyce D. Bell, 53 Glenaire Drive, San Rafael. Police were told the theft took place sometime during the past two months.

Nine Marinites Named To Board

Nine persons from Marin have been named to the board of directors of Catholic Social Service for the Archdiocese of San Francisco.

Rev. John J. O'Connor of St. Isabella's in Terra Linda will serve as director of Marin Catholic Social Service.

Other Marin board members are Genevieve Bayreuther of Corte Madera; William A. Fleming of Mill Valley; Christian J. Matthew of Greenbrae; Joseph T. Mouille of Novato; Martin H. O'Brien Jr. of San Rafael; Peter Allen Smith of Kentfield; Mrs. George J. Stempel Jr. of Greenbrae, and Harold J. Truett of San Rafael.

House Burglarized

A $200 water heater was stolen from his rental house on Vistazo East, Tiburon, Alexander Williams of 10 Locust Avenue, Mill Valley, reported to the Tiburon sheriff's substation Monday.

San Rafael Council Wins Fight Over Undergrounding

A pitched battle between the San Rafael City Council and the Marin County Board of Supervisors came to an end yesterday with the council the winner.

Supervisors said residents along San Pedro Road will be the losers. Supervisors' efforts to have utilities underground as the road is widened from the San Rafael High School campus to Marina Boulevard were rebuffed by the council.

The council said utilities should be single-lined on steel poles. The work is a joint city-county project.

Supervisors adopted a resolution agreeing to the steel poles and stating that undergrounding is impossible due to the council's "failure to acquiese, notwithstanding the substantial derogation of the esthetics of the project."

Behr Vindicated On Transit Fund Remark

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr was vindicated yesterday by a letter from De Leuw, Cather and Co., consulting engineers, which said the firm had reported federal money would be available for financing a transit study.

Behr had used this information in a statement in favor of formation of the Marin Transit District prior to the vote that created it. Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen suggested at a transit board meeting on April 13 that the voters might have been misled.

Costly Ring Stolen

Gerald C. Roerden of 27 Convent Court, San Rafael, told police Monday a $1,100 diamond ring was stolen from a jewelry box in his bedroom. Roerden said he last saw the ring May 10.

Sleepy Hollow Fire Pact Set By Hub Council

The San Anselmo City Council last night approved a new 10-year contract with the Sleepy Hollow Fire District for the city to provide fire protection to the district.

The present 10-year contract expires June 30. The district will pay for the service an amount based on the district's assessed valuation compared to the assessed valuation of the entire area covered by the fire department.

OVERHEAD COST

District representatives agreed at last night's adjourned council meeting to consider adding a percentage of fire department overhead cost to the district's contract cost. The overhead cost comes from the services of other city departments available to the fire department.

The district has paid $290,000 to the city for fire protection for the past 10 years, but this amount has not included overhead costs of the fire department.

FIRE BUDGET

The council also received City Administrator Douglas J. Flautt's recommendations for the fire department budget for the 1966-67 fiscal year. The fire department requested $289,113, and Flautt recommended $248,007. The appropriation for the fire department last year was $234,868, but anticipated expenditures for the 1965-66 fiscal year are $250,602.

Marshall Area Water Study

The North Marin County Water District Board last night authorized study of initial development of a water and sewage system for the area south of Marshall, annexed last week by the district.

The study is to be made by Consolidated Financial Corp. of Los Angeles, which owns 500 acres of the area. No cost ifgure was given.

Osborn and Myrtle Hall asked that their 360 acres be taken out of the annexation. This request was denied.

The water district board received a request from Samuel Sjoen to annex 28 acres in Sonoma County, on Highway 101 north of the Marin County line, to the North Marin District. This was referred to Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager, to be sent to the Sonoma County Local Agency Formation Commission.

Billiard Parlor Wins Supervisors' Approval

Marin County supervisors voted 4-1, with William A. Gnoss dissenting, yesterday to approve a use permit for a billiard parlor in Kentfield.

Gnoss opposed the billiard parlor because it appeared to him a majority of residents were against it. Residents had appealed the use permit granted by the zoning administrator and upheld by the planning commission.

The billiard parlor will be operated by Alec Liu at 941-B Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. Most of the opposition came from residents of Stetson Avenue across the boulevard. The permit was also opposed by the Kentfield Civic League.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors Also:

1. Upheld planning commission denial of architectural supervision for a nine-unit apartment planned by Hageman, Thomas and Eklund at 931 Blithdale Avenue in Alto.

2. Awarded contract to Maggiora and Ghilotti Inc. of Corte Madera for repair of a slide on Ocean Parkway at Bolinas. The company was lowest of four bidders at $14,535.

3. Approved a $2,805 transfer from reserves to buy furniture for the recently established employment counselling office.

4. Asked a letter of appreciation be written E. R. Lang, who asked that he not be reappointed to the county personnel commission.

5. Received hats and ties from the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, promoting Novato Western Weekend.

6. Assured Perry Howell of Marin City that riot control courses for sheriff's deputies were part of routine training and not a special training for Marin City.

7. Learned from County Administrator Alan Bruce that application was filed Monday with the office of economic opportunity for approval of a Neighborhood Jobs Corps program for Marin aimed at providing summer work for 50 youths.

8. Learned that a federal "freeze" on funds for the community mental health center at Marin General Hospital had been lifted.

9. Appointed Neil Kirk of 23 Venetia Meadow to the Santa Venetia flood control zone advisory board, replacing Ray Krebsbach, who resigned.

10. Put off until next week discussion of Bruce's proposed health and welfare administrative agency that would take control of at least six county departments.

11. Set bid opening for 10 a.m. June 20 and public hearing for 3 p.m., June 21, on the proposed Harvard Avenue-Princeton Avenue road improvement project in Homestead Valley.

12. Overruled Bruce's objection to establishing three new positions in the planning department prior to June budget hearings. The positions were requested by Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, who said he could not hire June graduates without action by the board now.

13. Hired Beverly Tisdale at $510 a month as a computer operator in data processing; Maryann D. Wilson at $590 as deputy probation officer; Jerrold K. Hann at $536 as junior planner; William A. Kaufer at $619 as employment counselor in the welfare department; Robert C. Larsen at $380 as a janitor.

14. Appointed Patrick Martin and Alan Shattuck to the Terra Linda Community Services District Board. They were the only candidates filing for two offices in the June 7 election.

15. Agreed to give many county employees an hour off with pay to attend the cornerstone laying ceremony for the Hall of Justice addition at the Civic Center at 9:30 a.m. next Wednesday.

16. Set hearing at 4 p.m., June 21 on formation of a county services area for Marincello.

17. Set hearing for 4 p.m., May 31 on sale of a strip of the old Coleman School property (former county library) to the state division of highways for $9,000. The strip was retained from an earlier sale of the balance of the site.

18. Agreed to a year's extension of the contract with California ambulance service for transportation of mentally ill.

19. Adopted a resolution prohibiting parking on the narrow sections of Seaview Avenue east of San Rafael.

20. Adjourned at 6 p.m.

Hub Homeowners Elect Officers

Anne West of 21 Crescent Lane, San Anselmo, unsuccessful candidate for election to the city council in April, has been elected president of the San Anselmo Homes Assn., replacing Kenneth Anderson.

Other officers elected were Donald Mansell, vice president; Richard Berger, treasurer; William Clark, recording secretary, and Noreen Leitzell, corresponding secretary.

The association expanded its board of directors to include two directors at large. Elected to these positions were James Reed and Thomas Peacock.

Thunderstorms Hit

CHICAGO (AP)—Severe thunderstorms broke across a broad belt in the Midwest and South during the night and early today, with storm warnings in effect for nine states. Tornadoes struck small communities and rural areas in parts of Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri and Illinois.

State's Spending Outpaces Income

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state's general fund totaled more than $13 million after the first 10 months of fiscal 1965-66 with expenditures about $250,000 more than revenues, State Controller Alan Cranston reported today.

Expenses of about $2 million were up 10.9 per cent from the same period in 1964-65, Cranston said, and revenues of $1.8 million were up 10.6 per cent.

Most of the revenue came from the state sales tax and most of the expenditures were for public schools and the University of California, said Cranston.

Parks Over-Stressed, Says County Rec Commissioner

Unless the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission changes its ways, one commissioner wants to resign.

In a letter to the commission, Peter Gottheiner of Greenbrae said he accepted appointment a year ago on the understanding that the work would involve development of recreation programs. Gottheiner is a physical therapist.

"It was not long until I noticed that to be a commissioner on the park and recreation commission meant to deal almost exclusively in discussion of purchases of sites and open spaces for the purpose of developing parks in the county," he wrote.

He further wrote that he did not consider himself qualified in real estate and land appraisals.

He said the bonds for parks campaign is "most typical of the emphasis of parks over recreation."

Gottheiner, who has missed eight out of 14 commission meetings, said he would be pleased to continue serving "if you are willing to accept some of my ideas and dedicate considerably more efforts on recreation. However, should you continue to concern yourself with parks exclusively, as you have in the past, I respectfully wish to tender my resignation."

County Supervisor Candidates To Speak

The three candidates for county supervisor from the first district have been invited to attend a candidates' night at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the San Rafael High School cafeteria.

Jointly sponsored by the Loch Lomond and Glenwood homeowners associations, the meeting is expected to bring together candidates John F. McInnis, Melvin Warenback and Dr. William F. Upton.

Wirtz Reverses Orders On Race

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Williard Wirtz is ordering the nation's 2,000 federal-state employment offices to classify millions of job applicants by race, it was learned today.

The order reverses an action several years ago wiping out racial identification on employment cards.

The purpose of Wirtz' action today is to keep a closer check on efforts to eliminate job discrimination, although the secretary conceded last October that it could result in some abuses if not closely supervised.

Aharon Shamir Is Getting Ideas About Social Work

By BRUCE COLEMAN

One of Aharon Shamir's favorite expressions is "lama lo?" It means, "why not?"

The Hebrew question is catching on in the Sausalito household of City Councilman Alexander R. Imlay and his family, along with "shalom," meaning "hello" and "goodbye" as well as "peace."

Shamir, 37, gentle and mustachioed, is staying for three weeks with the Imlays during a four-month visit to the United States for youth leaders and social workers sponsored by the State Department.

He is from Tel Aviv-Jaffa.

Shamir is an experienced youth leader and social worker, his current job being director of a youth house in Jaffa with 750 youngsters and adults.

On return in August he will head the Josef Cherner Youth House in Tel Aviv-Jaffa, the largest youth house in Israel.

Just being completed, it was built with money donated by the wife of the late Cherner of Washington, D.C. It is in the poorest section of the city and will have "many new instruments," according to Shamir, including a gymnasium and auditorium.

Shamir plans to incorporate new ideas in recreation he expects to learn in America.

Shamir hears lectures daily at San Francisco State College extension in the mornings with 19 other participants in the group who are staying in the Bay Area. During the afternoons, they visit different centers or places related to their field.

The leader will spend his second three weeks in the Bay Area with another host family, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wood of San Carlos. Then he will spend 10 weeks working with the job corps at Pleasanton, Alameda County. With him will be Glenelg M. Pitters of Jamaica, now staying with Mr. and Mrs. Terry Purcell of Greenbrae.

He will work with 20 youths at Pleasanton as a youth leader. "They don't like us to be just inspectors or observers," he said.

Shamir studied for his certificate to be a youth leader and social worker at University of Tel Aviv. He once lived one month a year on a kibbutzim in Israel, working in the youth movement, and from 1957 to 1959, lived in Argentina, working as a youth leader with Jewish youths under a Jewish agency.

He is married. He and his wife, Sara, have two sons, 9 and 3 years old. Shamir's wife is a kindergarten teacher.

Most participants in the youth center from which Shamir is now director are from North Africa, he said.

Shamir speaks Hebrew, Yiddish, English and Spanish. He is a regimental sergeant major in the army reserve, plays harmonica, and collects stamps and coins. He earns 850 Israeli pounds per month, or about $283.

Thirteen leaders will stay over a two-session period in Marin. In the first session, which ends Sunday, are: Shamir, staying with the Imlays; Pitters, staying with the Purcells; Miss Yoroko Amemya of Japan, staying at Katharine Branson School, Ross; Avtar Devgan of India, with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Marlowe, San Rafael; Mrs. Jane Holeva-Tassioy, Greece, with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graver, Mill Valley; Mrs. Rose Marie Ocampo, Philippines, with Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Cope of Mill Valley, and Manohar Ratwaney of India, Mr. and Mrs. John Wellington of Sausalito.

In the second session, May 22 to June 12, are: Miss Vivi Anne Skyman of Sweden, with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carter of San Anselmo; Miss Shanta Sharma of India, with Mr. and Mrs. John Finn III, Mill Valley; Kalevi Miettinen of Finland, with Joseph Nadel of Mill Valley; Miss Zuhal Karahan of Turkey, with Mr. and Mrs. Wagner D'Alessio, Ross; Bjorgvin Magnusson of Iceland, with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baum of Larkspur, and Le Chi Mau, a Buddhist monk from Viet Nam, with Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Adams of Sausalito.

Two program participants will work in Marin County. Mahinsa Abeynayake of Ceylon is to work at Marin County Juvenile Hall starting June 12, and Miss Karahan is to work with the Bay Area Girl Scouts' summer camp, Bothin Manor, Fairfax.

Henri Brown of Sausalito and Marietta and Jack Schmidt of Redwood City make up the cast. Director is Michael Kitay. An open end discussion of the play and the problems it presents will follow the presentation.

San Anselmo Searches For Zone Amendments

San Anselmo planning commission Monday night set the first of a long series of discussions which could lead to a lengthy amendment of the city zoning ordinance.

At its next meeting, the commission will discuss the city's two apartment residential zones with an eye to restricting the number of units allowed in the high density apartment zone.

Commissioner John West recommended several parts of the ordinance for review, and according to City Engineer Charles R. Leitzell, these could lead to a zoning ordinance amendment of "fair size."

The commission received a one-sentence letter of resignation from vice chairman James Murphy. An unsuccessful candidate for election to the city council in April, Murphy gave no explanation for his resignation, effective last Friday. He was appointed to the commission in April, 1963.

San Anselmo planning commission also:

1. Approved landscape plans for a Shell service station at 805 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

2. Agreed that Dan G. Lebakos can split a 10,000-square foot lot at 425 the Alameda into two 5,000-square foot lots.

Navy Bean Scallop For Supper, Buffet

We've all enjoyed scalloped potatoes and other popular layer-bake combinations in a cream sauce. Now from a midwest farmland kitchen comes a dish we'd never tried before but found so unusual and delicious we would like to share it with you. It promises to be equally welcome at a family supper or on a party buffet. If you like, a raw vegetable garnish may be added for color just before serving, such as tomato slices or a few green pepper rings.

NAVY BEAN SCALLOP

- 1 pound dry navy beans
- 1 quart water
- ½ pound bacon, diced
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped
- ¼ cup flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- Dash of pepper
- 1 cup evaporated milk
- ¾ cup liquid from beans
- 1 cup sharp cheese, grated
- 1 cup mushrooms, sliced
- ¼ cup bread crumbs

Soak beans in the water overnight. Simmer till beans are tender, about 2 hrs. Drain beans, saving ¾ cup liquid. Fry bacon in skillet till crisp. Remove bacon and drain off excess fat leaving 5 tablespoons. Fry onion in the fat till tender but not brown. Blend in flour, salt and pepper and stir constantly while slowly stirring in the milk and bean liquid. When mixture starts to thicken, add the cheese and mushrooms and cook only till cheese is melted. In a greased casserole place alternate layers of beans, cheese sauce and bacon pieces. Top with remaining bacon and bread crumbs. Bake at 325 degrees for 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

QUICK METHOD. Forgotten to soak the beans overnight and want to prepare this dish for dinner anyway? No problem. Just put the beans in a large pot of water to cover. Bring to a rolling boil and cook 2 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let beans stand 1 hour. Then proceed with the regular cooking directions.

ELEGANT BUT SIMPLE is this festive champagne brunch menu consisting of turkey flavored with wine and herbs, fresh asparagus dressed with a mushroom sauce and glasses of champagne, each garnished with a fresh strawberry.

AT WEDDING TIME
Elegant Entertaining

A champagne brunch is an elegantly simple way to entertain, to toast a bride, to celebrate a birthday, or to welcome a special guest. The sparkling beverage sets the mood and whets the appetite for compatible foods to follow.

For buffet service, plan on a roast turkey basted with herbs and wine, and served with freshly cooked asparagus sauced with creamed mushrooms. Glasses of champagne garnished with fresh strawberries are beverage and dessert in one.

The amount of champagne to buy for such a party is a matter of easy arithmetic. California wineries bottle most of their sparkling wines in the standard size bottle that holds about 26 ounces. Most champagne glasses hold three or four ounces, so six to eight servings can be poured from each bottle. If the wine is to be served both before and with the food, the minimum number of servings for each person will be two. Three glasses each may be more realistic.

Given enough time, the refrigerator does a good job of chilling champagne. Allow at least two hours or more if several bottles are put in at once. It is traditional to surround the bottle with crushed ice to keep it at the same pleasantly cool temperature while it is being served. A silver wine cooler is beautiful, but no more effective than a large decorative bowl or even a glazed flower pot.

HERB-WINE BUFFET TURKEY
(Serves 10)

- 10 to 12 pound turkey
- ½ cup Chablis, Sauterne or other white dinner wine
- 3 stalks celery, halved
- 1 onion, peeled and quartered
- 1 sprig parsley
- Melted butter

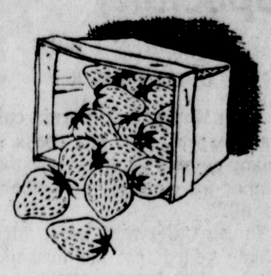
Pour ½ cup wine into cavity of turkey; swish around to moisten inside. Insert celery, onion and parsley. Tie legs together; skewer wings flat or tuck under bird; skewer neck skin under bird. Place turkey breast side up in roasting pan. Brush surface of bird with melted butter. Roast in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees) 2 hours. Continue cooking for another hour or until turkey is tender, basting frequently with Herb-Wine Baste.

HERB-WINE BASTE

Heat together ½ cup Chablis, ½ cup butter, 1 teaspoon flour, 1 teaspoon sugar, 2 teaspoons seasoned salt, 2 tablespoons wine vinegar and 2 teaspoons dill, or crumbled dried rosemary or mixed herb blend.

CREAMED MUSHROOMS

- ¾ pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion



- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 teaspoon seasoned salt
- ⅛ teaspoon white pepper
- 1 cup milk
- ½ cup light cream
- 1 tablespoon sherry

Saute onion in butter over moderately low heat just until soft but not browned. Stir in mushrooms. Cover and cook about 10 minutes, stirring once or twice. Sprinkle on flour, salt and pepper. Slowly stir in milk and cream. Cook and stir until sauce thickens. Add sherry and keep hot. Serve over cooked asparagus spears garnished with buttered toast points.

Leftover Beef Combination Makes Savory Skillet Dish

Leftover beef makes a flavorsome skillet dish.

Beef Fiesta — Buckwheat Groats
Broccoli — Salad Bowl
Brownies — Beverage

BEEF FIESTA

- 1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 1 cup thin onion strips
- 1 can (6 ounces) sliced broiled mushrooms, drained
- ¼ teaspoon celery salt
- 1½ teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 2 cups pencil-thick short strips rare roast beef
- ½ cup sour cream. Salt and pepper to taste

Stir a few tablespoons of the stewed-tomato juice into the flour, keeping smooth; reserve tomatoes and the flour mixture. In a 10-inch skillet over low heat, melt the butter; add onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until wilted. Add the stewed tomatoes, flour mixture, mushrooms, celery salt and Worcestershire sauce; over moderately low heat, cook and stir constantly—breaking up tomatoes—until thickened and bubbly. Add the beef, sour cream and salt and pepper; mix well and reheat. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Add Lemon Juice, Parsley To Barbecuing Lamb Chops

Barbecue season is returning again, and millions of Americans will take to the outdoors to stage culinary spectaculars on the charcoal grill.

After many seasons of steaks, hamburgers and an occasional roast done on the rotisserie, why not become a bit adventuresome? Strike out and grill some different meat cuts, use various basting sauces and marinades, design unusual kabob combinations, and cook a whole meal over the coals.

One meat cut that's delicious when barbecued, yet rarely prepared that way, is lamb sirloin chops. And here's a tasty way to cook them . . . with a tangy marinade which is also brushed over the meat as it grills.

It's quickly made by mixing lemon juice, salad oil, chopped parsley, plus a few seasonings like marjoram, garlic and instant onion.

This basic marinade is one to remember, for it can be used on other barbecue specialties as well. Try it on beef or lamb kabobs, on lamb rib or shoulder chops, on chicken, or even on beef steak. Use it for cooking indoors, too.

As you know, the cooking times given in this recipe can only be approximate. Much will depend upon intensity of heat from your coals, wind conditions and the other variables of outdoor cooking. Lamb steaks may be grilled to either rare, medium or well done.

TANGY BARBECUED LAMB STEAKS

- 4 to 6 lamb sirloin chops, cut ¾ to 1 inch thick (or shoulder chops)
- ½ cup lemon juice
- ½ cup salad oil
- 1 tablespoon instant minced onion
- ¼ cup chopped parsley
- 1 clove garlic, split
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- ¼ teaspoon marjoram

Place lamb chops in shallow pan. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over meat. Allow meat to marinate in the refrigerator for at least 4 hours or overnight. Start fire far enough in advance so that coals are covered with light gray ash when cooking begins. Place chops on grill about 3 inches from the coals. Use remaining marinade for basting meat during cooking. Lamb chops cut ¾ to 1 inch thick will require about 12 minutes for medium doneness; chops cut 1½ inches thick require about 18 minutes for medium. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Hot Diamond Braid A Morning Treat

Hot home-baked breads are back "in" with homemakers of all ages, according to home economists for the Dairy Council of California who had this Diamond Braid Bread neighborhood tested. The recipe makes enough dough for one Diamond Braid, delicious when gently broken into pieces and served while still hot, and one regular loaf. The loaf is especially tasty when toasted and served up with butter or a honey and butter combination.

This buttery-rich bread can be made with or without the additional flavor compliment of walnuts.

DIAMOND BRAID BREAD

- 1 cup milk
- ½ pound (2 sticks) butter
- ½ cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cake compressed, or 1 envelope active dry yeast
- 6 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 cup sliced or chopped walnuts, if desired
- 5½ to 6 cups sifted flour
- ¼ pound (1 stick) butter, melted

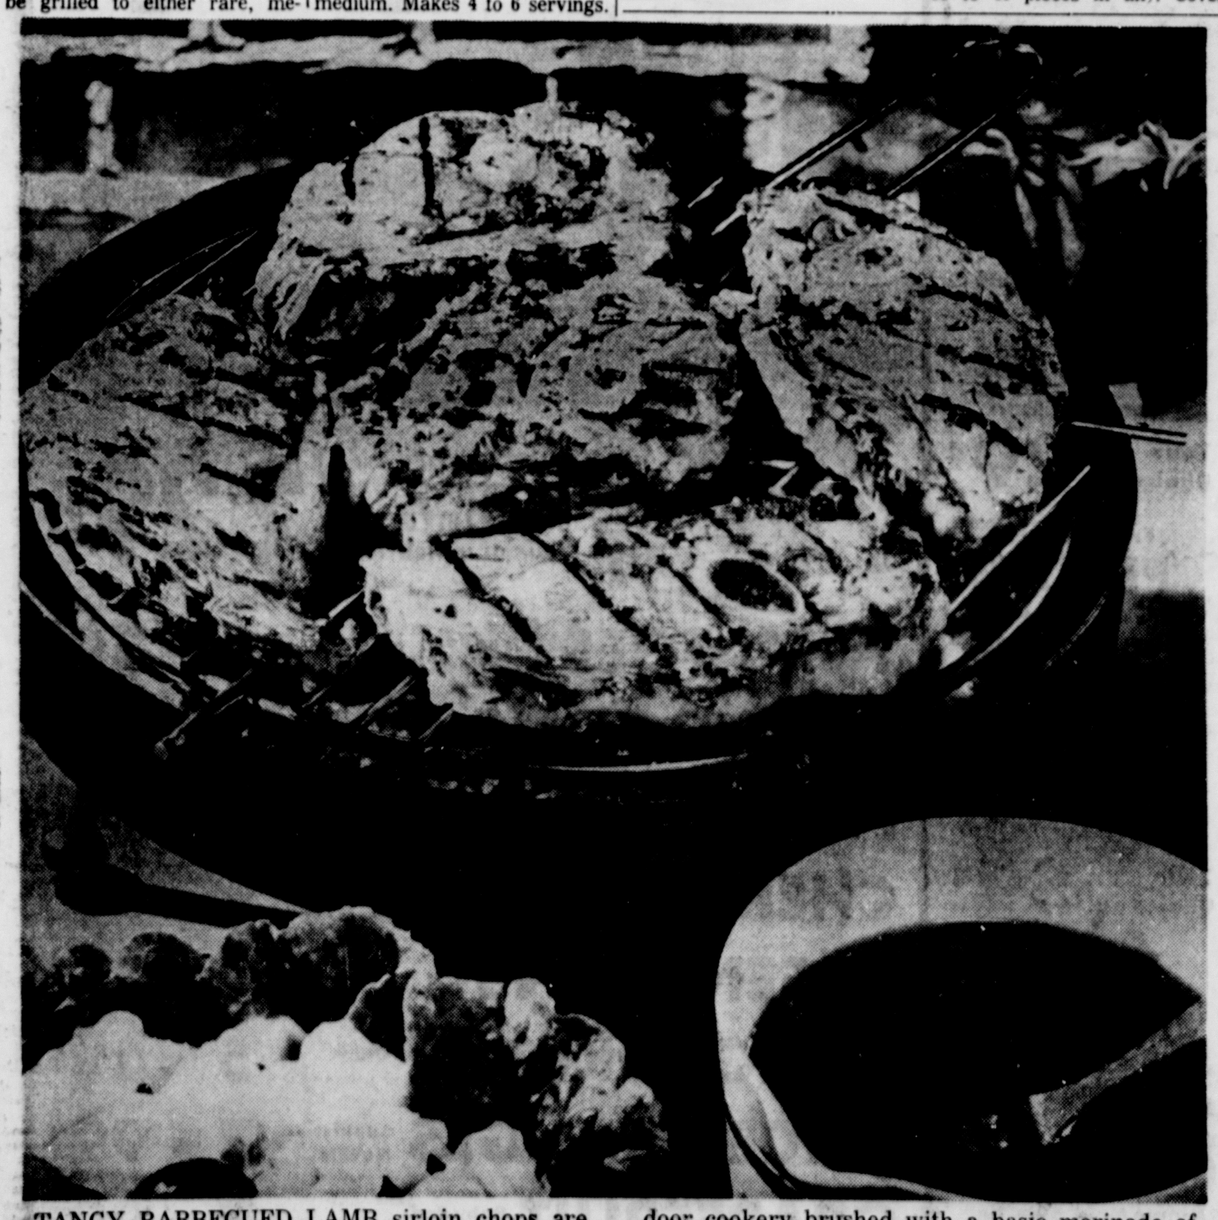
Combine milk with butter, sugar and salt in small saucepan. Warm over low heat until butter is melted. Cool to lukewarm; stir in yeast until dissolved. In large mixing bowl, combine milk-yeast mixture thoroughly with eggs, nuts and 5 cups of the sifted flour. Cover with towel and let rise in warm place until spongy and double in bulk. Work in enough more flour to make dough easy to handle. Knead lightly on floured board or towel. Roll out small amounts of dough about ¼-inch thick. Cut into diamond shapes. Dip each diamond into melted butter and arrange in overlapping design in 10-inch tube pan. Make three rows of diamonds (about 35 to 40 pieces in all). Cover with towel and let rise until within 1-inch of top of pan.

Shape remaining dough into loaf and place in 9x5x3-inch baking pan. Brush with melted butter and cover with towel. Let rise until double in bulk. Bake both loaves in moderate, 350 degree, oven 40 to 45 minutes.

Apple-Ades

Festive non-alcoholic drinks can be made with canned or chilled apple juice. For good combinations, try half and half apple juice and ginger ale; plain apple juice on ice cubes; a mixture of two parts apple juice to one part cranberry juice; or apple juice with a squeeze of lemon juice and a dash of grenadine.

HOT, BUTTERY DIAMOND Braid Bread is gently broken into pieces and served. The loaf is especially tasty when toasted and served with butter or a honey and butter combination. One recipe makes enough dough for both braid and loaf.



TANGY BARBECUED LAMB sirloin chops are delicious when grilled "to a turn" over glowing coals. It's an appetizingly different idea for out door cookery brushed with a basic marinade of lemon juice, salad oil, chopped parsley, plus marjoram, garlic and instant onion.

Saucy Lamb Shanks Tasty

This lamb dish is prepared on the top of the range.

Saucy Lamb Shanks — Rice
Broccoli — Salad
Honey Cake — Beverage

SAUCY LAMB SHANKS

- 4 lamb shanks, each ¾ pound
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 tablespoons salad oil
- 1 small onion, chopped
- ¼ cup chopped green pepper
- ½ cup water
- 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup, undiluted
- ½ cup dry white wine
- Salt and pepper

Coat lamb shanks with flour. In Dutch oven, brown well in heated oil; remove. Add onion and green pepper to drippings in Dutch oven and brown lightly; remove with slotted spoon. Discard any excess oil. Return shanks, onion and green pepper to Dutch oven. Add water. Thoroughly mix together the mushroom soup and wine; pour over shanks. Bring to boil; reduce heat. Simmer, covered, for 1 hour, stirring occasionally. Simmer uncovered 15 minutes or until shanks are tender. Add salt and pepper to taste. Makes 4 servings.

Cooking With Wine Is Her Specialty

By JEANNE LESEM
UPI Food Editor

Jean Wente, a California culinary expert, says she cooks so many dinners for 30 persons that dinner for eight is "no problem at all."

In an interview here, Mrs. Wente added that her husband, Karl, also brings home last minute guests for lunch so often that "now I look at any recipe and think about the short cuts I can take."

She said she prefers dishes that can be prepared quickly or in advance, that will stand up well for buffet service, and that use convenience foods.

Much of her cooking obviously is based on her mother-in-law's suggestion: "If a recipe calls for water, why don't you try a little wine?"

COOKING WITH WINE is especially appropriate, for many of the meals Mrs. Wente prepares are entertainment for groups of wine buyers or other wine industry people.

She added that they entertain at their home in the middle of the vineyards in Livermore Valley because their business is in a rural community with no restaurant of any size nearby. Mrs. Wente said she does her own shopping and cooking because the rural location also makes full-time help hard to find.

HER SPECIALTIES include carrots sauteed with grapes and a little wine; meat glazed with sweet semillon or sweet sauternes, both slightly sweet dessert wines; green pears soaked in gray riesling, then topped with dairy sour cream and heated in a broiler until the cream browns and takes on cheesy texture.

She added that she often makes wine sauces for vegetables, except cabbage, and adds her own mushroom-wine sauce to a quick lunch main course that she makes with frozen chicken breasts in mushroom sauce served on frozen spinach souffle.

FIRST COURSE for a dinner party is apt to be jellied consomme served with a glass of gray riesling or chablis. She said she also prepares canned potato soup with a little dry semillon, cream, seasoning salt and onion juice, and a garnish of chives or dillweed.

Wild duck and pheasant are favorites with her husband and their three children, ages 10, 13 and 14, she said. The eldest, both boys, hunt with their father in a club game preserve.

Mrs. Wente said that she stuffs wild duck with one sliced onion and one sliced orange, for each duck, then bastes with frozen orange juice concentrate and wine, such as sauvignon blanc, using a large can of concentrate and half a bottle or more of wine for five ducks. She serves pheasant hash in a casserole with wine-cooked artichoke hearts and a cream sauce containing pulp scraped from artichoke leaves.

WHY MAKE HASH of pheasant? Said Mrs. Wente: "Because we had a puppy once who didn't do too well retrieving. He crunched the birds so they couldn't be cooked whole."

Jean Wente's wine sauce for hot broccoli or asparagus contains just four ingredients. Stir ¼ teaspoon of curry powder into 1 cup of mayonaise. Stir in 1 teaspoon of lemon juice and ¼ cup of dry white wine. Heat, stirring constantly, but do not boil. Makes enough for 2½ pounds of fresh vegetables or 2 10-ounce packages of frozen.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Prosecution Needed For Parents Who Stage Teen Drinking Parties

DEAR HELEN:

What do you think of parents who put on drinking parties for their teen-agers and getting them so drunk that they can't even drive home by themselves?

These were 15 and 16 year old kids. When my folks complained (they had to come after me because my boy friend had too much) these people said, "It's better to let them have beer at home than sneak it out in the woods somewhere."

I don't drink, but it's getting harder and harder to go places where others don't drink, too. Especially when the parents cave in.—MINORITY OF ONE

DEAR ONE:

What do I think of parents who put on drinking sessions for 15 and 16-year-olds? They are breaking the law and should be prosecuted.

Granted teens will experiment with liquor, but the majority don't "go out in the woods and get drunk." Adults who use that excuse for "Soused Sixteen" parties are trying to buy popularity for their children. The price is much too high, for the popularity is the snickering kind that says, "If you want booze, get in with —: Her old man's a pushover."

Your best bet, "M. of O.," is to stop thinking of yourself as the lone hold-out. Make it plain you won't date a boy who drinks on a date, and you'll be surprised how many respect you for your stand. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

A girl who lives a couple of houses from me has started this lie about my future husband and me. She has whispered it around that I had one abortion, and now I am expecting another baby. We have only been engaged four months, and haven't even set the date for our wedding.

You see, she got in trouble, and I guess she wants to whitewash herself by making others seem like her. I have never been unkind to her. Why do people try to hurt other people this way?—M.D.

DEAR M:

When an animal is hurt, he bites whatever is nearest him. Humans sometimes react the same way. Your friends won't believe the girl's story; your enemies would believe it anyway; and most people couldn't care less, especially since this kind of unfounded rumor is quite prevalent today.

Pity her, and let others (including her) know you "understand." Sympathy neutralizes gossip: it either quiets a wagging tongue or turns people deaf to it.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

Since February I have been getting letters from a boy. Maybe I know him, and maybe he's a complete stranger. He doesn't tell me his name, but he tells me what he likes, what he thinks, how he feels, and asks me to take his letters seriously. They're interesting. I know he's for real.

He told me that on graduation night (from the 8th grade) he will come up and ask me to dance with him, and then I'll know who he is. What shall I do?—UNDECIDED

DEAR UN:

Now there's a boy with romance in his soul. Enjoy your letters and hope for an early graduation . . . And even if he's the short, quiet kid with the stutter, remember that eighth grade males grow out of the awkward age fast with a little help from an understanding girl. —H.

P.S. Let us know how it turns out, won't you? I'm hooked on happy endings.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Bureau Names Mrs. Gasaway May Volunteer Of The Month

The Volunteer Bureau of Marin has named Mrs. Glenn Gasaway of Fairfax as May's Volunteer of the Month. In presenting Mrs. Gasaway with the award, Mrs. Marion Kelley, executive director of the bureau, said, "May is mental health month, and Reggie Gasaway is serving the cause of mental health with an abundance of enthusiasm, perseverance, and good will." Mrs. Gasaway has been a vounteer at Napa State Hospital since September, when the Marin Assn. for Mental Health began a volunteer program there.

MRS. GLENN GASAWAY

Mrs. Gasaway and one or two co-volunteers leave home at 8:30 every other Monday and don't get back until 4. And in their five hours at the hospital they are really put to work. "Napa State Hospital, like so many others, is overcrowded and understaffed," she says. "There are so many little things that a volunteer can do—things that require no special training at all, after the initial orientation course. Any activity in the arts and crafts field is welcome, or playing games, even combing the patients' hair for them. Little things—but things the staff just doesn't have time to do."

A long-time volunteer, Mrs. Gasaway was a Cub Scout den mother for both her sons, a Bluebird assistant leader for her daughter, and chairman of the Camp Fire Girls' mint sale in Marin, and health and welfare chairman for her P-TA. Last year she was area chairman for the Mental Health Assn.'s fund raising campaign. Upon reading the campaign literature she became so interested in the problems of mental health that she offered her services as a volunteer. Thus her job at Napa. She has recently expanded her job to include participation in orientation and training given in Marin. The training is for volunteers in the new out-patient service program in Marin as well as for Napa volunteers.

Reggie Gasaway's husband, Glenn, is a foreman at a photo-engraving plant in San Francisco. Their son Gregg attends the College of Marin, Mark is about to enter Drake High School, and daughter Kelly will be at Central Junior High School next year. The Gasaways have lived at 407 Oak Manor Drive in Fairfax for 10 years.

Persons interested in the volunteer program at Napa Hospital may contact the Volunteer Bureau, at 725 A Street in San Rafael. The bureau is sponsored by the Junior League of San Francisco, Inc.

Dance Guild To Sponsor 'Opposites'

Students of the modern dance classes sponsored by the Pacific Dance Guild of Mill Valley and taught by Dick Ford will give a free demonstration for parents and friends at Park School auditorium tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

The classes provide a range of instruction from first grade through high school. This year three of the older girls have had an opportunity to be student teachers and do the choreography for the demonstration with the younger children.

The over-all theme for the evening will be based on "opposites." Technique I will demonstrate use of levels as they do "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary" from the "Mother Magoo Suite."

Technique II, with choreography by Kathy Jenkins, will develop the idea of rag dolls and soldiers. Technique III will work on the theme "Weeds and Trees", choreographed by Wendy Jacobs and the group.

The junior workshop will dance a number choreographed by Deneen Ford.

The senior workshop will use music by Don Shirley, and dance a number recently performed at the Betty Jones concert in San Mateo and choreographed by Deneen Ford and Kathy Jenkins.

The jazz class will do a surprise number choreographed by instructor Anna Jordan, and the all-boys group will demonstrate from their rhythm class the use of props in relation to gymnastics, some dramatic ideas through rhythm and some tumbling skills.

Shopping in the Village
with Carol King and Pat Reynolds

Town & Country Village

Sunny springtime Sundays are turning into family shopping fun. Most of The Village shops are open Sunday afternoon for browsin' and buyin'. Window shoppers welcome!
at STRAWBERRY

We would like to recommend one of our favorite delicacies. The Cheeseball at HICKORY FARMS OF OHIO has got to be one of the best tasting treats we've come across. If you are at all fond of cheese, be sure to taste this blend of Canadian cheddar and blue cheese. (Like most everything else at HICKORY FARMS, you can taste before you buy.) After blending, the cheeseball is rolled in ground walnuts and ready for family snacks or gifting your cheese-loving friends. This one pound Cheeseball sells for one dollar and ninety-eight cents . . . it will keep for at least a month in the refrigerator and three to four months in the freezer. Quite possibly, the HICKORY FARMS Cheeseball will keep longer, but it's always eaten-up so fast that no one has ever found out.

Manicure magic is happening each Wednesday at MILFORD'S OF THE PALACE salon. Right before your very eyes, lovely fingernails are literally built upon your own nails, then sculptured, shaped and polished. The finished artificial nails would do Mother Nature proud but the credit goes to Miss Lori, an attractive and most competent professional manicurist. These doubtful reporters were frankly skeptical about this first-in-Marin "fingernail fantasy," but can now report first hand knowledge that 'tis true. These artificial nails, called Patti Nails, look better than most natural nails . . . are a blessing as corrective cosmetics (for both men and women) . . they do not come off in water . . . they hold a manicure like nobody's business . . . in short, they are great. Each Wednesday at MILFORD'S OF THE PALACE, Miss Lori is turning hide-away hands into shameless showoffs. Seeing is believing . . . be sure to make an appointment.

Some wonderful swimwear fashions now at EXPECTATION MATERNITY SHOP. Bright, sunny prints and more subtle solid colors with blouson, empire and over-blouse styles to choose from. We have noticed the staff at EXPECTATION MATERNITY SHOP specializes in personalized service, helpfully mixing and matching and coordinating these pretty fashions to assure mothers-to-be that they are most fashionably pretty.

A very special price right now on some very special fabric at K. MYERS FABRICS. This Zepel finished cotton and rayon material is 54 inches wide and selling for one dollar and ninety eight cents a yard . . . regular price is three dollars a yard. These interesting prints are available in marvelous colors and, since they are water and spot resistant, are as at home for rainwear as for summer frocks.

We were interested to hear about a new convenience for those people who need eye exercise. DR. THOMAS J. MACKEY, OPTOMETRIST, tells us he now loans the necessary instruments to his patients for their use at home. Naturally he supervises these home exercises which used to require daily office visits. DR. MACKEY tells us there is nothing complicated about the equipment he loans and his patients, who keep busy business hours, find these home exercises an easy way to maintain regular treatments.

We have always found miniatures intriguing . . . so were naturally pleased with the many miniature "makings" at ALBERTA OF MARIN. Besides exquisite artificial flowers Alberta has all the supplies for miniature flower arrangements . . . containers, tiny figurines and pin frogs. Snoopers are always invited.

Wedding Bells, sculptured in wax, decorate magnificent tall white candles at FIESTA CANDLE SHOP. These very special candles make lovely wedding gifts and would look marvelous on the Bride's Table at the reception. In two sizes, both planned to burn on and on at each anniversary. FIESTA CANDLE SHOP offers a wide selection of decorator candles and accessories that make perfect shower and wedding gifts. Price range here will please any budget.

If warm weather means itchy animals around your house, MUTTS OF MARIN has many sure soothers for summer scratchers.

Shower shoppers will enjoy the fine selection of books for brides at CAPRICORN BOOKS. The ever-popular Emily Post's "Etiquette," updated last year, is just as welcomed by today's brides as it has been by generations of new homemakers. Many other appropriate books here on cooking, home decorating, gardening, etc. — and the price range is as varied as the subject matter.

Very enlightening experience last week at WONDERFUL WORLD OF WIGS. Your curious reporters had a ball trying on wigs and learning how wigs are made . . . why the price difference between hand-tied and machine-sewn . . . are they hot and itchy? (no!) . . . and how one cares for a wig (simple!). Brand new at WONDERFUL WORLD OF WIGS, a hand-tied, human hair wig, available in all colors . . . and for the fantastic price of one hundred and thirty-five dollars. Seeing is believing . . . we saw and were sold. Very special right now . . . wiglets for fifteen dollars. These small marvels are limited to the darker shades but the supply is plentiful. By the way, don't let your budget bully you into staying away from this shop . . . there is financing available on all purchases.

If you are planning a party, you'd do well to "plan with Dan" at VILLAGE LIQUORS. This knowledgeable fellow can give you expert advice on just what, and how much, to buy. Extra bonus here for Dan's customers, their party purchase is accompanied by ice and glassware loaned free (you can keep the ice).

As very snoopy shopping reporters, we have been particularly inpressed by the variety of choice merchandise at VILLAGE JEWELERS. All high quality items here (which does not necessarily mean expensive) and many of them particularly appropriate for traditional wedding gifts. Lovely serving pieces in silver or stainless holloware, beautiful clocks that are absolute jewels in their own right . . . to name only a few suggestions. Many, many bridesmaid's gifts here, too. VILLAGE JEWELERS carry a fine line of watches, so appreciated by June graduates . . . more about this next week.

Chris Gartman, manager and charmin' host at THE HICK'RY PIT, greeted us last week with news of three charge plans he has instigated for the convenience of his customers . . . they are Town & Country Village Charge Plan, BankAmericard and Diner's Club. We also learned that HICK'RY PIT pastries are as popular as ever and this season the runaway favorite is Fresh Strawberry Pie—great for a shopper's snack and a sure winner when taken home for the family.

There is a brand new showplace right smack in the middle of Town & Country Village. This choice spot is the new location of IMPORTS INTERNATIONAL and a "must" for Marin shoppers. We were tipped-off to the wonders that await inside by the magnificently decorated windows of this new building. Vibrant colors tell the tale and all but mesmerize the shopper to look further. Take time to browse the spacious interior and plan on impulse buying . . . we predict it will be difficult to leave IMPORTS INTERNATIONAL without a "treasure" or two.

In future weeks, we'll report in more detail on the unique merchandise found here . . . but these brief notes will give you an idea. Rugs, jugs and mugs . . . a riot of color in the huge artificial flower department . . . fabulous collection of decorator pillows . . . unusual jewelry from around the world . . . huge yardage and linen departments . . . brass . . . crockery . . . crystal. More madras and straw and wicker things than you'd believe existed. In fact, IMPORTS INTERNATIONAL is difficult to believe even when you see it. But, it's for real and for true and for you . . . and for some of the most delightful shopping you've ever experienced.

Collegians Enduring Boot Camp To Lend Realism To 'Stalag 17'

By STEPHEN COOK

For the last three weeks, 18 College of Marin men have suffered indignities they would have never thought possible at an academic institution.

For the sake of art, they have been regimented into military-like platoons and squads. At each meeting, their instructor subjected them to roll call and personal inspection.

They were told where to stand or sit and warned not to move. They asked the instructor's permission when they had to go to the bathroom. Cigarettes were taboo until he told them to smoke.

All this was college drama director James Dunn's way of preparing a cast of 18 fat-cat men for roles they could never have experienced—those of the prisoners of war of "Stalag 17," a drama about captured American airmen in a Nazi prisoner of war camp.

The play, first produced on Broadway in 1951, will open a run of eight performances Friday at 8:30 p.m. in the college's little theater in Harlan Hall.

When rehearsals began three weeks ago, director Dunn's problem was to inject a sense of reality into the production, no easy task with such a young cast.

"Most of these students have no idea of what it could be like in a prisoner of war camp," said Dunn. "They live in comfortable homes, have plenty to eat and most have not yet been in military service."

He has tried to overcome this handicap by setting up a "boot camp" atmosphere during rehearsals "in hopes they may at least get some feeling of life in a POW camp."

Last Saturday for example, the cast spent seven non-stop hours in the 110-seat little theater, painting walls, building sets, and receiving a continual browbeating from drill instructor Dunn.

"This confinement forces the actors to resort to devious ways of getting around me," he said.

The audience too, Dunn hopes, will get a distinct feeling of what it was like in the POW camps. From front to back, the little theater has been painted ugly shades of gray and green to resemble a barracks.

German uniforms worn by actors will be authentic, he said.

The authenticity will be aimed specifically at persons who have been subjected to "all the television comedies which make war out to be light-hearted fun," Dunn said.

The play will also be performed Friday, Saturday and Sunday this week and Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday next week. The curtain rises at 8:30 p.m. for each performance.

Tickets may be obtained by reservation only, Dunn said, through the college art department. There is an admission fee.

Cast in the production are: Lawrie Driscoll of Novato as Stosh, Bart Braverman of Corte Madera as Harry, David Dukes of San Rafael as Price, Larry Smith of San Rafael as Herb, Kent Kay of Mill Valley as Hoffman, Frank Silvey of Corte Madera as Sefton, Gene Babo of Novato as Duke, Tom White of Corte Madera as McCarthy, Jim Land of Mill Valley as Horney, Roger Lane of San Rafael as Marko, Steve Hewitt of Sausalito as Dunbar, Jerry Kay of Mill Valley as Reed, Ron Teague of Sausalito as the first secret service guard, Craig Cummins of Novato as the second secret service guard, David McCauley of Sausalito as corporal Schultze, Milt Cooper of Fairfax as the Geneva man, and Chris Shubach of Sausalito as the Secret Service captain.

Technical crew includes Terry Brennan of San Rafael as stage manager, David Dukes of San Rafael as stage carpenter, Kent Kay and Jim Land of Mill Valley and Lawrie Driscoll of Novato as stage crew, Dennis Labella of San Rafael as light technician, Douglas Hobbs of Fairfax and Philip Pratt of Fairfax as light crew, Katrinka McKay of Corte Madera as property mistress, Helen McDonald of Sausalito and Karson Young of Kentfield as prop crew.

Festival Of Arts Planned

San Domenico Upper School students (grades 9-12) in Sleepy Hollow will present a festival of the performing arts this weekend.

On Saturday at 3 p.m. in the pavilion, students in the music department under direction of Faith France will present works by Mozart, Ravel, Brahms, J. S. Bach, Mendelssohn, Beethoven and others. Also a chamber ensemble and three-part women's chorus will do "A Song of Praise" by Pierne directed by James Schultz.

On Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the lower school assembly hall, the ballet department under direction of Greta Tozier will stage "Cinderella" by Prokofiev.

School Hoping For Scholarship Concert Series

The San Rafael High School band next week will hold the first of what director Terry Summa hopes will be an annual series of scholarship concerts similar to those of the band at Terra Linda High School.

It is scheduled for 8 p.m. May 26 at the school gymnasium.

Fourteen selections will be played, including four jazz numbers by the school dance band. One of these will be the currently popular song "Michelle," written by John Lennon and Paul McCartney of the Beatles quartet.

Other works on the program will range from works by Mozart and Vivaldi to John Philip Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Proceeds will go toward a fund with which Summa plans to try setting up scholarships for summer music camps and other projects.

'Magic Storybook' Performances Set

The two performances of "The Magic Storybook" scheduled for Saturday at the Novato Community House have been canceled, announces Castle Court Players, producers.

Lack of attendance at the first performance was blamed for the cancellation.

'Sound Of Murder' Ends Saturday

Final performances of "Sound of Murder," being presented by the Tiburon Cove Players, will be Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m., at the 41 Main Street Theater in Tiburon.

The sophisticated mystery stars Abe Kalish, Joan McKinney and Sara Davis.

Soloists Announced For Youth Orchestra

Names of five young people who will perform as soloists in next season's two concerts of the Marin Youth Orchestra were announced today by Mrs. Alexis Tellis, youth orchestra chairman for the sponsoring Symphony Guild of Marin.

Sololists in the first concert will be oboist Mark Salkind and violinist Debbie Roberts.

Mark, 13, in seventh grade at Marin Country Day School and a pupil of Leland Lincoln, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Salkind of Mill Valley. Debbie, 14, a San Rafael High School freshman and a pupil of Charles Meacham, is a daughter of Mrs. Adelaide Roberts of San Rafael.

In the second concert, soloists will be clarinetist Mike Wellen and duo-pianists Mary Rosenquist and Mike Mello.

Mary, 16, a junior at Terra Linda High School, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Rosenquist of San Rafael. Mike Wellen, 17, a junior at San Rafael High School and a pupil of Don Carol, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Wellen of San Rafael. Mike Mello, 13, in eighth grade at Blessed Sacrament School, Santa Venetia, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Mello of San Rafael. He and Mary are pupils of Faith France.

The young musicians were selected in auditions held Monday afternoon at San Rafael High School. Judges were Hugo Rinaldi, director of music for San Rafael schools and director of the Marin Youth Orchestra, and Independent-Journal music critic Maybelle Speckmann.

Leland Jordan Named To Crusade Position

San Rafael attorney Leland H. Jordan will head the Marin County professional division for the 1966 United Bay Area Crusade campaign.

Jordan, who has served in previous UBAC campaigns, will be in charge of solicitation among attorneys, physicians, dentists, accountants, architects, engineers and social workers. These groups contributed $18,400 in Marin last year.

$900,000 Asked In Two Wrecks

Damage suits totaling $900,000 were filed in Marin Superior Court yesterday as result of two traffic accidents 30 minutes apart last Jan. 4 on the Black Point Cutoff near Petaluma River Bridge.

Two women were killed in one of the crashes: Mrs. Arlene F. Smith, 22, of Vallejo and Mrs. Alma F. Bench, 61, of Novato. Mrs. Smith's husband, Roy E. Smith, on behalf of himself and their 3-year-old son, James, filed suit against the State of California, John H. Brandon Tire Supply Co. of San Rafael, B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co., and Rotunda Seat Belt Co. for $500,000 for Mrs. Smith's death and $250,000 for head and nervous system injuries to the boy.

Thirty minutes before the Smith car skidded across the highway to collide with that driven by Alton B. Bench, whose wife was killed, a car driven by Thomas B. Sweeney of San Francisco skidded at almost the exact same spot, went over a guard rail and down an embankment.

Sweeney and his wife, Barbara, filed suit against the State of California for $100,000 damages for head, neck and back injuries suffered by Mrs. Sweeney and $50,000 for similar injuries suffered by Sweeney.

The Smith suit alleges that faulty construction and maintenance of the highway resulted in a pool of water in which the car skidded. It charges that the car's recapped tires, supplied by Goodrich and sold by Brandon, were defective, and that the seat belt did not prevent Mrs. Smith from being hurled against the roof of the car.

The Sweeney suit alleges faulty construction and maintenance of the highway.

Attorney for the plaintiffs in both suits is Ronald H. Rodda of San Francisco.

THE HIGH AND THE FLIGHTY

With the arrival of the first C-14 Globemaster planes to replace the old "flying boxcars" at Hamilton Air Force Base, the Golden Gate Troop Carrier Wing will start ferrying troops and equipment to the Far East. The new planes can carry far more cargo and personnel than the former transports. Here Col. Billy C. Means of Novato, director of wing operations at the base, receives the first plane from Lt. Col. L. J. Bauer of Hickham Air Force Base, Hawaii.

Supervisors Argue Arks' Plight

By RICHARD LYTTLE

A plea by ark dwellers who are being evicted from state land along Corte Madera Creek sparked heated discussion at the Marin County Board of Supervisors session yesterday.

One citizen charged the board was a "disgrace" as he was gaveled to silence. Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, complaining that he was made to appear as the villain, charged that board Chairman Byron W. Leydecker had "not done his homework." And ark residents charged they were being denied their rights.

At the bottom of it all was, once again, the Corte Madera Creek flood control project.

About 30 arks either fully or partially on land leased from the state must be removed. The state lands commission is expected to give 60-day notice to ark owners this week. There is no provision for compensating owners for their investment in improvements and buildings.

Complicating the issue is the necessity to remove a sewer line on the east side of Bon Air Bridge for the first phase of flood control work to start this summer. The line serves 15 arks which could remain for one more year if they had other sewer connections.

Despite the heat in yesterday's debate, supervisors agreed:

1. To seek estimates on an alternate sewer line.

2. To write Gov. Edmund G. Brown, explaining the situation, and asking that he request a special call of the legislature for remedial action so the ark owners can be compensated.

3. To inform state legislators, including State Sen. Jack F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley of San Rafael.

4. To ask Public Works Director Donald R. Frost to explore possibility of moving the arks and finding sites on other state lands for them.

Mrs. Harry H. Water, an ark dweller for 42 years, said it was impossible to get any of the arks west of the bridge out because the Hilview Gardens tract has closed in on the east and the bridge prevents moving them down stream. "You can't get a bathtub out of there," she said.

"This is a hell of a deal," Chairman Leydecker said. He wondered why the board of supervisors was hearing about it at such a late hour.

"We've all known about this all along," Supervisor Kettenhofen said. "You just have not done your homework."

Kettenhofen said he had put the discussion on the agenda yesterday to see if the board would adopt a resolution asking a special legislature call.

"Now all the rest of you are great big heroes. It's ridiculous," he said.

He said Leydecker wanted to write the governor because "he's a friend of the governor."

"You don't have to get nasty," Leydecker countered.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he would be the villain if it would please Kettenhofen.

This banter touched a nerve in Mrs. Winifred Frederick of Lagunitas, attending the session because she was concerned about the threat to the ark owners. She jumped to her feet declaring:

"The behavior of this board is a disgrace."

"You're out of order," Chairman Leydecker said, banging the gavel.

"You're out of order," Mrs. Frederick retorted.

University Campus Proposal Labelled Political Football

Marin County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen yesterday charged that an effort to get a University of California campus in Marin was being made into a "political football."

He asked that discussion of the possibility be put off until June 10, the first meeting after the primary.

In effect, that was what supervisors did with Melvin Warenback's request that the board provide leadership in the effort.

Warenback is one of three candidates for supervisor in the First District, seeking to replace Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker who declined to run.

"As long as I'm chairman of the board, any citizen who wants can address us," Leydecker said yesterday in overruling Kettenhofen's protest.

Warenback said that the effort to get the campus in Marin will require leadership and organization. He suggested that board members confer with Gordon Sinclair of the Santa Cruz Sentinel, who was one of the leaders in getting a U.C. campus at Santa Cruz.

"All we need is 14 different groups going in 12 different directions or more, and we've blown it," Leydecker said, adding that supervisors were the logical ones to provide leadership.

Kettenhofen, who said he had explored the possibility extensively before, was skeptical of Marin's chances and wondered whether a campus would really be a good thing.

Carroll A. Snyker of the Marin Development Assn. said an association committee headed by Jack Craemer of the Independent-Journal is looking into the possibility of a U.C. campus in Marin.

A steak dinner for members and guests will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the Novato Moose Ledge Hall, 855 Vallejo Avenue. Dancing with a western dance band will start at 9 p.m.

Airport Panel Concerned By Heliport Loss

The Marin County Aviation Commission failed to get a quorum last night, but the three members attending agreed that the commission would give "very serious" study to relocating the county's heliport on Richardson Bay.

Commodore Properties, owner of the land, has put the county's lease on a month-to-month basis, explaining that the ticket office may soon be torn down for building of a hotel, bar and restaurant.

Asst. County Public Works Director Arthur T. Knutson reported the commissioners also agreed to a special meeting at 8 p.m., May 31, at the Civic Center to view a revised plan for the county airport at Novato. The revision, Knutson explained, would add an area for expansion.

Present last night were commissioners Joseph W. Wright, David B. Vale and Richard Nave. Absent were chairman Benjamin R. Ostlind, Tris M. Coffin, Douglas M. Christensen, and Melville Dickson.

Marine Center Sets Open House Tomorrow

The Marine Corps Reserve Training Center at 153 Madison Avenue, Santa Venetia, will hold open house from noon to 9 p.m. tomorrow.

The Marines will demonstrate firing on their indoor range, display weapons and show combat films. There will be a photographic display of civic action efforts by Marines in Viet Nam.

Today is Wednesday, May 18, the 138th day of 1966 with 227 to follow.

The moon is between its last quarter and new phase; the morning stars are Venus and Saturn; the evening star is Jupiter.

Bertrand Russell, English philosopher and author, was born on this day in 1872.

On this day in history:

In 1852, Massachusetts became the first state in the Union to pass a statute making school attendance compulsory for children between the ages of 8 and 14.

In 1860, Abraham Lincoln was nominated for President by Republicans meeting in Chicago.

In 1892, the opera singer and star of "South Pacific" Ezio Pinza, was born in Rome.

In 1926, nationally-known evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson disappeared from Venice, Calif. She turned up June 23 claiming to have been kidnaped.

A thought for the day — Spanish author Cervantes said: "The exploits of rash men are to be attributed rather to good fortune than to courage."

Some Finesses Tougher Than Many College Tourney Players Thought

You don't have to be a deep student of the game to take a finesse when an opponent holds the king of trumps.

In the recent Intercollegiate Championships several thousand college students discovered that other finesses may be deeper.

Opening lead — ◇ K

West took his top diamonds and led a third diamond for East to ruff.

East returned a club to dummy's ace, and now several thousand collegians had the problem of making four spades with the South hand.

SPADE FINESSE

Nobody had any trouble with the first play—a spade finesse.

But West's discard made it clear that South had to get to dummy twice more for trump finesses and one other time to discard a club on the 10 of diamonds.

How could South get to dummy three times? Only by way of hearts. Hence South had to finesse with the ten of hearts in the hope that West held the jack.

IMMEDIATE FINESSE

South's best play is to lead a low heart and try an immediate finesse with dummy's ten. When this works declarer leads another trump from dummy for a second trump finesse.

Back to dummy with the queen of hearts, and a third trump finesse. Then South leads the ace of trumps to capture the king.

FINALLY THE KING

Finally South leads the king of hearts to dummy's ace and cashes the ten of diamonds to get rid of the losing club.

South might go down if he began the hearts by leading low to dummy's queen. The next time South led a low heart West might brilliantly put up the jack.

Dummy would have to win with the ace, and then dummy would get only two heart entries instead of the three that South needs to make his contract.

Justice Argues For World Role

SAN JOSE (AP) — Justice William O. Douglas urged this nation yesterday to turn the revolutionary spirit in emerging nations "towards democracy and away from communism."

The Supreme Court justice, speaking at a news conference, also declared the main U.S. problem in Viet Nam is "how to get out gracefully and constructively."

By taking a negative attitude toward revolutions, this country "will lose our chance to provide leadership in the world," he said.

The justice spoke at San Jose State College where he is spending two days as a visiting scholar.

Buchigani Receives Police Certificate

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani of San Anselmo has been awarded an advanced certificate by the California Commission of Peace Officer standards and training.

To receive the certificate, the chief said, he had to complete 600 training hours and have 15 years experience with five of them in a supervisorial capacity.

Faculty To Face Student Grading

BERKELEY (AP)—The University of California's Academic Senate has decided to let students evaluate all undergraduate courses and teachers next year and participate in its advisory student affairs committee.

The faculty group acted yesterday on the reforms recommended in an extensive report by a select committee headed by Prof. Charles Muscatine.

The group's student affairs committee will be composed of three students and four faculty members. This year five professors were on the committee.

Pair End Suits, Start Voyage

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Fuller E. (Clay) Callaway III got rid of all the litigation separating them yesterday and left for a second honeymoon in Hawaii.

Callaway, an electronics firm executive who is heir to a Georgia textile fortune, had been charged with assault, beating his wife.

On her tearful plea in San Mateo County Municipal Court, Judge Lyle R. Edson dismissed that charge and one of disturbing the peace.

Anchor Ground Limits Change

The Army Corps of Engineers reported yesterday that the boundaries of anchorage grounds in San Francisco Bay have been amended.

The amended grounds are bounded by the east shore of the bay from Point Isabel to Brooks Island, west to the training wall to 1,035 yards from the north end light at Treasure Island, to 290 yards north of the center of Pier K of the San Francisco Oakland Bay Bridge, to a line bearing 71 degrees to the shore.

Cable areas and a designated fairway are excluded from the anchorage area.

Every month in the year floods occur somewhere in the United States, according to the weather bureau.

Dodgers Win In 13; Sadecki Hurls For S.F. Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Second baseman Jim Lefebvre of Los Angeles got a dog for a present before the game and entered the doghouse a little later, but all turned out happily as the Dodgers defeated San Francisco, 2-1, in 13 innings.

As the bitter National League rivals prepared to resume the series tonight, with Ray Sadecki of the Giants pitching against Claude Osteen of Los Angeles, the Giants' loss last night cut their lead over idle Houston to three games. Third-place Los Angeles is four behind.

Many of the 54,818 fans in Dodger Stadium—53,561 paid — came to see if there was any reaction from last August's bat fracas involving San Francisco's ace right-hander, Juan Marichal, and the guy he hit, catcher John Roseboro of Los Angeles. This was Juan's first appearance here since the incident in San Francisco.

The fans booed everytime Marichal came to bat.

However, there was no incident, except Marichal got two hits off Don Drysdale, Don one off Juan, and neither was around at the finish.

The Dodgers' winning run came on a single by Wes Parker and another by Maury Wills that sent Parker to third and then quickly home when Ollie Brown's throw from right field went through Jim Hart's legs and into the Dodger dugout.

The Giants scored their run in the seventh on Tito Fuentes' single, an error by Lefebvre and Willie McCovey's fourth straight single off Drysdale.

Jesus Alou's hard-hit grounder to Lefebvre, the league's Rookie of the Year in 1965, took a bad hop, but he was charged with an error. The play advanced Fuentes to third.

The Dodgers tied it in the ninth on Wills' bunt single, Jim Gilliam's single and Willie Davis' sacrifice fly.

Phil Regan stifled the Giants for the final two frames to get the win and is now 2-1. Frank Linzy, who took over for Marichal in the 11th, was the loser and is 1-2.

Marichal allowed seven hits and Drysdale 11. Marichal struck out five batters, all in succession, in the seventh and eighth.

The crowd did let out a roar when one Dodger accidentally threw his bat swinging at a pitch. The pitch was by Marichal and the batter? John Roseboro, who else?

But it didn't go anywhere near Marichal.

Baseballer Goes To Boys State; 500-Miler TV In Tam Theater

BASEBALL STAR John Komo will represent Marin Catholic High School at the 1966 Boys State session in Sacramento next month . . . Golf Digest has rated Billy (Peacock Gap) Casper as the 4-1 favorite in next month's Nat'l. Open in San Francisco, with Gary Player and Doug Sanders 6-1 each, Gene Littler and Arnold Palmer 7-1 and Jack Nicklaus and Gay Brewer 8-1 . . . All loge seats at the Tamalpais Theater are sold out for the May 30 closed-circuit TV showing of the Indianapolis 500-mile Auto Race, but still plenty of $6 gen. adm. tickets available at all Marin County theater box offices . . . Busiest softball team in Marin and probably all of Northern California is Sohner's Tree Service club of San Anselmo with 13 games crammed into the next 14 days...

WITH INTEREST centered on the famed 500 race at the Indianapolis Speedway at the end of the month, it may come as a surprise that a Marin man has already won "The Little 500" in Indiana. The "Little 500" is a 50-mile, 200-lap bicycle race held on the quarter-mile track at Indiana University Stadium. The annual event was held last Saturday with 60 groups from the campus fielding four-man bike teams in the race which attracts thousands of spectators from all parts of the midwest and benefits the Indiana University Foundation.

Ken Frost of Belvedere, 21-year-old senior at Indiana, where he is an All-American swimmer, was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi bicycle team which came in first in the "Little 500." Actress Connie Stevens presented the trophy to the winning team. Ken got his start in swimming as a member of the Marin Pirates, and was a star swimmer for Redwood High School. But bike-riding? That he learned at Indiana.

STANFORD GRID hopeful Jim Troppmann of Corte Madera underwent surgery for a damaged knee cartilage last Saturday, but is expected to be able to do some quarterbacking for the Indians next fall. Jim hurt the knee in spring practice.

LITCHFIELD'S semi-pro baseball team of San Rafael has tentatively booked a June 19 game at S.R.'s Albert Field with the barnstorming Earthquakers of Anchorage, Alaska. This game could be quite a drawing card because manager of the Earthquakers is none other than Satchel Paige, who pitches at least three innings of every game, although he is 60-odd years young.

The Litchfields also will enter the California State Semi-Pro Tournament which starts June 25 in the East Bay.

I AM INDEBTED to the Courtland Fishing Line Co. for the following observation: "We are fishermen at birth . . . Just consider how your new-born son is gifted with all the attributes we commonly ascribe to a good fisherman: Fishermen are prone to lie a lot, they like the bottle, they don't mind eating at odd hours, they are often awake before dawn and are not dismayed by dampness."

Hornets Rally, Nip Redwood

Novato High School's baseball team mounted a three-run rally in the eighth inning to edge Redwood's Giants, 4-3, in Marin Athletic play on the Hornets' diamond yesterday.

The Hornets thus remained tied for the league-lead with San Rafael, 4-3 victors over Terra Linda in another of three MAL games played yesterday. The co-leaders have 7-3 records. Tamalpais High, victim of a 4-2 defeat at the hands of Marin Catholic, slipped to a 6-4 league record while the Wildcats moved up to a 7-4 mark. See stories on page 36.

With Redwood leading 1-0, Giant Len Pieri led off the third inning with a single, then stole second base and came around to score after Russ Smith singled. Smith came home on an attempted steal minutes later when a Hornet threw wildly over second base, pushing the Giants in front, 3-0, as sophomore Mike Terry blanked the Novato nine over the first four innings.

CORDER HITS

Novato came up with a run in the top of the fifth and, after a quiet sixth inning, winning pitcher Wayne Jones, like Terry a righthander, stymied the Giants in the seventh and gave himself and the Hornets a shot at it, the inning starting with catcher John Sjoblom walking on four straight pitches and being capped with Tom Corder whacking one up the middle past second.

Both Terry and Jones pitched well, but Jones had the edge on paper, allowing just five hits while fanning five and walking three, plus getting the win.

John Dolinsek, Novato first baseman, hit a long fly to center which some say sailed over the fence, including some of Redwood's baseballers. The judging umpire, however, ruled that the ball bounced over the barrier on one hop, and Dolinsek was credited with a ground-rule double. Straightaway center is 375-feet from home plate.

Officially, then, someone has yet to hit a ball over any barrier on the Novato field, left, center, or right.

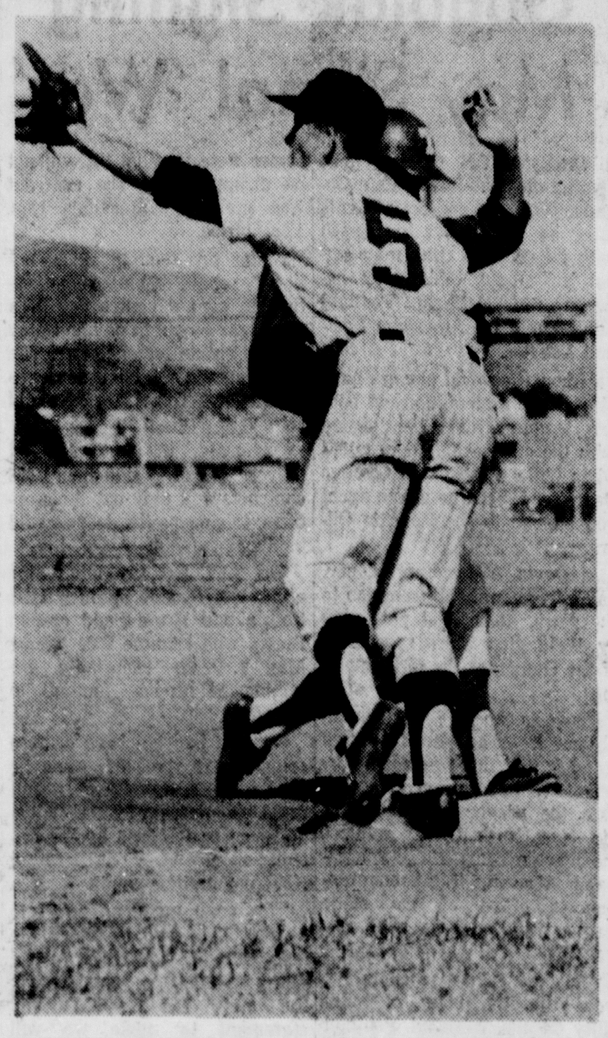
'Putt For Dough' Golf Tournament

Mrs. William Campbell sank a chip shot, giving her a no-putt green, to win the "Putt for Dough" tournament held yesterday by the Marin Country Club Golf Niners at their home course.

Mrs. Walter Corbin had three one-putt greens for second place, and Mrs. Robert Moran was next with two one-putt greens. Tying for fourth place, each Mesdames Irving Chapman, Miles Chute, James Dreier, John Haddock and Robert Joses.



PICKOFF ATTEMPT — Marin Catholic High first baseman Bob Bianchini (5) reaches for throw from pitcher Ben Burch on second inning pickoff attempt yesterday, but Tamalpais' Mike Biber (partially obscured) got back safely. Marin won anyway, 4-2, knocking Tam out of first place in the topsy-turvy Marin Athletic League baseball race.

Hey, Look Out For Those Cincy Reds

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Maloney is back in the groove and so are the Cincinnati Reds.

Maloney pitched a brilliant two-hitter as the Reds beat the Mets 4-0 last night. It was his second straight victory after missing two weeks with an inflamed elbow and it gave surging Cincinnati nine triumphs in the last 11 games.

"We're a relaxed club now," smiled Manager Don Heffner. "That's why we're winning."

Having Maloney back in the rotation hasn't hurt the effort.

The ace right-hander had been troubled throughout the early stages of the season by his pitching arm.

"It was getting progressively worse," Maloney said. "Finally, I threw a curve in a game against Houston and it really hurt. My next pitch was a fast ball and it had nothing on it. That's when I had to leave the game." That was April 25.

Maloney's condition was diagnosed as tendonitis and he took cortisone shots while sitting out two weeks.

He came back against Atlanta a week ago, allowed two runs in the first inning and beat the Braves on a three-hitter. He pitched seven innings in that game, the last six scoreless. His shutout against the Mets last night gave him a string of 15 runless frames.

Maloney was in complete control. He surrendered a leadoff single to Ron Hunt in the first, a single to Ron Swoboda in the second and nothing else. He retired the last 22 batters in a row, struck out eight and walked one.

Don Pavletich and Pete Rose provided the offense. Pavletich drove in half of Cincinnati's runs with a homer and a double and Rose stroked two hits giving him 15 in the last seven games.

In other National League games, Los Angeles nipped San Francisco 2-1 in 13 innings, Pittsburgh defeated Atlanta 5-2 and Philadelphia trimmed St. Louis 5-3. Rain washed out Houston at Chicago.

Donn Clendenon's two-run single climaxed a three-run rally in the sixth inning that carried Pittsburgh past Atlanta. Manny Mota completed the Pirate comeback, doubling across a run in the seventh and stealing home. Hank Aaron homered for the Braves.

The Phillies got two bases-loaded walks in the seventh inning for their victory over St. Louis. Nelson Briles walked Dick Groat, forcing in the tie-breaking run, then gave way to Joe Hoerner, who walked John Callison.

Frosh Whiffs 15 In Novato's Win

Steve McNalley allowed just three hits while striking out 15 as Novato High School's freshman baseball team blanked Redwood, 5-0, yesterday on the Redwood diamond.

Novato now moves back into first place in the freshman league standings with an 8-2. Redwood is 8-3.

Indian Valley Golf Winners

Best-ball threesome winners yesterday at the Indian Valley women's Golf Club were Mesdames Thomas Hardcastle, Norman Herr and Lew Baysinger with a 58.

Next were Mesdames William May, Phil Ogle and Anthony Bacich with a 59; Frances Golden, Rowe Waller and Roger Williams, 59; Harold Burnell, John Clifford and Andrex Lax, 60.

EX CHAMPION IS FOUND DEAD

Randy Turpin's Tragic Story

LONDON (AP) — The sad riches-to-rags story of Randolph Turpin, former world middleweight champion, ended with a gunshot blast in a dingy backstreet cafe yesterday.

Although police maintained a traditional silence on who did the shooting, friends said the 38-year-old Turpin had been depressed lately.

In the same incident Turpin's 17-month-old daughter, Carmen, was seriously injured with two gunshot wounds and rushed to a hospital.

Turpin was found dead with a gun near the body in his wife's transport cafe in Leamington Spa, about 150 miles north of London.

The spot was not far away from the town's main street, where the whole community turned out to give Turpin a hero's reception in July 1951.

Turpin had just beaten the great Sugar Ray Robinson for the world middleweight title and was on top of the world.

Just 64 days later Turpin went to New York and lost the title to Robinson on a knockout.

Turpin kept on boxing but never reached the top again.

During his fight career he is believed to have made $560,000.

But by 1961 Turpin was bankrupt.

The saddest sight of all in recent years was to see an overweight Turpin performing as a wrestler at $56 a match.

Turpin told friends recently he was worried about a $560 income tax demand which he couldn't pay.

There were also fears that the local Government Council, as part of a development scheme, were going to demolish his wife's cafe—Turpin's main source of livelihood.

"Randy told me he was going through a fairly rough period. He was down in the dumps of late," said boxing promoter Alex Griffiths.

"I think Saturday's world heavyweight fight between Cassius Clay and Henry Cooper must have set him thinking about the days when he was on top," Griffiths said.

"This could have been the last straw."

Turpin earned a fortune with his fists by the time he was 24 and lost most of it before he was 30.

His greatest moment came on July 10, 1951, when he clearly outpointed Robinson.

The following September, a crowd of 61,370 paid $767,326 (a record for a non-heavyweight fight) to see the return match at New York's Polo Grounds.

In the 10th round Turpin seemed in sight of victory, with the referee concerned about a bad cut over Robinson's eye.

Moments later the young Briton was on the canvas. He got up but the bout was stopped and his short reign as world champion was over.

He was never the same fighter again.

After the first of Robinson's several "retirements" Turpin met Carl (Bobo) Olson for the vacant world title in New York. He was soundly beaten.

Redwood Smacked With Probation

Redwood High School is on athletic probation for the rest of this year and all of next school year, it was made public yesterday.

The Marin Athletic League Board of Managers last May 4 voted to put Redwood on probation because of too many games played in one week by the school's baseball team, coached by Al Endriss.

In effect, the probation means that Redwood will have to be careful to adhere to all Marin Athletic League rules in all sports the remainder of this year and all of the 1966-67 school year. If there is another violation during the probationary period, the team that violates the rule will be forced to forfeit all its games.

San Rafael and Terra Linda high schools were put on probation last year for too many swim events in one week, but the probationary period ended last April 29, with no harm done to the athletic program at either school.

Marin Athletic League commissioner George Corson made public yesterday the announcement of the probationary ruling. The Larkspur school had violated a rule when the baseball team played three games in winning the Pacific Tournament at San Leandro April 4, 5 and 6, and then played two games the following day, April 7, against McClatchy and Burbank, two Sacramento schools.

"I have no quarrel with the ruling," said Redwood Principal Don Kreps. "It was just carelessness on our part. We overstepped the boundary and have to pay the price for it."

More Trout Stocked In Marin Waters

Lagunitas Reservoir, Bon Tempe Reservoir and Rodeo Lagoon are Marin County waters scheduled to be restocked with catchable-size rainbow trout this week, it was announced today by the Department of Fish and Game.

NFL Hears Bids Of Seven Cities

By JACK HAND

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Football League listened to the tale of the seven cities today as it continued its search for a 16th franchise to operate in 1967.

Civil leaders were on hand to make their pleas for New Orleans, La.; Seattle, Wash.; Houston; Cincinnati; Boston; Phoenix, Ariz.; and Portland, Ore. Governors, senators, congressmen, mayors and chamber of commerce personnel were loaded with the latest propaganda about their area's charms.

After the presentations, Commissioner Pete Rozelle and the NFL owners were expected to tell all concerned, "Don't call us, we'll call you."

A decision on the expansion city will not be made until later in the year. Rozelle refused to be pinned down on any date. But it was obvious that a new club should be ready to operate at least by the college draft next December.

"We are not talking ownership at this stage," Rozelle told newsmen last night. "We have enough information to know there would be a choice in ownership in each city.

"I know the names in general. I am sure we will have no trouble finding responsible ownership in any of the seven."

Each group was told to be specific about its plans for a football team, particularly a stadium.

"It is possible we would insist on a conditional agreement on a stadium or temporary stadium or a lease before we will name the city."

In answer to a specific question, Rozelle said a stadium seating only 35,000 might be acceptable for one year on a temporary basis.

"We might narrow it down to two or three cities before we make final selection," said Rozelle.

A confidential survey of the seven cities by the Standard Research Institute was completed in February. Club owners have been studying the reports for three months.

Rozelle said the league wanted a 16th city by 1967 because "we don't want to leave Atlanta hanging as a swing team."

In 1966 Atlanta will play every other team in the league once. The Falcons' standings will count in the Eastern Conference. Because of the 15 teams, an unwieldy 15-week schedule will be played with each team having one open date.

"I would not rule out expansion beyond 16 teams in the future," said Rozelle. "But I would say 16 present an extremely attractive scheduling set-up. When you hear of cities that plan to build stadiums without baseball to help amortize them, you know that further expansion always is possible."

Clearing the decks for the presentations, the owners decided yesterday against a central scouting system operating out of the league office.

Home Run Wins It For San Rafael '9'

Terra Linda Beaten By Shone Blast

Catcher Rocky Shone's eighth inning solo home run provided San Rafael's baseballers the margin for victory as the Bulldogs trimmed Terra Linda yesterday, 4-3, in Marin Athletic League action at Albert Field, San Rafael.

Jay Widmer, centerfielder, staked starter Joe Cunningham and the Bulldogs to a 1-0 lead with an inside the park homer in the third inning, and with the Trojans yet to get on the scoreboard, the San Rafael nine scored twice in the fifth with back-to-back singles and a sacrifice fly for a 3-0 edge.

The Trojans narrowed that lead with a run in the sixth frame and tallied two runs in the seventh, sending the game into the extra inning in which Shone powered his towering home over the centerfield fence.

JOOST WINS

Bill Joost came on for Cunningham in San Rafael's half of the seventh and was credited with the win. He walked two and struck out one during his short stint. Cunningham notched four strikeouts and walked four.

Four hurlers shared mound duties for Terra Linda with starter Mike Ainslie fanning eight and walking two before his departure in the seventh inning.

Shone and Widmer each had two hits in four at-bats, leading the San Rafael seven-hit assault. Shone also headed the RBI department with two.

Wills Cited For Going Too Slow

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Base-stealing shortstop Maury Wills of the Los Angeles Dodgers, one of the fastest men in baseball, was cited by police early today for going too slow.

Officers said Wills was driving too slow on the Harbor Freeway, causing other cars to brake quickly and pass on either side.

At first Wills declined to sign the ticket and went to police headquarters to have the citation date clarified. He then signed.

Tam Bows To Marin Catholic

A case of too much Ben Burch and three double plays gave Marin Catholic's baseball team a 4-2 decision over Tamalpais in the Marin Athletic League's topsy-turvy baseball race yesterday on the Tam field, Mill Valley.

Burch struck out seven Indians, all in key situations, cutting down one in each inning. The hard-throwing hurler walked none.

First baseman Bob Bianchini smashed a two-run homer in the second inning as the 'Cats scored first, and although no one knew it would be so at the time, catcher Jerry Handlos drove home the winning run with a sacrifice fly in Marin's half of the third frame. The Tam nine was stopped cold after scoring once in the second and again in the third as Burch scattered five hits over the seven inning game.

It's not often that a team's "weak hitters" account for all of the earned runs, but Handlos and Bianchini are the Wildcats' eighth and ninth batters respectively.

Tam's Gary Draper scored one run and collected a single in two trips but couldn't pull himself off the hook and was tagged for the loss. Draper fanned seven while walking five.

A New Scout For Oakland Raiders

OAKLAND (AP) — Douglas E. Hafner, 35-year-old assistant athletic director at Biscayne College in Miami, Fla., has been appointed chief talent scout for the Oakland Raiders.

Hafner, whose hometown is Mineola, N. Y., said yesterday he considers the new post "a great opportunity." He will begin immediately, the American Football League club said.

Hafner replaces Ron Wolf, who joined Al Davis' staff when the former general manager and coach of the Raiders became AFL commissioner.

Gogolak Signing May Signal 'War'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The signing of place-kicker Pete Gogolak by the New York Giants after he played out his option with the Buffalo Bills may signal an all-out bitter war between the National Football League and the American Football League.

Although several players have played out their options in both pro leagues, none has signed with the other league since 1961 when Willard Dewveall, Chicago Bears' end, became a free agent and hopped to the Houston Oilers.

Al Davis, AFL commissioner, has a "no comment" reaction to the news, announced yesterday by Wellington Mara, president of the Giants, at the NHL meetings.

However, an AFL spokesman observed, "The league office stand is that this was not a surprise. We had reason to anticipate the provocative action of the New York Giants against the Buffalo Bills. We are interested in seeing if the commissioner's office of the other league will approve the contract."

"If the contract is in order, from the standpoint of eligibility in the National Football League," said NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, "it will not be disapproved." The contract was mailed to Rozelle's New York office.

Under pro football rules, unlike baseball, a player can refuse to sign a contract with a team, take a cut in pay and play out his option for one year. The following May 1 he becomes a free agent. Gogolak never did sign with Buffalo in 1965.

Obviously, if a number of players refuse to sign their 1966 contracts and play out their options, this opens the door to wild bidding next May 1.

The AFL has two other star players, defensive linemen Earl Faison and Ernie Ladd of San Diego, who became free agents May 1. They reportedly are talking of playing football in Canada.

Gogolak had not been drafted originally in the NFL when he graduated from Cornell. But Ladd was drafted by the Chicago Bears and Faison by the Detroit Lions. They still retain NFL negotiating rights.

"We have made no effort to contact Ladd and he has made no effort to contact us," said George Halas Jr., president of the Bears. "If we have any statement to make we will make it in two or three days in Chicago."

"We have not been approached by Faison," said Eddie Anderson, general manager of the Lions. "We would have to evaluate the situation if we were approached."

Asked why the club had not sought out Faison, Anderson said, "We have not felt it was good policy. We did not know if we wanted to be a party to something that might trigger something else."

Anderson would not elaborate.

Pete Gogolak, 24, set a record at Buffalo, with 28 field goals.

BRAVES GET TO STAY IN ATLANTA—FOR NOW

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Baseball's Braves have won court permission to keep on playing in Atlanta while the Wiscison Supreme Court studies an appeal of the National League's antitrust conviction.

A court order for the Braves to return to Milwaukee today was suspended yesterday by Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller after the state's Supreme Court agreed to hear the appeal June 9.

Baseball attorneys indicated their appeal would attack again the issue of whether a state court had jurisdiction over a sport extending from coast to coast.

"Baseball is an interstate business and at this time all of baseball is outside the jurisdiction of this court," Braves' attorney Earl Jinkinson told Roller in an unsuccessful move for a new trial.

Roller found the Braves, the National League and its other nine members guilty last month of violating Wisconsin's antitrust law by moving the club to Atlanta and leaving Milwaukee without a major league team.

The U.S. District Court at Milwaukee refused last fall to intervene in the state case and Roller ruled before the start of the six-week trial that his court did have jurisdiction.

Jinkinson criticized sharply that "kooky, nutty idea...that baseball when played in Milwaukee does not violate the antitrust laws but when played outside Wisconsin it does."

The motion for a new trial was a necessary prelude to carrying the case to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. After the session yesterday Braves' Attorney Ray T. McCann filed formal notice of appeal with Roller's court clerk.

The actual appeal will be lodged with the Supreme Court in the state capital of Madison as soon as possible, probably within a few days, McCann said.

Roller, in his decision convicting the league, had ordered the Braves returned here today unless plans to give Milwaukee an expansion team in 1967 were submitted to his court by noon Monday. The league ignored his deadline.

Roller refused last week to delay enforcement of his order after noting the Wisconsin Supreme Court normally would be unable to hear an appeal until near the end of the season. The court's chief justice agreed Monday, however, to give the appeal priority, and Roller reconsidered.

The June 9 hearing date may make a State Supreme Court decision possible by the All-Star break in the major league scheduled July 12. However, no matter what the eventual ruling is, the case is considered almost certain to be carried to the U.S. Supreme Court and a final settlement may be months away.

The conviction April 13 represented the first court chink in baseball's traditional immunity to antitrust regulation dating back to a U.S. Supreme Court decision 44 years ago that the sport was not then an interestate business.

Roller ordered the National League and its members yesterday to post a $100,000 appeal bond. The motion for the new trial—first step of the appeal—cite 36 areas in which baseball attorneys feel the judge erred. The 36 embrace all rulings that were adverse to baseball during the trial.

Novato Judoist Earns Promotion

Steve Wilson, 17, of 757 Diablo Avenue, Novato, was promoted to the rank of NIKYU (second degree brown belt) at a judo promotional Shiai (tournament) last Sunday in the Berkeley High School gym.

Wilson lost his first contest but came back to throw his second and tthird opponents each in less than five seconds.

Clark Henry, director of Novato's Northern California School of Judo, said many more high school boys are needed in the judo program, and said it is a good way for prep athletes to stay in shape during the summer months.

How Giants Lanier, Fuentes Accidentally Switched Jobs

HANLEY

LOS ANGELES—Accidents occasionally have their beneficial aspects. An accident made a second baseman out of Tito Fuentes and a shortstop out of Hal Lanier.

On April 21 in Chicago Fuentes banged his right heel with a bat. After several days on the sidelines, Fuentes still found it painful to pivot off his right foot. His range was restricted by the heel bruise.

Finally, Herman Franks decided to try Fuentes at second base. A second baseman doesn't have as much territory to cover as a shortstop. The manager of the Giants had no doubt about Lanier's ability to handle the shortstop job.

After all, Lanier began his baseball career as a shortstop but was such a superb second baseman that any manager would hesitate in moving him. Furthermore, Fuentes began his career as a second baseman but somewhere along the line some minor league manager, in need of a shortstop, made one out of him.

NOW, AS ALL Giant fans know, the new Lanier-Fuentes combination is working very smoothly on double plays — so smoothly that fans probably wonder why it wasn't tried in spring training.

Actually, it almost was tried in the first intrasquad game of the spring, not by design but accident.

On the day of the first squad game at Casa Grande, Franks was confined to his room by a 24-hour bout with the flu. So one of the baseball writers went to Willie Mays and asked the team captain to write out lineups.

WILLIE RATTLED off the names of his players and told the reporter: "You know the positions, fill them in." The reporter did and posted the lineups in the dugout.

Horace Stoneham, whose knowledge of baseball is much keener than that of most club owners, took a look at the lineups and said to the reporter: "Good lineups except for one thing. You got Tito at second and all during the winter we had him playing short."

THE REPORTER now could claim that he originally had suggested the switch of Lanier and Fuentes but it would be a false claim. He wasn't that smart. The reporter had just made a mistake in assigning Fuentes to second base and Lanier to shortstop for the squad game.

REGARDLESS OF whether it was a slip of a pencil or a slip of a bat, Fuentes now is playing in his natural position—and so is Lanier.

Second base is so natural to Fuentes that he always has signed his name "Tito 2b Fuentes."

Marin Driver In Win At Vallejo

George Nunez of Mill Valley will be trying to add some more wins to his record next Saturday night at the hartop races at the Vallejo Speedway.

Nunez won the semi-main and final heat last Saturday night, and placed third in the second heat. Steve Mentch of Alameda, driving the D and S Garage Special from San Rafael, won the fourth heat, finished second in the trophy dash and third in the main event.

Time trials for next Saturday's Bay Cities Racing Assn. (BCRA) card starts at 7:30 p.m., followed by the first race at 8:15.

TITLE TUNEUP

Clay Like Old Self—Yak Yak

LONDON (AP) — Cassius Clay says he expects to defeat Britain's Henry Cooper Saturday and be defending his world heavyweight title "within seven weeks against anyone."

Talking at times like the old Clay, the champion dismissed comparison with former great fighters.

"Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano would have been no match for me," he told newsmen.

"They were flat-footed fighters. Jack Johnson was probably the best of the old days, and I'd have whipped him.

"The next greatest fighter to me was Sugar Ray Robinson."

Told that old foe Sonny Liston was expected to be at the ringside Saturday on a European comeback trip, Clay said:

"I heard the old man was thinking of fighting again. Won't he ever learn?"

Liston meets German heavyweight Gerhardt Zech in Copenhagen June 9.

Clay decided not to spar at his London gym yesterday. Instead he shadow boxed and hit the heavy bag.

"The way the boy works, it scares me," said Manager Angelo Dundee.

"Already he is so sharp he could cut people."

Then Dundee quickly added:

"Not that we figure to cut Cooper. The champion will go in to knock him out."

Down at his gym, Cooper put in such spirited sparring with American Jimmy Fletcher that there were alarmed cries of "take it easy" from the Cooper camp.

Cooper, 32, is giving away eight years to the 24-year-old champion.

Clay, undefeated in 23 pro fights, is the 11-2 favorite.

All Ex-Champions Ousted In ABC Masters Tourney

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A new champion will be wearing the American Bowling Congress Masters Tournament crown tonight.

All former titlists were eliminated during the gruelling series of matches which began Sunday night.

Among yesterday's eminent casualties were defending champion Billy Welu, former titlist Don Carter and All-Star champion Dick Weber, all of St. Louis.

Al Thompson of Cleveland and Bob Strampe of Detroit, the only undefeated finalists, have never come close to the Masters title.

Marvin Lowry of Birmingham, Ala., who has one loss in the current tournament, finished fourth 10 years ago, but has since not been a serious Masters contender.

The other survivors, as the Masters moves into its final day, share the dual distinction of having one loss in the current tournament and dismal records in previous masters.

Tom Harnisch of Buffalo, N.Y., Gene Raffel of Milwaukee and Wayne Zahn of Atlanta complete the circle of one-time losers who will engage in a series of matches today to decide one berth in the championship match.

Thompson and Strampe will duel for the other spot in the title bout. The defeated man drops into the loser's bracket.

Strampe kept his string of victories going yesterday by defeating Raffel, 801-775, and Lowry, 899-857, in four-game matches.

Thompson's victims included George Howard of Kalamazoo, Mich., 928-844, and Harnisch, 837-805.

Stock Market Jumps To Big Gain Of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed today with one of its biggest gains of 1966. Trading was heavy.

Stocks advanced from the start, reached a temporary peak in an hour, weathered some profit taking in slower trading, then went on late in the day to push up to new highs.

Here was 2nd graf 1st lead 191.

Volume for the day was estimated at 9 million shares compared with 9.87 million Tuesday.

The market was below its best level reached at the end of the first hour but held stubbornly to a big advance.

The Dow Jones industrial average at 2 p.m. was up 9.13 at 873.27.

Some of the high-flying glamor issues were even better late in the day than they were when the key stocks in the averages made their highs.

Xerox rebounded nearly 12 points, Polaroid 8, Texas Instruments, Zenith, Admiral and Eastern Air Lines 6 each.

Blue chips bolstering the averages, Du Pont (ex dividend) was up 4 and Eastman Kodak more than 6.

IBM's new split stock was up 4. Magnavox and Motorola rose nearly 4.

Big institutional investors as well as the "little fellow" were back in the market, brokers said. They called it a technical recovery but reported that booming sales of appliances and other consumer durable goods helped.

A monster block of 100,000 shares of American Telephone sold at 55, off ¼. The $5.5-million block was taken without breaking AT&T's price. It recovered to sell unchanged at 55¼.

Fairchild Camera zoomed a dozen points. KLM Airlines climbed nearly 7, Braniff and Northwest Airlines about 4 each.

General Motors and Jersey Standard were about unchanged. Chrysler rose 1½, Ford a fraction.

Rails were strong, with New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroad (ex dividend) up about 2.

Fairfax Park Group Backs Bond Issue

Four members of the Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission last night "wholeheartedly endorsed" the proposed $4.3 million county park bond issue which will go to voters June 7.

Commissioners said the bonds would permit purchase or development of six recreation or park areas around Fairfax as called for under the city-county general plan now being drawn up.

They also pointed out that federal matching funds could double the money to be received through the county bonds. They urged citizens to attend a meeting scheduled by the committee for passage of the bonds at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Fairfax Women's Club.

The commission approved a recommendation by Councilman George Pagni that the city sponsor a bicycle race sometime in September.

Mrs. Dolores Dollahite attended her first meeting as a commissioner. Absent were commissioners Albert Re, Leonard Wilgenbush and Frank Salvisberg.

YOUNG AMERICAN — Vickie Souravlis, 5, takes a lesson in sewing with her mother, Mrs. Chris Souravlis of 132 Crescent Road, Corte Madera. Vickie became a naturalized United States citizen last month. She came to this country from Greece when she was 15 months old, and is the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Souravlis.

Five-Year-Old Girl Joins Parents As U.S. Citizen

Five-year-old Vikie Souravlis, who was brought to this country as the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Souravlis of 132 Crescent Road, Corte Madera, when she was 15 months old, has just become a naturalized United States citizen.

Vikie started kindergarten at Larkspur-Corte Madera last fall.

Her father, a native of Greece, became a naturalized citizen of the United States in 1962. Mrs. Souravlis was born in Utah, but her parents are from Greece. The two married in 1955, and came to Corte Madera from Utah two years ago. Souravlis is a gardener for Tamalpais High School.

They own a farm in Utah, and plan to return to it eventually.

Vickie has an 8-month-old brother, Jimmy, adopted in San Francisco.

A Mill Valley couple became naturalized citizens together last month. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Albert Nusser of 671 Sequoia Valley Drive came to Marin County from Germany, via Canada, six years ago.

The Nusser's, both 36, decided to come to the United States in 1957, but had no relatives here and so had no sponsor.

"You can't come into the United States to live from Germany without a sponsor, so we went to Canada to live for three years, and then came to the United States," said Mrs. Nusser.

Nusser works as a tool and die maker, the same job he was doing in Germany. "But life is so much easier here," Mrs. Nusser said. "We feel we belong here."

Also naturalized during the past month were:

Adolph Stephen Biggio of 83 Locust Avenue, Michael Kraszulayak of 134 La Goma and Renato Sottile of 251 Miller Avenue, all of Mill Valley;

Ortwin Sessbruegger of 310 Willow Avenue, Corte Madera;

Mrs. Lew Shee Wong of 914 Lootens Place, Mrs. Nina Elizabeth Lewis of 532 Third Street, John Duncan Leslie of 115 Park Street and Henry Yew Tom of 1618 Lincoln Avenue, all of San Rafael;

Mrs. Vera Mabel Yerion, Box 38, Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Forest Knolls;

Hector Spence, 78th Combat Support Group, Ward Toques Donaldson, Box 522, and Mrs. Corazon Cadiz Courtois, 139 Walton Avenue, all of Hamilton Air Force Base;

Mrs. Eveline Susanne Franziska Jarland of 1082 Banta Court, Novato; Miss Vera Kopel, 25 Lincoln Drive, Sausalito; Mehdi Shabahang of 3 Hacienda Drive, Tiburon; Mrs. Teresa Clare, 2 Tamalpais Avenue, Belvedere; Mrs. Maria Louise Schulze of 16 Locust Avenue, Kentfield;

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Guy of 500 South Eliseo Drive, Greenbrae;

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Patrick Casey of 611 San Anselmo Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Wiedner of 1644 San Anselmo Avenue, both of San Anselmo.

Elderly Tax Relief Asked By Marin

Proposed state legislation which could bring property tax relief to people over 62 was supported by Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday on condition it would apply only to those who have lived in the county three years or more.

Supervisors were concerned that passage of the legislation would cause an even greater stampede of people to California if the residential qualifications remained at one year.

Under the Assembly bill, the state would pay back to people over 62 a part of their property taxes ranging from 90 per cent of the first $5,000 assessed value for families with a total income of less than $1,100 to five per cent to families with an income of less than $4,500.

County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel said this measure was more suitable for Marin County although an alternative bill, lowering the refund percentages and fixing the maximum family allowance at $3,350, was more likely to succeed.

Supervisor Peter Behr called the bills "nothing but a sop to the elderly citizen" and "an insult to the common sense of the population of this county." He voted for the support but added, "This little comes too late for the too many people who have had to suffer from the too-high property taxes."

Board Miffed By Lack Of Job Corps Warning

A new offensive in the War on Poverty is opening up in Marin County and no one thought to tell the generals up front.

The generals—in this case the board of supervisors — were miffed yesterday that they were not told well in advance of the federal-financed $20,150 program to provide aides to work with Marin City unemployed youth.

"This is the first time we have had this in front of us," said Chairman Byron W. Leydecker.

He was referring to a request from Betty L. Presley, director of social services, asking for the authority to hire extra personnel and to approve the transfer of funds.

The program, already approved by the Office of Economic Opportunity, would provide five community aides at $425 each a month and a coordinator at $650 a month for six months.

While they authorized the transfer of funds, the board suggested the coordinator should not be brought in from outside but should be one of the county staff.

Supervisor Leydecker conceded it was not the fault of the newly appointed acting director of the county's Community Relations Services, Douglas J. Quiett, that the board was not being kept informed of what was going on.

In the future, however, the supervisors should have a breakdown of all the programs at present being undertaken in the county as well as those likely to be ahead.

Sky Road Annex Plan Collapses

After a month of discussion with the Richardson Bay Sanitary District Board, property owners on Sky Road have called off annexation proceedings.

Alfred O. Pratesi, secretary, said the board learned yesterday that not enough of the 14 residents would sign an annexation petition.

The sanitary district board accepted a low bid of $22,014 by Joseph Di Giorgio and Son of San Rafael to build a 1,200-square foot maintenance shop at the Trestle Glen treatment plant.

Pratesi was instructed to report at the June 21 meeting on negotiations with the Tiburon Fire Protection District on a joint health insurance plan.

Sausalito Chamber Opposes Park Bonds

Sausalito Chamber of Commerce directors voted yesterday to go on record against the proposed $4.3 million county park bond issue to be voted on June 7.

The nominating committee met after the meeting to select a slate of officers for fiscal 1967. Recommendations will be given to the board at its next meeting, at noon, June 21, at Zack's By the Bay.

VAN DELLEN

More than a year ago I wrote about a Japanese camera that took colored pictures of the inside of the stomach. Shortly thereafter I attended a medical convention and was attracted to an exhibit on gastrophotography.

I asked the exhibitor if this was the Japanese camera. He replied, "No, it is ours." This was a switch considering the reputation of the Japanese for copying.

At any rate, the gastric camera is capable of taking 16 simultaneous photos within 30 seconds of being swallowed.

ALTHOUGH EACH picture is less than a quarter of an inch in diameter, enlargement is possible for more detailed study. The stomach is distended to smooth out the wrinkles and the instrument photographs approximately 90 per cent of the interior.

The camera is tubular, less than one-half of an inch in diameter and two inches long. It is attached to a flexible stomach tube one-quarter of an inch in diameter.

The business end is divided into an upper and lower camera section with an illuminating bulb between them. Each partition has eight pinholes with shutters and a lens with a universal focus. The 16 pictures are taken simultaneously during a single exposure of one-500th of a second.

The apparatus is swallowed while the individual is seated in a chair. It is withdrawn as soon as the pictures have been taken. The film is removed and developed. It is not quite this simple and most physicians must take a special course on the use of the gastrocamera. Special training also is needed to interpret the film.

THE CAMERA detects polyps, shallow ulcers, erosions, and early cancers not easily recognized via X-ray, but it is not a substitute for X-rays. It has promise of being a valuable screening device.

The Japanese now have an improved version that takes 32 colored photographs each one-fifth of an inch in diameter. The slim apparatus is adapted to the small oral passageways of the Japanese.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

RESTORED SOPRANO

Mrs. M. Z. writes: Will a woman's voice that deepened after taking cortisone go back to normal when the medicine is discontinued?

REPLY

Yes. All the bad effects and many of the good effects of this hormone are temporary. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on these new hormones which discusses, among othr aspects, the side reactions following their use.

ARM PAIN

D.M.J. writes: Does intermittent pain in the left arm necessarily mean heart disease?

REPLY

No. This type of distress also may stem from muscles, nerves, ligaments, blood vessels, bursae or tendons of the shoulder. Arthritis and disturbances of the brachial plexus are other possibilities.

SCALP RINGWORM

Mrs. H.J. writes: Can adults catch ringworm of the scalp from children?

REPLY

Yes, but for some reason ringworm of the scalp is rare in adults. A hormone usually is blamed because the presence or absence of these secretions differentiate childhood from adulthood.

DAMP QUARTERS

Mrs. L.M. writes: Could living in a damp apartment cause rheumatism or arthritis?

REPLY

I doubt if dampness could cause these disorders but it will aggravate tendencies to these ailments.

Pipe Wrench Burglars Invade Another House

Pipe wrench burglars have struck again in Marin County, making off with guns and other items from the home of James W. Collins, 221 Jamaica Street, Paradise Cay.

Sheriff's officers said the intruders used a wrench or similar tool to snap the knob of a door leading into the home.

Taken were five pistols, three rifles, a shotgun, a typewriter, an adding machine, a hair-dryer, two movie projectors, and a small quantity of liquor.

Burglars also netted much loot by breaking a window of the Town and Country Village TV shop in Strawberry. Officers said Mrs. John Harrigan, 380 Oak Crest Road, San Anselmo, first reported seeing the broken window. Six television sets, a tape recorder, and a phonograph were missing. Total loss was estimated at $1,600.

Burglars broke two skylights of classrooms at Strawberry Point School, entering to steal five marking pens.

Ruth Ann Stuckey, of McNears Beach, told deputies someone cut a side window screen to enter her home and stole two portable radios.

Robert A. Middagh, 128 Stanford Avenue, Homestead Valley, told deputies a window of his automobile, parked at home, was broken by burglars who took a briefcase and clothing.

Phillip F. Foster, 210 Lower Via Casitas, Greenbrae, said his car trunk was forced, and a spare tire, tube and wheel were stolen.

Larry B. Stockwell, Daly City, said a $125 camera was taken from his car while it was parked at an Alto restaurant.

John A. Dallara, 113 Mabry Way, Santa Venetia, reported an auto stereophonic set, stereo tapes and two boxes of tools were taken from his car, parked at home.

Summer Class Signup

San Anselmo School District will hold late registration for summer school, slated for Isabel Cook School from June 22 through July 22, from 9:30 a.m. to noon in Room A-2 of Cook School Saturday.

Boats, Autos, Motorcycles In New Show

Close to half a million dollars worth of cars, boats and motorcycles will be spread across the Sir Francis Drake High School athletic field in San Anselmo on Sunday.

It will be part of the first Marin Car and Boat Show, running from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., sponsored by the Drake Scholarship Foundation.

More than 40 cars will compete for prizes in seven classes. There will also be a class for boats, one for Hondas, and another for motorcycles.

There will also be entertainment, said M. R. Convis, counsellor at Drake High and president of the scholarship foundation. At noon will be George Sakellatou, Greek Flamenco performer; at 1 p.m., a musical quartet; at 2 p.m., Buffy Ford, folk singer and actress, and at 3 p.m., a weightlifting demonstration by Frank Holton of San Anselmo, a world record holder.

Also demonstrated will be a sound system from Auto Stereo of San Rafael. Seventeen of the latest automobiles will be on display from Marin dealers.

Among vintage cars on display will be an Austin-built London cab, powered by a diesel engine, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Green of Belvedere. There will also be a drag racer built by John Batto of Sonoma.

John N. Phelps of Sleepy Hollow, has entered four cars—a 1927 Pierce Arrow, a 1931 Packard, a 1929 Chrysler and a '31 Chrysler. All have won numerous prizes in past shows.

Helping Convis organize the show were members of the Quick Changers of Marin.

Tickets for the show will be sold at the gate.

Seven Candidates Lacking Opposition In June Vote

It has been many years since Marin has had such a large field of incumbents running unopposed for county offices.

In addition to judges, who are rarely opposed, there are seven who will be re-elected without contest.

They include Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell, Assessor Bert Broemmel, County Clerk George Gnoss, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, Tax Collector-Treasurer Stanley J. Fontez, Supt. of Schools Virgil S. Hollis, and Recorder Noel T. Giacomini.

The fact that seven of them have no opposition is a great tribute to their exemplary conduct in office during the past four years.

Not all of them have escaped criticism. For example, Assessor Bert Broemmel and County Schools Supt. Virgil Hollis have not always enjoyed unanimous public support. They have been dragged into the spotlight of controversy.

The lack of opposition in their bid for re-election this year is evidence that their controversial actions, though not always popular, were vindicated as correct in the long run.

Ordinarily, we lament the lack of contests in public office because it deprives the voters the chance to hear pros and cons and to influence the conduct of the various offices.

As a steady diet, this lack of contest would not be healthy. It was not healthy in the past when contests for county office were rarities instead of exceptions. It bred a kind of bossism by entrenched candidates who felt so secure that they saw no particular need to be responsive to the public will.

While the seven unopposed county candidates are worthy public servants who deserve retention, we hope that uncontested elections do not become a pattern. We look to contests in the future to give the public the benefit of full discussion and the opportunity to express preferences.

This year we endorse all seven of the incumbents and hope they roll up big votes of confidence as tribute to their dedicated public service.

Roses — Floral Royalty

Among flowers, roses must be regarded as the Queen and King of Blossoms. Everyone, even anarchists, pay homage to this velvety, fragrant, delicately beautiful blossom.

The roses of Marin County are hitting their spring peak now. They will bloom off and on in cycles through next October. But somehow later flowerings don't quite live up to the beauty and splendor of this first outburst of spring.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

From the prophetic pen of Dostoevsky have come many stirring tributes to the healing power of love.

Here is what the 19th century Russian—one of the world's greatest writers—said in his novel, "The Brothers Karamazov":

"Love all God's creation, the whole and every grain of sand in it . . . If you love everything, you will perceive the divine mystery in things."

Or again:

"At some thoughts one stands perplexed . . . and wonders whether one should use force or humble love. Always decide to use humble love . . . Loving humility is marvelously strong, the strongest of all things, and there is nothing else like it."

Dostoevsky's faith, which "came forth from the crucible of doubt," speaks a familiar language to perplexed modern man.

It is a timeless reminder that God accomplishes His divine purpose through each of us when we rely on Him in faith and humble love.

"God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in him."

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Recreation Will Gain In State Construction Of Water Project

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO — Development of recreational areas along and in the vicinity of water projects in California marks one of the extra benefits citizens of the state will receive from development and conservation of the state water resources.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed SB 26, by Senator Albert B. Rodda, D-Sacramento, which authorizes the State Department of Parks and Recreation to participate in the development and operation of recreational facilities in conjunction with construction of the Auburn-Folsom South project to be undertaken by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation.

The federal law authorizes federal contribution toward recreation, fish and wildlife enhancement in federal projects, and this is the first project of its kind on which the law is applicable.

THE RODDA BILL authorizes the State Department of Beaches and Parks to develop recreation facilities at the proposed Auburn Reservoir, Folsom Reservoir, Nimbus Dam and Lake Natomas.

Six million dollars is involved in state and local participation in the recreation project, which totals some $30 million allocated from federal funds.

The developments under the Rodda bill fit in with the recreation planning in many other areas of the state, which loom as necessary acts to keep pace with the growing population and the continuing demand to spread present areas and avoid the crowded conditions that exist and are becoming more crowded all the time.

PARTICULARLY in line with future planning is a recent study completed by the state Department of Water Resources, issued as Bulletin 154-66, on recreation areas along the California Aqueduct in the San Joaquin Valley.

This study was requested by the Legislature at the 1965 session, and it reveals the planning schedule for construction of recreation developments through 1974.

The report designates six areas for initial recreation, at Ingram Creek aquatic recreation area, Three Rocks fishing access site, Kettleman City aquatic recreation area, Buena Vista aquatic recreation area, Wheeler Ridge fishing access site, and San Luis Reservoir and forebay.

FACILITIES PLANNED include concession area, fishing, swimming, nature trails, camping and water skiing.

In addition, the department has future recreation developments planned for Corral Hollow, Oro Loma, Huron, Lost Hills, and Buttonwillow fishing access sites, Tupman aquatic recreation area and the aqueduct trails system.

Construction of these areas, which is planned through the next ten years, not only will facilitate the offering of new areas for sporting activities, but also will take the load off some of the present areas which are overcrowded.

In addition, says William E. Warne, director of water resources, the development will add materially to the value of water resources development.

Park Lands For Future

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Robert Scott of San Anselmo shows a great deal of imagination in his proposal to the people of San Anselmo that they roll up their sleeves and do the development of their parks themselves. With leadership, this could become a shining example to all Marin.

But the problem still remains, with growing populations we need to buy land for parks! We have to have the courage and leadership to look beyond today. How do you buy the lands and preserve them for the future without park bonds?

Do city officials in Marin look beyond their term of office, their lifetime, to problems we are putting on others? What responsibility do people living now have for the quality of life of those that will come after us?

Parks aren't primarily a matter of money, we always find money for important things; they are a matter of understanding a basic need of humanity and of caring.

Letter Believed Unnecessary

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I find it very difficult to write a letter to the editor; usually I "consider the source" of letters and forget it. However, I feel very strongly the letter of Professor Vlado Kolitsch (May 11) was certainly uncalled for. It certainly has the earmarks of an insanely jealous man that one of his students was not the soloist and he the director of the Marin Youth Symphony.

I do not feel the Marin Youth Symphony or the curriculum of Marin County schools need any defense. . . .

Both organizations provide scholarships so students can receive this "technical equipment" this master thinks the youth lack. Does he feel he is the only one who can give this "equipment"? Evidently the soloist was not one of his pupils.

Is not Mr. Kolitsch the one who last fall threatened to, and maybe did, withdraw his donation to the San Rafael Music Scholarship Fund if his children were bussed out of the district. Was the real reason that the music department wouldn't require the recipients to attend his school?

In closing, may I say that my only regret is that I have lived in Marin County nine years and have not supported the youth symphony until this year. My highest praise goes to the organization and the schools in their music program.

In Defense Of Park Bonds

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Being absent due to sickness from the Mill Valley City Council meeting when Vice Mayor Wickham registered his disapproval of the county park bond issue, I was not able to dispute with him in our accustomed forum. I therefore would like to dissent publicly to his letter of May 10 justifying his "no" vote.

I think my esteemed colleague is dead wrong for the following reasons.

An investment in parks is the soundest way of attracting the tourist to the county — where dollars spent here is the only rational way of widening Marin's tax base — unless the Marincello myth of clean eager industry beating on our doorstep to enter is to be believed.

But even if the parks don't return one cent, such an investment in land for the future is essential. Vice Mayor Wickham showed a laudable concern for the older, poorer resident. But it seems that to begin to preserve Marin from the deluge of development creeping remorselessly up 101 will benefit this very group who came, lived and invested in Marin in a more leisurely age, and who now have the greatest stake in preserving its threatened values.

The issue seems clear. We are all of us immigrants to Marin who, whether we just arrived or have lived here for decades, voluntarily moved in to live our lives in a unique environment derived from the natural beauty of the county.

Are we willing now to pay a small price to preserve part of this countryside? Or are we to sit on our hands with land values inflating and ocean to bay development proceeding as an unbroken rash while we futilely whimper in disapproval? We have received a beautiful heritage from the past which we expend as the "Marin way of life".

Let us try to leave some of it for those coming after.

Nut Behind Steering Wheel Needs Work

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Those car manufacturers certainly do make unsafe cars.

Have you noticed they've installed magnets in a lot of cars, so that they are irresistibly attracted to each other?

And the windshield glass has been cleverly tinted to make the drivers colorblind so they go through red lights.

Many motors just won't start without a good, stiff whiff of alcoholic fumes from the driver's seat.

And evidently ants nests have been put in some drivers' seats causing them to dash madly back and forth from one lane to another in a frenzy of itching.

These defects must be corrected!

What I want to know is: When every possible fault has been corrected, every conceivable safety device installed, and even highways, road signs and traffic controls completely perfected — who will be to blame for the remaining 90 per cent or 95 per cent of the accidents?

When They Were Alive . . .

Editor, Independent-Journal:

One wonders how many of those who cry so grievously for visible identification of unmarked graves, and their contents, cared enough to give just five minutes, personally, of their own time to those silent occupants, when said occupants were able to appreciate and respond to communication.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A STATION AGENT in Eureka, Calif., heard a crash on the platform. He dashed out to see the tail end of a Southern Pacific train disappearing round the bend, while a disheveled gent lay prone on the concrete, surrounded by the contents of two opened suitcases. An owlish youngster stared at the gent, but made no effort to assist him.

"Was he trying to catch the train?" the station agent asked the youngster. "He did catch it," replied the youngster, "but it got away."

A SUMMER resident had a brand new water pump which suddenly went out of commission, so an S.O.S. was sent out for the local plumber. He viewed the pump warily, then confessed, "I don't know a thing about these new-fangled gadgets." "But we desperately need water," wailed the summer resident. "I beg you to keep trying."

The plumber finally solved the problem, too. A small frog had gotten caught in the mechanism.

The plumber demanded twenty dollars for his services. "Pretty steep for a little job like that, don't you think?" protested the summer resident. "It's this way," explained the plumber finally. "Any job's expensive when you don't know what the heck you're doing."

A press agent recently married the most conceited girl in Beverly Hills. So the guests threw puffed rice.

China's Churning Ferment Won't Cut Dragon's Militant Attitude

WASHINGTON — It is wishful thinking to believe that the churning ferment inside Red China will soon bring any significant change in Peking's militancy.

Obviously the U.S. ought to do anything it can to encourage such change by showing that it will be welcomed, not rebuffed; but to expect it and to base any policy on the assumption it will happen, that would be foolish and dangerous.

From everything that is appearing in the official press, it is evident that two things are going on in Communist China today. The reason Peking reveals what is going on is that it is the only way to deal with it:

Many independent-minded, pragmatic Chinese are showing themselves fed up with the failures, frustrations, and stifling repression of the regime. The party leaders are afraid it will get out of hand.

THEY ARE determined it won't get out of hand. The Communist party is mounting a relentless purge aimed primarily against scholars — because of the great respect for scholars traditional to the Chinese—but also against students, editors, and some military and political persons deemed untrustworthy.

The danger to the regime from this kind of dissidence and disaffection is frankly admitted by party spokesmen. They may even exaggerate it to rally the faithful.

But the regime retains all the instruments of propaganda, terror, and political and military power which insure its grip on a quarter of the human race. It is using this power ruthlessly to repress all the up-thrusting forces of dissatisfaction.

THIS IS WHY it is well not to count on any successful move in the near future from rigid Maoist thinking to freer and more flexible policies on the part of Peking.

There is no evidence that in any large numbers the Chinese people are acutely hostile to the regime because it is Communist.

Their hostility apparently comes from the mounting conviction that the regime is doing a very bad job of running the nation, that its massive repressions and pervasive controls make for terrible waste and inefficiency.

The cult of the infallible Mao Tse-tung has become so far-fetched and fantastic that it is ridiculous to thinking Chinese.

They are told that their crops will grow better if they hoe with one hand and carry a copy of the "Thoughts of Mao Tse-Tung" with the other.

They are told that the earthquakes would be much worse were it not for the "Thoughts of Mao Tse-Tung."

THEY ARE TOLD that they should regard the "Thoughts of Mao Tse-Tung" as "food, weapon, compass, and guiding light."

They are told that one sentence from the "Thoughts of Mao Tse-Tung" is worth more than 10,000 sentences from lesser books.

To an increasing number of Chinese neither this kind of thought control nor this kind of Communist Coueism is producing a flourishing China or a China capable of winning respect in the world.

If you want to understand what Maoism is doing to the lives and education of Chinese students, you will want to read "The Thought Revolution," by Tung Chi-ping, who went through it all and defected, and Humphrey Evans.

But the power of the regime is far greater than the forces of dissent. There is contention over who shall succeed Mao, but it is a near certainty that his immediate successors will reflect the "Thoughts of Mao-Tse-Tung," not the thoughts of experiment and change.

Johnson 'Consensus' Policies Criticized

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The much-touted "consensus" course the Johnson administration is pursuing in attempting to cope with the country's increasingly strained economic and fiscal conditions is ambiguous, shortsighted and ineffectual.

That's the bluntly critical judgment of a prominent Democrat who was one of the President's closest lieutenants when he was his party's Senate leader.

Sen. Vance Hartke, Ind., member of the influential Finance Committee, strongly feels the time is overdue for the President and his advisers to fully and freely tell the nation exactly what it faces in the tortuous and costly Viet Nam conflict and immediately embark on sound and responsible planning and measures.

"WITH AMBASSADOR Lodge in Washington for consultations," says Hartke, "the American people deserve some frank answers. If military victoy is possible, can Viet Nam attain a stable and enduring government? If these prospects are remote, then the American people should be told that so we can plan for a long-drawn-out war.

"It is fair and proper to ask why are we not preparing a financial plan for a long war?

"No one in the administration has said that this will not be a long war. Yet no one in the administration has admitted that long-term financing is necessary. All administration suggestions and proposals for financing Viet Nam have taken the form of one-shot, stop-gap restorations of excise taxes and multi-billion dollar supplemental appropriations.

"WHY HAS THE administration ignored the necessity for sound and responsible economic and fiscal planning for the possibility of years of military struggle ahead of us? Why delude ourselves? We have everything to lose and nothing to gain by such a vacillating and shortsighted attitude.

"The times are too critical and the stakes too great for temporizing and makeshifts. We must squarely and firmly face up to realities and deal with them clearly and forcefully.

"We are putting 300,000 American lives on the line in Viet Nam, and we owe them forthright answers."

MAKING HIS POINT — To underscore his militant challenge of the administration's so-called "consensus" policies, Hartke voted against the $12 million rent subsidy advocated by the President.

Previously, Hartke supported the proposal. But this time he opposed it on the ground it "can't help those it was intended to help."

"It has been turned into a mockery by the run-away inflation on home mortgages," he caustically said. "The working man who wants to buy a home can no longer meet a mortgage. Not only is money too expensive, but money is not to be borrowed at the price he can afford.

"Rent subsidies cannot undo the damage that the money squeeze is perpetrating throughout the country."

Newcomer Has Tough Time Aiding Foreign Student Seeking Family

It's usually hard enough to find people to volunteer for things, but when you're a newcomer with fewer contacts, it's tougher.

Consider the situation of Mrs. Marion Connell, who moved to 21 Marinero Circle, Tiburon, from Washington, D. C. last February.

She is seeking six Marin County families who will volunteer to house a college-aged foreign student for one month this August. She is undertaking this for the non-profit Experiment in International Living of Putney, Vt.

The purpose of the program is to acclimate the students to American customs before they start university life here. Hopefully, "they will become a member of the family, and not a celebrity," Mrs. Connell said.

MRS. CONNELL, 26, came in contact with the experiment as a program officer with the Peace Corps in Washington, D.C., where she worked for four years. When she moved here she decided she'd rather help the experiment than sit around playing bridge and kaffee klatsching.

"There is no financial obligation for the host families," she said, "just hospitality." The students will have their own health and accident insurance, pocket money and travel and study funds.

One such student, Marc Le Maguer, 26, of Paris, France, stayed last summer with the Louis J. Velte family of 32 Mountain View Road, Fairfax. A Fullbright scholar now doing graduate engineering studies at the University of California at Berkeley, he has since returned holidays and weekends to visit, reports Mrs. Louise Velte. She is an English teacher at Redwood High School and coincidentally student foreign exchange advisor there.

"Having him with us was a fine experience on both sides," Mrs. Velte said. "It was a good mutual exchange. He revived our interest in French and we were able to see our national politics from another viewpoint."

"He became part of the family," she said. The Veltes have three college-aged children, a girl at the College of Marin and a boy and girl at Cal.

Mrs. Connell has received some help from last year's Marin County Experiment chairman, Mrs. Henry Eddy of Ross, who introduced her to previous host families. "But I'd like to have different families try it this year," she said.

Her husband, Lawrence Connell Jr. is deputy regional administrator with the federal office of the Comptroller of the Currency in San Francisco. They have a two-month old daughter, Elizabeth. They will host one foreign student themselves under the program.

Volunteers were no problem, however, for Mrs. Robert J. Toso of 21 Bayview Terrace, Tiburon. She was faced with organizing a jazz festival for the Strawberry Point P-TA's County Fair Day this Saturday at Strawberry Point School.

MRS. TOSO said she was at a loss to make it an interesting event until three young musical groups of "long haired, tight pants Mods" came forward unsolicited to "blow their ax" (play their instruments). "They have resurrected the archaic plans for the whole thing and turned it into a polished program."

"Marin County may be the only place where this could happen," Mrs. Toso said," and the boys deserve recognition for it."

The three groups are the Trix with Pete Miller on Drums; John Hoffman, bass guitar; Fred Meyers, lead guitar, and Chad Harding on rhythm, who it says here, are noted for their new approach to "Looey, Looey" and "High Heeled Sneakers;" the Soul by Four, with Ron Kelly, rhythm; Jan Michelson, drums; Jeremy Galbreath, bass guitar, and Dennis Hogan, lead guitar; and the Skwires, Dana Rudebeck, lead guitar; Ron Erskin, rhythm; John Lennon, bass, and Bill Everts, drums, who will open the festival at 12:30 p.m. with "It's My Life."

What Will Ethel Say When Lady Bird Enters Race For President?

WASHINGTON — When Gov. George Wallace couldn't change the Alabama constitution so that he could succeed himself, he did the next worst thing. He ran his wife in his place for the Governorship, and in last week's primaries she had a big win.

THIS SORT of thing has opened up all sorts of possibilities for politicians who can't succeed themselves, and I just hope President Johnson didn't read about it, because if he did . . .

"Wal, Lady Bird, Ah see where Mrs. Wallace got a big vote in the Democratic primaries in Alabama."

"Yes, Lyndon, I read about it."

"Let me ask ya somthing, Lady Bird. You ever wondered what we'd do in 1972?"

"I thought we'd go back to the ranch, Lyndon. The girls will be married by then and you can work on your book and we could finally take life easy."

"Exactly what Ah was thinking, Bird. Let me ask you one question. Have you ever thought of running for some high public office?"

"What on earth are you talking about, Lyndon?"

"I don't know if Ah ever told you this, dear, but you'd make some man a fine President."

"President?"

"WHY SURE, Bird, Ah've only got another term to go, and Ah'm not going to be able to build the Great Society the way Ah want it between now and 1972. Now, if you ran for President, we'd have eight more years in the White House. Do you know how many trees you can plant in eight years?"

"I wouldn't know how to run for President, Lyndon."

"Ah'd help you. Ah'd be by your side during the entire campaign. Ah might even make a few speeches for you. Don't forget, in 1972 Ah'll be the titular head of the party, and people will be interested in who Ah'm going to support."

"BUT WHY me, Lyndon? There must be somebody else more worthy of the job."

"Bird, we used to have a saying that behind every man there's a woman, and now after Alabama they have saying that behind every woman there's a man. Ah want to be that man."

"But what would people say, Lyndon?"

"Ah asked Jack Valenti, and he thought it would be a wonderful idea.

"What did Hubert Humphrey say?"

"He said he'd like to think it over. Ah'm sure he'll come around. Ah told him, if he'd support you for President, Ah'd support Muriel for Vice-President."

"Lyndon, I just don't know what to tell you. I don't even know what to do about Viet Nam."

"Don't let that bother you, Bird. Ah don't either."

"But if I were President, what would you do?"

"Ah'd keep busy, Lady Bird. There's always plenty for the husband of a President to do."

"WELL, WE don't have to make up our minds tonight, do we?"

"Of course not, Bird. You sleep on it. Ah'll call Nick Katzenbach in the morning, just to make sure it's constitutional."

"I was so looking forward to retiring to the ranch, but anything you say, Lyndon."

"That's the spirit, Bird. Ah can't wait to see the look on Ethel Kennedy's face when Ah tell her."

Quiett's Salary Set At $753, Back To May 1

Marin County supervisors yesterday set the salary of Douglas J. Quiett, acting director of community relations, at $753 a month retroactive to May 1.

The board took this action after holding off a decision a week ago so the countywide advisory committee on the War on Poverty and the Community Action Committee for Marin City could be consulted.

Both committees had earlier recommended that the acting director's salary be $870 a month, putting it in the same range as Walter Bremond, the former director.

County Administrator Alan Bruce reported a majority of committee members were in favor of the supervisors' figure. In his former post of community aide, Quiett received $486 a month.

District Attorney In Radio Spotlight

Incumbent Bruce B. Bales and Sausalito attorney A. Leonard Bjorklund Jr., competing candidates for Marin County district attorney in the June 7 primaries, will be interviewed by Kitty Oppenheimer from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow on the Radio KTIM "Sounding Board."

On May 26, candidates for First District supervisor—John F. McInnis, Dr. William F. Upton and Melvin Warenback—will be heard on the "Sounding Board" program.

Rhodesians Bar Entry Of Marin Clergyman

An Episcopalian minister from San Rafael has been barred from entering Rhodesia, where he had planned to spend several months conducting a training program so Rhodesian clergymen could help Africans.

Rev. Canon Trevor A. Hoy, 44, of 77 Manderly Road, sent his wife a cable yesterday saying he had been refused entry as soon as he stepped off a plane at Bulawayo.

Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, was expelled from Rhodesia last December after he went there to visit the Rt. Rev. J. F. Skelton, bishop of the Diocese of Matabeland. Hoy was also scheduled to meet Skelton on his arrival.

Hoy is a former program director for the California diocese. He had been working for Glide Foundation of San Francisco on programs for dealing with racial minorities.

Freeman said Hoy recently volunteered to go to Rhodesia without pay to set up a program so clergymen there could help Africans to help themselves.

Hoy told his wife in the cable that he had returned to Livingston, Zambia, to await instructions from Bishop Pike.

Fairfax To Fete Good Citizens

For the second year in a row, the men and women who serve citizens of Fairfax without pay as councilmen, commissioners or school board members were scheduled to get a free meal this evening as a token of appreciation from the Fairfax Merchants Assn.

The dinner is scheduled to start at 8 p.m. at the Deer Park Villa.

Last year, 24 public officials were honored before an audience of 140 persons.

Trial Scheduled In Theft Case

Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court yesterday scheduled a jury trial Sept. 6 for Thomas Grinner, 19, charged with April 2 burglary of Hilarita Housing Project in Tiburon.

Grinner, of 44 Cole Drive, Marin City, was arrested by sheriff's officers after Deputy John Goff fired a warning shot. A companion was seen running from the building, but escaped.

Citizens Council

Sausalito Citizens Council directors will meet Tuesday. The board, which meets in alternate homes of members, did not meet Monday night because of the meeting of the Sausalito School District board, said Carl W. Spring, corresponding secretary.

Accident Brings Second Suit

A second injury suit in a scaffold accident in San Rafael last Oct. 25 has been filed in Marin Superior Court.

Lafayette Walker, 46, of 3 Boulevard Terrace, Novato, asks $50,000 for injuries, including broken ribs, suffered in the fall during work on a new building at 36 Greenside Way.

A co-worker, John J. Boque Sr., 64, Santa Rosa, earlier filed a $100,000 suit. Both allege negligence in maintenance of the scaffold by Marin Scaffolding Co. and E. D. McGillicuddy Construction Co. of Novato.

Plea Is Changed In Burglary Case

Clifford John Kavis, 21, changed his plea to guilty yesterday in Marin Superior Court to a charge of burglary. He had been scheduled for jury trial.

Kavis, of Bermuda Palms, Motel, San Rafael, burgled a room there occupied by Alexander Keller last Dec. 31. He will be sentenced June 8.

Probation Given In Burglary Case

Kirk Kneedler Taylor, 28-year-old San Anselmo machinist, was placed on two years probation, fined $176, and sentenced to 60 days in county jail yesterday in Marin Superior Court for burglary.

Taylor, of 482 Scenic Avenue, pleaded guilty April 19 to taking tools from a shed owned by Neil Martin at 211 Shoreline Highway, Tamalpais Valley.

Youngster Injured On Strawberry Road

A 5-year-old Strawberry girl was cut and bruised on the right leg when hit by a car as she ran across Ricardo Road at Reed Boulevard, Strawberry, at 5:15 p.m. Monday.

Kelly Ann O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald T. O'Connor of 205 Timoteo Terrace, Strawberry, was hit by a westbound car driven by Mrs. Kenny Miravalle, 39, of 232 East Strawberry Drive, reported the California Highway Patrol. She was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Next to domestic fowl, starlings and house sparrows represent the largest population segment of the world's 100 billion birds.

Guilty Plea Entered In Burglary Of Home

Charles James Stephens, 20, of Woodacre Monday pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court to possession of goods stolen from a Forest Knolls home. He will be sentenced June 8.

The burglary was that of the home of Peter R. Hansen last Dec. 4.

Juvenile Hall Given Cash From Sausalito

The Sausalito Salvage Shop has given $250 to the Marin County Juvenile Hall.

Ira Okun, hall superintendent, said the money would be used for recreation. The gift was presented by Mrs. John Alexander, chairman of the shop.

Girl Driver Injured In One-Car Accident

Nicki Lee Heller, 15, of 90 Alta Vista, Mill Valley, suffered a cut mouth at 1:30 a.m. yesterday when the car she was driving left Corte Madera, went over a bank and hit a redwood tree.

Police Officer Harvey Zion, whose patrol car had passed hers a minute earlier, said she told him she crashed because she was so afraid Zion was going to stop her that she took her eyes off the road to watch the patrol car in her rear-view mirror.

Marin Girl Elected

Joan Houston, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Houston of 63 Billou Street, San Rafael, has been elected secretary-treasurer of Shield, a women's service organization at the College of Idaho, Caldwell, Idaho.

San Anselmo Woman Injured On Highway

Mrs. Helen Elizabeth Kelly, 46, of 40 Magnolia Avenue, San Anselmo, was injured when her northbound car skidded across Highway 101 near Miller Creek Road, Marinwood, and overturned at 8:30 a.m. Monday.

Mrs. Kelly was treated for cuts and bruises at Marin General Hospital. She told the California Highway Patrol she was cut off by a passing car.

Political Sleuths Keep State Races Hot

By BILL BOYARSKY

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Hidden away from the public eye, anonymous investigators have been supplying the fuel for California's heated campaign for governor.

Are they political super sleuths, prying into the private lives of candidates?

Or, are they researchers, providing information for high-minded speeches on the issues?

The public was reminded of their existence this week in the furor over a Democratic attack on George Christopher, a Republican candidate for governor.

Don Bradley, Democratic Gov. Brown's campaign aide, admitted that a former San Francisco newspaperman, Dick Hyer, was employed to investigate Christopher.

"This is standard operating procedure," he said. "The Republicans do it too."

A survey of the other candidates revealed they also have research organizations. Sometimes, they've been used to check the background of political figures.

Ronald Reagan, the other main Republican candidate for governor, employed a Southern California research firm—Behavior Science Corp. of Panorama City—last February.

"We research all the issues and positions he's taken," said Dr. Stanley Plog, one of two UCLA professors who founded the firm four and one half years ago.

But Plog said Behavior Science was also investigating the governor's background, in anticipation of a Reagan-Brown race in the November general election.

"We're going into a lot of things," he said. "We kind of cover the waterfront there."

Plog said that the research firm, for example, was looking into the previously disclosed fact that one of Brown's sons-in-law served as counsel for a smog-control device firm seeking state business.

A spokesman for Christopher said he has people who collects information for speeches and do some investigating, too.

Christopher investigators, for example, checked court records and interviewed people for ammunition against the recent Democratic attack.

Brown's main primary foe, Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. Yorty, has "a lot of his research done for him at city hall," a spokesman said. "If it's related to city-state, it's done at city hall."

The state central committees of both parties have research facilities to gather information for speeches—and for use against candidates.

Democratic State Chairman Robert W. Coate Tuesday issued a detailed statement charging that Christopher had made a private profit from his public position while mayor of San Francisco—a charge Christopher said was "a cheap smear" for which Brown was personally responsible.

Earlier in the campaign, the Republican State Central Committee, in its newsletter, Am-

Marin Voters Face Punch Card Tryout

It will be "punch, brother, punch with care" when Marinites go to the polls on June 7.

In use for the first time here will be Votomatic vote recorders, in which cards punched with a stylus replace the traditional printed ballot.

The county will have 1,136 of the Votomatics in use, rented on a trial basis with the idea they will be used from now on if they work as well as County Clerk George H. Gnoss and his assistants hope they will.

The voter will be handed a card with 12 columns of numbers. The key to it will be in a "book" of 12 pages attached to each Votomatic. As the pages are turned, the number on the card will line up with the appropriate candidates and propositions on the ballot. The voter will punch with a stylus a spot opposite the candidate or the "yes" or "no" he wishes to vote.

He will then place his punched card in an envelope, hand it to the election clerk, and go merrily on his way. And the election clerks won't have to sit and count for hours after the polls close. The bundle of cards will be taken to the Civic Center and run through an IBM computer, which will count them all in a hurry.

John H. Musser, who as chief of the election department of the county clerk's office is in charge of the whole operation, figures the entire list of candidates and propositions will all be tallied within six hours after the polls close—or less than half the time it took in the 1964 primary.

They did it that fast in San Joaquin County, where the Votomatic was used in the 1964 general election in which 93,000 votes were cast, according to Musser. He figures there'll be some 60,000 votes in Marin's primary this year.

There's a saving, too. Instead of the 360 polling places with eight election officials at each (four on day shift and four on night shift) which Marin County had two years ago, there'll be 183 polling places with five officials at each.

This will be possible because: (1) there'll be no need for a second shift of officials to count the ballots; (2) there'll be six voting booths at each polling place, instead of three as in the past, and (3) voting goes faster with the "punch system" than with the unwieldy paper ballots—nearly 40 per cent faster, according to San Joaquin County's experience.

This last feature will help eliminate long waiting lines in front of the voting booths, Musser believes.

Helping to speed things up, too, will be demonstrator Votomatics—one at each polling place in addition to those in the booths which are used for actual voting. That's where the fifth election official comes in: She'll be showing voters how to insert the cards in the Votomatic and punch their choices. (A whole new corps of election officials is being trained, Musser reports.)

Many will already have learned how to do it at demonstrations which are being given throughout the county by the

BY THE NUMBERS—Voters at the June 7 primary in Marin will be handed ballot cards like the one above, printed only with columns of numbers.

PUNCH YOUR CHOICE—A stylus will replace the familiar rubber stamp for Votomatic voting. When the card is inserted under the "book" with the pins through holes at top, as shown here, the holes come opposite the candidates or propositions. Just punch your choice. (This photo shows a sample ballot from 1964—don't let the names on it throw you.)

Monks Block Ky Men At Pagoda

Reds Hit On Ho's Birthday

COMBINED AP & UPI

DA NANG — Government troops shot it out with rebel South Vietnamese soldiers in a Buddhist pagoda here last night. A sitdown by Buddhist Monks and Boy Scouts halted a tank-led government march on another temple.

At least five persons were killed and 68 wounded by bullets and bombs in the clash that occurred when rebels in the Tinh Haoi Pagoda tried to extend their lines.

UPI correspondents counted three bodies on the scene of the clash. Hospitals reported receiving 70 wounded—60 civilians and 10 soldiers — and said two of them died.

WOMEN WOUNDED

The wounded included a young woman whose arm was almost blown off by a hand grenade and a teenage girl who was shot in the face.

Today, Communist battalion observed Ho Chi Minh's 76th birthday by smashing across the 10-mile wide demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam. It attacked two South Vietnamese positions in the first such direct invasion of the war.

BIRTHDAY EVENT

Reliable American sources in Hue old UPI correspondent Robert Ibrahim the Red attack by 500 to 600 North Vietnamese apparently was "a raid in force . . . to celebrate" the birthday of the wispy, bearded North Vietnamese president.

The demilitarized zone—DMZ to the military was established by the 1954 Geneva Conference which ended the French Indochina War. Viet Nam was partitioned at the 17th parallel and a demilitarized zone roughly five and one-

Union Death Case Office Ransacked

Law officers of San Francisco and Sacramento County were trying to find out today why a Sacramento union welfare fund official's office in Carmichael was ransacked hours after he shot himself to death there.

The break-in added one more startling element to an already sensational chain of events related to the murders of Painters Union officials Dow Wilson and Lloyd Green.

The Sacramento County coroner's office sealed the office early yesterday after removing the body of Sture Youngren, 57, a former Marin County businessman who ran an insurance agency and managed the welfare fund for Sacramento Local 478 of the union.

Sheriff's deputies, making a routine check at dawn, found the seal broken and the door pried open. Drawers and file cabinets inside had been ransacked.

"We have no idea what the burglar or burglars were looking for," said Sacramento Dist. Atty. John M. Price. "But we know they did not get the books of the welfare fund because I had already taken those to my office.

Airman's Jumping Up Possible Death Cause

A/1c Robert M. Jennings may have inadvertently pushed a knife into his own chest when A/1c James O. Young held it against him during an angry Christmas Eve quarrel in the barracks at Hamilton Air Force Base.

This was the testimony today of Capt. Leonard Lefkowitz, attending physician at the base hospital, in Young's court martial on a charge of first degree murder.

Yesterday, A/3c John L. Savage related the events leading up to the stabbing, which climaxed a drinking party in the barracks hallway.

Young, said Savage, ran upstairs to his room after Jennings, a Negro, told him, "I want to marry your sister." He returned with a pistol and hunting knife and placed both of them against Jennings' chest.

Savage said he observed Young make a deliberate forward motion with the knife. Jennings, sitting in a chair, rose and pulled away.

"You stuck me once, what more do you want to do?" Jennings was quoted as saying. Jennings then fled the building and was found unconscious near an adjacent building a half hour

EDWARDS AFB (UPI) — The XB-70 successfully streaked faster than a rifle's bullet — 2,000 miles an hour — for 32 minutes yesterday.

Lawmakers Compromise On Pay, Constitution

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A joint Senate-Assembly committee today agreed on a compromise in the two house dispute over revising California's constitution and a legislative pay raise.

Senate President pro tem Hugh M. Burns, D-Fresno, said the agreement covers legislative retirement provisions, conflict of interest and provides for annual session, in addition to the pay raise.

The two house dispute over constitutional revision has stalled action on Gov. Brown's $4.62 billion budget and his plans for balancing it.

Burns said the committee will recommend that an Assembly-passed bill be revised to boost pay from the present $6,000 a year to $17,500 instead of $18,000 as has been previously proposed.

Other provisions of the agreement include a restriction that the pay raise wouldn't take effect until Jan. 1 and retirement benefits under the increased salary would not apply before then.

Burns said conflict of interest provisions will restrict lawmakers from representing clients in connection with state business.

No decision was made on whether the annual legislative sessions should be limited in length. Under a constitutional amendment adopted by the Assembly, but stalled in the Senate, the sessions would have been limited to 166 days.

A Senate provision permitting a joint legislative committee empowered to call special sessions was eliminated.

Burns said action on the compromise is expected next week.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Billy Graham Sails For London

NEW YORK (UPI) — Evangelist Billy Graham sailed for London yesterday to launch a "massive" crusade there aimed at the youth of both Britain and America.

Graham

Graham said his "most massive and intensive crusade" will be directed at Britain's youth—and indirectly aimed at American youth—because "British youth influences American youth now more than ever."

"I had hoped to grow my hair long to identify with the young, but my wife and staff wouldn't let me," Graham joked at a pre-sailing news conference aboard the Queen Mary.

Graham said he expects more than one million persons from throughout the British isles to participate in the June 1-July 2 crusade.

Bomb Blast In Canada Parliament

OTTAWA (AP)—A mad bomber who blew himself up was blamed today for a bomb explosion in Canada's Parliament building.

Solicitor General Lawrence T. Pennell told a news conference last night the man who died when his homemade dynamite bomb went off in a washroom yesterday was Paul Joseph Chartier, 45, Toronto.

Chartier

The washroom is near the offices of Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson and Foreign Secretary Paul Martin. It was the first such bombing in the 99-year history of the Canadian Parliament.

Chartier once had been a psychiatric patient and left writings in his Toronto rooming house which indicated he felt "the world hadn't done right by him and there were injustices to correct," Pennell said.

Pentagon Boss Asks Voluntary Youth Service

Two Years' Work Either In Uniform Or Peace Projects

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is thinking of a voluntary effort—not compulsion — in his proposal that every young American devote two years to service either in uniform, the Peace Corps or some other help-mankind program.

Associates of the defense chief said this today after McNamara returned from Montreal, where he offered his proposal in a wide-ranging speech to the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

BOTH MEN, WOMEN

Sources familiar with McNamara's thinking said the secretary envisions both young men and young women taking part.

Officials cautioned against jumping to any conclusions that the Pentagon would send implementing legislation to Congress. They did not rule out the possibility, however.

His service for all youth proposal came after he spoke of the need for a worldwide community of effort.

'COMMITTED'

The present young generation in the United States is "committed and dedicated" — it has so shown itself in the Peace Corps overseas and the antipoverty assault at home, McNamara told the editors.

Then he said the present draft system, drawing on only a minority of eligible young men, is an inequity.

"It seems to me that we could move toward remedying that inequity by asking every young person in the United States to give two years of service to his country — whether in one of the military services, in the Peace Corps, or in some other volunteer developmental work at home or abroad," he added.

High, Low Mercury

NEW YORK (UPI) —The highest temperature reported yesterday to the U.S. Weather Bureau, excluding Hawaii and Alaska, was 106 degrees at Palm Springs and Thermal, Calif. The lowest reported this morning was 26 at Butte, Mont.

Military Probing Red China Trading

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says it is investigating Sen. Ernest Gruening's charge that the Navy has unwittingly done business in Hong Kong with companies controlled by Communist China.

The Alaska Democrat called for tighter control procedures to make sure the armed forces do not violate the Trading With the Enemy Act.

"We are looking into this matter," Asst. Secretary of Defense Paul R. Ignatius told Gruening during a Senate hearing on supply policies yesterday.

Gruening's assertion grew out of an investigation his staff conducted in Hong Kong.

Joseph Lippman, staff director of the Senate subcommittee on Foreign Aid Expenditures, went there in March to make sure that discarded military equipment was not finding its way into Red Chinese hands.

Gruening said Lippman "learned that the U.S. Navy, which operates a procurement office in Hong Kong, had been making substantial purchases of electronic or other equipment from two firms which were owned or controlled or otherwise affiliated with Communist China."

The senator made that statement April 21 in a letter to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. At that time Gruening

War Blamed For Rise In U.S. Dollar Drain

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Viet Nam war has virtually ended any chance of halting the drain of American dollars overseas this year.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler indicated this much yesterday. Although ending the deficit in the U.S. balance of payments in 1966 is still the goal, he said, the administration may have to settle for something less.

"It may well be that we will have to settle for an interim objective of equilibrium exclusive of the costs of Viet Nam," Fowler added.

He made the comments in reporting a disappointing $582-million deficit in the payments position for the first three months of this year.

Fowler said he could not give the dollar and cent estimate of the effects of the war on the net dollar outflow but added that since the buildup began last August "we have been little more than holding our own."

Not only has the war meant a net outflow for direct military aid, the secretary said, it also has adversely affected the historically favorable U.S. trade balance.

Fowler said it's impossible to spell out how much more favorable the trade balance would be without the pressures on industrial capacity and demand created partly by the Viet Nam war. But he made clear the adverse effect may well have been greater than the direct costs of the war.

Christopher Sues Pearson Over Column

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Republican gubernatorial hopeful George Christopher has filed a $6 million counter-suit against newspaper columnist Drew Pearson.

Pearson filed suit Monday against the former San Francisco mayor and dairy operator asking $2,635,000.

Pearson said in his suit that Christopher wrongfully attempted to halt publication of May 9 and 10 columns discussing Christopher's 1940 technical violation of the State Milk Control law.

In his counter-suit yesterday, Christopher says Pearson "wrote and circulated...the columns on behalf of and as part of the political campaign of Edmund G. Brown, candidate for the gubernatorial nomination." Brown, a Democrat, is the incumbent.

Wolden Campaign Secretary Testifies On Bookkeeping

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The secretary who handled campaign financial records for Assessor Russell L. Wolden says "I kept the books in a business-like manner."

Mrs. Margaret Wanstrath testified yesterday in Wolden's bribery trial in San Francisco Superior Court. She took the stand after Wolden himself stepped down after a total of nine days of defense testimony.

Earlier, Wolden testified he was in debt. He said he received a $25,000 loan three weeks ago by putting up all his interest in San Francisco Knitting Mills.

He said the only piece of property he owned that was not encumbered was his residence in Redwood City.

WAR

half miles wide was set up on each side of the border.

The 10-mile zone theoretically was to be free of all military activity. In actuality Communists have infiltrated across the zone into South Viet Nam many times and American war planes have bombed targets in the area by mistake a number of times. The Communists also sent small squads across to attack Vietnamese positions but never in strength before.

In an attempt to exploit the civil turmoil, the Viet Cong's underground Liberation radio threw Communist support behind the rebels and urged all South Vietnamese troops to "rise up" against the government.

Buddhist leaders in Saigon and the northern provinces sent pleas for intervention to end the civil strife to world leaders, but significantly the monks avoided any association with the Viet Cong overtures.

The Buddhists also canceled all rallies today to avoid the impression that they might be in honor of North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh's 76th birthday.

The confrontation at the Pho Da Pagoda ended indecisively, with government troops behind a barbed-wire entanglement facing rebels and Buddhist youths behind an oil-drum barricade barely 40 feet away.

Diplomacy Tempo Rises In Europe On NATO Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The tempo of diplomatic discussions among North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies has quickened in advance of a Brussels meeting in three weeks of foreign ministers of NATO nations.

Belgium's foreign minister, Pierre Harmel, is in Washington for talks with President Johnson and other administration officials. Britain's minister for European affairs, George Thomson, completed a series of Washington conferences earlier in the week.

U. S. officials are reported seeking a solid lineup among 14 Atlantic allies on plans to reshape NATO if the 15th member, France, follows through on plans to withdraw from the alliance's integrated military setup.

Boy Pleads Innocent On Burglary Charge

One Marin City youth pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to burglary, and a second is scheduled for plea entry at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow on the joint charge.

Larry Cleary Walker, 18, of 31 Cole Drive, entered the plea. Co-defendant is William Lloyd Bland, also 18, of 99 Cole Drive. The youths allegedly entered the home of Mrs. Frances M. Staub, 45, of 30 Glenn Drive, Mill Valley, on Monday. Nothing was believed taken from the home.

Sausalito Planners Back County Bonds

Sausalito Planning Commission voted last night to back the proposed $4.3 million county park bond issue which is on the June 7 ballot. The vote was six favoring, commissioners Hendrik J. Keizer and Mrs. Richard Phillips abstaining.

Commissioners continued to June 15 proposed prezoning of certain areas adjacent to the Sausalito City Limits and expressed pleasure on hearing that the city council plans to hire Lawrence Halprin and Associates to design the widening of Bridgeway, chairman Alan D. Bonapart reported.

Committee Asks Tomales Unification

The Marin County Committee On School District Organization last night recommended 8-2 that the Tomales High School District be unified, after rejecting a proposal that it be joined with the Petaluma High School District.

The committee's action was a tentative recommendation to the State Board of Education, which has previously rejected the same proposal three times. It will not be submitted to the board until after a public hearing June 15 at 8 p.m. in Tomales High School.

Asst. County Supt. Robert F. Stannard said the State Board of Education likely would declare an impasse and the matter would be decided by a review committee selected by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The committee rejected the motion to join the Tomales and Petaluma district 3-7, with Roy A. Parks, Mrs. Ellen Binkley and Mrs. Marietta Larsen voting in favor. Mrs. Binkley and Mrs. Larsen voted against the single unification proposal.

POLITICS

munition, ran a story saying a man the paper identified as a crony of the governor's was a witness in the bribery trial of San Francisco assessor Russell Wolden.

To the public, it's all dirty politics. To the professionals, it's "the name of the game."

"If you're running against a man, you must know his background and record," said one veteran of 15 political campaigns.

"His personal moral and professional competence are just as significant as his record," he said. "His morality is just as relevant as his stand on Prop. 14."

Don't these investigations amount to smears?

A spokesman for Brown's campaign organization said "all three Republican candidates and one Democratic candidate have been leveling charges. We haven't been crying foul.

"We don't consider anything we've done as a smear," he said. "It's a smear if it's untrue or so late that the person who is a target can't respond."

Child Beating Count Admitted

A/2c Harold Dean Pennington, 27, pleaded guilty today in Marin Municipal Court to misdemeanor child-beating on Jan. 7. Judgment will be June 9.

Pennington, stationed at Mount Tamalpais Radar Station, was accused of holding his daughter, Ada, aged 3, under a cold water tap at their home in Hilarita Housing, Tiburon, to discipline her for bed-wetting.

She slipped from his grasp, fell and broke her left arm, officers said.

Corte Madera Cites Boy In Auto Theft

Corte Madera police yesterday cited a 17-year-old San Rafael boy for felony auto theft after he allegedly admitted stealing a 1966 Corvette from Campbell-Bishop Chevrolet Co. Jan. 29.

The boy was arrested in San Francisco Tuesday after police stopped him and found the car to be stolen. Corte Madera police said he admitted throwing the license plates into the bay near San Quentin Prison.

VOTES

League of Women Voters; but the big majority will want to watch before they punch, Musser figures.

There's a color key to the new voting system, too.

Each registered Republican will be handed a blue ballot card. Each Democrat will be handed a salmon-pink one. Each non-partisan registrant will get a white card.

The first six pages of the "book" are in color. The salmon-pink pages work only for punching the Democratic ballot; the blue pages, only for the GOP. Everyone votes the white pages.

The ballot card is slipped under the "book," with two pins at the top going through two round holes punched near the top of the card. This locates it properly.

As the voter completes the first column of his choices, he turns the page. That page automatically covers up the first column of numbers, and exposes the next column to be voted—the candidates or propositions for which appear on the next page of the book. There's no chance for error, insists International Business Machines Corp., the company that produces Votomatic.

The system includes a provision for write-in votes—and these are the only ones that will have to be counted by the precinct election officials.

Under the system set up for the primary, six nearby precincts will deliver their ballot cards directly to the Civic Center. For the rest, 12 receiving centers will be set up throughout the county, each with a deputy county clerk and a deputy sheriff.

As soon as all the 30-or-so polling places in one receiving center's area have delivered their ballot cards there, the clerk and sheriff's deputies will take them to the Civic Center to be run through the big computer. If some precinct is slow about reporting, those on hand will be delivered to the Civic Center and an extra trip made to pick up the laggards, Musser said.

One thing will be missing: The voter can't drop by his polling place next morning to see how his favorite candidate did in the home precinct. There will be no vote count sheet posted in front of the polling place. For the officials they won't know themselves how the count came out, unless they call the Civic Center or the courthouse.

Talk about secret ballots!

New Rights Group Slates First Meeting

Organizational meeting of the county's new Human Rights Commission has been scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday at the Civic Center.

Election of officers, drawing of lots to determine which of the nine commissioners will have one year terms and which two years, and discussion of staff needs have been suggested for study by County Administrator Alan Bruce, in whose office the meeting will be held.

later. He died two hours later at the hospital.

Lefkowitz, however, testified today that Jennings could have pushed the knife into his own chest by moving forward if Young was holding it rigidly. He also said Jennings might have survived if he had received immediate medical attention.

Another witness today was Maj. Jimmy R. Snoga, who performed the autopsy at 10 a.m. Christmas Day. He said death was caused by loss of blood.

Jennings, said Snoga, suffered a six inch wound between the first and second ribs on his upper right chest. The knife entered the center of his chest cavity, cutting a slice from the top of his right lung and severing blood vessels which feed it.

Young's mother, Mrs. Cecil Smejkal of Russell, Kans., has sat dry-eyed through the proceedings so far.

Two witnesses appeared yesterday, and five more had testified when the court recessed temporarily at 11 a.m. today.

The court martial was expected to continue at least through tomorrow, with Lt. Col. Arnold C. Castle of Davis-Monthan Air Force Base, Ariz., as trial officer.

Two Burglaries Net $1,000 In Marin City

Apartments of two Marin City residents were burgled, with loot totaling nearly $1,000, sheriff's officers reported today.

Owen Thomas Orsen, 191 Drake Avenue, told deputies his dwelling was entered by prying a front door, books and coins were scattered over the living room, and a $200 television set and a stereophonic set worth $225 were stolen.

Hector Spence, 907 Drake Avenue, told deputies a locked door was kicked open by burglars who stole two table lamps, a phonograph, and a radio. Total value was estimated at $450.

Sequoia Realty, 1040 Redwood Highway, Alto, was entered by breaking a window. Officers said the intruders apparently drank two bottles of imported beer inside the building, then left with a transistor radio and a pocket compass.

'Marin Future' Meeting Planned

Members of the Citizens Advisory Committee for Development of Marin last night discussed sponsorship of a third Future of Marin Conference for either the spring or fall of next year.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, serving as staff coordinator for the committee, said topic for the conference has not been decided.

First conference was on a county master plan and what it should be, and the second was on goals.

Questioning Goes On For Murder Panel assume that something in connection with the embezzlement—or perhaps the murders — was being sought."

Sacramento and San Francisco officers had questioned Youngren Tuesday about shortages in the $500,000 fund. Sacramento investigator Donald Shierts said Youngren estimated that $60,000 was missing.

Of this, Shierts reported, Youngren said he had kept about $18,000 and given the other $42,000 to Norman Call, 46, a painting contractor and employer trustee of the fund, and auditor Carl M. Black.

Call and Black are among five men charged with plotting the April 5 shotgun slaying of Wilson, a 40-year-old official of San Francisco's Local 4. Police also are checking links to the May 7 killing, also by shotgun, of Green, 45-year-old secretary of the Hayward local. No charge has been filed in connection with his death.

Wilson and Green both had charged shortly before their deaths that the Sacramento welfare fund had been mishandled. Investigators have said they found a diagram of Green's home at Call's house.

Youngren left a note to his wife saying suicide was "the coward's way out, but I'm taking it." San Francisco officers said they had found no evidence linking Youngren with the killings.

Others accused in the Wilson death plot are Richard Rock, 33, of Mill Valley, owner of a San Francisco bar; Max Ward, 47, a Sacramento area contractor and employer trustee of the welfare fund, and Clyde Simmonds, 75, an employee of Call.

Hamilton Sewer Plant Approved

The House Armed Services Committee has authorized a $422,000 addition to the sewage plant at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Rep. Donald H. Clausen, R-First District, said the project is called for to bring the plant up to effluent standards of the Regional Water Pollution Control Board and the federal government.

The fiscal 1967 budget now before Congress contains the money for the project, said Clausen. It is rare for such work to be authorized and paid for in the same fiscal year. Clausen said he foresees no difficulty in the project getting final approval by the House and Senate.

Erroneous Figure Clouds Sample Ballot On Schools Unification

A false figure on the percentage of tax increase that Dixie-San Rafael school unification might mean for San Rafael Elementary School District residents appears in an enclosure that is being mailed with sample ballots for the June 7 election.

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization debated long on what to do about it, both during and after a public hearing on the unification which drew an audience of only 30 people at the Marin Civic Center last night.

Finally, the committee voted unanimously to have the county schools office re-calculate the figure, and issue a substitute statement to be published in the Independent-Journal and the Terra Linda News, and circulated through the county schools office and the school districts involved.

The error appears in the argument against unification, signed by Dr. John Hamren and David D. Ring of the county committee, which is being mailed to voters. It says:

"The estimated increase for the San Rafael taxpayer is 17 per cent including the override taxes."

Robert F. Stannard of the county schools office called attention to the error, saying the correct figure should be 10 per cent. Later on, however, he said 17 per cent might be correct—"it depends on what assumptions you use."

Mrs. Marietta Larsen of the county committee said her figures showed a 7.2 per cent increase in tax rate for San Rafael Elementary School District residents, based on this year's assessed valuation.

Mrs. Larsen's figures — which proved to be identical with computations by the Central Marin League of Women Voters — showed the combined elementary and high school districts' tax rates in San Rafael, not counting bond repayment, would total $4.415 if the maximum "operating tax rate" authorized by voters were levied.

Those in the Dixie district would total $5.555 with the same assumption, including the 90-cent increase in Dixie district voted in April. The rate for the unified district figures at $4.725.

By simple arithmetic, Mrs. Larsen arrived at a difference of 7.2 per cent between $4.415 and $4.725 for San Rafael district residents.

Nobody questioned the amount of tax reduction for Dixie District residents.

Mrs. Larsen and committee member Ellen Binkley, calling the error "a sad state of affairs," proposed that a special postcard mailing to all voters be done to correct it. However, Stannard pointed out that this would cost something over $1,000, and the committee has control of no funds.

T. Neal McNamara of the Dixie District board and Thomas F. Campnella, Dixie District citizen finance committee chairman, insisted something should be done. At length the committee voted unanimously for the publicity campaign.

San Rafael will not lose $166,000 to Dixie District if the unification fails, Stannard said, because that amount diverted from San Rafael Elementary District taxpayers under the Unruh Act will be repaid from state funds that will then become available to San Rafael under the state's complicated financial aid formula.

The sparse audience at the hearing included the entire Dixie District board (except Mrs. Dorothy Brown—and she was there as a member of the committee), its superintendent, several members of the Dixie superintendent's staff, four members of the Dixie citizen finance committee, and some of their wives. No member of the San Rafael Board of Education was present, and Supt. Bert C. Corona was there without any member of his staff.

Dixie Area Holds Meetings On Unifications Pros, Cons

A series of meetings of Parent-Teacher Associations and parents clubs are being used to acquaint Dixie School District residents with pros and cons of the Dixie-San Rafael unification proposal, Dr. John M. Starkweather of the Dixie board reported last night.

Major meetings are expected to be those next Tuesday night at Nova Albion, Dixie, and Bernard Hoffman schools, he said.

Thomas F. Campanella, chairman of the Dixie District's citizen finance committee, said his committee would make sure that speakers favoring the unification appeared at all the meetings.

The finance committee voted "about 9 to 1" to urge passage of the unification, Campanella said. The school board, however, has refused to go on record for or against.

Starkweather described himself as "on the fence" but "becoming more favorable the more I find out."

Melvin R. Stidham of the Dixie board declared at a public hearing last night that proponents of unification fail to show any specific advantages.

Board member T. Neal McNamara urged correction of an error in the ballot argument against unification which made the expected tax increase in San Rafael appear larger, percentage-wise, than has been computed. A fourth board member, Mrs. Dorothy Brown, argued the error did not matter and did not need correction.

The fifth member of the Dixie board, Earl H. Koehler, has in the past frequently objected to details of the unification proposal.

Japanese occupied Burma during World War II, setting up a puppet government made up of anti-British nationalists, who later turned against Japan.

Diameter Of Earth Measured Accurately

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Based on analysis of more than 46,500 observations of 13 different satellites, Dr. George Veis of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory at Cambridge, Mass., and the National Technical University, Athens, calculates 3,963.203 miles as the mean radius of the earth.

The measurement is believed to be accurate to within eight meters (26 feet, 3 inches), according to UNESCO Features, a publication of the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

Two-Thirds Of Nation Lives In City Areas

WASHINGTON (UPI) — About two out of every three Americans live in metropolitan areas—those with a "core city" of at least 50,000 inhabitants.

The U.S. Census Bureau says 123.8 million persons live in metropolitan areas, compared with 68.4 million in non-metropolitan areas.

$18,000 Planned For Senior Center

A promise of federal funds to launch the proposed $360,000 activities center at Civic Center was reported last night to the Marin Senior Coordinating Council.

The activities center would become the heart of senior citizen programs in the county.

State Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, telephoned the council meeting last night to say that "it is practically certain" that $18,000 will be available by July 1.

Richard Phenix, county coordinator of senior citizen planning, said this would be used to start designing the center, which will occupy two acres leased to the council by the supervisors for $1-a-year for 99 years.

The federal funds are part of the $300,000 allocated to the state under the Older Americans Act of 1965. Release of the $18,000, Phenix said, has been approved by the Governor's Citizens Advisory Committee on Aging.

An additional $142,000 in federal money has been applied for by the council, which will have to raise $100,000 in matching funds. Last night, Mr. and Mrs. Merriam Stetson, who first organized the non-profit council 12 years ago, gave $2,100 toward a fund raising campaign.

Walter F. Freitas of San Rafael is chairman of the committee in charge of the program to create the new center by 1969.

Florence E. Vickery of Mill Valley was named program consultant. Mrs. Vickery is executive director of the San Francisco Senior Center. She will serve on a consulting fee basis.

Leroy Rudolph, vice president and manager of the San Rafael branch of Bank of America, was elected treasurer to replace the late Dorothy Abel. All other officers were re-elected. They are: Vera L. Schultz, president; Mrs. Rose Paul, George V. Banning and Hugh Cassidy, vice presidents; Ann McCorry, secretary.

Terra Linda Park Priorities

Directors of the Terra Linda Recreation and Park District last night decided a priority list on development and improvements is needed and that development of Oleander Park should be high on the list, director James Hand reported.

Directors also made some minor revisions in the preliminary budget, including establishing a $1,000 reserve fund, and agreed to further fiscal discussion at the June 1 meeting. Public hearing on the budget will be at 8 p.m. June 8 at the Recreation Center.

Hand said directors agreed to the summer recreation program with six hours a day at the center and four hours each at two school playgrounds, possibly Bernard Hoffman and Santa Margarita schools.

Directors also agreed to extend the dance program through the summer.

Wale's Gulch, Mizzen Topsail and Come By Chance are among place names in the province of Newfoundland, Canada.

State Welfare Aide Arrested After Collision

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Mrs. Eunice B. Evans, chief deputy director of the State Social Welfare Department, has been booked in city jail on misdemeanor charges of drunken driving, leaving the scene of an accident and other traffic violations.

Mrs. Evans, 52, was released yesterday after posting $330 bond and scheduled to appear in municipal court tomorrow.

Police said Mrs. Evans struck a highway patrolman's car parked by the curb Tuesday night. Patrolman Patrick J. O'Hare said he pursued Mrs. Evans, stopped her and called police.

Officers also charged Mrs. Evans with having no operator's license and no vehicle registration in her car.

Students Strike At Cafeteria

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—San Francisco State student bus boys and dishwashers, striking for recognition of their newly organized union, closed the college's cafeteria yesterday.

About 65 fulltime unionized employees honored the picket line set up by about 50 part time student workers.

Glenn Smith, assistant to the college president, said the cafeteria board had agreed to negotiate with the students on their demand for a wage boost to $1.85 an hour. Their present pay is $1.25 to $1.35 an hour plus one meal for work tricks of two to three hours.

LOS ANGELES CITED

Conservationists Told To Pick Major Goals

You can go all the way from one side of Los Angeles to the other on horseback.

This somewhat surprising fact was reported to about 25 members of the Marin Conservation Council last night by County Recreation Director Pierre Joske, who was in charge of park planning in Los Angeles before he came here a few weeks ago.

Joske used several illustrations from that city to illustrate his belief that a solution to the dilemma of Marin's disappearing open space may be the multiple use of watersheds, flood basins and other lands.

He said Marin County today is similar to the San Fernando Valley 20 years ago. Its people therefore, must act to prevent Marin looking in 20 years as the valley does now.

The problem, he said, will grow as an influx of people and growing demands to shift the tax base from the small property owner compete more and more with efforts to save park lands.

One way out, said Joske, would be to follow the example set by Los Angeles, which has riding trails on paved roads along its water channels, flood control basins used as parks and garbage dumps in ravines which eventually will be golf courses.

The riding trails, he said, make it possible to ride all the way from Long Beach to the mountains on horseback.

Joske urged conservationists to "identify common targets and push toward major goals" rather than dissipating their energy on too many small projects.

After his speech, Joske answered members' questions about the proposed $4.3 million county park bond issue which will be voted on June 7.

To avoid confusion with other conservation groups in the county, members decided to change the name of their organization from Marin Conservation Council to Conservation Council of Marin, according to member James Goodwine.

Sausalitan Gets Bay Council Post

James H. Davis of Sausalito has been appointed director of the newly formed department of research and information of the Bay Area Council.

Formation of the new department is "to meet the growing need for factual and current information about all phases of Bay Area economic and population growth," said Stanley E. McCaffrey, council president.

Davis was most recently marketing director of the San Francisco Examiner.

Garbage Rate Hike Demand In Mill Valley

Mill Valley garbage rates may be increased July 1 from a minimum of $1.35 per can per month to $2, Mill Valley Garbage Co. announced today.

Attorney Albert Bianchi, speaking for the company, charged the city with "violating its contract" and said the company "has had it as far as Mill Valley is concerned."

He said the company has been negotiating for almost 18 months for an increase, the first since 1956. An audit was commenced at request of the city to determine if the increase is warranted, then was discontinued before being completed, Bianchi reported.

He said the company is willing to stop its operations entirely or enter into competitive bidding for a contract.

The contract has been violated, said the attorney, because it provides rates to be set at a figure as of 1956 and reasonable rates maintained. The rates are unreasonable now, said Bianchi.

City Mgr. Bert Balmer was not available today for comment.

New Laser Photo Device Ready For Air Test

ANAHEIM (AP)—A new laser device that produces accurate images on film—possibly useful in photographic space probes—is now ready for Air Force testing, scientists report.

Spokesmen for North American Aviation's Autonetics division said a photographic recorder has been developed which may be used for transmission of newsphotos or pictures from radar or television reconnaisance cameras, such as those aboard spacecraft.

The scientists said that an intense laser light beam—focused down to a tiny spot only .0004 of an inch in diameter — inscribes lines on fine-grain, high-resolution photographic film. The closely - spaced lines form an image on the film.

Green Dies At 98; Once Senate Dean

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Theodore Francis Green, 98, who retired from the U.S. Senate in 1960, died today at his home. He was the oldest man ever to serve in the Senate.

Green's doctor said his heart failed.

Green was stricken in late 1962 with a series of cerebral strokes.

For four months he was hospitalized and then went into a nursing home. He left the convalescent home three months later, stepping spryly into a car for the drive to his own home.

Green suffered a broken hip in his home three weeks before his 96th birthday, Oct. 2, 1963.

Extolled as "the Grand Old Man" of the Senate at the apex of his career, he won his eminence in part by an energy and endurance that amazed his colleagues.

A frail and sickly boy, he had set himself a stern program of physical fitness. He became an apostle of the strenuous life and outlived his generation. He ended his Senate career because of failing eyesight and hearing.

He entered the Senate at 69, an age when most men have retired, was re-elected three times and served for 23 years.

His career included chairmanship of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, a post he gave up near the end of his career because of increasing difficulty in reading and hearing.

The Rhode Island Democrat, a millionaire lawyer and financier of colonial ancestry, was a powerful supporter of the Roosevelt New Deal and Truman Fair Deal.

THEODORE F. GREEN
Former senator dies

In all his life he had but one automobile which he used only in his 1932 campaign for governor of Rhode Island. After two terms as governor he was elected senator — the third member of his family to serve in the Senate.

He was long a Democratic national committeeman and a perennial delegate at national conventions.

While he gave up mountain climbing, tennis and wrestling in his later years, the stooped, white-mustached man of average height, maintained a gruelling pace that worried his friends.

He scoffed at advice to take it easier and in turn expressed fears for his friends who, he said, sat around lapping cocktails while he swam and hiked.

State Beauty Unit To Honor Three Marin Projects

Richardson Bay Wildlife Sanctuary in Tiburon, Marin Civic Center, and Marinwood Community Center have been chosen as "outstanding examples" of what can be done to create a better environment for Californians.

The choices were made by the Governor's Action Advisory Committee on Beauty. Mrs. Edmund G. Brown and members of the Committee will start a four-day tour of the state next week to visit 29 projects, including the three in Marin County.

The tour through Marin is scheduled for next Thursday as follows: 10:15 a.m. Richardson Bay Wildlife Sanctuary; 11:15 a.m. Civic Center; 11:30 a.m. Marinwood Community Center.

Adolescent Need Ends In Worry

ITHACA, N.Y. (UPI) —Don't blame your teenagers for seeming to care too much about clothes.

Prof. May Rayn, who spoke here at a New York Ytate College of Home Economics panel, says that almost everyone worries about clothes but teenagers worry more than most. Adolescents, she says, want to be accepted by their friends and dressing like their friends helps them gain acceptance.

"Clothes are tangible and visible," she says. "It is easy to see what others are wearing and what the group likes."

Water Board Touchy About Landscaping

Marin Municipal Water District has been getting criticism about lack of landscaping around its water tanks, and its directors are getting touchy on the subject.

Board president William A. Marcus declared at yesterday's meeting, "The policy of the board is to landscape our tanks to the extent of our abilities. . . We're landscaping without anyone writing us."

Marcus said he had seen a letter (he didn't recall where) criticizing the district for lack of landscaping.

William R. Seeger, the district's general manager, said he gets a couple such letters each week.

Seeger said the district usually plants pine or fir trees, as well as shrubbery, around the tanks to landscape them.

The Marin Municipal Water District Board also:

1. Accepted bids of $11,875 by Groeniger and Co. of Union City for copper fittings; $938 by James J. MacPhee Co. of San Rafael for various sized malleable fittings; $2,175 by Groeniger and Co. for service saddles, and $2,531 by Smith-Blair Co. of South San Francisco for other service saddles.
2. Approved the appointments of John H. Sutcliffe of Seattle, Wash., as a summer junior engineer at $631 a month; Ronald E. Johnson from temporary to full foreman at $603 monthly, and Elmer W. Wilson as summer helper at $400 monthly.
3. Authorized Seeger, when the opportunity arises, to lease sections of the San Rafael service yard to automobile dealers for parking. Seeger said he had heard rumors that several firms were interested in leasing the land.

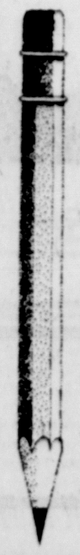
there are 28 lightly used Redwood Parks in our district now... can we afford more?

let's put the parks where the people are!

Some 28 redwood parks already encompass well over 100,000 acres of Northern California redwoods. Attendance at most of them has been declining for three years. Less than two percent of these park areas have picnic and camp sites. Yet current, irresponsible park proposals would take even more of your tax dollars to seize many more thousands of tax-paying acres in the remote, northernmost tip of California for additional park lands . . . lands not needed for the preservation of park-type redwoods. Let's spend our tax dollars for parks where people can enjoy them.

don't "PARK" jobs and payrolls

If these irresponsible redwood park plans were to be adopted, the economy of the northern half of our Congressional District would be irreparably damaged. The growth of the forest products industry would be choked off. Every business in the Redwood Region would suffer. Thousands more acres would come off our Congressional District's tax rolls. Drastic unemployment and higher taxes would be the result.



You can help put the parks where they will be used...

Courts May Solve Abortion Dispute

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The state's investigation into therapeutic abortions may result in court-developed law on the issue, predicts Charles A. O'Brien, chief deputy attorney general.

He said yesterday that two legislatures refused to act on proposed revisions of a California abortion law called archaic by doctors defending abortions performed for women who contracted German measles during pregnancy. The women feared their children would be born mentally or physically deformed.

Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike praised the doctors performing these abortions for "a commendable form of civil disobedience against the evil law which the Legislature has had every opportunity to amend."

The existing law permits therapeutic abortion only when the mother's life is in danger. The law allows no consideration of the child's fate.

Without knowledge of O'Brien's comments, Pike said the attorney general's enforcement step on the German measles abortions may have been taken to "force our legislators to abandon their archaic ideas."

O'Brien insisted that the attorney general's investigation was not a criminal inquiry nor a result of religious pressure.

He said neither Thomas C. Lynch nor the State Board of Medical Examiners was acting under religious pressure.

O'Brien said the attorney general's office was preparing accusatory statements for proceedings before the state board in only two of 21 cases provided by the board.

"There is every indication that the body of the state's doctors as well as the board is interested in getting the whole issue of therapeutic abortions before the courts," he said.

"Whatever action the board takes undoubtedly will be appealed.

"The point is whether the state's abortion law has been violated in these German measles cases and whether the doctors should be subject to medical board discipline.

"The board, like 300 other state agencies, calls on the attorney general for representation. Its action now can lead to a general court review."

Army Stopped; Bosch Cancels Vote Threat

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Ex-President Juan Bosch's party last night withdrew its threat to boycott the Dominican presidential race after the government confined the armed forces to quarters until the June 1 election is over.

The executive committee of Bosch's Dominican Revolutionary party — PRD — said in a statement that provisional President Hector Garcia-Godoy's orders had resolved the crisis. Bosch and the PRD had charged the armed forces and national police were persecuting party workers.

Garcia-Godoy in a radio-television address said that to create the proper conditions for a safe, free election he also was creating a tripartisan commission to deal with future complaints of political persecution. The commission is to include representatives of the three presidential candidates: Bosch, ex-President Joaquin Balaguer and ex-President Rafael Bonnelly.

Gunmen Disrobe, Rob Social Club's Members

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —Four bandits barged into a private social club yesterday, forced about 75 patrons to strip and held them in the nude for eight hours before escaping with $10,000 in cash and jewelry.

The holdup men, armed with guns and a 2½-foot length of pipe, struck male members of the club on the head as they entered. One man suffered a dislocated shoulder.

Twelve women among the guests at the predominantly Negro club were forced to disrobe, like the men, and all were herded into a back room and made to lie on the floor.

A white woman was raped by one of the Negro gunmen.

Police said a man with a shotgun stood over the men and women lying naked on the floor. Anyone who attempted to move, look around or get up was kicked. Some were pistol-whipped.

It was, in the words of one of the guests, "a bad scene."

The gunmen entered the club at 8 a.m., after the manager opened for the day and held him up, police said. Guests were seized and robbed as each entered.

Twenty-five of the victims were treated for cuts and bruises and one, Conrad Culbert, 30, was hospitalized with a dislocated shoulder.

"The members were stripped nude and all their clothes were put aside," a policeman said. "Then they were taken to a back room with pool tables and couches and made to lie naked on the floor."

"A man with a shotgun was standing over them," the officer said. "They would get kicked if they tried to run or look. This went on until about 3:45 p.m., when the bandits felt they had gotten about all they could and left."

Surgery Teacher Defends Banned Wood Pulp Drug

LONG BEACH (AP) — The drug DMSO, banned last No- Drug Administration, is not dangerous to humans, says an associate professor of surgery.

"At the worst the effects on the eye are only a minor side effect in humans," Dr. Stanley W. Jacob of the University of Oregon told an interviewer yesterday at Memorial Hospital, where he addressed the medical staff.

The FDA ordered DMSO — dimethyl sulfoxide — withdrawn when researchers noted changes in the lenses of dogs, rabbits and swine, which had been given doses 10 to 100 times stronger than those prescribed for humans, Jacob said.

His belief that the drug is safe for humans is based, Jacob, said, on animal tests under way in this country and human tests being made in Germany and Austria, where DMSO is not banned

He said DMSO, a derivative of wood pulp, appears to have varied uses — relieving pain, stopping inflammation, tranquilizing and ridding the body of fluids.

TERRA LINDANS FIND ANSWERS TO BUS STRIKE

Bus strike or no bus strike, commuters who live at and around the Meadows, Terra Linda, have got it made starting June 1.

They will travel each weekday into San Francisco aboard their own private air-conditioned express service bus.

Man behind the easy-commute idea is Peter Sterner, project manager of the Meadows.

He said today: "We planned the community bus two months ago, long before the Greyhound strike was being talked about. As far as I know it is the only private commute service in the area."

Sterner had to get permission from Greyhound Bus Lines and the Public Utilities Commission before he could go ahead.

Commute Traffic Smoothing Out As Bus Strike Goes On

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — As the Greyhound bus strike continues, commuter traffic is improving in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Expected traffic jams failed to materialize despite an additional 15,000 commuters in private cars.

Police say the reason is that commuters stretched out the peak hour load by changing arrival and departure times, extra policemen were assigned to freeway approaches, and the California Highway Patrol put in operation 30 extra cars capable of pushing stalled vehicles off roadways.

Some 5,000 bus drivers and ticket agents, members of the AFL-CIO Amalgamated Transit Union, struck Sunday in 12 western states, forcing 110,000 riders to seek other transportation.

The strike started after a contract expired and negotiations towards a new one are now under way in Washington, D.C. A union spokesman said wages average about $8,000 a year under the old pact.

Horse Club Set At Muir Beach

A group of Muir Beach residents have formed the Muir Beach Horsemen's Assn. and scheduled their first horse show for 2 p.m., May 29, at Golden Gate Dairy, Muir Beach.

The group, for youngsters and adults, is to encourage good sportsmanship and to promote horse grooming, said Mrs. Marilyn Olson, spokesman. Mrs. Evelyn Previer is chairman.

There will be 11 classes in the show, for adults and children, and it is limited to Muir Beach residents.

Absentee Ballot Deadline May 31

Application for absentee ballots for the June 7 primary in Marin County may be made until 5 p.m. on May 31, rather than until next Tuesday evening as reported in the Independent-Journal Tuesday.

County Clerk George H. Gnoss said voters who will be absent from their precinct on election day or unable to go to the polls may make application in person or in writing to his office at the San Rafael courthouse.

Astronomical Color Photography Talk Set

Natalie R. Leonard, Davis astronomer, will speak and show pictures on "Astronomical Color Photography" at the annual Marin Astronomical Society banquet at 7 p.m. Saturday at Gregory's Restaurant, Corte Madera.

Society officers, newly elected, are James C. Patterson of Mill Valley, president; John L. Richard, San Rafael, vice president; August J. Groerich, Kentfield, secretary, and Richard Durrwachter, San Rafael, treasurer.

Strep Tops List

There were 68 cases of communicable diseases reported in Marin during the past week to the county health officer, Carolyn B. Albrecht: 58 strep infections, eight mumps and three measles cases.

McINNIS LASHES AT FILL ATTACK

Upton, Warenback Say Former San Rafael Mayor Would Have Brought More Dredging

By FRANK FARRARA

John F. McInnis lashed out last night at his two opponents in the First District Supervisorial race for attacks against him on bay fill and "the physical structure of San Rafael."

McInnis's heated rebuttal came at the close of a comparatively mild candidates' night meeting featuring the three candidates, Dr. William F. Upton, Melvin Warenback and McInnis, at Mary Silveira School in Marinwood.

Upton, a member of the Bay Conservation and Development Commission, noted the commission is preparing a comprehensive and enforceable plan for development of the bay shoreline.

"Compare that sound, responsible procedure with the notorious San Rafael master plan which won such ardent praise from one of my opponents, Mr. McInnis. A section of that plan would have filled the bay all the way out to Marin Islands," Dr. Upton said.

"If it hadn't been for an aroused citizenry who succeeded in repudiating the plan, the dredges would be out there now defiling our county's front yard."

McInnis, former mayor of San Rafael, said he did praise the general plan, but didn't create it. Public hearings were scheduled so it could be adapted to the wishes of the people, he said.

"I defy anyone to find an endorsement of mine on filling the bay," McInnis said. On the contrary, he said, he has worked with state agencies on a program to recapture privately owned underwater property.

At the time that the San Rafael General Plan was being considered, there were four bay fill projects under way in the unincorporated area of the county with the approval of the county planning commission, McInnis declared.

With that comment, he glanced at Dr. Upton, who has been a member of the county planning commission for 14 years.

Warenback said he was not attacking McInnis personally, but since McInnis was seeking the office on the basis of his experience as mayor of San Rafael, he felt it was important to point out what happened while McInnis was mayor.

"The argument is not with McInnis, but what is going to happen in the county," Warenback said.

Warenback noted that half of Terra Linda was annexed to San Rafael "under the McInnis regime." Upton said the since-formed Local Agency Formation Commission "would never have approved division of a single-unit planned community" like Terra Linda.

McInnis said, "The Emporium told us they would not come unless they could get police and fire protection from San Rafael."

In his opening talk, Upton mentioned "commercial clutter like the sign mess along Francisco Boulevard East. . .an ill-conceived and dangerous traffic bottleneck like the southbound one at Puerto Suello Hill. . .and the jury-rigging that tore apart Terra Linda."

McInnis replied: "My opponents have been attacking me because of the phyisical structure of San Rafael. I didn't build the city. I changed it."

Warrenback, a director of the Terra Linda Community Services District for six years, stressed the need for looking to the future. "Our area is still being developed," he said. He urged an all-out effort to bring a University of California campus to Marin, which in turn, he said, would attract satellite industries.

McInnis proposed setting up an industrial zone creating a industrial subdivision district, and "then going out and enticing industry to occupy it."

Under this sytsem, the county could offer industry a tax concession at the start, and the industry could assume its full share of taxes later, he said.

Comments from candidates on other topics included:

SPECIAL DISTRICTS CONSOLIDATION — Upton: "The logical and sensible way to try to lower the tax burden is to try, where possible to consolidate districts and political subdivisions to eliminate unnecessary duplication of services."

McInnis: "There can be tremendous financial pitfalls in consoldiation of districts, but they can be combined where there is real advantage."

Warenback: "I feel most of the services can be most efficiently and economically provided under a single district. We have seven flood control districts and some people are paying a $1 tax rate and getting nothing for it."

TRANSPORTATION — Warenback: "We must have an interim solution and rejoin the Bay Area Transit District."

McInnis: "I see the need for a second bridge that will accommodate both vehicular and transit traffic."

Upton: "I'd be against a second bridge. That would compound the use of conventional transportation. We have to find different ways to move people—such things as bus-carrying helicopters, hovercraft and hydrofoils."

PLANNING—McInnis: "There should be a coordinated plan for development of the rest of the county." There are 11 cities and the county planning "and they don't ever speak to each other." There should be an overall program to bring together the commisisons and staffs of the 12 agencies.

Upton: "As long as 10 years ago, I proposed that there be a central coordinating planning office for the county, to which cities could come for services." He also urged adequate land for appropriate industry, a network of parks and open spaces, and undisturbed shorelines.

Before the supervisorial candidates spoke, four candidates for two seats on the Marinwood Community Services District, Donald A. Duerr, Rudolph Lang Jr., Joseph T. Monteleone and John V. Tyler, told of their qualifications.

Kitty Oppenheimer of radio station KTIM was moderator of the discussion by spervisorial candidates. The meeting was sponsored by the Marinwood Assn. and Twelve Oaks Home Owners Assn.

ON WAY TO HOUSE CALL

Dr. Herbert Songer of Lincoln, Kan., wasted no time getting back to work after suffering a broken kneecap. He was one of two physicians in the town. His wife persuaded him not to buy a motor scooter, so he removed the door of his car and had a rod attached to the clutch so he can still shift gears. (AP Wirephoto)

Plan Food Ahead

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (UPI) —Planning ahead on family food needs assures the family good nutrition, and can save money according to Louise Hamilton, Pennsylvania State University nutrition specialist. Making a week's meal plans and a grocery list at the same time can avoid impulse buying and last-minute meal combinations that may unbalance the budget and the diet. But plans must be kept flexible to allow for unexpected good buys.

Presbyterians Will Debate Alinsky Invite

Two Presbyterians will present opposing views on bringing "slumbuster" Saul Alinsky to the Bay area at a debate at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Christ Presbyterian Church, Terra Linda.

The Presbytery of San Francisco has voted $200,000 to aid in training slum dwellers to lead in their communities and has proposed bringing Alinsky, known for his work in the East, to aid in the project.

Rev. John Hadsell of the United Campus Christian Fellowship at University of California, Berkeley, will speak in favor of Alinsky's coming.

L. M. Summey, deputy district attorney of San Mateo County and member of the Portola Valley Presbyterian Church, will speak against Alinsky's being part of the urban aid program.

Redwoods Presbytery, which includes churches in Marin, is scheduled to vote on the proposal on June 4.

Abel Hits Bosses In Talk On Social Responsibility

LONG BEACH (UPI)—Labor, not management, has demonstrated responsibility and "social conscience," according to I.W. Abel, president of the United Steel Workers.

Addressing the 20th annual constitutional convention of the United Auto Workers here yesterday, Abel attacked Conrad Cooper, vice president of U.S. Steel, and Henry Ford for advocating curtailment of union power.

"It is unions like ours that have had the social conscience," he said. "We have been trying to do what we can for all of society and all of mankind."

Earlier, Abel and UAW President Walter Reuther had pledged to cooperate more closely in the common fight for labor's goals.

Abel told the 3,000 UAW delegates that his steelworkers union would work with Reuther to organize more labor and improve the union position with management.

In business sessions yesterday the UAW passed a resolution calling for the pooling of resources among different unions in multiplant corporations in making contract demands and in organizing non-union labor.

Delegates also passed a resolution in support of the National Farm Workers Assn. and its nationwide boycott against DiGiorgio Corp. food products.

Youngsters Plan Senior Citizens' Entertainment

Organized by the Junior High Youth Club, a group sponsored by the City of San Rafael, the dinner is a free event for all local citizens over 50 years old.

Guests will include Mayor C. Paul Bettini, and Joseph D. Rodota, city recreation director. Officers of the youth club will serve guests, and entertain them with music and dances.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Edna Praun of Greenbrae.

Two Use Permit Appeals On File

A permit granted by the county zoning administrator for a marina on Tomales Bay north of Inverness has been appealed to the planning commission by the Inverness Improvement Assn. and Peter D. Whitney of Inverness.

Applicant is Larry Marks Jr. of Novato.

Also appealed was a permit granted Elizabeth B. Davies for a riding academy at 1709 Indian Valley Road near Novato. That appeal was filed by Thomas M. Cunningham Jr. of Napa on behalf of his father, who owns adjacent property.

Much Talk Of Teacher Merit Pay, But Never Positive Action

Dr. J. M. Stubblebine, Tamalpais High School District trustee, on Monday night voted against a new pay schedule for the district's teachers because he felt they should come up with a merit pay plan.

"Maybe we should do away with this damn lock-step system altogether," said Dr. Stubblebine.

His fellow trustees agreed with him, and while approving the new pay schedule, instructed the teachers to try to produce a merit pay plan.

I suspect the Tamalpais board fell into an old trap. Last year, the San Rafael Board of Education did the same thing: told the teachers to try to work out a plan for merit pay. A teacher committee held a series of meetings, then reported inability to come up with anything acceptable and threw in the sponge. I wonder how hard they tried.

Merit pay for teachers has been talked about ever since the present "lock-step," as Dr. Stubblebine so aptly called it, was instituted. It is still just talked about. The school districts that have adopted any form of merit pay are so few and far between that they are virtually invisible. And I suspect they are regarded in cringing horror by both the National Education Assn. and the American Federation of Teachers.

As Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, has remarked, "An educator who comes out flat-footedly for merit pay is about as popular as Mario Savio at an American Legion convention." Rafferty has done it, nevertheless—but then, he thrives on controversy.

The Lagunitas School District Board last month made a tentative move in the direction of merit pay by offering $500 per year additional to teachers who were willing to submit to an evaluation and take a chance on their work being judge outstanding. When this was hailed in this column, a superintendent of another Marin school district upbraided me, saying, "That isn't merit pay at all."

It is, though. Anything that offers an inducement for excellence is merit pay—even if the inducement is offered on a voluntary basis and is itself very small, as in the case of the Lagunitas approach.

The present system, with pay based solely on the number of college credits and the number of years of teaching, is a perfect setup for encouraging mediocrity. Any teacher who does more than is required, under such a system, must be more than normally dedicated; for there is nothing in it for him and never can be.

All the fringe benefits go to the coaches, the counselors, the consultants, and for others who do "extra-curricular" work. The classroom teacher of excellence is frozen in the salary pattern. He knows from the start that he will never receive more than the mediocre (or even incompetent) fellow teacher who amasses the same number of college credits (regardless of the courses taken) and the same number of years of teaching.

San Rafael had an example of what happens this year. A junior high school science teacher whose work is recognized as outstanding by administrators, fellow teachers, pupils and parents quit the classroom to take a special district-wide job because that was the only way he could "break his salary out of the lock-step. He is probably doing very well at his new assignment—but if he is worth his present salary in it, he is more than worth it as science teacher.

There are many such examples. And school administrators cry constantly that the best brains in the teaching profession are being lured away by higher salaries elsewhere.

Why are they being lured away? Largely because the schools, lashed to the mast of the civil service-style, unyielding salary schedule, cannot offer them the pay to induce them to stay. They must pay them only what they pay the teachers who everybody rather wishes would quit, but who never do. Inferiority is at equal premium with superiority.

Teachers, it seems, are afraid to be evaluated for raises for fear the evaluation would be unfair. It is a sad commentary on their "profession" that they do not believe superintendents and principals are competent to rate the effectiveness of their employees.

During the San Rafael merit pay discussion, one San Rafael High School teacher was heard to say, "Do you think I want a coach to evaluate me?" Yet this teacher apparently had no objection to having the "coach"—Principal Alfred N. Thomson, a former coach — recommend her for tenure. Of course, she probably was well aware that under the present tenure law, he could do little else.

I do not find myself in agreement with Max Rafferty every day in the week, but he hit the nail on the head when he wrote:

"There will be no permanent improvement in the caliber and quality of teaching in these United States until we educators stop thinking of ourselves as so unique and special that the ordinary processes of evaluation and promotion do not apply to us."

Don't hold your breath, though, Max!

Male Fireflies Use 'Go' Signal

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — Male fireflies blink green lights for "go" when they land near passionate females, a biologist reported in a talk here.

Dr. William D. McElroy, who teaches biology at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md., also said male fireflies use orange landing lights and can flash their identities in code.

McElroy is one of the world's leading authorities on various forms of insect and marine life. He said fireflies may hold the key to the mystery of life in that by studying fireflies man may find how muscular reaction and brain function are transmitted.

Ruby To Undergo Sanity Hearing

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Texas' highest criminal appeals court has ordered "without further delay" a sanity hearing for Jack Ruby, the condemned killer of presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

Ruby ignored news of the ruling that may save his life, his sister, Mrs. Eva Grant said.

She went to his Dallas County jail cell to tell him, shortly after the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals made its ruling Wednesday.

Mrs. Grant said she felt that her brother's mind had deteriorated so much that he could not comprehend the significance of the ruling.

Protestants Gain Members

WASHINGTON (UPI) —For the second consecutive year the Roman Catholic Church has lagged behind Protestant groups in membership growth in the United States.

The official Catholic directory for 1966, published yesterday, reported that the nation now has 42,246,000 Catholics—an increase of 606,000, or 1.3 per cent, over last year.

But Catholic membership growth during the past year failed to keep pace with the U.S. population, which is growing at a rate of about 1.5 per cent a year.

Manager Denies Tiburon Offer

City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose today denied that Tiburon has been offered reversionary rights to 7,200 feet of Northwestern Pacific Railroad right of way.

"Although I imagine that the city would like to have the property," Rose said, "it has not received an offer from anyone for the rights."

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr said Tuesday that the reversionary rights, now held by Francis Newton and Associates, had been offered to the city of Tiburon for $50,000. The property in question is about 60 feet wide and runs from Trestle Glen Boulevard to a point 100 feet beyond San Rafael Avenue and Tiburon Boulevard.

Keep Ferns Lighted, Moist Inside House

NEW YORK (UPI) —Fern make fine indoor plants, but they need a little simple care.

They do best if kept well lighted but shielded from direct sunlight. And they also like humidity. To keep ferns moist, it's wise to keep them in trays paved with a half inch of pebbels. Water the trays to the tops of the pebbles or the bottom of the pot and the plants will be happy.

Off-Site Assembly Grows In Construction

NEW YORK (UPI) —One new construction trend is the development of off-site assembly of housing components.

Among the components now available are roof trusses and entire wall sections complete with finished windows. For apartment houses and some luxury homes, wall sections consisting of laminated layers of sound-deadening board, urethane insulation and gypsum wallboard are being factory assembled and shipped to the construction site.

Firing Of State Aide Upheld By High Court

The State Supreme Court yesterday upheld the 1963 firing of Lester H. Hingsbergen of San Rafael from his job as Northern California investigator for the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Hingsbergen, of 32 Dellwood Court, was fired in June, 1963, during a department scandal. Since then two of his superiors have returned to their jobs. An order to reinstate him was issued in March, 1965, by San Francisco Superior Court, but this was overruled by the District Court of Appeals the next month.

A decision yesterday by the State Supreme Court upheld the appellate court's ruling, which said there was cause for dismissal because Hingsbergen refused to cooperate in a departmental investigation and used department employees and trucks for the benefit of state officials.

The Supreme Court also upheld the appellate court's ruling that San Francisco Superior Court Judge Joseph Karesh should not have acted as a trial judge in ordering Hingsbergen's reinstatement, but should have merely reviewed evidence presented by the State Personnel Board.

119-Year Search Fails To Uncover Treasure

LOS FRESNOS, Tex. (UPI) —Treasure hunters have searched for 119 years without success to uncover the wealth of the Mexican Army buried near Los Fresnos in 1846.

A retreating band of Mexican soldiers buried their personal jewelry, money and loot on the south bank of the Resaca de la Palma and buried the troop's pay wagons on the nearby battlefield before fleeing from Gen. Zachary Taylor and his men.

Infantry Trainees Given Airplane Ride

FT. GORDON, Ga. (AP) — Time was when a foot soldier began training by walking. Now the first thing the Army does is give him a ride in an airplane.

The Third Training Brigade, Infantry, is using two C119 airplanes to give the recruits some airborne training — to stimulate interest in the voluntary airborne infantry program.

Brezhnev Hits U.S. 'Cruelty' In Viet Nam

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev charged the United States today with "beating all records of cruelty and cynicism" in the Viet Nam war.

Speaking in Vladivostok, Brezhnev said the Soviet Union and other Communist countries "do not limit themselves only to moral support of Viet Nam."

"Our aid has concrete character," he declared.

Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin ended an eight-day visit to the United Arab Republic and flew home to Moscow after joining in a call with Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser for the United States to stop bombing North Viet Nam.

WARENBACK TO BE SUPERVISOR

Melvin S. Warenback

Endorsed by C. Paul Bettini

MAYOR OF SAN RAFAEL

"We need Mel Warenback to represent the First District on our Board of Supervisors to guarantee a continuity of the progressive policies that have been established during the last few years."

Endorsed by Byron Leydecker

INCUMBENT FIRST DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

"There is a man I am pleased to support who has done an outstanding job in the First District. He is Mel Warenback, the best candidate for the job."

Civic leader for 9 years

Eleven years resident of Marin. Eight years active in First District participation. Six years on the Terra Linda CSD board, two years as Chairman. Instrumental in forming the CSD to bring urban services to a then isolated community. Instrumental in creating a Park and Recreation District and in passage of bonds to develop parklands. Coordinated efforts with County Planning Commission to preserve proper zoning and County's Local Agency Formation Commission to resolve boundary and annexation procedures. Developed CSD's use of County's Data Processing to reduce administrative costs and expedite procedures. Helped form Marin Transit District. Participated in Joint studies with San Rafael Public Works in resolving mutual traffic problems in new areas. Served on Dixie School District Finance Committee. Worked jointly with Sheriff's office, District Attorney and Highway Patrol on Juvenile and traffic problems. Member, Marin Council for Civic Affairs; Charter Member, Civic Center Lion's Club; Charter Member, Northgate Lodge B'nai B'rith; Founding member, San Francisco Aid Retarded Children.

A Supervisor who will care!

"I will consider it a major responsibility to make certain your Board of Supervisors continues to keep Marin's programs ahead of its problems . . . at costs we can afford, and always be alert to find new and better ways to increase efficiency in government administration and services.

Beauty is Marin County's most important natural resource. We cannot afford to lose it. We have to develop Marin; we have to do it now—but always with foresight and integrity."

Melvin S. Warenback

"It will be my intention to protect and further the interests of the people of the First District, to make myself available to your representatives at all times, and to call for joint meetings of all First District groups at least four times a year."

taxes

We can get more for our present tax dollar by better County administrative and department coordination, increasing personnel efficiency and by eliminating overlapping and duplicating taxing authorities.

university campus

A location in the North Bay area is being considered now. This is our cultural future. It can mean 20 years of building, developing and full employment. It is the key to orderly county-wide planning! It is the answer to our desire for a proper balance of industry, conservation and property tax relief!

a million visitors a year!

They will be coming! Conventions, regional fairs and livestock exhibitions and Pt. Reyes National Park tourists—all year 'round! We must plan now! It will reduce our property taxes by millions of dollars!

roads and traffic

We must have fast, cheap mass transit systems for Marin! Over land and over water—and be prepared to rejoin the Bay Area Rapid Transit District. Our county roads are a mess. We must take advantage of available funds to "un-bog" them.

flood and fire control

Thousands of dollars are lost and hundreds of homes are jeopardized annually, due to inadequate fire protection and flood control programs. Many communities have only brush and grass fire protection—including the Civic Center—where structural fire protection is needed. State and Federal flood control funds are available, and we must employ them—now!

youth programs

Scores of responsible citizens throughout Marin are eager to participate in county-wide youth programs. The County is equipped to assume the role of leadership. We have the funds; we have the staff. The future depends on today's youth!

Marin . . . itself . . .

It will be my intention to do everything I can to preserve the characteristics that have earned for Marin County, the world-wide reputation as one of the finest places to live.

HEARS CONVICTION — Gertrude Baniszewski breaks into tears beside her attorney, William C. Erbecker as a jury convicts her of first degree murder in the torture slaying of Sylvia Likens. (AP Wirephoto)

Torture Death Jury Finds Mother Guilty

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — A jury convicted a mother of seven and four teen-agers early today in the torture slaying of Sylvia Marie Likens.

The panel of eight men and four women found Gertrude Wright Baniszewski, 37, guilty of first-degree murder and recommended life in prison.

The woman's daughter, Paula, 18, was convicted of second-degree murder. Mrs. Baniszewski's son, John, 13, was convicted of manslaughter.

Two neighbors of the Baniszewskis, Coy Hubbard and Richard D. Hobbs, both 15, were convicted of manslaughter.

Mrs. Baniszewski broke into tears as the jury returned its verdict after eight hours of deliberation. The trial began April 18.

All five defendants were charged with first-degree murder in the death last Oct. 26 of Miss Likens, 16. The prosecution had sought the death penalty. The girl was boarded in the Baniszewski home while her parents operated a food concession at carnivals.

The state charged Miss Likens was beaten, burned, brand-ed and starved for two weeks before she died. Testimony indicated her body bore 150 wounds, including cigarette burns and a crude letter "S" branded on her chest.

Car Taken, Found

A 1958 Chevrolet, stolen from near the residence of owner Ted Joachim Baer, at Kappas Yacht Harbor, Waldo Point, was abandoned two hours later on Drake Avenue, Marin City, sheriff's officers reported today.

Senior Citizens Tax Bill Shelved

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Hopes of about 150,000 elderly homeowners for a $21 million tax break starting next year have been dashed by the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee.

It sent the administration bill to between-sessions study, thus killing it for this year.

The measure would have applied to those 65 or older with incomes of less than $3,350 a year who are trying to pay heavy local taxes and at the same time keep their homes.

It would have returned part of their local property tax, based on a sliding scale, with the state footing the bill.

Tahoe Sewer District Bill Passes Assembly

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly gave final passage today to a bill that will allow establishment of assessment districts to finance sewage systems at Lake Tahoe.

Sent to the governor's desk was a measure by Assemblyman Carley V. Porter, D-Compton, that follows other bills — already signed into law — to make state loans for building a sewage system at the lake.

Archbishop Honors Marin Young People

Two Marin young people were among those honored at the seventh annual Archbishop's Awards Dinner at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco last evening.

Mary Francis Pinheiro of Novato and John Bruemmer of San Rafael received awards for service in the Catholic Youth Organization. All of those awarded in the four-county Archdiocese of San Francisco received bronze medals bearing the coat of arms of Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken and the recipient's name.

Chimp Kidney Works In Human

ROME (AP) — A kidney transplanted from a chimpanzee to a critically ill youth is working "admirably" 11 days after the operation, the doctor on the case says.

Prof. Paride Stefanini said Wednesday night it was impossible to say whether the 19-year-old patient would survive but results so far warrant "prudent optimism" over such transplants in the future.

Stefanini told a news conference he was forced to use an animal kidney for the transplant because the patient's condition was too critical to wait for the right kind of kidney from a dead person. Italian law prohibits transplants from live persons.

Cushing Says Protestants, Catholics Leaving 'Ghettos'

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing said today that both Roman Catholics and Protestants had emerged from their "own ghettos" and are now forging a united Christian front in the world.

Appearing before United Presbyterians assembled from across the nation, Boston's Roman Catholic archbishop said "the whole picture has changed" regarding church relationships in swift, surprising ways.

"Until just a few years ago," he said, "we all lived in our own ghettos. Why, we were hardly speaking to one another."

But now, he added, "we pray together, work together, have dialogue together and meet with one another," all in the interest "that we may present a united front in our critical times."

About 1,500 Presbyterians gave a standing ovation to the cardinal, the first prelate of his rank to appear before the denomination's nation-wide legislative assembly.

"Our division into countless units has been a scandal over the centuries to us all," Cardinal Cushing said, "and certainly a scandal to the multitudes without number in the pagan world."

Referring to the Presbyterians as "brothers in Christ and Lord," the cardinal said that when fellow Christians get together they find they "agree on more things than they disagree on."

While organic union is not yet in sight, he said that the way is now clear for a common front in carrying out the "obligations of the gospel of Christ in the solution of world-wide problems of concern to us all."

As the Presbyterians took up their legislative work, advocates of reform appeared to hold sway as indicated by their choice of a new moderator, their top-ranking officer.

Railroad Asks Car Passenger Rail Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — Florida-bound motorists, may be offered something new in transportation next year.

The Commerce Department is toying with the idea of testing an auto-rail service with automobiles carried in double-decker railroad cars between Washington and Jacksonville, Fla.

Government officials say it could be possible to cover the more than 700 miles in 12 hours at a cost competitive with the cost of driving.

Under the purely tentative proposal, the automobile would act as the passenger's seat on the train.

Robert A. Nelson, director of the Commerce Department's Office of High Speed Ground Transportation said the decision to test the system first on the Florida route was based on the amount of travel to Florida by persons who want to use their cars once they reach their destinations.

Nelson noted that similar systems have been tried successfully overseas but experiments in this country have thus far proved fruitless.

A Baltimore & Ohio experiment last year between Washington and Chicago, he said, brought a very small volume of traffic.

The Washington-Florida traffic would involve the design of a new-type railroad car. Here's how Nelson described it:

"These rail cars, perhaps equipped with food-vending machines, and certainly equipped with comfort facilities would transport about eight cars on two levels. The rail cars would have to be air conditioned and would have to permit movement of passengers to and from the vending machine room and to rest rooms. Automobiles would enter from ramps adjacent to the railroad cars."

Senate Told U.S. Has To Keep Europe Force

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Harvard professor challenged today Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansield's proposal that the United States withdraw all but a token force of its troops from Europe.

Dr. Thomas C. Schelling, former consultant to the State and Defense departments and the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, told a Senate inquiry the United States must keep a strong force there "whatever else happens to NATO."

"What we still have and must keep is the physical presence of American troops in Europe in sufficient numbers to make clear that they are a real force, not a token force, and that in case of military action they are there to fight and not merely to sound the alarm," he said.

Mansfield had said in an interview Monday the United States "could maintain our presence in Europe with only a token force. One division should be enough."

Schelling said although Russia's aggressiveness has been the security problem of the past 15 years, "the problem of the next 15 years in Europe may be the division of Europe."

History and geography make Germany a "focus of apprehension," he said, and "the challenge to the alliance is going to be the German problem."

Yet, he added, Germany could gain a role in world leadership at a single stroke "if it were willing to lead the campaign toward nonproliferation of nuclear weapons, rather than to hold it back."

Rock Throwing Girl Captured

A 17-year-old girl who allegedly had been chucking rocks at the Sleepy Hollow residence of an ex-boyfriend, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital yesterday for a minor foot cut suffered while fleeing a deputy sheriff.

Officers said the girl also had collapsed, apparently unconscious from lack of breath in the brief chase, but recovered before the summoned San Anselmo Fire Department could arrive.

She was booked in Marin County Juvenile Hall for being beyond parental control. Officers said the boyfriend complained she was throwing rocks and harassing him by telephone calls.

FAA Tells Of Fines Levied Before Crash

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Aviation Agency said today the supplemental airline that lost one of its planes near Ardmore, Okla. April 22 in a crash that killed 83 persons paid fines of $18,236 for violations committed in a five-year period ending in June, 1965.

The most recent payment was March 15, when the FAA accepted the offer from American Flyers, Inc. of $9,961 in settlement of nine violation charges filed against the company since March, 1964.

The latter group of violations, the FAA said, included operation of a four-engine Constellation airplane on six occasions with a leaky fuel tank, and use of an airplane with seats improperly fastened on 12 flights for the Military Air Transport Service in a 12-day period.

Other violations charged included failure to make an airplane's log book entry regarding airworthiness on release after maintenance inspection, inadequate inspection of maitenance, failure to provide exterior exit markings, failure to compute center of gravity after distribution of fuel in a plane's tanks, and permitting a non-authorized person to inspect maintenance work and sign a release.

In June, 1965 the airline paid a $700 fine for improper maintenance of a nose-gear assembly and for operating a plane with an engine inoperative while two passengers were aboard who were not crew members. In February 1965 the airline paid a $500 fine for improper record keeping.

Other fines included $950 for 15 instances involving operations, and $6,125 for maintenance violations.

There were 15 survivors of the Ardmore crash, which killed 77 soldiers and six crew members.

The plane was preparing to land at Ardmore to refuel on a flight from Monterey, Calif. to Ft. Benning, Ga.

CAB Vice Chairman Robert T. Murphy is opening a hearing on the accident at Ardmore May 25.

Tiburon Group Backs Park Bond

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council last night gave an unsolicited endorsement to the county park bond issue.

The council endorsed the issue after Marin County counsel Douglas J. Maloney spoke in favor of the bonds. He said he was not at the meeting to seek an endorsement, according to Mrs. Jacqueline Parnell, secretary, "But after a long question and answer period, we gave him a hearty one anyway."

The council also asked Mrs. Parnell to write the State Division of Highways to find out its plans for extending and widening Tiburon Boulevard.

Mother Sues On Air Death Of Soldier

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP) — The mother of a soldier killed in the April 22 crash near Ardmore, Okla. of an American Flyers airplane filed a $1.5 million damage suit yesterday against American Flyers Airline Corp.

Atty. Joseph Ledonne of Tulsa filed the suit on behalf of Mrs. Jean M. Stallbaum, Philadelphia, mother of Joseph R. Stallbaum, 17.

A $1 million suit against the airline was filed Tuesday in Chicago by Mrs. Tina Lara, widow of Richard Lara, another soldier who died in the crash.

Seventy-seven soldiers and six crew members were killed in the crash.

Rain, Hail, Winds Clobber Northeast Texas Region

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy rain, hail and destructive winds raked sections of northeastern Texas today.

At Henderson, a community of about 10,000 persons some 100 miles east of Dallas, the storm had tapered down to a light rain, but earlier more than four inches of rain fell in the area in an hour. There also were 50-mile-an-hour winds and hail.

At Shreveport, La., east of the Texas line, nearly two inches of rain fell in an hour.

Thunderstorms hit other sections of the South and portions of the Appalachians last night and today.

There were some rainy spots in other sections along the Atlantic and Gulf states.

Clear skies dominated the weather pattern elsewhere in the country.

At 2 a.m. the lowest reported temperature reading in the country was 31 degrees at Cheyenne, Wyo., and the warmest was 87 at Thermal, Calif.
